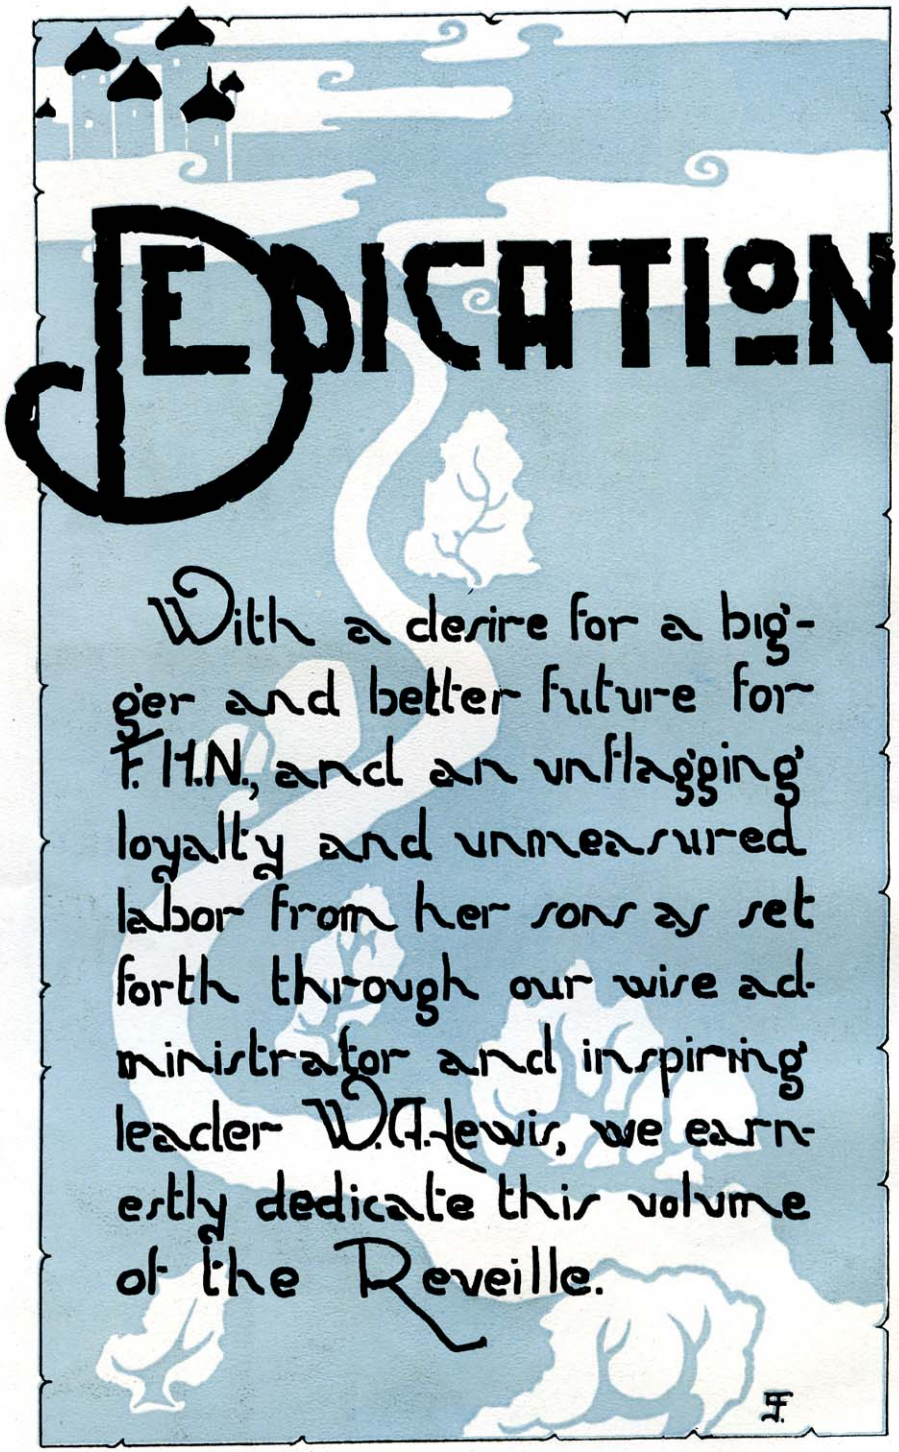
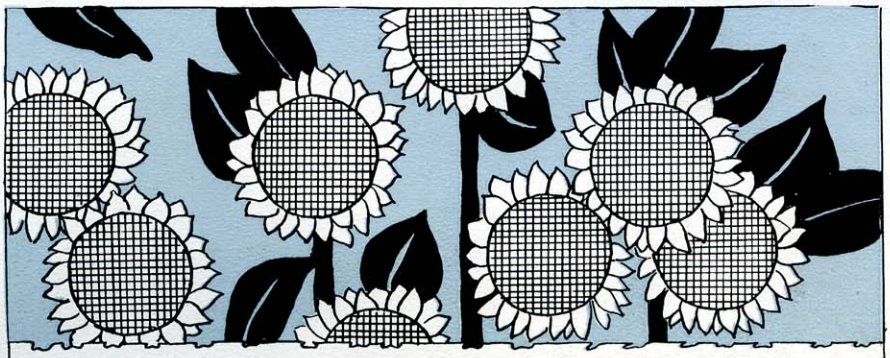
Senior Class



