VOLUME XII

FORT HAYS KANSAS NORMAL SCHOOL, HAYS, KANSAS, THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 7, 1918.

NUMBER 1.

College Men Enter Army

TRAINING CORPS FORMALLY ORGANIZED AT GENERAL ASSEMBLY. IMPRESSIVE INDUCTION.

Captain Dennis Delaney in Command

Fort Hays Kansas Normal began military training, Tuesday, October 1st, 1918, when one hundred and sixty-three men were inducted into the Student Army Training Corps at Hays, Kansas.

All men who had previously registered for entrance into the S. A. T. C. were lined up in front of the Sheridan Coliseum, which is used for barracks, and marched across the campus to the Administration building, where they formed in columns of eight deep. Not only the men in the school were present, but the young ladies who also took the oath of allegiance.

Captain Delaney made a short talk to the body, impressing upon those present what a big step they were taking. He also spoke of the duties which may fall upon each one to render to his country. Following Captain Delaney's talk, President Lewis made an address upon what would be expected from each one present.

The speeches of President Wilson and Secretary of War, Baker, were read by Captain Delaney.

A STRENUOUS VISITOR.

Epidemic Comparatively Light Here "On Duty" Once More

Although much is still heard about the Spanish influenza it is now a thing of the past so far as the S. A. T. C. is concerned. October 11th was the date of the last case reported here. From September 26th until that time there were 116 cases.

The boys ought to consider themselves lucky for being at Hays instead of some of the other army camps. The death rate at most camps was very high, while here there was only one case, that of Private John F. Harkin, which proved fatal. A complication of pneumonia resulting from the influenza was the cause of this death.

The onset of the influenza was very sudden. The ones who felt the best one day were sometimes the sickest the next. The cases were treated according to symptoms, which were pains in back, head-ache, fever, ranging from 101 to 104, severe cough and cold on the lungs.

Six rooms on the third floor of the Coliseum were made into a hospital. There were as high as seventy cases at one time and it was no small task to care for them. The boys received the best of care and much credit is due Lieutenant C. H. Hatfield, surgeon in charge, and his three assistants.

At the present time the hospital is without a patient. Only two of the boys, Emmett Benent and Matheny J. Copeland, are unable to be at their work. These two received operations for empeza, a complication of influenza, and it will be only a short time until they are back in their usual places again.

When the epidemic first started a quarantine was placed on the S. A. T. C. prohibiting the boys to leave the campus. Although this seemed like a small territory at first, plenty of ways were soon devised to put in the evenings. The quarantine was lifted Saturday, November 2.

School work for the S. A. T. C. was resumed Monday morning, Oct. 28, and almost everyone says he feels like getting busy now. During the two weeks just passed everything has been put in readiness to do more work than ever before in order to make up for lost time, according to authorities in charge.

MILLION AND A HALF DOLLARS

Of Insurance Bought in Fort Hays Training Detachment.

$1,520,000.00 of insurance was taken out by the Fort Hays Training Detachment. Only nine men in the entire detachment did not take the government insurance. The remainder of them, with the exception of four took the limit, $10,000.

Captain Delaney urged every man to avail himself of the opportunity for this cheap and good protection for the home folks, offered by Uncle Sam. The Captain's zeal in interesting the men in the matter was greatly appreciated by the latter.

F. H. K. N. IS PART OF NATION'S WAR PROGRAM.

SEVENTY COUNTIES REPRESENTED IN TRAINING DETACHMENT STATIONED HERE. ELLIS HEADS THE LIST. ROOKS A CLOSE SECOND—MEN LISTED HERE.

Uncle Sam Gives Intensive Training in Many and Varied Branches.

Ellis County heads the list by sending twenty-four students to the S. A. T. C. Followed closely by Rooks County's twenty-two. Logan sent fourteen, Rush thirteen. The following counties sent five or more to-wit: Gove, eight; Graham, seven; Sheridan, six; Trego, seven; Reno, six; Rawlins, eight; Pottawatomie, six; Thomas, five; Pawnee, five and Cheyenne, six.

