THE REVELLE

FORT HAYS STATE COLLEGE

Hays, Kansas

DEDICATION

To Mollie—a loyal friend and a wonderful woman we affectionately dedicate the Reveille of 1948.

THE ASSOCIATION of Mrs. Walter Wallerstedt with the students of Fort Hays State is one of kindly consideration and gentle understanding. During the years that she has been supervisor of the Social Building she has found a place in the hearts of everyone with whom she has come in contact and her attitude of interest has made her the confidante of more than one student who needed counsel.

INTRODUCTION . . .

THE LIFE at Fort Hays Kansas State College may be likened to a deck of cards. The similarities are unlimited, for every campus has its queens, its kings, its elements of chance, and, most prominently, its jokers.

There is a serious side to college life, that which is experienced first when bewildered freshmen stand in enrollment lines the first week and which is climaxed when those same students walk across the platform four years later to receive their diplomas and transfer the tassels on their mortarboards.

But just now we are concerned with the whimsical side of college experience, the incidents which are recounted at alumni reunions and conclaves for years to come . . . dormitory gab-fests, hazing, social building card games, and unofficial extra-curricular activities, as well as organized activities.

And in this, the Monte Carlo edition of the Reveille, we hope to have captured some of the fleeting bits of activity and gaiety which every Fort Hays State student has enjoyed.

REVEILLE KING

DOROTHY ZEIGLER, Queen of Fort Hays Hearts. One of the few freshmen who has ever attained the distinction of being crowned Reveille Queen, Dorothy, besides being remarkably attractive, possesses that elusive quality which distinguishes a personage from a person—a radiant personality.

RICHARD BURNETT, the students' choice for Reveille King of 1948. "Barney," who has won the respect of everyone simply by being a great guy, is geniality personified and a perfect example of the qualities of character that are included in the makeup of a gentleman of distinction.

DR. L. D. WOOSTER

DR. L. D. WOOSTER brought to the presidency of Fort Hays State many years of first hand experience with the problems of Western Kansas in general and Fort Hays State college in particular.

Dr. Wooster was appointed to the faculty of Fort Hays in 1909. During his many years of service on the campus, he became acquainted with the problems of the college and in 1941, on the death of President Rarick, Dr. Wooster was appointed president of the college.

Dr. Wooster received his A.B. degree from Emporia and eight years later was awarded the Ph.M. degree from the University of Wisconsin. In 1936 he received his Ph.D degree from Stanford University.

As secretary to the president, Miss Cora Bibens helps conduct during each day the multitude of tasks that fall on the shoulders of a college president. Her friendly and understanding nature has won her the friendship of all who have been associated with her.

Dr. E. R. McCARTNEY
Dean of the College

Dean McCartney came to the Fort Hays State campus from Southwestern College to assume the position of instructor in the economics department. In 1941 he moved his office from Picken Hall to Sheridan Coliseum where he became dean of the college.

As dean, Dr. McCartney is the faculty sponsor for the Student Council.

Miss Florence Bodmer holds the position of secretary to the Dean.

STUDENTS

ACTUALLY, the students are those who keep the great game of college a dynamic and never-ending one. Every year there is a new deal; we see new players as some drop out with their winnings and others enter into the game, but the house rules seldom change and each year is essentially like the ones that preceded and the ones that are to follow.

The students, like the players in a card game, are the ones that determine how good or how bad the game will be. Some enter the game with a purpose and a determination to succeed; others join merely because of the sport of it. Some bluff their way, while others play their cards with resource.

Fort Hays State has had its share of every kind; it has seen its jokers and its aces, but they have all added up to a harmonious whole. They made 1947-1948 a great game and one which no one left as a loser.

ORGANIZATIONS

IN THE final analysis, the organizations on the campus must provide the added trump that gives education a purpose and takes away much of the stuffiness that marks the purely academic.

The ultimate gesture of education is to discover and develop the inherent abilities in the individual. That is where the campus organizations play such a prominent part. Much of education is missed in the classroom and every student realizes that his goal must depend on much more than a mere theoretical approach. It is in the campus activities that the individual makes the first applications of a college education.

But the real advantage lies in the many associations gained. Whether it is during a discussion of the elusive atoms in Sigma Pi Sigma, or while pondering the complications of the reflexive verbs in Spanish Club, the many friendships and associations gained will remain long after much of the material once memorized is forgotten.

DELTA EPSILON

ALL BRANCHES of science are represented in the membership of Delta Epsilon, national honorary science fraternity. Delta Epsilon was organized at Fort Hays State in 1931 and is devoted to the recognition of outstanding achievements in the field of science. Students who become members of the fraternity must be seniors with a high scholastic average who are majoring in some field of science. Faculty members of the science department are eligible for membership.

The year's program offered a varied range of topics which were presented by members of the group, and which covered nearly every field in the science department.

Officers for the year are Mr. Doyle K. Brooks, president; Dr. Harold S. Choguill, vice-president; Dr. Harvey A. Zinszer, secretary-treasurer; Dr. George M. Robertson, first senator; and Mr. Standlee V. Dalton, second senator.

SIGMA PI SIGMA

SIGMA PI SIGMA, national honorary physics society, was organized at Fort Hays State in 1939. The purpose of the fraternity is to encourage the study of physics and to recognize high scholarship in that field.

Russell Bray is the president of the prospective physicists. Other officers are Harold Brejcha, vice-president; Willard Werner, secretary; and Dr. Harold S. Choguill, treasurer. Dr. Harvey A. Zinzer is the faculty sponsor of the organization.

KAPPA PI

NU CHAPTER of Kappa Pi, national honorary art fraternity boasts of seven members who are outstanding in the field of art. Striving to promote art interest among college students, these conversants aim for creativeness, culminating works of unusual ability in the "Sketch Book" and keeping in touch with other college chapters through the "Palette Blossoms." Nu has the honor of being director of the Kappa Pi permanent exhibit which includes the works of nationally famous artists and of having Drew A. Dobosh of the department faculty as national vice-president.

Series of exhibits of various artists are sponsored by Kappa Pi throughout the year, including local senior exhibits. Teas, dinners, and guest speakers have highlighted this year's activities under the excellent guidance of Miss Mabel Vandiver, faculty sponsor. Presiding officers are Blanche Buck, president and John C. Thorns, Jr., secretary and treasurer.

PI GAMMA MU

PI GAMMA MU, national social science honor society, has taken as its goal the fostering of interest in the problems of social science among the students and faculty of Fort Hays State.

Under the leadership of Robert Marple, president, the organization meets each week to discuss the vital social problems of the day while enjoying a luncheon of coffee and cookies.

Membership in this organization is open only to juniors and seniors with twenty hours of "B" work in social science. New members are elected by the active faculty members of the organization. The organization attempts to study all problems of social science openly with the purpose of developing young men and women who are well informed in social problems.

Officers other than Robert Marple are Nellis Briscoe, vice-president; and Charles P. Blackmore, secretary-treasurer.

