Colleges Are Forever Building Something

Day to day assignments, they say, build knowledge—

Basic courses build appreciations—

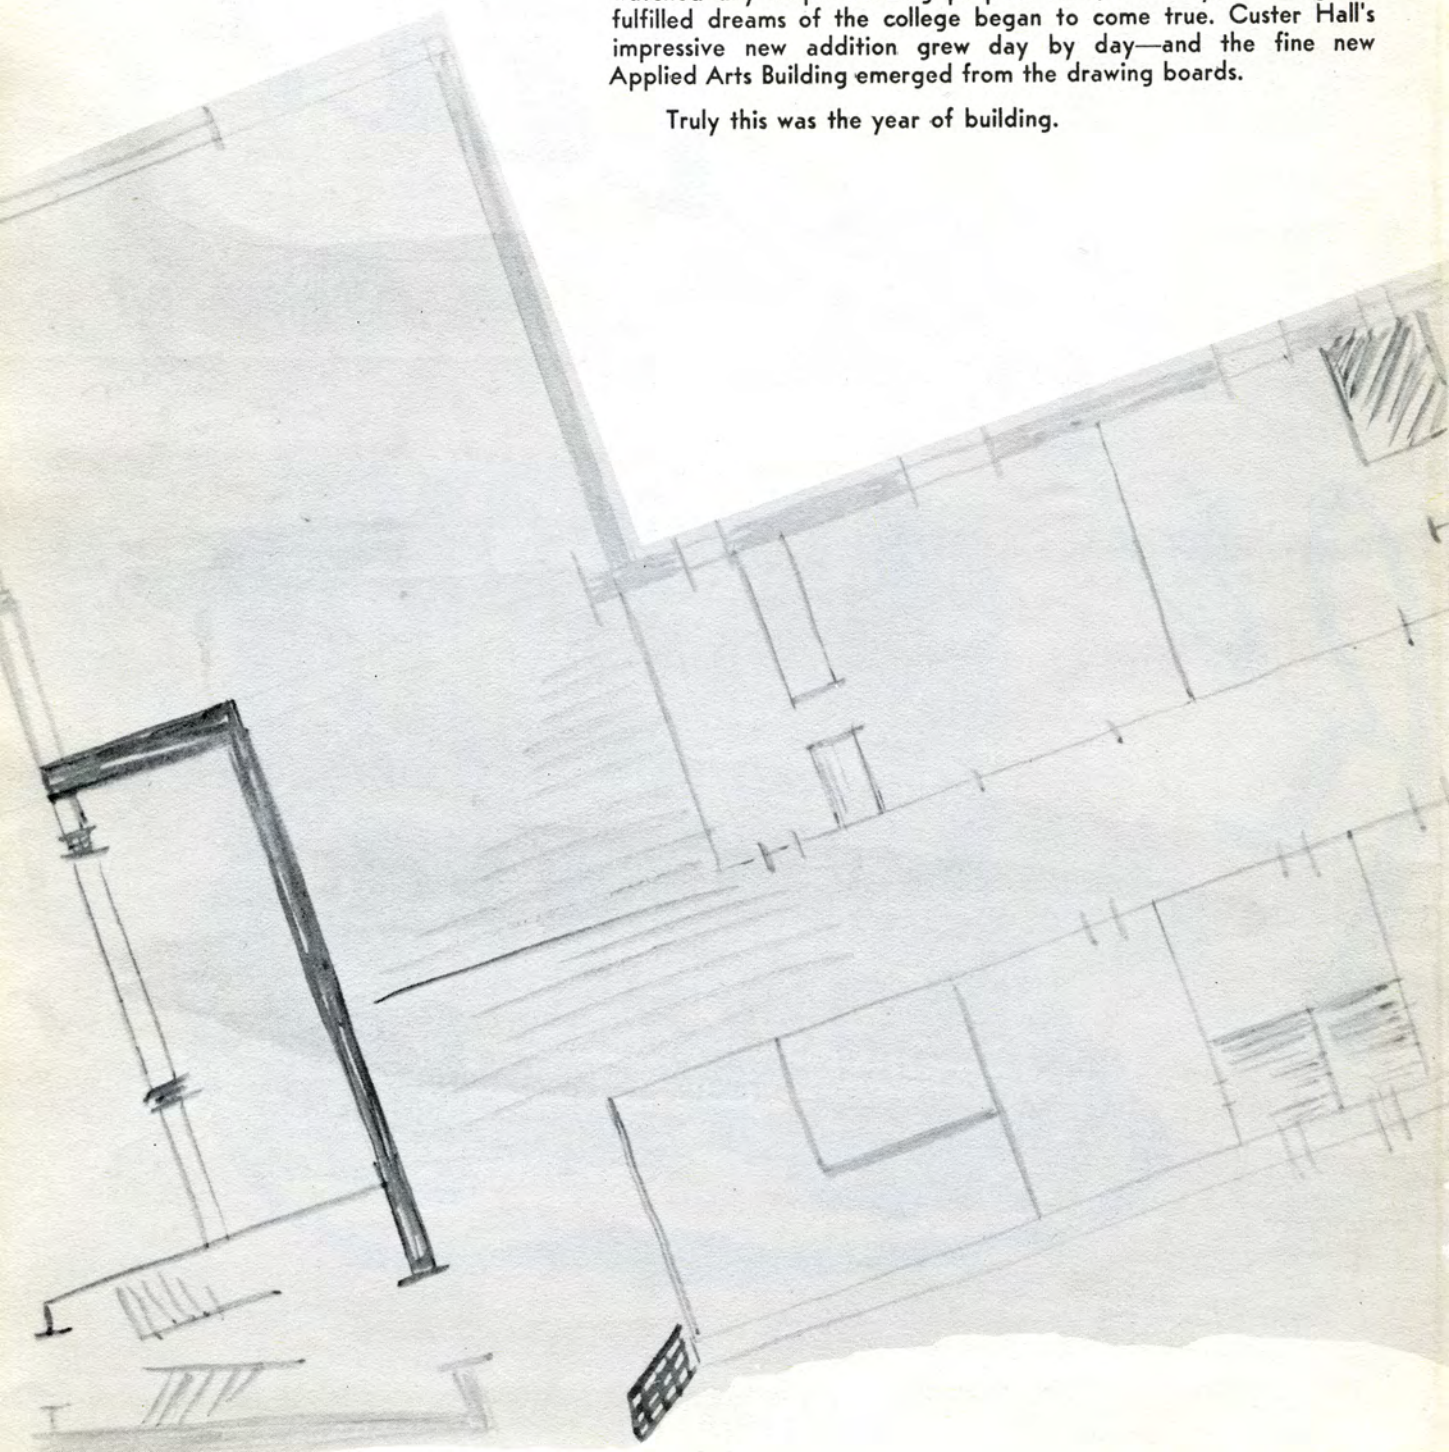

Lectures build world consciousness—

Organizations build citizens—

In 1950 and 1951, Fort Hays Kansas State College also built buildings.

It had been ten years since students at Fort Hays State had watched any major building project. Now, suddenly, the long unfulfilled dreams of the college began to come true. Custer Hall's impressive new addition grew day by day—and the fine new Applied Arts Building emerged from the drawing boards.

Truly this was the year of building.