DEDICATION
With a desire for a bigger and better future for F.H.N., and an unflagging loyalty and unmeasured labor from her sons as set forth through our wise administrator and inspiring leader W.A.Lewis, we earnestly dedicate this volume of the Reveille.



FOREWORD

To preserve in our memories in an enduring and organized form the personnel and activities that gave us inspiration and desire for service through a bigger and better future for the Fort Hays Kansas Normal School has been the purpose in preparing this REVEILLE of 1923

ADMINISTRATION

Board of Administration

THE State Educational institutions of Kansas are controlled by the State Board of Administration. The present members of the board are:

JONATHAN DAVIS, Governor . . . . Topeka
E. L. BARRIER . . . . . Eureka
E. N. UNDERWOOD . . . . . Atchison
A. B. CARNEY . . . . . Manhattan
A. A. DOERR, Business Manager . . . Larned

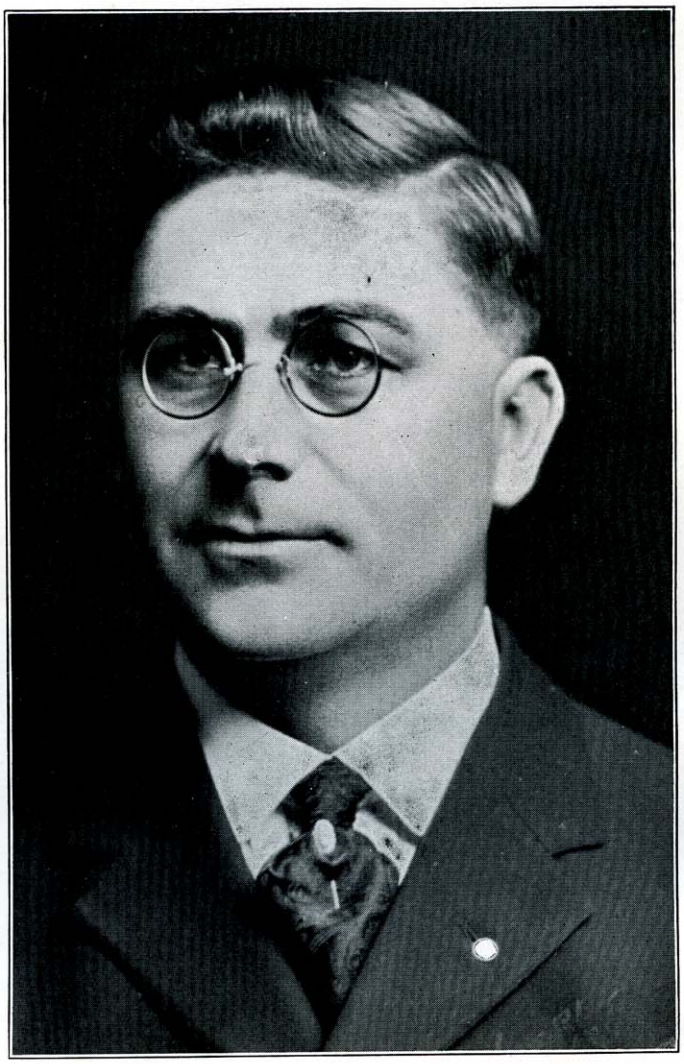
This Board has shown a deep interest in our school and we are grateful to them for it. We lost a great friend by the sudden death of Mr. Kimball, former Business Manager, but hope to find as worthy a friend in Mr. Doerr, who fills the former's vacancy.



WILLIAM A. LEWIS, B. S., A. B., LL. D.

President W. A. Lewis, B. S., A. B., LL. D.

PRESIDENT William A. Lewis came to us from the University of Utah. He is a Missouri man, having been reared on a Missouri farm and receiving his elementary education in a country school and a town high school.

He graduated from the Chillicothe Normal and Business College, taught a country school, and later graduated from Valparaiso University. He was a student at the Armour Institute of Technology, and took special work in both the University of Illinois and the University of Wisconsin.

He taught in the High School at Warrensburg, Missouri, and the State Normal School at the same place. He taught Chemistry in the Central High School of Kansas City, in Kansas City College of Pharmacy and at the State Demonstration Farm in the Missouri State Normal. Then he occupied the chair of Industrial Education, was Professor of Agriculture and director of the State Demonstration Farm at the University of Utah.

President Lewis came to our institution in March, 1914. Since then the college has developed and increased until it is now ranked among the best.