The others came from fifty-six different counties of the State and one county in Nebraska.

In the two sections seventy counties are represented.

Many of the names suggest derivations from Germany, others have distinct Scotch-Irish sounds. One name even honors a town in Kansas.

Of the big cities, Wichita, Kansas City, Atchison, Leavenworth, Salina, Hutchinson and Fort Scott are represented.

Following are the lists of names in the two sections of the S. A. T. C.

TO THE STUDENTS' ARMY TRAINING CORPS.

The step you have taken is a most significant one. By it you have ceased to be merely individuals, each seeking to perfect himself to win his own place in the world, and have become comrades in the common cause of making the world a better place to live in. You have joined yourself with the entire manhood of the country and pledged, as did your forefathers, "your lives, your fortunes and your sacred honor" to the freedom of humanity.

The enterprise upon which you have embarked is a hazardous and difficult one. This is not a war of words; this is not a scholastic struggle. It is a war of ideals, yet fought with all the devices of science and with the power of machines. To succeed you must not only be inspired by the ideals for which this country stands, but you must also be masters of the technique with which the battle is fought. You must not only be thrilled with zeal for the common welfare, but you must also be masters of the weapons of today.

There can be no doubt of the issue. The spirit that is revealed and the manner in which America has responded to the call is indomitable. I have no doubt that you too will use your utmost strength to maintain that spirit and to carry it forward to the final victory that will certainly be ours.

WOODROW WILSON.

CLASSES ELECT OFFICERS

Officers of Student Assembly and Council are Elected.

The classes of the Fort Hays Kansas Normal School met and were organized Friday, September 27. Class officers and members of the Student Council were elected and each class nominated one member for the chairman of the Student Assembly.

The election for the Student Assembly was held Wednesday, October 2nd. Merle Caswell was elected chairman; Wiley Compton, vice-chairman and Alma Dewesenberry, secretary-treasurer.

The officers for the classes are: Senior College—President, Mary Brull; Vice-President, Clara Wolf; Secretary-treasurer, Mary Norris.

Sophomore College—President, Victoria Unruh; Secretary-treasurer, Freda Helm.

Freshman College—Senior Academy—President, Floyd Creighton; Vice-President, Miss Sperry; Secretary-treasurer, Iona Goetichus.

Junior Academy—President Lee Wider; Vice-President, Nellie Mummert; Secretary-Treasurer, Nellie Mummert.

Sophomore Academy—President, Mildred Nolls; Secretary-Treasurer, Grace Rae.

Freshman Academy—President, Mae Patterson; Vice-President, Mr. Von Feitz; Secretary-Treasurer, Alice Davis.

Student Council.

Senior College—Jessie Scriven, Ada Law, Margaret Chittenden.

Sophomore College—Lula Germann, Agnes Arrington, Victoria Unruh.

Junior Academy—Carl King, Bruce Whitney, Dewey Lancaster.

New Editor Chosen by Board.

The board of control of THE LEADER met in President Lewis' office at the first of school and unanimously selected Agnes Ruth Arrington to be the managing editor for the school year 1918-1919. She is to succeed John F. Lindquist who is now in France with the American armies. Miss Arrington brings to the school paper those qualities for which the publication has stood in the past and much valuable training as a member of the staff of last year. Miss Arrington is identified with many school activities and everyone knows her. It is expected that she will make journalism her life work.—P. C. H.

Foot Ball Vies With Band

COACH SPEER'S "FIRST CLASS FIGHTING MEN" AND THE ZEAL OF MR. MALLOY'S MUSICIANS KEEP "PEP" GOING

First Game May Be With Ft. Riley

The arrival of Mr. Flu at the school this year caused much havoc in the football squad and in the ranks of the band. The band has, with government assistance, recuperated to a very much improved state, but the Flu still has a strong hold on the fighting strength of the football men, who are also afflicted by sore arms from the vaccinations.