SEVENTH CAVALRY

LEADERSHIP and outstanding achievement are the prerequisites which are necessary for membership in the Seventh Cavalry. Membership is limited to those who are voted into the club unanimously, the total not to exceed fifteen. Each year Seventh Cavalry publishes the "Delator", student directory for Fort Hays College.

The aim for Seventh Cavalry is to develop leadership, to promote worthwhile activities, and to advance college training.

In the spring the Seventh Cavalry held a party jointly with the Women's Leadership Group.

Russell Bray was president of the organization during the year. Harold Gill was vice-president, Lew Comer, secretary and treasurer, and Richard Roemer, sergeant-at-arms. Mr. Standlee V. Dalton is the faculty sponsor.

DEBATE CLUB

THIS YEAR the debaters have attended tournaments at Lincoln, Nebraska, Sterling, Kansas and The Province of the Plains Meet at Fort Collins, Colorado. The Pi Kappa Delta debate question for the year was—Resolved: that a World Federation Should be Established.

Besides debating, they have participated in extemporaneous speaking and discussion. The members also contribute their time and talent to the Student Speaker's Bureau, which was recently established in the speech department.

Delores Griffing and Glenn Neumeyer are members of Pi Kappa Delta, National Honorary Forensic Fraternity, the largest debate fraternity in the world. Robert Earnest and Don Slechta qualified for membership in Pi Kappa Delta this year. Mr. James R. Start is the sponsor and coach for the group of forensic aspirants.

STUDENT COUNCIL

THE STUDENT COUNCIL is the governing body of our campus. We look to them for our code of laws. They meet once a week and talk over the affairs of the school, how they can be improved, and what the students should do about it.

Officers for the year included Joe Jellison, president; Warren Kopke, vice-president; Mary Lou Fellers, secretary. Dr. E. R. McCartney is the faculty sponsor of the group.

The student council activities have varied throughout the year and included the appointment of the varsity managers as well as a collection of money for the Red Cross at an all-school assembly.

WOMEN'S LEADERSHIP

THE WOMEN'S Leadership group is composed of young women on the campus who show outstanding qualities of leadership. The members of the organization are chosen primarily by the women faculty members. The aim and purpose of the organization is to promote leadership among the women on the campus.

Faculty sponsors for the organization are Miss Elizabeth Barbour and Mrs. Nita Landrum. Eleanor Riegel is president of the group this year.

Y. W. C. A.

THE YOUNG WOMEN'S Christian Association is one of the prominent organizations on the campus which is interested in developing and maintaining religious standards. It also offers opportunity for intellectual and social expression. The outstanding project for the year has been the sponsoring of a Brownie Girl Scout Troop. Such activities as the all-school picnic, hayrack rides, Christmas caroling, box suppers, and Religious Emphasis Week, have become annual customs with the Y. W. C. A. Guiding the group in one of its most successful years the following girls acted as officers: President, Geraldine Gale; Vice-President, Velma Stutzman; Secretary, Bernita Billing; and Treasurer, Maxine Nelson. Also, as equally helpful was the faculty sponsor, Miss Rosella McCarrol, whose thoughtful contributions can never be measured. The Y. W. C. A. helps form the triangle with Newman Club and Y. M. C. A.

Y. M. C. A.

THE YOUNG MEN'S Christian Association on the Fort Hays campus works for the religious as well as the social interests of its members. Many of their activities were worked out cooperatively with the Y. W. C. A. including an all school picnic, hayrack rides, and the annual Religious Emphasis Week. Their programs have consisted of talks and lectures by faculty members, students, and ministers of the community.

DELTA SIGMA THETA

RHIO CHAPTER of Delta Sigma Theta, religious fraternity for men of Methodist preference, was installed January 31, 1948, at the Hays Methodist Church by Nu Chapter of Oklahoma A. and M. Bill Dodrill was installed as president. Active membership in the fraternity is open to all men of Methodist preference whose qualifications are unquestioned by the members of the chapter and who have duly completed the requirements for pledgeship.

KAPPA PHI

KAPPA PHI is an organization open to all girls of Methodist preference. The aim of each individual member is to build Christian character, and their aims are stabilized in the future. As an over-all goal their aim for tomorrow is to have every Methodist woman in the world of today a leader in the church of tomorrow. This worthwhile group contributes a wholesome outlook for our world of tomorrow.

Officers for the year have been Phyllis Shearer, President; Elaine Williams, Vice-President; Phyllis Pauley, Recording Secretary; Mary Phipps, Corresponding Secretary; Esther Rice, Treasurer; and Geraldine Gale, Program Chairman. Miss Cora Bibens and Mrs. Edwin Davis have acted as sponsors for the year.

NEWMAN CLUB

THE NEWMAN CLUB is organized to promote the relationship of the Catholic students on the campus, socially as well as spiritually. The Fort Hays State Newman Club is a member of the National Federation of Newman Clubs and was represented at the National Convention held at Houston, Texas, and the Regional Convention at Lincoln, Nebraska.

The first meeting of the year served as a get-together party to acquaint the freshmen with the activities of the club. Late October was high-lighted by a pastry, bingo, and social party.

Communion-breakfasts, four of which are held annually, have been the favorites of the year.

Other activities in which the Newman Club has participated this year are a formal dance in April, promotion of the W. S. S. F. drive, and contributions to C. A. R. E., to help people of foreign lands. The Newman Club, in joint cooperation with Y. W. C. A. and Y. M. C. A., made Religious Emphasis Week a success on the campus.

Officers of the organization are Virgil Quint, President; Josephine Dauber, Vice-President; Mary Jane Kitchen, Secretary, and Leroy Spies, Treasurer. Mr. James R. Start is the faculty sponsor.

QUILL CLUB

MEMBERS of the Eolh Rune chapter of the American College Quill Club, honorary organization for writers, meets bi-monthly to read and discuss their manuscripts. Preparatory to becoming a member of the literary group, aspirant students must submit a manuscript which meets the approval of those in the organization.

The officers of the chapter are Wilmet Squire, chancellor; Dr. Ralph V. Coder, vice-chancellor; Marvin Swanson, scribe; Velma Deyoe, keeper of the parchment; and Don Cushenberry, warden of the purse. Dr. and Mrs. Ralph Coder are the faculty sponsors of the group.

PRE-MEDIC CLUB

PICTURES, lectures, and informal discussions help the members of Pre-Medic Club learn more about the field of medicine. Composed of pre-medical students, the aim of the club is to help students who are preparing for a medical career understand more about the various fields. This club was organized in 1943, and it has made rapid gains, both in membership and activities. Under the leadership of Jack Phipps, the organization has made much progress toward its goal of uniting all premedical students at Fort Hays State.

Dr. F. W. Albertson is their faculty sponsor.

INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS CLUB

INTERNATIONAL PROBELMS, strife, and outstanding current affairs have created an atmosphere for International Relations Club.

The main goal of the club is to create an intelligent, interested, and non-biased view of current international situations that arise.