We hope that our school will have a bigger and better future, as exemplified, in all that is good and worth while, by our beloved President.

GEORGE J. WOODWARD,
Coach and Director of Athletics

WILLIAM D. WEIDLEIN
Line Coach

Coaches

"Rook" and "Bill" have for three years made athletic teams out of material fit only for farm use, in a manner which justifies any claim they may make to creative powers. If they are with us next year we hope to produce material worthy of their efforts and outshine all previous accomplishments attained by the Fort Hays Normal.

The standing and recognition which the Fort Hays Normal receives in athletics is due a great deal to its efficient coaches. They work hard and faithfully to build up the Tiger teams. They not only strive to develop winning teams, but "Tigers" that are known for their good sportsmanship above everything else.

The confidence of the student body, faculty, and the entire squad in the ability of "Rook" and "Bill" to develop good teams creates great enthusiasm for all sports.

EMERSON FELTS

Cheer-leading became a fine art this year with Emerson Felts leading the rooters. The cheering was always organized and "pep" reigned supreme. The rooters never quit rooting whether the team was losing or winning.

The old cry of "Let's give 'em fight!" sounded by Emerson, undoubtedly brought a response which showed alumni visitors and the visiting team that the old spirit of F. H. N. lived again. "Pigeon" was always on duty, whether it was on the athletic field or in the auditorium cheering the debators.

Football Squad

Ottawa, 18-13

The football season of 1922 opened October 7 on the F. H. N. gridiron with a victory for the Tigers over the Ottawa Baptists.

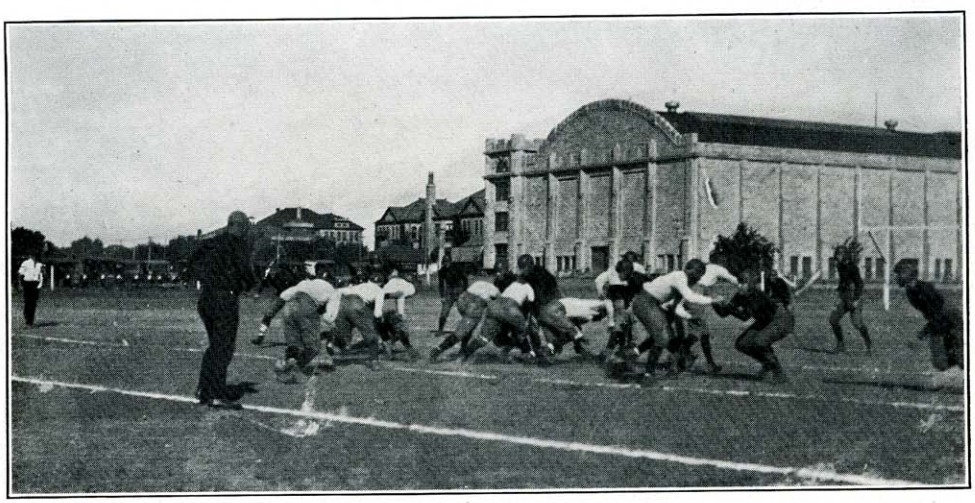
The first half found the Tigers vigorously applying themselves to the college game, true to the form handed down by the F. H. N. Football Conference Champions of 1921.

The Tigers started the scoring by crossing the line for two touchdowns. The score at the end of the first half was 12 to 0.

Ottawa came back the third quarter fighting furiously and succeeded in crossing the line when Shoger recovered a blocked punt and ran for a touchdown.

Early in the fourth quarter luck was again with the Baptists when a pass was completed after the Tigers' safety had knocked it into an Ottawa man's arms, who ran for their second touchdown.

With the score 13 to 12 the ability to come back was demonstrated by the Tigers when by straight football they made three successive first and tens carrying the pigskin over the line to victory.



McPherson, 14-16

The "Tiger"-"Bulldog" game played on the McPherson field October 15 resulted in a defeat for the Tigers. The first defeat for the Tigers in the Conference in two years.

The Tigers scored in the first few minutes of play when McPherson fumbled the kickoff and the Tigers recovered. Shade used his toe for the extra point, first quarter ending 7-6. Both teams scored during the second quarter. Score—Tigers 14, Bulldogs 13. The only score made the last half was a drop kick by McPherson winning the game.

During the second quarter an attempt by the Bulldogs to gain by an end run resulted in a fumble, which Rardin of the F. H. N. picked up and ran for a touchdown.

The game was played in a field of mud and during a rain and windstorm, causing numerous fumbles.

Twice during the game the Tigers were held for downs on the three-yard line.

Kansas Wesleyan, 3-0

The home-coming game was won by the Tigers after fifty-nine minutes and fifteen seconds of give-and-take football.