Not a single man on the team escaped the ravages of the Flu, and those who were least affected show up best in the practices. It seems that the most athletic of the victims had the most severe cases. Captain Compton, Coach Speer and Paul Davis being the longest on the sick list.

Coach Speer is of the opinion that this year's team, whose material was the best yet offered, could have easily upheld the laurels won by last year's eleven. Of that ever-victorious team are Compton and Spencer remaining in the present lineup. The S. A. T. C. brought in many high school stars of the gridiron, who under a coach like Speer would have developed into pig skin heroes.

In the back field this year are found Compton (Captain), Schroeder (Q.), Byrd, Frogge and Clark, the latter a punter and thrower of unusual ability for his experience. With such men as these behind the line it assures a fast game.

The line contains such men as "Red" Spencer, Davis, Allen, Connelly, Vesper, Zeigler (C.) and others Conger, Gibson, Chittenden and Staab will take care of the end positions.

It can readily be seen why Coach Speer terms this year's squad "first-class fighting men", as to the foot ball standpoint, if they were only in good condition and entirely over the effects of the flu.

The Fort Hays School is greatly handicapped this year in scheduling and playing games by the distance (not "interval") separating them from other schools, the closest being 100 miles. Games are being scheduled with the "Medics" at Fort Riley, Baker University, Bethany and Fairmount Colleges.

The football situation is the same in all schools. The vaccinations and inoculations make it very dangerous to expose the men and utmost care must be utilized even for practice work. As a result the certainty of any game is very dubious. The Fort Riley game at that place is the most probable.

Since the detailing of the men in the band and football, more punctuality and regularity is seen in attendance. The football men must either be present at football practice at 5:00 or at drill at the same hour. Foot ball men are also temporarily excused from K. P.

The band is especially helped as the boys must be at practice at four o'clock and remain until five, after which they report for drill. In spite of military orders the boys show a deep interest in the band work.

The band is in charge of Henry Edward Malloy, who has so successfully conducted the band and chorus work at the F. H. N. for the past four years. He is very enthusiastic over the talent and ability shown by the members of his organization, only four of whom are old members.

Below is given a list of the members and the instruments which they play.

Cornets—McDaniels, Wollner, Miller, Lewis, Crabtree, Adams.

Alto—Oxley, Archer, Bartlett, Timken.

Baritones—Lacerte, Groat.

Porter, A Tenor; Bemis, Trombone; Traylor, Bass Trombone.

Tubas—Grass, Seuser.

Drums—Currier, Neve.

McAdams, Flute and Piccolo.

The band is assisted by:

Clarinets—Mr. Albertson, Mr. Parker, Mr. Sims, Orton Sims.

Cornets—Mr. A. Brumitt, Mr. A. Doling, Mr. Caswell.

Mr. Ap—Alto; Mr. R. Bissing, Baritone.

Other boys will probably be detailed for the band as there is a great deal of musical talent not yet assigned.

The Fort Hays Kansas Normal School is what it is, not because of any act of the legislature, the board of administration, or the president, but because God and geography made it what it is. This school must be of necessity more composite than any of the others because alone and single handed, without that aid of any other institution, or denominational college the Fort Hays Kansas Normal School serves the empire of Western Kansas.—Former Governor E. W. Hoch.

Honor to Whom Honor.

THE LEADER wishes to take this opportunity to express to the Hays Chamber of Commerce in a public way the appreciation of the Fort Hays Kansas Normal School for the work of the Chamber of Commerce during those strenuous first weeks of September when the school was establishing its Student Army Training Corps.

Even though this is November and the first number of THE LEADER is late because of the epidemic and the events of that early strenuous time are no longer news, yet THE LEADER wishes to assure all businessmen in Hays that the school will long remember what they did for it then.

The advent of the Student Army Training Corps into the military and college life of the nation is of significant importance.

