Here's Agnew Hall

For snacks there is a kitchenette and vending machines. Coin operated washers and driers are located in the basement. Ironing nooks are located in several places around the hall. Sewing machines are provided for your convenience.

The parlor contains stereo, color TV, and piano. Bicycles are available at the desk along with other recreational equipment.

Hello — I'm TIGER, Fort Hays State's symbol and mascot. (I say that in all modesty, of course). The girls at Agnew Hall have asked me to say something to introduce you to their residence hall. I enjoy doing that because FHS has one particularly GRRREAT group of girls—those who live in Agnew Hall.

When I visit the girls they tell me they rreally like their rooms because they can arrange the furniture and decorate to suit individual tastes. Each room has a telephone so I can call my favorite Tigress at any time. (Or she can call me).

Agnew girls believe that getting an education means more than just going to class and studying. So with the help of trained staff and elected officers the girls (over a hundred of 'em) develop a variety of individual and group activities that are educational and fun, such as the annual "tot watch" pictured here.

Beside that there is a recreation room with ping pong, TV, hair dryers, and card tables.

Study lounges are available for girls who want a quiet place outside their rooms.

For a real life picture, come and visit the Agnew girls. They welcome you as they do me.