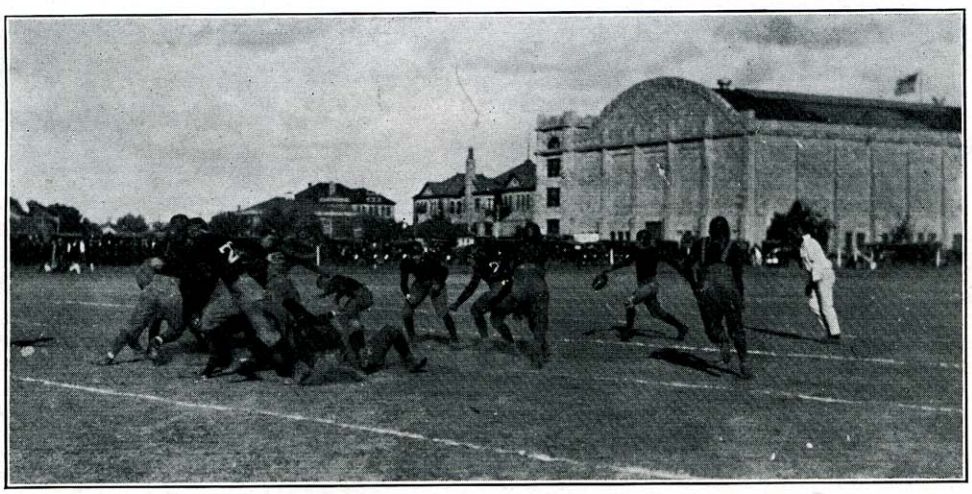
The score came with less than a minute to play when Barnhart returned Cannon's punt from the Tigers' twenty-five-yard line to the Coyotes' twenty-one-yard line. Then followed a penalty of fifteen yards giving the Tigers the ball on the six-yard line.

Two line plays placed the ball on the three-yard line. Shade then drop-kicked from the fifteen-yard line for the three points which won the game.

The Tiger interference during Barnhart's great carry back of Cannon's punt worked as it never had before.

Shade, Opdycke and Conger tore through the Coyote line for many good gains. Captain Albert gained three firsts in ten by successive plunges.

The Tiger "never-say-die" spirit again carried the Gold and Black to victory.



St. Marys, 0-21

The second defeat for the Tigers in two years was administered at St. Mary's when the heavy St. Mary's football machine, remembering the scores of previous years, met the Tigers with "blood in their eye," winning after sixty minutes of hard-fought football.

Kelley and Riley were injured during the game. Riley sustaining a broken jaw, which kept him from playing the remainder of the season.

Even with the big score against them, the Tigers fought to the last whistle.

Pugnacity is the Tigers' middle appellation. They never know what the word "quit" means.

This game was Riley's Waterloo, but he will fight his weight in elephants. Would rather play one minute in a football game than be crowned queen of Ireland. He always waged a bitter and gruelling fight until fate called him off with a shattered mandible.

His opponents found him full of fight to the last whistle.

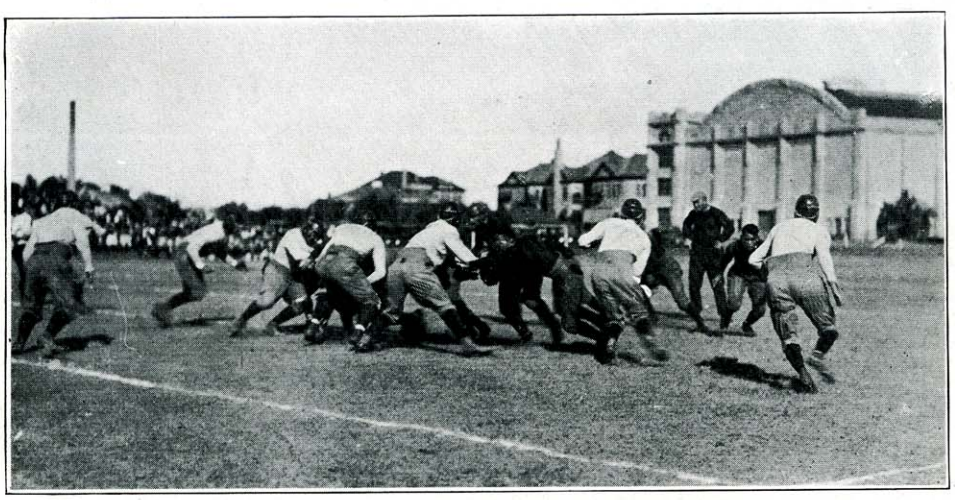
Bethany, 0-7

A lone touchdown beat the Tigers on November 3, when the Swedes carried the ball over in the first ten minutes of play. The game was played on a field of mud, thus cutting down the chances for carrying the ball with any success. The Swedes opened strong at the start scoring by a short pass into the end zone and kicking goal from placement for the other point. From that time on neither team had an opportunity to score. A punting game which gave neither side the advantage was waged during most of the game. Reed, Byrd, Lorbeer and Schneider played an excellent game.