Professor Roy Rankin

In Dedication

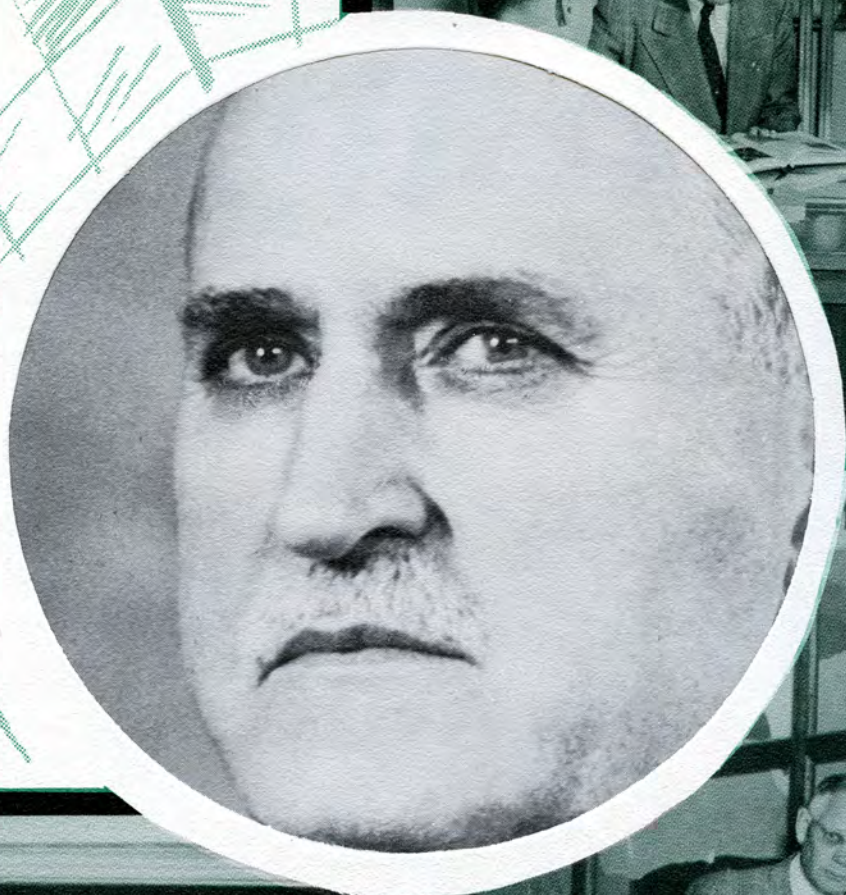

To Dr. Fred W. Albertson, who within our circle is known as a builder of ideals and an example of integrity, humbleness, and sincere friendliness.

Outside, he is recognized throughout the world as an authority in his field.

The combination ranks him near the top of the list of truly great faculty members the college has known.

Fort Hays State is proud also to claim him as an alumnus and to honor him with the dedication of this, the 1951 Reveille.

Miss Dean Watt
Editor, 1951 Reveille
Fort Hays Kansas State College
Hays, Kansas

Dear Miss Watt:

Picking college beauty queens is a habit with us, but selecting the handsomest men is new. We had to call in the gals.

Now we must select on picture standards - balance of features, eyes, teeth, personality, hair and
but we did our best and here are the results:

Pat O'Toole - winner
Edith Peters - runner-up

Earl Hobbs - winner
Eugene Ohlmeier - runner-up

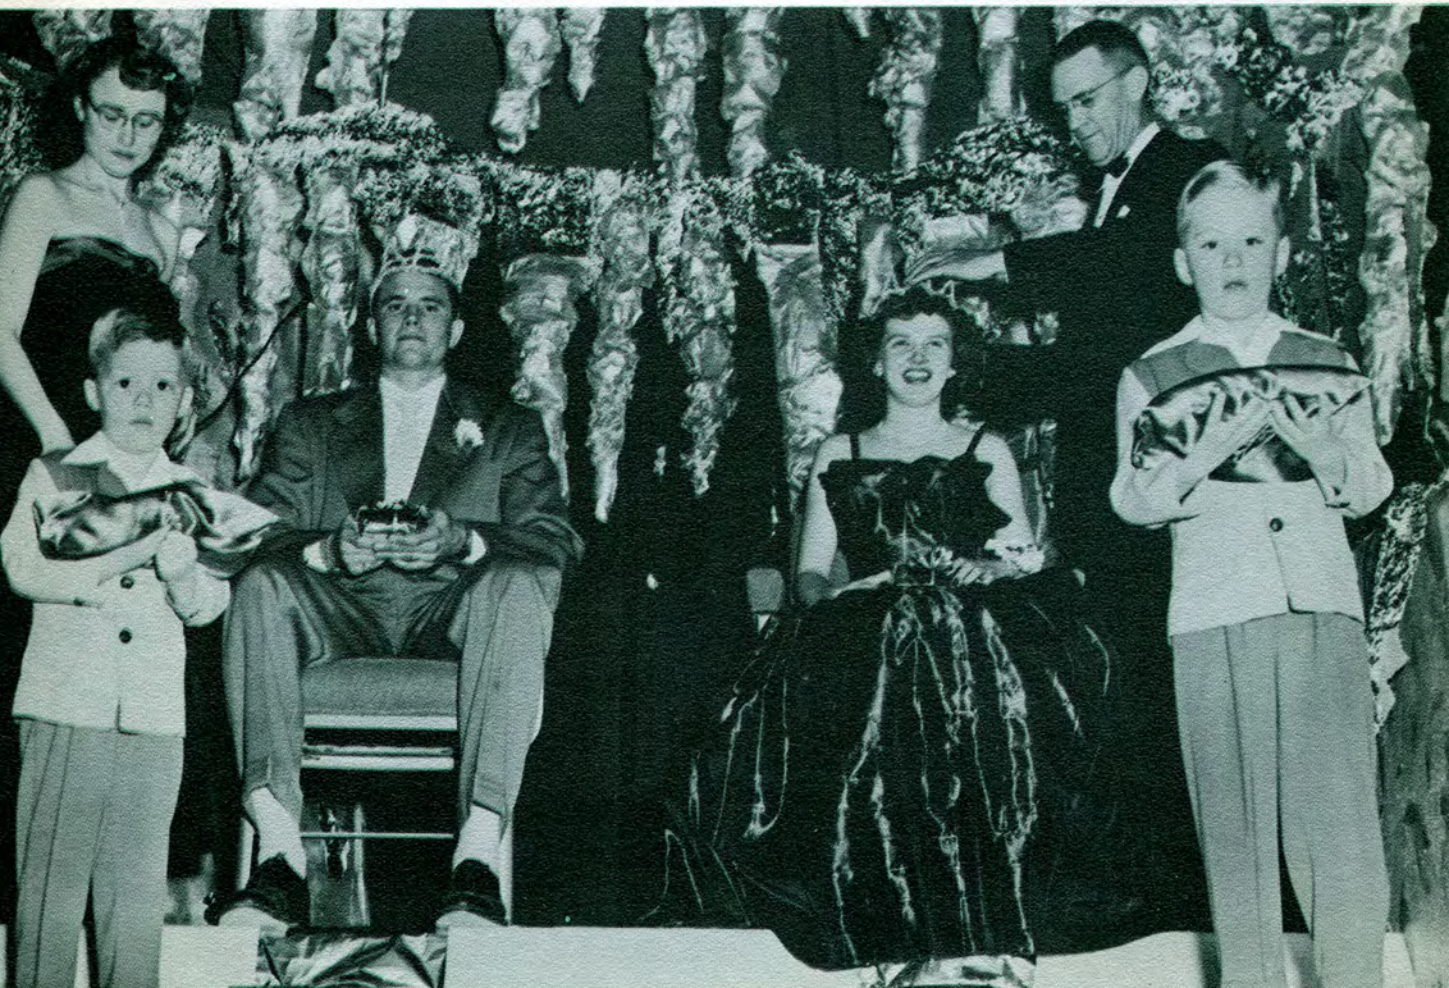

Sincerely,
Bing Crosby

Student Council

The Student Council is the representative governmental body for the management of student affairs at Fort Hays State. The group is made up of fifteen members nominated and elected by the student body.

Each class is represented. Officers for 1950 and 1951 are Jo Hubbard, president; Robert Thompson, vice-president; Ruth Taylor, secretary-treasurer. Dr. E. R. McCartney is faculty sponsor.

UNESCO Council

The UNESCO Council was organized to promote programs for the common welfare of mankind through educational, scientific, and cultural relations. Evidence that the purpose is being accomplished is the sponsorship this year of a displaced person as a student at Fort Hays State. Officers for 1950 and 1951 are Don Burnett, president; John Smith, vice-president; Claire Ann Kvasnicka, secretary; Dale Marcy, treasurer. Dr. Raymond L. Welty is faculty sponsor.

Campus Booster Council

Organized to promote school spirit, the Campus Booster Council is made up of representatives of various campus organizations. Members not present when the picture was made are: Vesta DeBoer, Donald Gentzler, Robert Hooker, Kenneth Odom, Pat O'Toole, Lon Wells, and Alice Worley. Mr. Wilmot Toalson is faculty advisor.