Several members attended the first Kansas U. N. E. S. C. O. meeting at Wichita as part of the club's activities.

The membership of the club is limited to thirty-five, and new members are elected by the club to fill vacancies when they occur. Each member must have at least one semester of college credit.

Don Slehta has served as President, Don Cushmanberry as Vice-President, Jean Steeples as Secretary, and Barbara Cannon as Treasurer. Dr. Raymond Welty, who helped organize the club, has conscientiously sponsored the group.

ENGINEERS CLUB

MEMBERSHIP in the Engineers Club is open to engineering majors or to those who are interested in engineering. Problems of modern engineering are discussed at the weekly meetings. Active participation in the discussions and meetings is required of all its members. Phil Shanline has been acting President of the organization this year. They have had many and varied activities during the year.

HOME ECONOMICS CLUB

THE HOME ECONOMICS club is an organization of home economics majors and minors who informally study modern methods of improving the quality of living in their homes and communities. Practical experience is gained within the organization with the utilization of opportunities to exercise their abilities in preparing and serving dinners. Education films highlighted many of their meetings. Representatives were sent to the Home Economics convention at Lawrence.

Club activities for the year included picnics, a taffy party and Annual Home Economics Club Dinner.

Officers of the group are Sally Finch, President; Josephine Dauber, Vice-President; Jo Ann Chadwick, Secretary; Florence Roemer, Treasurer; Phyllis Pauley, Social Chairman; and Clair Kvasnicka, Publicity Chairman.

Miss Mary McCormick and Miss Alice Beesley sponsor the organization.

SPANISH CLUB

WORTHY OF MENTION among the various clubs on the college campus is the aspiring Spanish Club that meets to converse in Spanish. Although it has only been organized for two years, increasing interest in the club proves its worth.

Professor Modesto Jacobini is the faculty sponsor and Ruth Riggs handles the presidency capably.

GERMAN CLUB

MEMBERS OF THE German Club participated in a variety of activities designed to promote the interest and proficiency of the students in the use of the German language.

Activities for the year included the annual Christmas festival and party, Das Weihnachtsfest in December, and a Dr. I. Q. party and a picnic during the spring semester.

Officers of the organization are Wilmet Squire, President; Florence Roemer, Vice-President; Wilbur Lohrey, Secretary; and Craig Culley, Assistant Treasurer. The club is capably sponsored by Mrs. Emma Golden.

ART ACTIVITIES

AS WE SHUFFLE the deck of Clubs we come to those who deem themselves worthy of being called artists, constituting their own particular organization, Art Activity. Proof of their aspirations is the fact that they stimulate student interest by obtaining for their meetings speakers who are prominent in individual fields of art. Annual social event of the year for the members is the "Artist's Ball" and a special highlight of the 1948 spring semester was a tour through the Kansas City Museum of Art. Mr. Dobosh, faculty sponsor, abets the group by allowing them to meet in his studio. LaMoyne Johnson, President is aided by Mary Jane Kitchen, Vice-President; Bertina Johnson, Secretary; Mrs. Nellie Addison, Treasurer; Yvonne Ruder, Social Chairman, and Blanche Buck, Historian.

LITTLE THEATER

THE 1947-48 school year was one to be remembered for the Little Theater group. Increased enrollment has helped further the real world into a fictitious realm. Members have gained practical experience by participation and directing.

"A Date with Judy" was presented the first semester, and "Wuthering Heights" was presented the second semester. The group also presented several one-act plays for various campus organizations.

Presiding over this distinguished group are. President, Doris Robinson; Vice-President, Mary Lou Fellers, and Secretary-Treasurer, Josephine Dauber. Mr. Leslie Davis has acted as director and faculty advisor.

REVEILLE

THE AIM of the Reveille Staff of 1948 was to publish a year book which was larger and more representative than any which was ever produced at Fort Hays State. We have shuffled and dealt the cards that made up the year and it is our sincere hope that the hands will please each student who has sat in on the game.

Students who have played a major part in the production of the Monte Carlo Edition of the Reveille are:

Other students enrolled were W. C. King, Charles Reiner, Mary Lou Newman, Jo Ann Chadwick and Herbert Graves.

Mr. Walter Wallerstedt was faculty sponsor.

LEADER

A CLATTER of typewriters, miles of walking as reporters cover their beats, frantic scratches of the editor's red pencil, last minute consultations and changes, and the noise of the linotype and presses, are all combined in the weekly rush to meet the Thursday publication date for the Leader.

During the past year the Leader staff has sorted through the many cards as they fell on the table and has given a running tabulation of the score.

It has often been a difficult job as the staff changed; many old hands left the scene after the first semester, and new faces came on the scene; but the Tuesday copy deadline remained the same.

Leland Heinze came back to the Leader office where he was editor last year to serve as journalism instructor and as general slave driver to see that the reporters met the inevitable deadlines. Helen Francis also returned to old stomping grounds where she served as Leader editor in 1936 to act as Leader supervisor and to teach several courses in journalism. And then of course there was "Wally" Wallerstedt whose familiar cry of "no copy" encouraged an extra spurt of energy from everyone on the staff.

S. A. I. FORMAL

FORT HAYS State can be proud of the progress its band of 65 members has made this year. Under the direction of Mr. Harold Palmer, the band has not only shown that they can bring forth good music but it can also bring out school spirit at games, pep rallies and parades.

This year marked the beginning of the High Plains Music Camp which consists of all high school and junior high musicians in this section of the state. Mr. Harold Palmer was conductor and C. E. Sawhill of the University of Southern California was guest conductor.

Activities for the year have been the band concert, the band formal, and the dedicatory assembly for new uniforms.

Jo Goodnough was president of the organization and student conductors were Gordon Greigire, Russell Dickenson and Tom Gatschet.

Mary Phipps was the drum majorette and twirlers were Mary Lee James, Jo Goodnough, Rita Stramel and Aileen McKee.

SIGMA ALPHA IOTA

SIGMA ALPHA IOTA, National Music fraternity, furnished the background music for the intermission program of the Panhellenic formal among their other activities.

Officers of the organization are Josephine Goodnough, president; Barbara Blair, vice-president; Eleanor Riegel, recording secretary; Alberta Hueftle, corresponding secretary; and Marjorie Lebsack, treasurer. Miss Lucille Felten is the faculty sponsor.

Members of Sigma Alpha Iota who compose the girls' quartet are Elaine Williams, Barbara Blair, Madeline Maxwell and Marvel Hull. Eleanor Riegel is the accompanist.