Shade did some wonderful punting and compared with the Swede "booter." The results being Bethany 11 punts for 219 yards, while Hays punted 11 times for 360 yards.

A slippery ball and heavy footing slowed the game, but nevertheless both teams showed signs of being in the game every minute.

All the players showed fighting spirit throughout the game. Although much advancing was impossible because of the mud, efforts in making passes and punts made the game an interesting one.



College of Emporia, 3-3

The last game away from home was played on the College of Emporia's gridiron, resulting in a tie score with both teams retiring from the field dissatisfied.

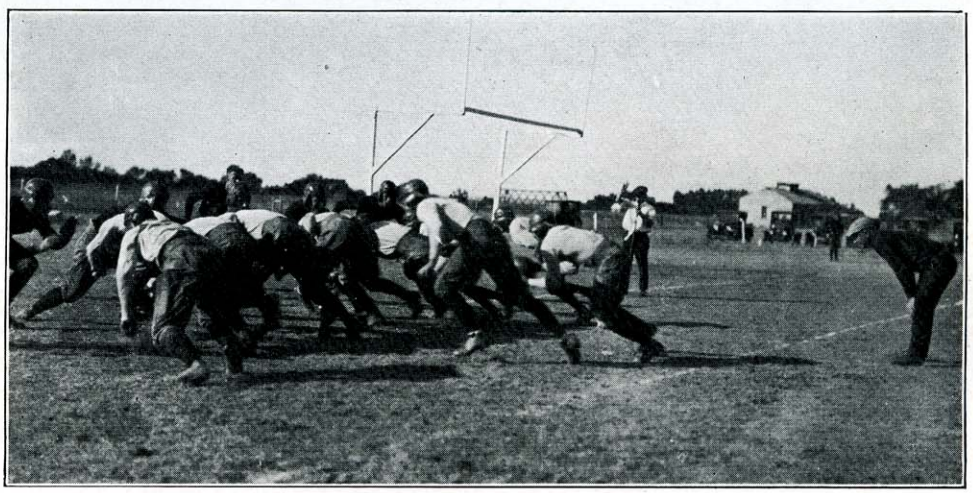
The game was hardly contested and interesting but lacked the climax of victory.

It cannot be said that the Tigers lacked the "pepper" because a muddy field greeted them, accompanied by eleven huskies who later in the season won from the strongest in the Conference. F. H. N. scored in the first half when Shade used his toe for the three points from the 25-yard line.

The Presbyterians made their counts during the last quarter.

During the game the Tigers advanced the ball to C. of E.'s six-inch line, but were unable to push it across for the six points.

The game from the bench might have been deemed a defensive game, both sides being unable to gain much ground.



Fairmount, 0-7

The last game ended in a defeat for the Tigers when Guthrie, fullback for the Shockers, intercepted a forward pass on his own twenty-two-yard line and ran seventy-eight yards for a touchdown. The other point was made via the drop-kick route.

Only once during the game were the Shockers within scoring distance, while the Tigers carried the ball inside the Shockers' fifteen-yard line four times during the last half, but were unable to score. The Tigers made ten first in tens while Fairmount made but six. The plunging of Captain Albert, the return of punts by Shade, and the line played by Byrd made them the outstanding players for the Tigers.

Looking back over the season's scores we feel that the record is one which justifies every man who had anything to do with the making in throwing out his chest and asserting his right to exist. We do this, and more, too, in prophesying an even more brilliant showing next year.

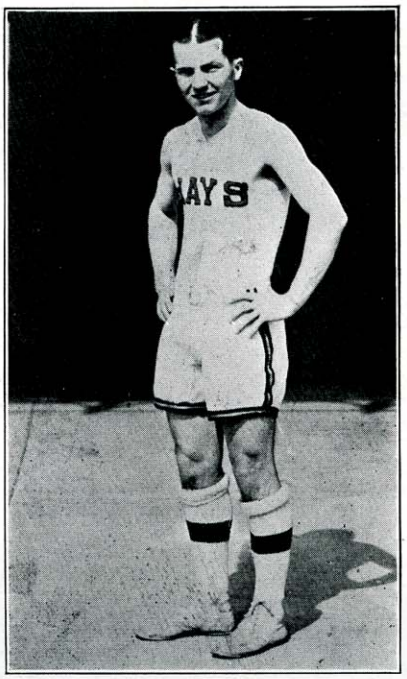
Basketball Squad

Rardin, Cowan, Riley, Shade, Barnhardt, Lorbeer, H. Opdyke, Hinkhouse, L. Opdyke, Schneider.