Honor Society

The Fort Hays State Honor Society is made up of faculty members, alumni, and graduate and undergraduate students. A number of members, not exceeding, ten per cent, is selected from each senior class on the basis of scholarship, leadership, character, and citizenship.

Campus Leadership

SEVENTH CAVALRY

WOMEN'S LEADERSHIP ORGANIZATION

Members of this group are nominated by faculty vote and elected by the group itself. It is made up of young women on the campus who have shown ability as leaders or who are considered to be potential leaders. Left to right, they are as follows; Front row: Claire Kvasnicka, Rosanna Healey, Velma Duell. Second row: Pat Lancaster, Eleanor Rockwell, Pat O'Toole, Shirley King, Barbara Billings. Third row: Carlene Duncker, Imo Lea Evans McNutt, Agnes Morrison, and Verna Parish, faculty advisors. Back row: Alyce Barstow, Lola Young, and Mrs. Nita M. Landrum, faculty advisor.

SEPTEMBER was an uncertain month in the Fort Hays State 1950-1951 calendar—but once enrollment's tedious trials were completed students settled themselves to the age-old art of making friends.

OCTOBER was unseasonably warm but nobody minded —least of all the freshman tug-of-war team which took a reluctant dip in Big Creek.

Across the stream the addition to Custer Hall began to grow higher than the men who were building it.

NOVEMBER—

was merely the month between Homecoming and Christmas. Students stopped to appreciate the State College Leader, and there was even time for dormitory lounging.

DECEMBER BROUGHT AN AVALANCHE OF ACTIVITIES, THE MOST TRADITIONAL BEING THE HOLIDAY PRESENTATION OF HANDEL'S MESSIAH AND THE ANNUAL GERMAN CLUB CHRISTMAS PARTY, WHERE PRESIDENT AND MRS. CUNNINGHAM AND DEAN AND MRS. McCARTNEY JOINED THE GERMAN CLUB MEMBERS IN A SONG-FEST.

will be remembered chiefly for the drudgery of the examinations and re-enrollment, but its monotony was relieved for some time by the "juvenilities" of Hell Week.

And, almost to a man, the student body availed itself of the opportunity to see "Icelandia," which was staged in our own Coliseum. To the scientists in the crowd, the iceing process was more fascinating than the show.

