IV. Executive Reports

a. President

Welcome Back Old and New Senators. Over the summer: attended Board of Regents meetings. In July attended Board of Regents retreat and discussed lots of issues the most important of those being academic advising. Also participated in Back to School Picnic, President's Cabinet meeting. Also prepared for first meeting and worked on organizing office. Sunday the 19th attended (along with Vice President Engel, Executive Assistant Diana Ohl, Legislative Action Director Tyler Hughes) the Memorial Union Opening Dinner. Also helped executive staff get settled. Working on getting more senators. 15 senators presently, 11 applications of potential new senators have been received and 3 more are expected tomorrow. Will have that bill ready for next week's meeting.

b. Vice President

Read resignation letters of former senators Philip Van Horn and Randy Leer. Second item of business is office hours; President Gillogly passed around office hours sign up sheet. Allocation recommendations are available for all senators please review.