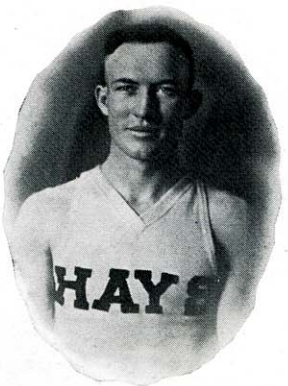
CAPTAIN LEROY OPDYCKE

"Uppie" has a winning way on the floor. The "big" chief hasn't a white feather in his war bonnet. Never was a slave driver more unrelenting in driving his men on and never did a slave driver have more willing slaves. Assays 100 per cent fight.

FLORIS SHADE

"Shady" spilled 'em, knew all the points of inside basketball and he had the faculty of using his knowledge and ability where they counted most. This habit grew on him as the season advanced, much to the delight of the rooters.

"Riley" is looked upon as a dinosaur, or something equally as fierce, among the Kansas Colleges. No goose flesh ever roughened Wilbur's epidermis over a game. He seems to take great pleasure in outdoing his opponents.



WILBUR RILEY

KENNETH HINKHOUSE

"Hink"—A plethora of altitude, and paucity of latitude, acted somewhat as a handicap for Hinkhouse. Extraordinary grit, perseverance, and adaptibility made him, however, one of the most valuable men on the squad.

"Dutch"—His vigorous silence on the court gave him his energy for determined, defensive playing and accurate shooting. He played the game with the vim and pep that tickles a coach enough to make him hug a cactus.

ERNEST LORBEER

AUDREY BARNHART

"Barney" loomed up in his first season as a tower and a red fence. Training was a tenet in his religion. Consistency in strenuous playing was a headliner in his make up.

"Abe" applied himself vigorously to the college game and was one of the steadiest and most consistent players on the team, and at times he displayed brilliant flashes of form which rank him as one of the best players seen on our floor this year.

Miss Ellis came to the Fort Hays Kansas Normal School in 1919. Since she has had direction of this department the organization or courses for special certificates in physical education has been completed. Miss Ellis offers many theoretical courses as well as the regular classes in general floor work, dancing and team games.

It is through Miss Ellis' interest and co-operation that the Women's Athletic Association has been established and properly organized. Every member has a love and admiration for her and appreciates her valuable assistance.

JOHN RIEDEL,
Business Manager

The Reveille this year has been financed in three ways: By the sale of three hundred and fifty books; by the sale of organization and panel space, and by the advertising which the book carries. The staff is proud of the fact that this year established a highwater mark in the matter of advanced sales.

The plan of the book has been conservatism, mechanical and editorial correctness, and a desire to include as much as possible in as new and attractive a manner as we know. We have tried to make the cuts uniform and to preserve page balance.

The Leader

THE LEADER, the laboratory product of the Journal classes, is a four-page weekly student newspaper.

This year marks a new era in the life of this student publication in the fact that it was changed from a bi-weekly to a weekly paper.

The copy was furnished by the Journalism class the first of the year but during the last semester the editor had to depend on contributions from the student body.

It is the purpose of the editor and staff to publish the school news of the campus and to run cuts that the students will like to keep. The Leader issues its humorous publication April Fool week.

Art Lover's Club

The Art Lover's Club was organized primarily for the students majoring in Fine Art, but later included a few others vitally interested in the Arts.

Meetings are held every other Friday afternoon. The subjects for discussion have included contemporary artists and their work, going especially into the graphic art, as well as painting and sculpture.

The different phases of home decoration have been studied, including period furniture, draperies, and rugs. In each case an interesting exhibit was provided, each member having become familiar with the subject in hand prior to the meeting. The club also sponsors the various Art Exhibits held on the campus.

Observation

Did you ever notice this:
When a fellow steals a kiss
From a righteous little miss, calm and meek;
That her scriptural training shows
In not turning up her nose,
But just simply turning round the other cheek?

Boyd: "I hear Tony is engaged to a giddy young fool."

Lois: "Yes, and the ring hurts my finger terribly."

First Stude: "Do you know my friend Ralph Conger?"

Second Ditto: "Yeh, I used to sleep with him."

First Stude: "Roommates?"

Second Ditto: "No. Classmates."

Edith: "I hear St. Peter is going to resign his job."

Anna: "How is that?"

Edith: "Oh, the reformers are preaching that thousands of beautiful girls are going to hell every day."

"I am going to be married."

"To whom?"

"A student."

"Oh, dear, I'm disappointed."

"So am I, but a poor girl has to start somewhere."

She: "Do you like fishballs?"

He: "Don't think I ever attended any."

Ila: "Oh, what a stunning necktie!"

Ed: It must be—the salesman got four dollars out of me while I was still dazed."

"Very well. How much are you going to leave her?"

"No," said a native, "We never boast of it."

Premonitory Senior: "So you didn't propose to her after all?"

Another Senior: "No, and I'm not going to. When I got to her house I found her chasing a mouse with a broom."

The people gathered in admiring throngs around King Bogus. They shouted his praise and as one great voice the great cry arose: "All hail the king!"

But the king, hearing this, turned to the people and said: "How can you hail when I'm reigning?"