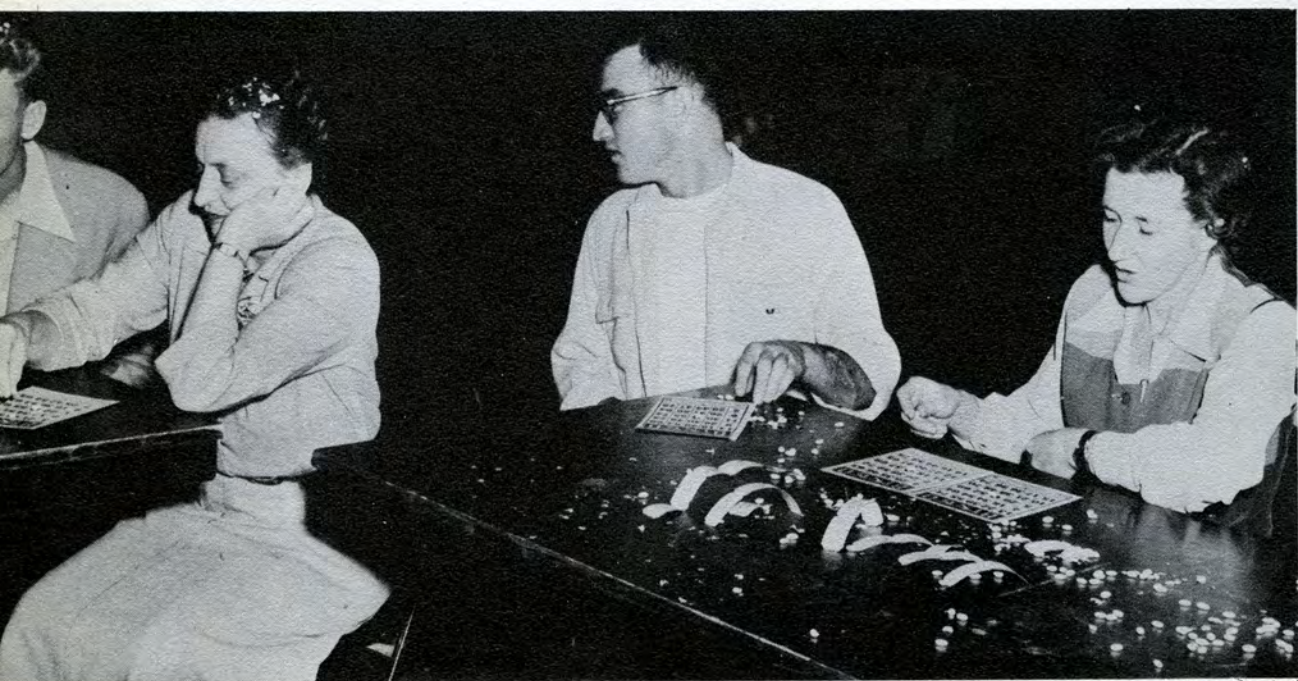

FEBRUARY—

brought cold and snow, but all was forgotten when "The Glass Menagerie" brought Julie Haydon from the Broadway production and revealed stirring dramatic ability within our own circle.

The W.A.A. sponsored an all-school carnival with each organization contributing its own originality to the success of the affair. In the picture below, the two members of the women's physical education faculty find Bingo competition from two lads from Oberlin.

was traditional in that the winds came—but other things occurred, too. Polly insists it was baseball to which her young man's fancy lightly turned, but pictures don't lie, or do posed ones?

Every where young men gathered for bull sessions, there was but one topic, and it had worn thin by its constant discussion throughout the year. The imminence of induction into the armed forces hung like a spooky and unpredictable veil over every plan a fellow might make for the future, and one angle after another was considered in these endless gabfests.

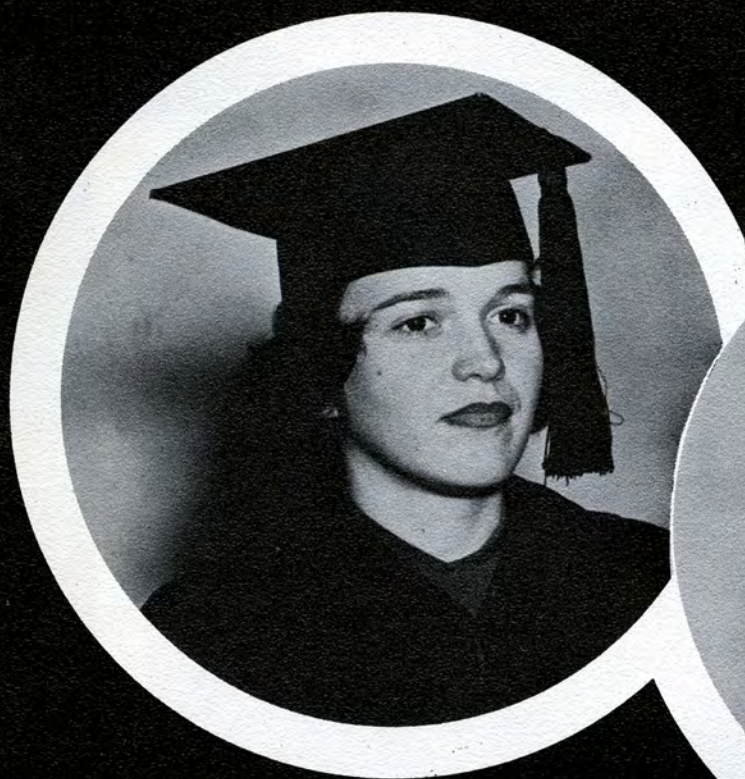

APRIL—

brought spring showers, which were so good for the wheat back home that students laughed at the minor inconveniences of scurrying into formal dances through the rain and the depression of waking in the morning to a gray and soggy world.

