Fort Hays State University Faculty Senate
Agenda for Regular Meeting on Tuesday, 4 March, 2014

2. Announcements and Additional Information

Linn Ann Huntington from AAUP was invited to attend and discuss the bargaining unit. The MOA defines faculty workload will be 24 credit hours in an academic year. NNT faculty are full time with benefit but on a tenured track position. Hammond met with AAUP asked for NNT to be redefined last fall. Departments have the option of hiring NNT of 5/5 courses or 36 hours per academic year. AAUP was alarmed that this was presented to AAUP by the administration. Not only is Hammond proposing but this is also happening within the university up to 8/8 load. AAUP is sending out a paper survey that is anonymous finding out this information: demographics, what is your current load, have you taught an overload, would NNT be required to do research instead of teaching (this should be handles by the department chair.), do you support this workload definition change for NNT. Two voting locations Wednesday RH366 8-4 and Thursday lobby of library 8-4.

Huntington is concerned with service load of NNT faculty, who picks up this slack.

Goodlett asked about merit pay or raises for NNT's. Question asked - 35% of FHSU faculty is NNT. The MOA starts negotiation's next Monday. The next major MOA overhaul is 2016. Administration isn't following MOA with failure to adhere to MOA guidelines. Repercussions could include a lawsuit.

Crawford stated to have new virtual NNT, not on campus classes. FHSU has been doing this with the China Classes.