Chaperon: "Why did you tell him you had to go to the dressing room for some cold cream?"

Co-ed: "I had to do something to get the chap off my hands."

ALL IN THE FAMILY.

Personal.—If Mr. Spivis, who left his wife and baby twenty years ago, will return to his former address, it would give the baby great pleasure to knock his head off.

"Why do you object to my marrying your daughter?"

"Because you can't support her in the style which she has been accustomed all her life."

"How do you know I can't? I can start her on bread and milk, same as you did."

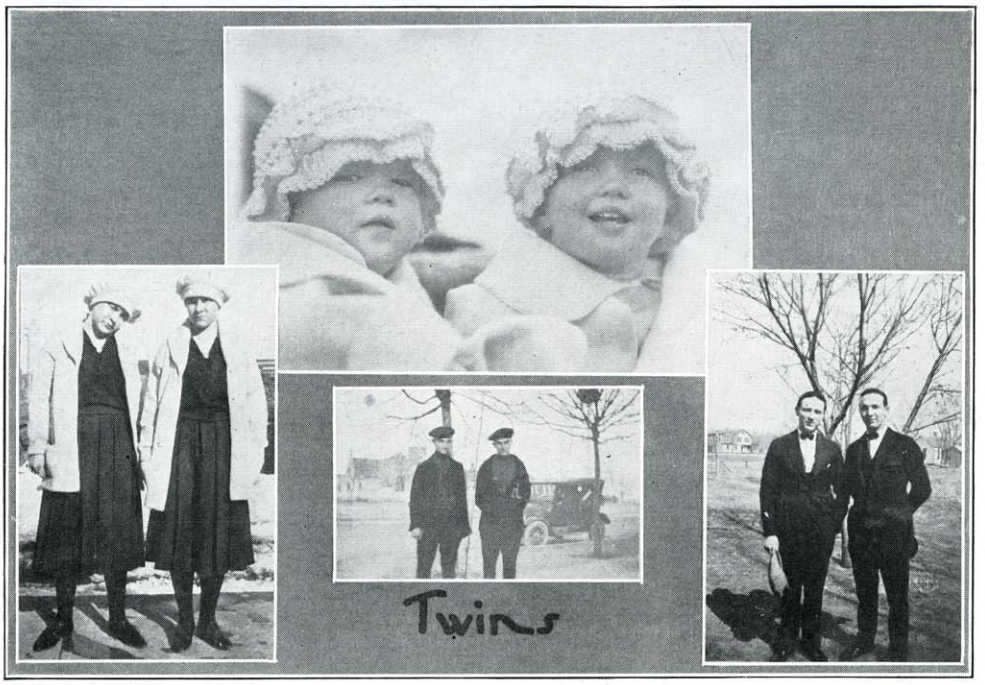
Pork: "Why did you name your child Montgomery Ward?"

Beans: "Because he's of the male order."

Design Arch: "I'm rendering a bachelor's house."

Science Plebe: "What's funny about it?"

Design Arch: "No Eves."



PROFESSOR'S LIMP

One day Prof. Wooster was walking down the street when accidently he allowed one foot to drop in the dry gutter. Thinking deeply on some obscure subject, he unconsciously continued walking with one foot on the sidewalk and the other in the gutter. A friend seeing him stopped and said:

"Good morning, Professor. How are you feeling this morning?"

"Well," said Mr. Wooster, "when I left home this morning I was feeling quite all right, but during the last few minutes I notice I have a limp in my left leg."

A GOOD MANY OF THESE

"What is Mr. Schneider doing these days?" questioned the man who just got home.

"Oh, he's working his son's way through college," returned the other.

RIGHT

"The man who gives in when he is wrong," said the street orator, "is a wise man; but he who gives in when he is right is—"

"Married," said a meek voice in the crowd.

Charlotte: "You don't call me cutie any more."

Bob: "No, girlie, that word is too reminiscent of life in the trenches, he replied."

Fond Freda (entertaining a fond beau):

"Did you count the petals of a daisy to see if I loved you?"

Fond Beau: "Nope, I used a three-leaf clover."

IGNORANCE IS BLISS

"Say Bill, you ought to keep your curtains pulled down. I saw you kissing your wife last night."

Bill: "That's one on you: I was down at the Arcade bowling last night."

"Pet's going to sue the company for damages."

"Why, what did they do to him?"

"They blew the quittin' whistle when 'e was carrying' a 'eavy piece of iron, and dropped it on his foot."

The Hays doctor coughed gravely. "I am sorry to tell you," he said, looking down at the man in the bed, "that there is no doubt you are suffering from smallpox."

The patient turned on his pillow and looked up at his wife.

"Julia," he said in a faint voice, "if any of my creditors call tell them that at last I am in a position to give them something."

"I bought a car in here several weeks ago," said Asa Popp, "And you said if anything went wrong you would supply the broken parts, didn't you?"

"Surely."