For nearly two hundred Fort Hays Staters, April brought ever nearer the realization of that dream, which had seemed so remote four years ago they would not even allow themselves the luxury of its contemplation.—Commencement Day!

The a cappella choir is a concert organization, presenting un-accompanied vocal music. It is directed by C. Thomas Barr, head of the music department at Fort Hays State.

The choir entertains at various college activities on the campus and combines its talent with the Community Chorus in the presentation of Handel's "Messiah" in December. This spring the group made a concert tour to high schools in Northwestern Kansas.

The policies of the choir are established by a student board, known as the Policy Board. Its members are Harold Burnett, librarian; Mary Ann Willour, secretary; Vesta De Boer, business and publicity chairman; and the following section leaders: Norma Lamoree, first soprano; Florine Brundage, second soprano; Charmaine Deutscher, first alto; Marilyn Kessler, second alto; Paul Burris, first tenor; Foster Needels, second tenor; Harold Kraus, baritone; and Don Burnett, bass.

BAND OFFICERS

Sigmund Leiker, President; Betty See, Vice-President; J. D. Norcross, Business Manager; Ronald Hopkins, Assistant Business Manager; Wilma Briscoe, Secretary and Librarian; Joy Mishler, Publicity.

The 105 students enrolled in band this year exceeds any past enrollment in the history of the college. Students from forty-three towns are represented in the total enrollment. From this large enrollment was selected a ninety-six piece Marching Band, a seventy-piece Concert Band, and a thirty-five piece Varsity Band. These three organizations made approximately forty-five appearances as they supported various college activities and performed in home concert and on tour.

The Concert Band presented its annual winter and spring concerts, with the proceeds used to help defray expenses of the annual band banquet for band members and their guests, including high school senior musicians and directors.

This year the annual Band Tour found the band in south and southwest Kansas where fifteen concerts were played in the four days on the tour.

The Varsity Band, organized this year, performed at all basketball games, pep rallies, and other campus events.

The Fort Hays Symphony Orchestra
Leo B. Reynolds, Director

Trumpeteer Richard Wolford, sophomore from Claflin, is the orchestra's star soloist. Officers of the organization are Charles Onion, president; Phyllis Suiter, secretary; and John Stadelman, treasurer.

This year, the "K" Club established three scholarships for men students, financed by proceeds of the concession stand which they operate at all campus athletic events.

A formal dinner dance is held by the group each spring, at which senior members are presented "K" blankets as a gift from the organization.

State College Leader

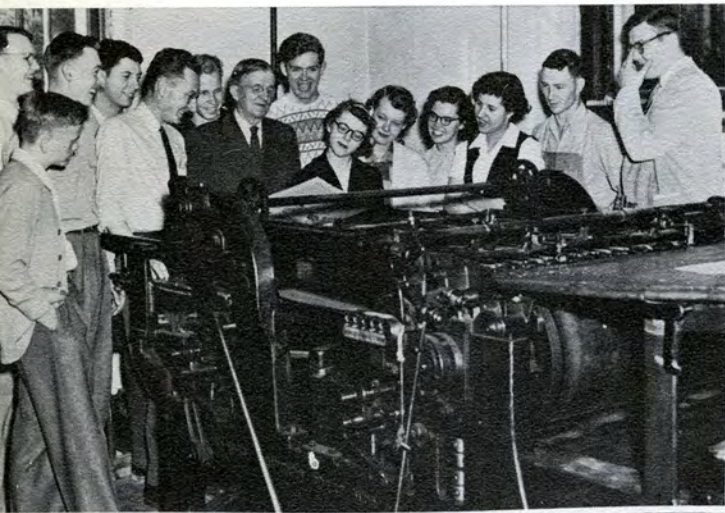

If the number of students who make their way to the Leader office when the publication is coming off the press is any indication, the weekly student newspaper plays an important role in the lives of Fort Hays State students.

Printed in the college print shop, which is supervised by Walter Wallerstedt and Ed Urban, the Leader provides a laboratory for journalism classes at the college.

Sam Teaford was assisted in his editorship by Ann Crumly. Joe Hickel's assistant business manager was Leo Lake.