It marks a new epoch in military life in that new recruits are tried out and their metal determined in the colleges. It is, therefore, more "up to" the men themselves to determine how far and in what direction they advance than would be possible in the larger and differently conducted army camps. It puts a certain zest into college life and class room work to know that every member of the S. A. T. C. is a competitor for high standing and that we who are not so fortunate as to be army men, must compete with that brand of industry and earnestness and not be found lacking.

Col. R. I. Rees, chairman of the committee on education of the War Department speaks of the S. A. T. C. as an experiment. It is this and its work is being more highly perfected every day. Military direction may be said to be a synonym of efficiency. The War Department in its role of educator will not stop until this efficiency is attained.

It is the part of every S. A. T. C. man and every student of the Fort Hays Kansas Normal School to strive to attain individually, the efficiency Uncle Sam demands of his army. We are living in an age of great opportunity. Our chance is at hand. Who can afford to fail in seizing it?

ARROWHEADS.

One recruit in the S. A. T. C. had learned his "General Orders" and supplemented by his one version he preceeded to live up to the orders to the letter. At mess his appetite was enormous and when his mates twitted he said, "My orders are to take charge of all government property in view."

French—"Question" in French is feminine, but "Questionnaire" is masculine.

When asked not long ago by a member of section A. of the S. A. T. C. if there was any way to get out of the S. A. T. C. Captain Delaney informed his questioner that there were two methods. The youthful soldier inquired what they were. The Captain replied casually: "Natural death or suicide."

New Faculty Member Arrives

Roy Rankin, the new member of the faculty, is in charge of the Chemistry and Physic department as successor to J. W. Reed. Mr. Rankin received his degree, B. A., M. A. at the University of Kansas, and has been graduated twice at the Kansas State Normal School, Emporia. He took post graduate work at Harvard University, has had fifteen years administration work in Kansas and has been superintendent of the Hoisington schools for seven years. Mr. Rankin will move his family to Hays in the near future.

J. R. Dawson who is in the non-commissioned officer's school of the Marine corps at Paris Island, South Carolina, arrived in Hays, Friday, Sept. 20, to visit his sister, Mrs. W. A. Lewis, left for his work again Thursday, September 26.

LIVING IN THE BARRACKS.

"Every Man His Own House-Keeper" Uncle Sam's Slogan For Army Men.

"Give me that broom next," is a request frequently overheard in the S. A. T. C. Barracks at about 6:10 in the morning. The boys have dressed and finished their morning ablutions and are doing their daily house cleaning stunt.

"Every man his own housekeeper" is the rule of the army. The boys must make their beds and keep the space around their bunks clean. They sweep all the dirt into the center of the floor where it is picked up by the B. Ps. (barracks police). A squad is detailed each day for B. P. duty.

On Saturday, when the weather permits, all bedding must be carried outdoors and aired.

The bunks are arranged by squads in their order as near as possible. That is, the first squad have their bunks together at the east end of the platform; the second have their's adjoining the first on the west, then the third squad and so on around the horse shoe platform.

Many of the boys slept on the cement floor for about a month after their arrival, but a limited shipment of cots was received and all sleeping on the cement received a cot. The boys sleeping on the wood floor of the new platform continue to sleep on the floor.

The past week has noted a considerable change in the conduct of the boys in their quarters. The lack of employment in the evenings caused them to resort to all sorts of "high jinks" which gained such momentum that the hilarity did not cease after taps and many a cat and dog fight (vocal) was staged in the darkness. Since the advent of supervised study however, the performers have played to an unattentive audience as the majority of the students are ready to "hit the hay" as soon as possible after being released and do not wish to waste a single minute of precious sleep by listening to the feline defiance of a canine tormentor.

Worked For Permanent Income.

The permanent income amendment to the Kansas state constitution which was voted on at the election Nov. 5th provided for the legislature to establish a mill tax for the support of the five state schools.