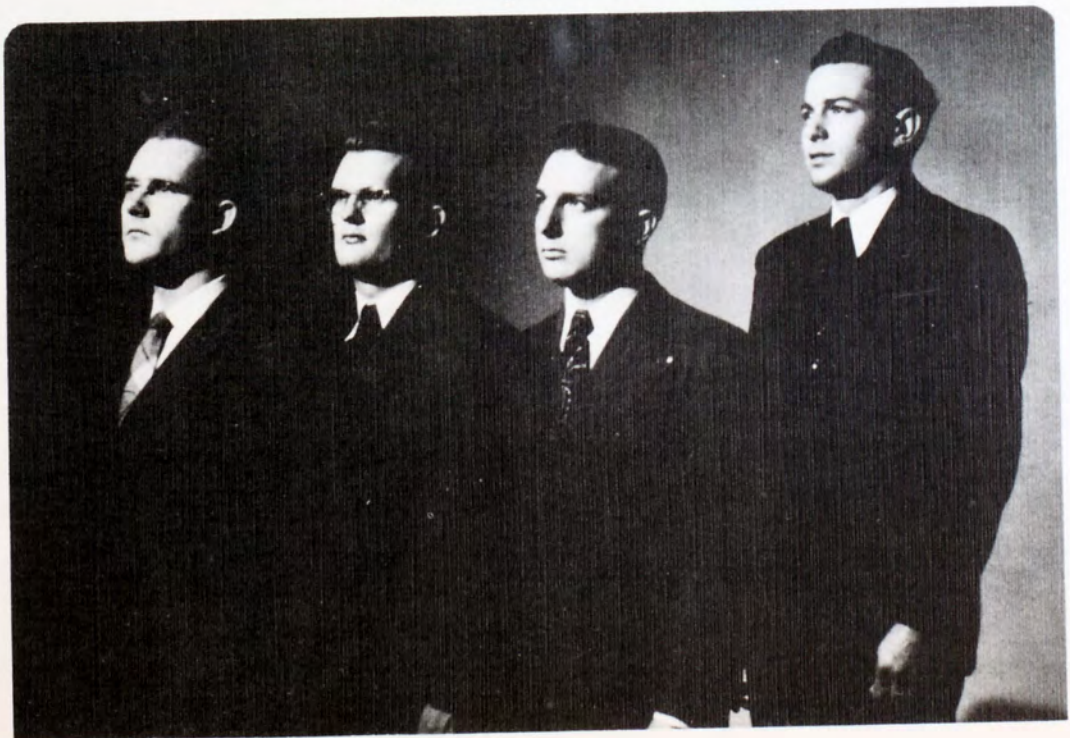

A CAPPELLA CHOIR

TWO OF the outstanding vocal groups on the campus are the a cappella choir and the men's quartet.

One of the major activities of the choir this year was a tour which was taken March 8 and 9.

Men's Quartet members are Bill Wilcox, Russell Dickenson, Lawrence Hull, and LeRoy Maxwell.

MEN'S QUARTET

ORCHESTRA

THE COLLEGE orchestra under the direction of Mr. Carl Malmberg was a well organized group this year. The major activity of the year for the Fort Hays State Orchestra was the accompaniment of the Messiah.

FULL HOUSE—queen's high is the hand with ninety-two campus lovelies calling it home. Presided over by Mrs. Gladys Stewart and Mrs. Rockwell, the castle across the creek lists formals, an open house, and a hall Christmas party, as ace high on their social calendar. First semester officers included president, Eleanor Riegel; vice-president, Shirley Tharp; secretary, Betty Davis; and treasurer, Faye Votruba, with Jo Dauber acting as social chairman.

CUSTER HALL

Rebecca Mayer presided during the second semester, assisted by Bonnie DeBusk, vice-president; Sherry Fowler, secretary; Nola Seidel, treasurer, and Betty Swick, social chairman.

WESLEY HALL

FEMININE CHARM fills the halls of Wesley, home of forty-eight coeds and Mother Bowers who watches over her flock by day and by night. Although their home is off the campus, the girls are ever-present for campus activities. Entertainment for them this year consisted of Autumn, Hallowe'en, and Christmas parties, and plans for similar happenings in the spring.

Officers for Wesley Hall are Alberta Hueftle, president; Colletta Resley, vice-president; Maxine Nelson, secretary-treasurer; Harriette Klenk, pianist, and Luetta Hanson, song leader.

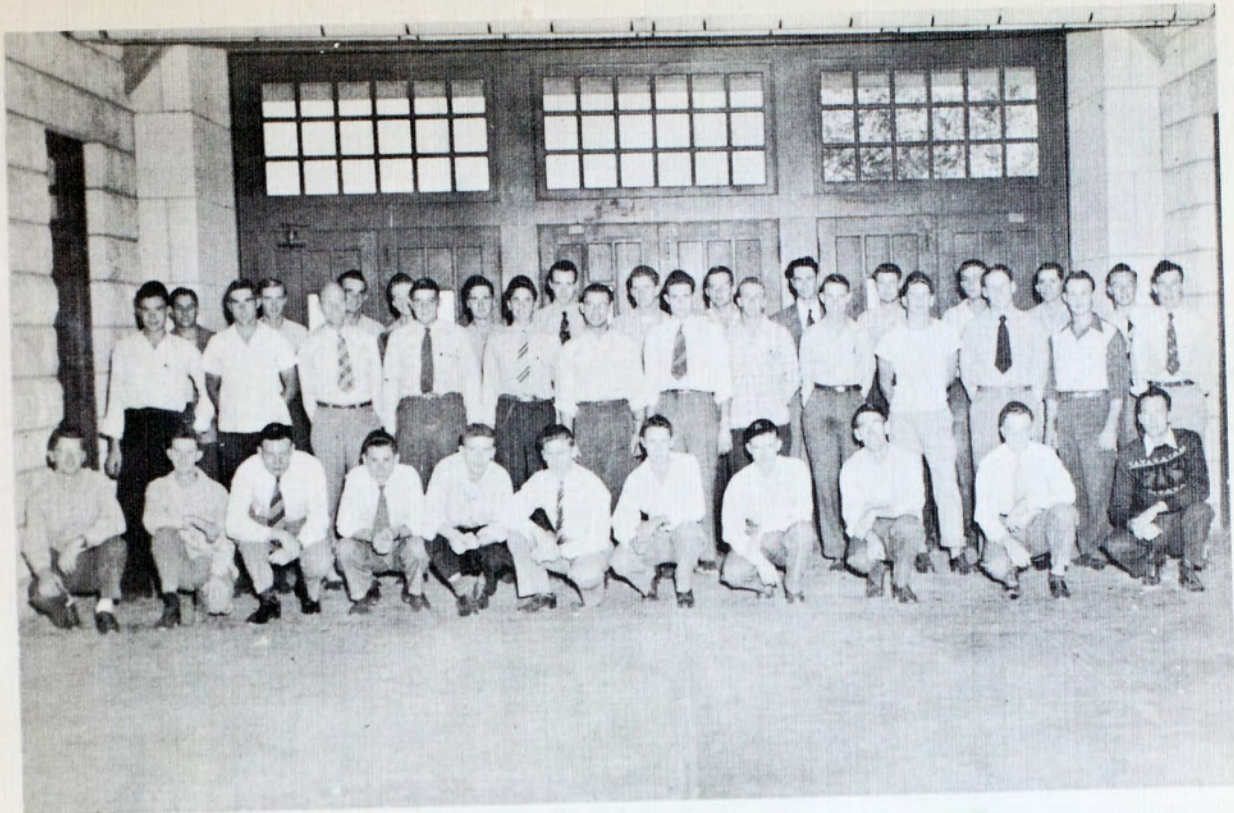

RESIDENCE HALL

BULL SESSIONS, card games that last way into the night, occasional attempts at harmony with the usual bad results, and pin-up pictures with a touch of immorality, are the extra features that make Residence Hall dormitory home to the forty men who stay there.