"Well then, I'd like to get a nose, a shoulder blade, and a big toe."

Doctor: Now you see what comes of eating green apples when your mother told you not to.

Boy: I didn't eat 'em cos I liked 'em. I ate 'em to find out why she told me not to.

She took my hand in sheltered nooks,
She took my candy and my books,
She took that lustrous wrap of fur,
She took those gloves I bought for her,
She took my words of love and care,
She took my flowers, rich and rare,
She took my ring with tender smile,
She took my time for quite a while,
She took my kisses, maid, so shy—
(She took, I must confess, my eye)—
She took whatever I would buy,
And then she took another guy.

A Midnight Game

The football game was over, and before the parlor grate
A maiden and a man were lingering rather late.
They talked of punts and passes, things which were rather tame,
Till Cupid put on his nose guard and butted in the game.
He lined that couple up and made them toe the mark,
Soon he had them going with scrimmages in the dark.
As they sat there in silence in their new found bliss
The man thought the scrimmage ought to end with a kiss,
Thereupon he tried one, an amateur affair
But he lost it on a fumble, and instead it hit the air.
The next landed on her ear and the maid did shyly say
You're penalized for holding and likewise off side play.
Fiercely he tried another this time succeeding fine
For he made a touchdown on that warm red five yard line.
As they sat there in silence communing soul to soul
The parlor door swung open and father kicked a goal.

Freda: Are late hours good for one?

Earl: No, but they're good for two.

Grace R. I never kissed a man in my life, and if I had I wouldn't tell.

DIPLOMACY

Experienced Husband: "Well, I called mine 'Say' for the first year, and after that everybody called her 'Grandma.'

THE HAYS CHAMBER OF COMMERCE believes in the Fort Hays Kansas Normal School, an institution exemplifying unselfish service, basis of a creed to which all organizations of a public nature must subscribe in order that their existence may be justified.

THIS ORGANIZATION RECOGNIZES the Fort Hays Kansas Normal School as the most potent agency in western Kansas now devoted to the development of the future citizenry of the state—students today, tomorrow the masters.

SINCE THE SCHOOL WAS FOUNDED its great influence has been interwoven with every achievement of worth that has gone into the history of this city. The record of the coming years shall bear likewise the imprint of its labors.

BOTH WORKERS IN A COMMON CAUSE, sharing the same obligation of public service and acknowledging identical ambitions, the Fort Hays Kansas Normal School and The Hays Chamber of Commerce together look confidently to the future.

Where Kraft Built College Annuals are Produced

THE HUGH STEPHENS PRESS, home of Kraft Built College Annuals, is the largest, uniquely equipped modern plant in the West, specializing in the production of the highest type of college year books.

Surely there is something besides excellent printing and binding, faithful performance of contract, and intelligent co-operation, that draws, year after year, more annual staffs of the large universities and colleges "into the fold" of the Hugh Stephens Press.

Perhaps it is as one visiting editor expressed it, our "ideal organization working in an ideal plant, ideally located," that gives character to the annuals we produce.

The orchid, rarest of flowers, is produced only when all conditions are favorable to its growth. The near-perfection of Kraft Built annuals is the result of careful craftsmanship under ideal conditions.

The "Hugh Stephens Press folks" know what an annual staff is up against. Our Service Department renders expert assistance as part of our printing contract, and supplies the staffs with a complete system of blank forms, together with a handsome ninety-page Manual Guide dealing with the latest methods in advertising campaigns, business and editorial systems for College Annual production.

Helpful advice and ideas are given on art work for Opening Pages, Division Sheets, Borders and special sections, combining Kraft Built bindings, inks and papers into beautiful and artistic books—SUCCESSFULLY EDITED AND FINANCED.

Eat Ice Cream Every Day
Instead of a Special Treat.

There is more nourishment in a pint of ice cream than an equal amount of almost any other kind of food.

Instead of eating ice cream on Sundays only, or for special occasions, eat it every day. You love it on hot days. It tastes better than anything else. The fact that you crave it shows that you need it. Nature calls for the foods that we need. Ice cream is the very best food you can eat. It builds health and vigor.

Appreciation

Our task is finished. The Reveille, 1923, takes its place among the records of our Alma Mater. It is our earnest wish that the contents of this book may ever revive pleasant memories of our days spent at F. H. N.

We are grateful to Mrs. Roberts and the following members of her art class for the color sheets: Esther Gordanier, Nellie Sites, Beulah Richardson, Althea Sims, Charlotte Bowlus, Ethelyn Weaverling and Sylvia Ferguson. To Earl Oyer goes the credit and thanks for the cartoons. Mr. Rankel has given a great deal of his time in taking group pictures and snapshots.

All the members of the staff have spent much of their time in making this book possible and we greatly appreciate their help.

Without the hearty co-operation of the business men in town our book would have been a failure financially.

And to every student and owner of a 1923 Reveille we give our thanks.