These schools organized a state wide campaign under the direction of the Kansas State Council of Defense for the adoption of this amendment. Ed T. Hackney, representing the University of Kansas, was made chairman of the campaign committee. Lee Harrison was chosen executive secretary. P. Caspar Harvey of the Fort Hays Kansas Normal School was chosen as director of publicity and Miss Georgina Wooton of the same school was selected to make the campaign poster. Mr. Harvey had his headquarters at Kansas City, Kansas, and during August and September made frequent trips from Hays. Miss Wooton began work on the poster while she was still in Indiana. At the time THE LEADER goes to press it has not been ascertained whether the amendment has carried, but political guessers are all of the opinion that it has received enough votes to insure a mill tax support of all five state schools.

War Lectures to S. A. T. C.

A series of interesting war lectures has been given to the S. A. T. C. during the period of quarantine. These are preparatory to the War Aims Course which all members of the S. A. T. C. must take.

Lectures will be under supervision of President Lewis, Mr. Parker, Mr. Shively and Mr. Harvey.

President Lewis presents the causes for which each country entered the war, and the different aims of each country.

Mr. Parker discusses the historical phase of the war, showing the many controversies and steps leading up to the present war.

Mr. Shively gave his lectures on the psychology of the war, explaining why the German people are such and also how it is possible for Germany to do as she does.

Mr. Harvey's lectures deal with literature as the expression of principles which have developed into the present world struggle.

Although the course was not completed, the lectures were interesting and instructive, and have been a great help to all the fellows in preparing for the extensive War Aims Course.

Miss Flanders Has Returned

Miss Marion Flanders returned from Plymouth, New Hampshire, Friday evening, Nov. 1, to resume her work as gymnasium instructor at the Fort Hays Kansas Normal School. She will give the girls a new course this year consisting of regular gymnasium work, soccer and military drill.

The Schedule For The Day

Upon the arrival of the soldiers and students of the Student's Army Training Corps at the Fort Hays Normal School everything took on a military air and all must work and play by schedule now. From the first call at six o'clock till "taps" at ten o'clock the boys are hard at work and under military regulations all the time.

The change of program went into effect Wednesday, Oct. 2, when the morning classes were called twenty minutes later so the boys would have one hour in the morning for military drill and two hours in the afternoon for activities.

The boys of both sections rise with the whistle at six o'clock. There is twenty minutes for calisthenics, then mess at seven o'clock. The men of Section A have drill from 7:45 to 8:45, while those of Section B drill from 7:30 to 8:30. Section A has classes till 4:55 with an hour off for dinner at twelve o'clock while section B has vocational training till 4:40 with an hour off for dinner at 12:15. The boys who are in the band or who take football go to practice at four o'clock. At five o'clock there is an hour of military drill and then mess at six o'clock for the boys of both sections. After supper Section A is free till taps at ten o'clock while Section B has two hours of supervised study at 7:30 till taps at ten o'clock.

The girls have had to make their programs conform to those of the boys.

Although there are few girls in school the boys say they make their presence felt in classes. And the girls say the boys will have nothing on them when they begin their military drill.

Y. W. C. A.

The Y. W. C. A. will meet on Thursday night, Nov. 7, in the Y. W. C. A. rest room. This room is on the third floor of the administration building No. 25. Mrs. Ruth Davis will lead a splendid meeting it is expected. It is urged that all girls and women of the school attend and become identified with the Y. W. C. A. work. The meetings are held every Thursday night at 7 p. m. which will give members of the Community Chorus ample time to reach rehearsal on time.

A week of prayer which is a part of the World Fellowship Week of Prayer will be observed under the auspices of the Y. W. C. A., beginning Sunday, Nov. 10. Miss Germann is very anxious that all girls attend and take part in the ten minute prayer meetings each day at 11:45 in the Y. W. C. A. rest room.

ALUMNI.

Miss Maude Carter is teaching in Eskridge.

The Marquette school of which Miss Ethel Peppiat is teacher, succeeded in winning prizes at the County Fair.

Miss Alta Garrett is teaching English in Oakley.

Miss Fern Reemsnyder who is in Kansas City taking nurses training is very ill with influenza. Mrs. Reemsnyder is in Kansas City caring for her.