Mrs. R. H. Ruhling was initiated into life at Residence Hall this year when she came to act as housemother; since that time she has been the unofficial adviser and counselor to her many wards. Under her guidance the parlor has taken on the new look with new club chairs and curtains.

Leland Page as president has also contributed his efforts toward keeping the dormitory working on an even keel.

LEWIS FIELD STADIUM

THE KNAVES APPEAR! Lewis Field held forth this year under the able direction of president, Marvin Scheuerman; vice-president, Carol Hornbaker; and treasurer, James Pelzel. The Stadium saw many a night of burning midnight oil, long cram sessions, and reams of themes being written, revised and pecked out on beaten typewriters, but the boys manage time for intramural sports, smokers, and a quick shuffle of the pasteboards a time or two. Showing off their domicile this year with two open houses and a dance, the Field still lists its main activity as the pursuit of knowledge—and, of course, some of the more personable gals about the campus.

GREEK ORGANIZATIONS

GREEK ORGANIZATIONS are to college life what aces are to a card game; both are indispensable.

The Greeks provide the necessary spark that make college life pleasant and enjoyable. As the social leaders, their parties, dances and friendly get-togethers provide many hours of enjoyment to the entire student body. As the only truly social organizations on the campus, it is they who set the pace for the social whirl at Fort Hays State.

One of the most vital functions they perform is in building a basis for many lasting friendships. Only one who belongs to a Greek society knows the feeling that goes with the phrase "frat brother" or "sorority sister."

They also set the pace for a friendly competitive atmosphere as they battle for renown over their fellow organizations. The competition is intense during every rush week as each tries to pledge the most prominent and outstanding of the campus kings and queens. The competition also exists in other parts of college life. The sororities battle for the Panhellenic scholarship award while the fraternities concentrate their efforts on the intramural award.

Perhaps the greatest tribute to the Greeks lies in the fact that, while they symbolize the social side of college, their scholastic standing remains at a higher than average level.

DELTA FORMAL

THE GREEK social season for the fall semester was fittingly climaxed December 13 when the Tri-Sigs, Thetas, Deltas, and Alphas held their winter formal. But the Greeks were not all formal. The fraternal trend included the Phi Sig hayride, the Kappa Sigs annual Boilermaker's Brawl, the Sig Tau's Corn Jigger and the Teke's informal.

ALPHA FORMAL

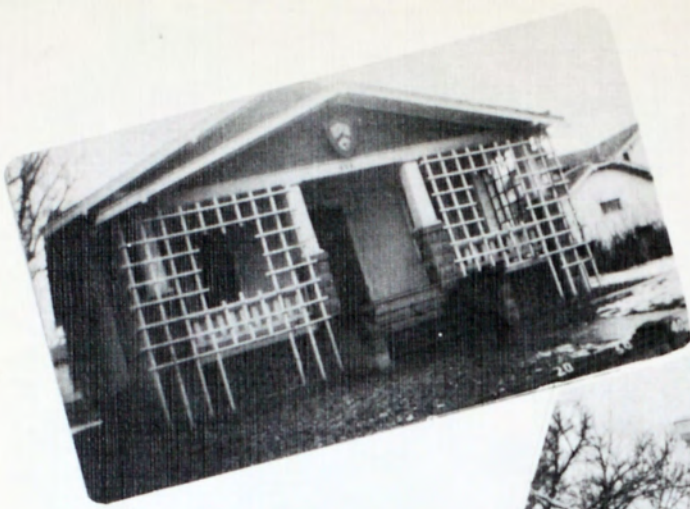

THETA FORMAL

ENJOYMENT is not the only aim of Greek organizations, however. Members of the Pan-Hellenic group vie for the scholastic shield and intramural athletic trophy. There is keen competition for the highest grade point average among the fraternities as well as the sororities. And through it all there is the goal of establishing in each sorority and fraternity the qualities of leadership, friendship, and loyalty which are a part of the creed of each organization.

PANHELLENIC COUNCIL

ONCE A MONTH the members of the Panhellenic Council meet and deal with problems affecting all sororities. They formulate rules for rushing, pledging, activity week, and active services. Following the customs established in the past the Panhellenic opens each social season with a formal dance.

Each sorority contributes two members, and the offices are filled on a rotational basis. This year Donna Jean Samuels served as president, Madeline Guthrie as secretary, Mary Lee James as treasurer, Norma Campbell as corresponding secretary. Other members included Delores Griffing, Virginia Millen, Mary Alice Basgall and Clara Rahjes. Miss Gaynelle Davis acted as faculty sponsor.

INTERFRATERNAL COUNCIL

THE INTERFRATERNAL council, as the governing body for the social fraternities on the campus, is composed of two members from each of the campus fraternities.

This group meets each month with Dr. Ralph V. Coder, to provide for organized pledging, rushing, and initiation procedures. The council decides over-all policies governing the actions of the various fraternities and acts on all problems brought to its attention. The council members decide the dates for rush week activities, and a representative from each fraternity draws lots to choose the smoker dates for each organization.

Officers for the first semester included Don Slechta, president; Ozzie Meckel, vice-president; Don Sharp, treasurer; Bill Dodrill, secretary. Officers for the second semester were Merrill Durr, president; William Guthrie, vice-president; Jack Phipps, treasurer; Glenn Neumeyer, secretary.

SPORTS

YOU GOTTA be a football hero to get along with a beautiful girl and it also helps if you have more than just a speaking acquaintance with track and basketball.

In the fall footballs fill the air as "Red" Huffman watches his hopefuls vie for recognition. In the winter Cade Suran looks upon his hot shooting basketeers with a critical eye toward the coming frays. The spring air is filled with an odd assortment of 16 lb. shots, discuses, and javelins while Alex Francis puts his track men through their paces.

All this plus locker room bull sessions and the smell of sweat and leather go to make up the Fort Hays athletics program.

THE 1948 HOMECOMING was characterized by stunts and floats depicting the development of Fort Hays State from its pioneer phase to the present.

