File Agnew Hall

April 27, 1966

Dear Doctor Jellison

I am writing this letter to request written permission for the men of Agnew Hall to wear bermuda shorts at the evening meals during the week.

Past experience indicates that the term bermuda shorts should be spelled out so that cut-offs and other types of shorts in poor condition are not worn. In your letter of permission would you please define the term bermuda shorts as you have in similar letters to the other residence halls.

Your prompt attention to this matter would be greatly appreciated.

Sincerely

Roddy Sutton