Miss Luella Davenport asks that her "Leader" be sent to her in California.

Miss Beatrice Dowe Kirkman is in charge of school and community music in WaKeeney.

Faculty Members to Salina Meeting.

The division of the state teachers' meeting which is to meet at Salina during the Thanksgiving holidays will have a representative number of the faculty here in prominent positions. Mr. Shively will be the president of the entire meeting and will preside over the general meetings at which all the teachers in one-fourth of Kansas gather. Mr. Harvey will have complete charge of the publicity of the entire meeting and will also be the chairman of the meetings of the teachers of English. Miss Condit will preside over the roundtable of the domestic art teachers and Miss Wooton over the art teachers' meeting. President Lewis will present the amendments to the state constitution as the representative of the board of directors of the state association.

"They're All Dolled Out"

It makes very little difference how brave a man is—he is not listed in civil life as a soldier until he wears the "olive drab". The uniforms came on the 18th of last month and were issued on the following day. On the 22nd of October one hundred United States 30 caliber, model 1917 rifles were received.

Following is a list of what has been issued to each member of the S. A. T. C. Two pair breeches, cotton Q. D. one belt, waist web; 1 coat, cotton Q. D.; 1 hat cord; 2 pair drawers, woolen 1 hat service; 1 pair leggings, canvas; 2 pair shoes; 2 pair stockings, woolen; 2 undershirts, woolen; 2 shirts, olive drab; 1 sweater, Red Cross.

Have you a Checking Account?

Every year there comes up some item of expense on which you have no check.

Every once in a while you are called on to show proof that a certain bill or account is paid.

Almost every day someone loses change out of his pocket or loses his purse.

Very frequently money is taken from people's houses.

All this can be averted by carrying a Bank account with us, and using your check book for reference—besides your money is in a safe place.

S. A. T. C. SUBSCRIBES TO LOAN.

$3750 in Bonds bought by Fort Hays Training Detachment.

The subscriptions to the Fourth Liberty Loan were exceptionally liberal among the men of the Fort Hays Training Detachment. At the close of the drive on Saturday night, October 19, the records of C. W. Coolbaugh, detailed by Captain Delaney to handle the loan here, showed $3750 subscribed.

The total number of purchasers was seventy-two, showing that one out of every four men subscribed. Alvin J. Walters, Milford L. Ford and Clayton T. Trivett took $100 bonds. The following seventy-nine each took a $50 bond:

- Captain Dennis Delaney.
- E. E. Burke.
- Ray O. Bement.
- Alford M. Coover.
- Floyd L. Dougherty.
- Elgie L. Firewood.
- Clarence A. Gilbert.
- Frederick J. Jay.
- James E. McCune.
- Dewey J. Traylor.
- Clyde T. Acre.
- Ralph E. Adams.
- Clarence E. Agnew.
- Glenn H. Allen.
- David Alm.
- Roscoe N. Andrew.
- Fred H. Breitweiser.
- Milton I. Cooper.
- William F. Crabtree.
- Floyd H. Creighton.
- Charles E. Dougherty.
- Glen H. Ericson.
- Louis Gabel.
- Garrett H. Groff.
- Gail H. Grass.
- Douglas K. Hall.
- Carl M. Holmquist.
- Herman C. Miller.
- John N. Mullender.
- Herzel A. Oxley.
- Arthur S. Porter.
- Jess S. Reynolds.
- John Riedel.
- Fred Sites.
- Everett T. Stephens.
- Maurice A. Teed.
- Charles P. VanDyke.
- Milo E. Worcester.
- Wayne E. Burnette.
- Irwin L. Shaw.
- James T. Hunt.
- James M. Hogan.
- Joseph L. Basgall.
- Harold M. Cunningham.
- Homer M. Doughty.
- William F. Drees.
- Orland R. Easley.
- Martin W. Eastlack.
- Frank B. Evans.
- Glen H. Finley.
- Ferd M. Frogge.
- Charles C. Hall.
- Don S. Hall.
- Emmor W. Hall.
- George J. Kinsley.
- Walter D. Kramer.
- Alfred L. Kreusch.
- Samuel W. Long.
- Wilfred J. Lacerte.
- Raymond W. Mahanna.
- Francis J. McAdams.
- Charles L. McDaniel.
- Arle C. Pember.
- Fred P. Seuser.
- Ralph C. Simpson.
- George L. Urban.
- Edward Wilson.
- Morgan F. Wollner.
- Laurence A. Wolley.