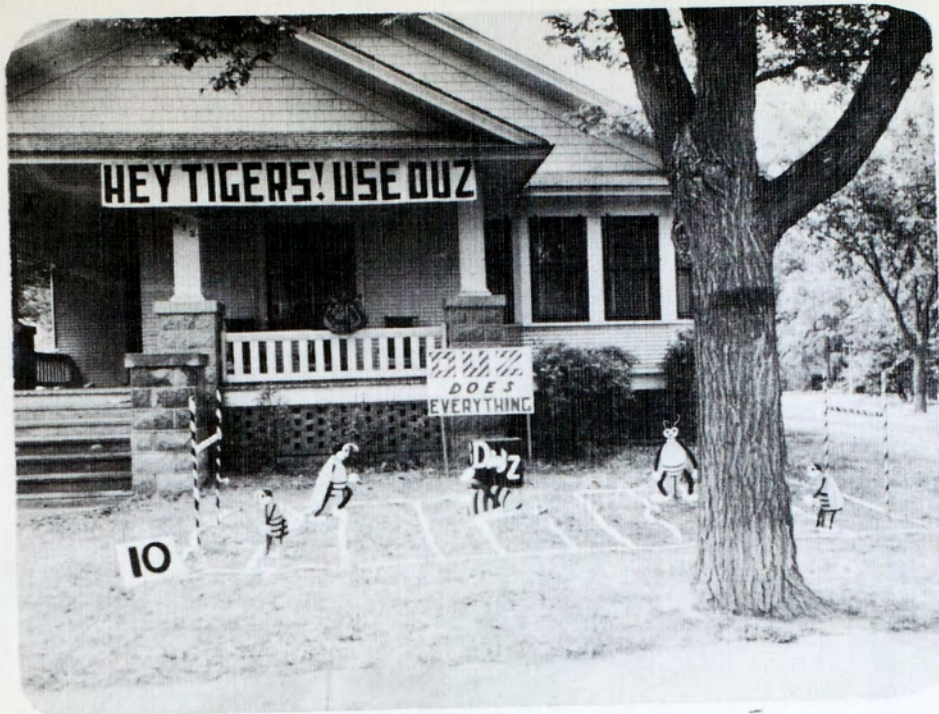

First place winners of prizes were the Sig Tau's who carried away the honors for the stunt, the S. A. I.'s, whose float was chosen as the winner, and by the Deltas, for house decorations. The Thetas received the first prize for overall super-pep.

Although the spirits of the crowd were dampened by the defeat of Fort Hays by Emporia as well as the uncooperative elements, one bright spot in the day was the crowning of Tom Shook and Marjorie Lebsack as Homecoming King and Queen.

ON THE 2nd of September the 1947 football season opened and by the end of the first week 104 men were out for practice. As his team rounded into form, Coach Huffman believed that he had an aggregation that would give any conference foe a tough battle.

The season opened on September 20th at Salina and the Tigers showed their scoring ability by downing the Coyotes of Kansas Wesleyan by a score of 28 to 13.

Northwest Oklahoma and Southwestern gave Hays little trouble but Pittsburg was tough and for the second straight year the Tigers and Gorillas fought to a scoreless tie.

St. Benedicts looked forward to continuing their jinx over Hays but the 27-7 outcome was not in their favor. It was the first time that a Fort Hays football team had defeated the Atchison school. The victory was costly however, for several of the Tiger's most aggressive backs were injured.

With Hertel, Hague, Roberts, and Marxmiller on the casualty list, Coach Huffman was forced to use reserve backs almost exclusively. This put Hays in a tough spot when they faced powerful Emporia State. The Tigers started the Hornet fray like a winner but Emporia's passing attack soon took effect and Hays lost by a lop-sided 39 to 7 score.

Before the Tigers could recover their winning ways they lost games to Colorado College and Washburn, but they ended the season with a win over Colorado School of Mines.

Archie Harman, sophomore guard from Kinsley, was successful in 18 of 20 conversion attempts during the season.

Paul Andree, Jack Hague, Joe Jellison, and Wendell Stull were selected on the all-conference eleven.

Jellison, Stull, and Comer have played their last game for the Tigers and will be missed next season. They were honored at the close of the season by being chosen to represent Hays in the annual Mo-Kan Bowl game at Kansas City.

Coach Huffman sees brighter things in the future since the majority of the 30 lettermen were sophomores and freshmen.

THE FUTURE Fort Hayes athletes and amazons whose first sentences include phraseology such as "Yea, Tigers" and "Fight, team, fight," deserve much of the credit for Fort Hays State's victories for it is such inspiration that provides the incentive for playing a good game.

AFTER A SLOW START the Tigers of Fort Hays finally got going and finished a hectic season with a record of 14 wins against 6 losses.

Coach Cade Suran made good use of newcomers on this year's squad. Glenn Conner, former LaCrosse high school star, really lived up to his advance notices as he fought his way into a starting berth. Other men making their first college appearance were Harry Vinson, Art Cronn, Bob Thompson, Rex McConnell, and Earl "Blackie" Roberts.

Hays came up with a 5-5 record in conference play and finished in a tie for third place.

The Hornets of Emporia again topped the C.I.C. race but they failed to beat the Tigers at Hays and only won by a two-point margin on their own court. Glenn Mitchum and Fred Simmons, who transferred from Kansas State late in the season, added extra strength to the Tiger attack.

In the St. Benedict's game, Don Nichol, forward from Palco, led his team to victory by racking 33 points. This performance not only broke the individual scoring record for the Sheridan Coliseum but for all Fort Hays teams.

Herb Settles will be lost through graduation but Tigers fans look forward to even greater thrills in the next cage season.

TRACK

THE 1947 FORT HAYS track team was undoubtedly the strongest aggregation ever to grace the cinder paths of Lewis Field. The charges of Coach Alex Francis were never defeated and climaxed a fine season by taking the C. I. C. meet at Emporia. It was the first time that the conference track title was won by any school other than Pittsburg or Emporia.

Kearney of Nebraska proved to be the toughest regular season grind for the Tigers but the northern school found the pace too fast for them to match. Les Pelzel equaled a Fort Hays record when he ran the 100-yd. dash in 10 seconds flat while Warren Settles added to the Kearney grief by throwing the discus 144 ft. 9 in. This heave shattered a previous Hays record. Chenoweth, Hargadine, Hertel, Lowe and Rorabaugh also gained top positions at Kearney.

Washburn was favored to cop the C. I. C. meet, but by qualifying 18 men, Hays claimed enough firsts and runner-up positions to take the title. Hague, Hertel, O'Connor, and Rorabaugh took top honors in their events to gain all-conference recognition.

1946-47 INTRA-MURAL CHAMPS

Phi Sigma Epsilon

HUNDREDS OF college men played in various intra-mural games this year. This fine program provides activities for those who do not desire to compete in college sports.

This year students are being treated to a hotly contested quest for the Intra-mural cup. This cup is awarded to the team with the highest number of points while the individual high scorer is awarded an Intra-mural K sweater. These points are awarded for participation and victory. Don Sharpe won the K sweater last year when he led the Phi Sigs to the title.

This year at the halfway mark the Phi Sigs again lead in team points while Ken Johnston of Kappa Sigma Kappa holds the individual scoring lead.

Touch football opened the season and resulted in a three way tie between the Sig Taus, Kappa Sigs, and Phi Sigs. It was decided to divide the points equally and toss for the cup. The Sig Taus won the toss and received the trophy.

Ken Johnston, junior from Great Bend, annexed the golf title for the Kappa Sigs while Tau Kappa Epsilons' Keith Fitzgerald won the shuffleboard and table tennis titles.

By virtue of a 32-28 victory over the Sig Taus, Phi Sigma Epsilon climaxed a successful season by winning the basketball cup for the second consecutive time.

GOLF AND TENNIS

IN THE FIRST match of the season Hays met Bethany on the home courts and went down in defeat. The net men only managed to win one of the four singles matches and failed to win any of the two doubles matches. The golf team fared better, however, winning by a 226-279 score for 18 holes. In a return match at Lindsborg, Coach Surans' court team again lost but the golfers were once more successful. A match with Kansas Wesleyan was cancelled because of rain.

At Kearney Rich Welty turned in a 9-hole 43 to lead the golfers to a 186-220 victory while the tennis team got hot and won every match.

In the conference meet at Emporia against tough competition the golfers failed to place but the net men gained fourth.

Huber, Roemer, Faurot, and Ritter lettered on the tennis team while Welty, Scheer, Blazer, and Cleveland showed the way on the links.

Huber and Ritter have left school while Welty has been lost through graduation.

W. A. A.

UNDER JEAN EARL'S capable leadership, the W.A.A. has had a very active year. They have had numerous parties with everyone participating and having a good time.

Membership in this organization is rather stiff but if you have a good time with other people and like to have fun, you are automatically a member.

Officers for the year have been Jean Earl, president; Lola Somers, vice-president; Joanne Coffey, secretary-treasurer; and Harriet Keplinger, intra-mural director.

They sponsored the women's intramurals and co-recreation. Each year W.A.A. plays hostess to girls of western Kansas in their annual Play Day.

TIGERETTES

STANDING BY the varsity teams in victory or defeat are the black and gold clad Tigerettes, numbering forty to a pack. Selected by standards of pep and loyalty for the team, the Tigerettes are the nucleus of the cheering section. Students will long remember the carnival given by the group this year, and also the charming Varga calendar girls who performed before basketball fans at half-time.

Head of the Tigerettes den is Mary Alice Basgall, assisted by Eleanor Meyer as vice-president; Joanne Coffey, secretary; and Mary Jane Kitchen, treasurer.

K CLUB

THE "K" — a Tiger's cherished reward for the spirit displayed in helping to win victories and for gracefully acknowledging defeat—is bestowed upon a candidate after he has earned at least one letter in a major sport and after he goes through an appropriate initiation.

After initiation services the pledge becomes an active member. He becomes a part of an organization that regulates as well as sponsors campus activities. To the "K" Club members fall the obligation of enforcing the restrictions imposed upon the freshman in regard to wearing his black and gold cap. In like manner they discourage listless wanderers from wearing beaten paths across the campus lawn.

Socially, the "K" Club sponsors the annual Dogpatch Party and a formal dance during the spring semester.

Officers for the year were Paul Andree, president; Wendell Stull, vice-president; and Sammy Samuelson, secretary-treasurer.

CHEERLEADERS

DESERVING OF LAURELS is the peppy quintet who lead the student body in the "rah-rah" spirit, helping the varsity to score their many victories. Indeed, Fort Hays is proud of their Lois Percivals, Marjorie Lebsacks, Rosanna Healeys, Max Shepards, and Billy Forneys from year to year who give of their time and their pep to school spirit.

Chosen by the entire school body, it is a proven fact these five are the tops in vim, vigor, and vitality, performing with the ease of a new deck of cards being shuffled by the hands of an expert dealer. Furthermore, their uniform height, attire, and sparkling personalities, in front of a crowd, at Mac's, or on the campus—anywhere you see them, will always find the chips going their way. Hats off to the varsity cheerleaders.

CAMPUS BOOSTER

REPRESENTATIVES are elected from each organized group on the campus to form the nucleus of the student body which promotes pep on the campus and seeks ways and means to develop school spirit. This year the Campus Booster Council sponsored the Sweetheart Ball which was held at the beginning of the second semester.

COUNCIL

Officers of the organization the first semester were Phil Shanline, president; Max Shepard, vice-president; Marguerite LaRue, secretary; and Gordon Greguire, treasurer. Paul Miller was the second semester president. The faculty sponsor is Mr. Harold Palmer.

IN ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

TO THOSE PEOPLE who have assisted us in the production of the Reveille, we wish to extend our thanks.

We gratefully acknowledge the assistance of Mr. Paul Bennett, manager of the yearbook division of the Semco Color Press, whose interest in our project was a true incentive.

Larry's and Ekey's Studios are responsible for the individual and organization pictures and their cooperation with us has been admirable. Special credit is reserved for Larry Yost, whose candid photography has been used throughout the book.

Thanks, too, to Mr. Walter Wallerstedt, whose counseling and help have been invaluable to us and, finally, to our friends, who have borne with us during the hectic days when we were desperately attempting to meet the deadline and whose sympathy and help have been extremely gratifying.

—THE REVEILLE STAFF

The cards are all down now; there is no time to ask for a new deal. Nearly all that is left are the vivid memories of another year in the passing scene at Fort Hays State.

There are many things that the camera cannot catch. There are long hours of dormitory bull sessions, last minute rushes up the stairs of Wesley and Custer Halls before the house-mother turns the key, rounds of picnics and parties, and many friendships, that can never be captured by the impersonal lens of the camera.

It is in looking backward over the varied scene that it all takes shape in a composite picture. We can only picture a few of the scenes and only a portion of the actors that dominated each scene; the rest must be left to each person to fill in to make the picture complete.

Candid Section

A composite picture of the year 1947-1948—we all played a part in it—and we'll all remember it—this year at Fort Hays State.

There was the day when the freshmen abruptly realized that there was more to being a college student than the round of pre-enrollment parties and entertainments. One by one they assumed visages of disenchantment as the stark realities became apparent to them

And lipstick-smear'd neophyte coeds and belt-line routed men realized that there was a reason for wearing freshmen caps.

Routine became established and morning rituals were mechanically performed.

Breakfast at Mom's a mumbled coffeeunroll, decoded by the student waiters to mean the typical student early morning repast.

At five until eight the campus came to life as students—and teachers—rushed to meet eight o'clock classes and became engrossed in activity in the science building

The Art Department

In Manual Arts

Or In The Business Department

Occasionally the student was able to tear himself from his studies for a cup of coffee at the Social Building.

a pinball game at Mac's

or a little game with the boys

At noon a long line formed at the cafeteria

After which everyone drifted to the Social Building for a game of chess while ping pong balls clattered

and other students did a bit of last minute studying before the one-thirty whistle sounded.

while others relaxed and it was always an ideal place to make up for the previous night's shortage of sleep

Every deck of cards has its joker . . . but there were several in the pack that made up the student roster at Fort Hays State.