The men purchased the bonds by allotting $5.00 of their monthly pay to the government for 10 months.

This is indeed a fine showing of the spirit entertained by the men in both sections of this detachment. It points out the fact that the American in khaki has his whole heart in the struggle for which he is in training.

The bonds were subscribed practically unsolicited. The announcement by Captain Delaney that it was possible to buy the bonds at his office and a later explanation by C. W. Coolbaugh and C. M. Halmquist, both S. A. T. C. men, sold the bonds.

The Training Detachment has certainly opened their purses to their Uncle Sam, whom as the weeks go by, they grow to know better and realize what their best efforts mean to him in America's future.

Who's Who in Command Here.

The Students Army Training Corps at the Fort Hays Kansas Normal School is commanded by Captain Dennis Delaney of Boston, Mass. Captain Delaney has been in the army since 1893 and has seen service abroad during the Spanish-American war. He was commissioned a captain on November 27, 1917 and has been in command here since July 10, 1918. Captain Delaney knows men,—that tells the whole story of his excellent service and fine popularity here.

Lieutenant C. H. Hatfield, Medical Corps, formerly practiced medicine in Kingston, Ohio for twenty-three years. He was commissioned on July 6, 1917. The influenza epidemic here presented a difficult situation but he handled it excellently. Lieutenant Lewis Baker, of Denver, is the other officer stationed here. He received his commission at Fort Snelling after the second camp there.

Mess Hall Pleases the Men

The mess hall managed by Miss Condit, feeds two hundred and seventy-five of the boys from the U. S. Army Training Detachment situated here. It is a difficult task to please two hundred and seventy-five men and Miss Condit does it very creditably.

The cooks get up at 4:00 a. m. and start breakfast and the kitchen police, two squads from Section A, and one squad from Section B, report at 6:30. These men put all of the food on the tables and two squads wait tables. After breakfast everything that has been used is washed up and the tables reset. The kitchen police report again at 11:30 and at 5:30 and go through the same routine.

Everything is prepared in large pans or kettles, and the cooks are kept busy getting up the meals. The K. Ps. have to pare all vegetables, such as potatoes, onions, carrots, etc. but the cooks do all the rest of the work. The hardest job on K. P. is that of cleaning the large pots and pans and all of the boys try to think up some excuse to dodge it. It is one job for which there is no competition. After the quarantine is lifted the Kitchen Police have nothing to do but wait tables as the dish washing and vegetable paring will be done by the regular students. This is certainly good news to the boys in the S. A. T. C. as K. P. is one of the most disagreeable things in life. It is one of the things the boys look forward to with disgust.

The government pays seventy cents per day for each man and out of this sum all of the expenses must be paid. The coal, food, breakage and pay for help must come out of this sum.

In the kitchen there are the first and second cook, cook's helper in addition to two women who help in the care of the food.

In arranging the dining hall for better service a store room has been built and shelved and the wash room has been enlarged to accommodate additional need for room. The cellar in connection is used for storing all vegetables.

In the S. A. T. C. eight squads are seated in the west room of the dining hall and the last twelve squads are seated in the north room. The boys are seated by squads eight at a table with exception of three tables holding two squads each and one table holding five squads.

The boys attend strictly to the business of eating. Each table is set with plate, knife, fork, spoon, cup and glass and with salt, pepper and vinegar service. The table service is really very nice.

It may be interesting to note that in the preparation of meals about six tons of coal are used per month.