The camera candidly caught the reactions of two California cousins to the first snow of the season

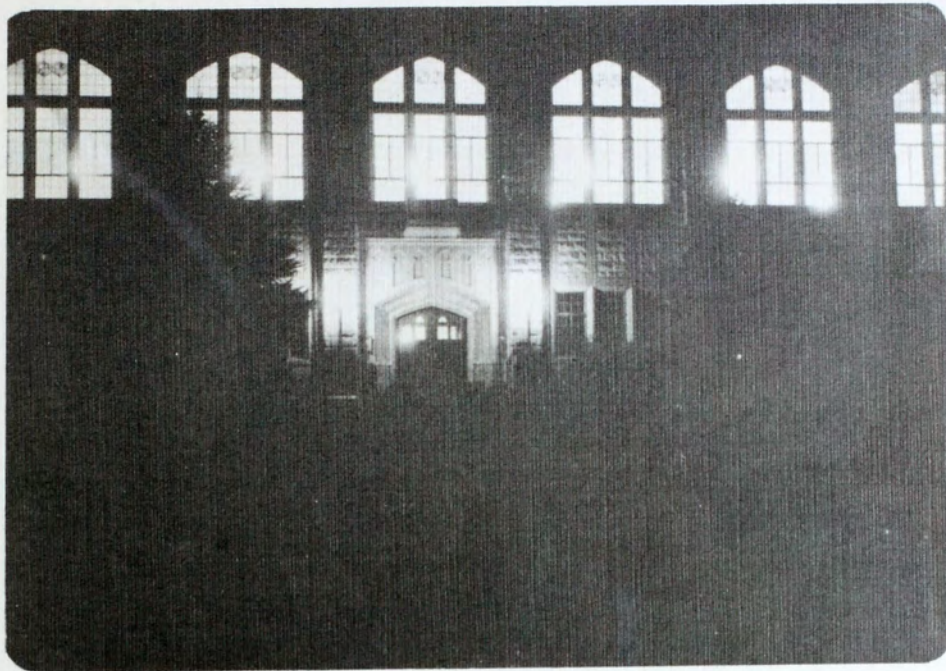

Even the most genial genius had to study.

The library opened its doors to every student . . . but opened them somewhat reluctantly to some.

At night the brightly lit windows beckoned recalcitrant students from their secluded trysting places on the campus . . .

Then came the day when the freshmen tried their physical resources in an attempt to gain freedom from wearing their freshman caps . . . and failed.

Dramatically talented students give an excellent performance of "A Date With Judy"

and the German Club sang German melodies at their Christmas party

We cheered lustily when the Tigers scored a victory over Colorado College and danced to Vic Herman's band at the Reveille Ball

Every game has its misdeal and the weaker sex always gets the worst of the deal.

Along toward the end of the month

we found duo coke dates at the Social Building.

Down in the dungeon, the college newspaper went to press

and research was carried on in the library, too.

Life never ended at 10:30. In fact it usually began at that time for after the last card was turned in, the dormitory hummed with activity and belated correspondence was brought up to date.

Gabfests combined with the ever pleasant pastime—eating—and on rare occasions—studying the next day's wearing apparel had to be put in order.

Saturday morning found students at their leisure and a choice few even got to go home to spend a week-end.

Small groups congregated to make their own music while others preferred Petrillo.

*Beauties roamed the campus. It's hard to distinguish you,
dear*

little did they realize that there were wolves around.

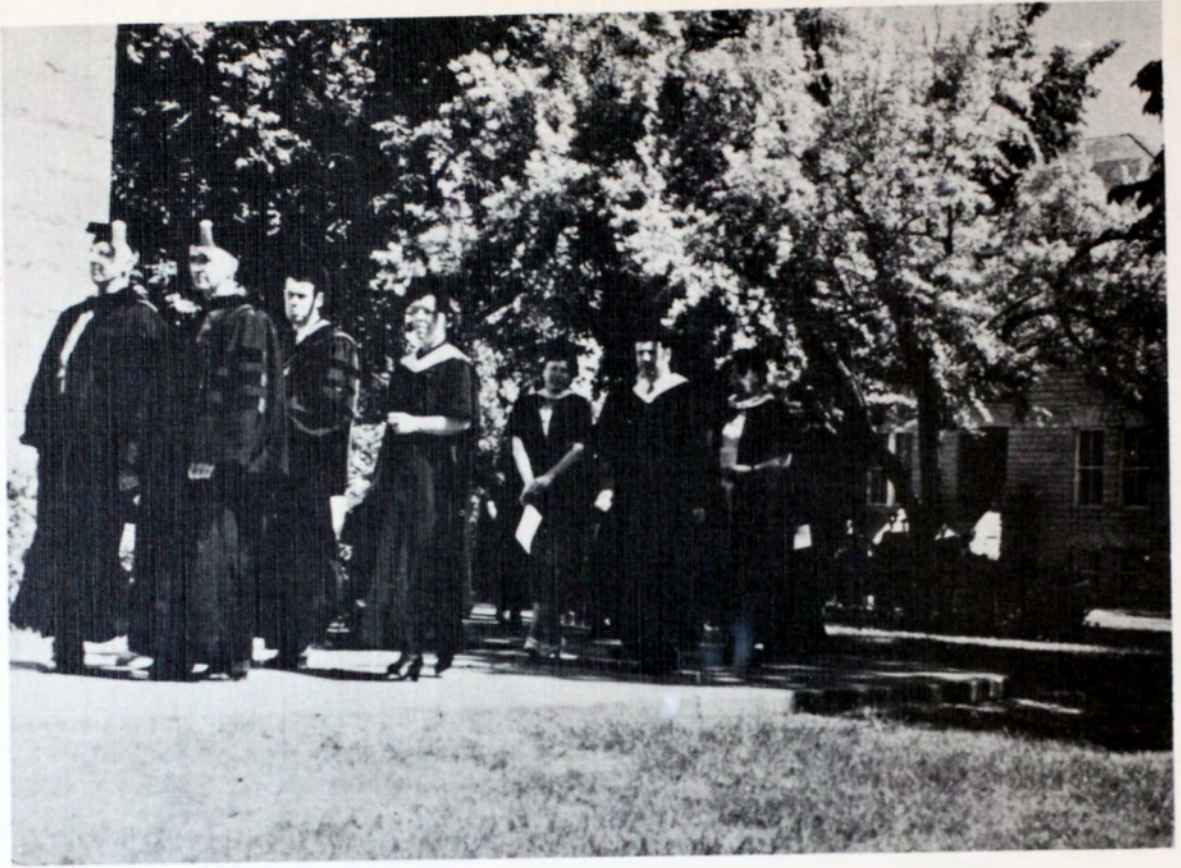

Occasionally a sunbath could be obtained but it was always followed by more work.

AS THE LAST card is played in the final hand of the Fort Hays Student, it is with regret that he treads the walks of the campus as a student for the last time when he follows the academic procession to the Coliseum where he will receive that bit of parchment for which he has been working for four years.

With sincere hope that the whole game of life will be as successful and enjoyable as the educational interlude which has just been completed, we throw down the last cards and count the chips that we have won.