In the menu for a certain week we used 600 pounds of beef, 125 pounds of mutton, 100 pounds of bacon, 75 to 100 pounds of ham and in addition fresh pork or chicken. From 150 to 200 loaves of bread are used each day. When bacon is served for breakfast, from 25 to 30 pounds are used. On Friday fish is usually served, the amount running from 75 to 80 lbs. For last Sunday's dinner about 95 pounds of chicken were used.

Preparations are being made to install steam cooking utensils, electric dish washers and other devices to assist in speedy preparation of food.

Election

Election was held in the Coliseum on Tuesday. Eighty-five men voted. It will affect the result in sixty counties. Polls opened at seven-thirty a. m. and closed at six p. m. The ballots given the electors had the names of all state and district candidates printed thereon. Only names of county candidates had to be written in. The Judges and Clerks were:

- Judges—Hobart M. Grant, Sec. B.; Carl M. Holmquist, Sec. A.; Kurt P. C. Goellert, Sec. A.
- Clerks—Fred N. Archer, Sec. A.; Guy E. Sturdy, Sec. B.

The new men on the list are all first-class musicians.

Those who appreciate good music and are familiar with Mr. Malloy's productions, await with interest, his first concert by the Fort Hays S. A. T. C. Military Band.

Arrangements will be made later for a tour by the band of near by towns. The announcement will be made later.

There is a current rumor that a military band of 250 pieces will be stationed at Fort Hays in the Coliseum, taking the quarters of Section B. The authenticity of the rumor is very doubtful.

F. H. K. N. is Part of Nation's War Program.

Sargeant Lew Wallace Writes

"The Effort"

Subject: "Somewhere"
Thought: Poor
Construction: Still Worse

We are Somewhere, Mother, Somewhere. In the land of "Over There," Where the cannon's mouths are roaring And the shrapnel fill the air, And the bullets of the boches Patter down like summer's rain. While the breezes of the evening Seen to moan as if in pain. Then my thoughts of't take me backward To those happy childhood days, Which I spent in distant Kansas In the dear old U. S. A.

We are somewhere, Father, Somewhere, Far from home and peace and joy. But I'll try to heed the morals Which you taught me when a boy. Though I do not fear the future In this game of "Fight or Die," For I know your spirit's watching And I feel your presence nigh. So I will not shirk my duty As we go into the Fray, Where the Stars and Stripes are waving For the dear old U. S. A.

We are Somewhere, Dear Friend, Somewhere, In this life of strife and pain, And I sometimes stop and wonder If I'll e'er see you again. Though temptations deep surround us, Just a man I'll try to be, For I know you're praying for us From that land beyond the sea, And I know your pride is swelling While you're waiting for the day When we pack up and come sailing Back to dear old U. S. A.

—Sgt. Lew H. Wallace, Co. E. 353 Inf., A. E. F.
Editor's Note: Mr. Wallace is one of the former F. H. N. boys who is now "Over There." The description of the poem accompanying it is Mr. Wallace's modest estimate of his own work as is the title, Mr. Wallace's own.

TWO DEATHS AT SCHOOL.

The influenza caused but one casualty in both Sections A and B of the training detachments. The victim, John F. Harkins, was a Section B man, and died in the Red Cross hospital.

Private Harkins was a young man, being only 21 and registered on the 24th of September.

A military escort took the remains to Larned where they were entrained to Paola, Kansas the former home of the deceased.

John J. Geiger a student in the Fort Hays Kansas Normal School died in Hays as a result of complications arising from the influenza. He was not a member of the S. A. T. C. These two deaths deeply touched all the school and THE LEADER expresses the sympathy of the school to the friends and relatives of the two young men.

ELSIE MAE SMITH

Elsie Mae Smith, daughter of Scott and Nettie Smith was born at Morland, Kansas, June 23, 1896 and died at the home of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Morton in New York, October 13, 1918, where she had been teaching school. Elsie Mae attended the Fort Hays Kansas Normal School four years and was well known by all the students. She was an active member of the Young Women's Christian Association.