Martha Pate was society editor, Bill Rupp and Norman Petty sports editors, and Jim Garrison feature editor. The reporting staff included Frank Davison, John Hibbert, Robert Hoyt, Phyllis Jeffus, H. A. Kohl, Frank White, Richard Stephenson, Earl Hobbs, Don Locy, Carol Albertson, Bill Pike, Stanley Ball, Robert Taylor, and Gerald Olsen.

Sam Teaford, editor
Joe Hickel, business manager

The Reveille

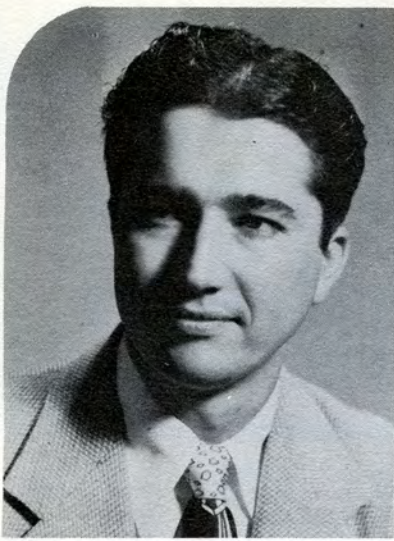

Dean Watt, editor
Gail Scheuerman, business manager
Helen Francis, faculty advisor

To most students, the Reveille appears each spring as though by magic and is casually perused, its real worth unrealized until later years. To the Reveille staff, it represents a succession of headaches, of panicky encounters with deadlines, and of ideas which once sounded original and have somehow lost their appeal.

Dean Watt, editor, was assisted by Donna Darby, with Patsy Earl serving as art editor. Gail Scheuerman, business manager, found an able assistant in Bob Archer.

The photography, except for a few fuzzy contributions accepted in an emergency, was done by Jack Hunsley. Mary Healey was class editor, Joan Fondobule, women's athletics editor; Ann Crumly, organization's editor; and Ralph McNemee, men's athletics editor. Joan Wescott and Priscilla Hamilton completed the staff.

LOWELL HAWKS

Little Theatre

The Little Theatre enjoyed a very successful year under the leadership of the president, Lowell Hawks, and the sponsors, Miss Harriet Ketchum and Dr. Geneva Herndon.

The first production of the year was the Greek tragedy, Antigone. Ethelmae Wilson and Bob Fleming had the starring roles. Next, the group chose an entirely different type of play. The Great Big Doorstep, a comedy concerning a poor family in Louisiana, was produced. Carlene Duncker and Gene McNutt starred as the heads of the family.

In an innovation in campus dramatic presentations, the students had an opportunity to see their director, Miss Ketchum, starring in a production. Miss Julia Hayden, a Broadway star, was brought to Fort Hays State to appear in its production, The Glass Menagerie by Tennessee Williams. Other members of the cast were Jack Harris, a student, and Jack Juergens.

Officers of the Little Theatre group are Lowell Hawks, president; Ethelmae Wilson, vice-president; Alyce Barstow, secretary-treasurer.

Members of the group who were not present when the picture was taken were Alyce Barstow, Donna Darby, Mary Wilkens, Ethelmae Wilson, John Hibbert, Marianna Rouse, Mary Lee Healey, Priscilla Hamilton, Marion Pember, Doris Carson, and Darrell Cobb.

Wesley Hall

Dorm days keep much in store for the girls at Wesley Hall. With the helpful direction of Mrs. Gordon, housemother, Wesley girls pack the school year with parties, dances, and numerous other events which make college days something to remember. Even on rare occasions a few girls find time to do a little old fashioned studying.

Much work is accomplished when the executive council of the dorm takes over. Filling these positions are Jeanne Custer, president; Mary Adams, vice-president; and Hope Townley, secretary-treasurer.

Across the way, we find the girls living at "The Annex" of Wesley Hall. These girls contribute much toward making the life at the dorm worth while.

Custer Hall

Ninety-two college women live at Custer Hall, dormitory owned and operated by the college. Besides numerous floor parties, showers, and house meetings with a party atmosphere, the group holds two formal dances each year, one in the fall and one in the spring. An informal party and an open house complete the schedule of activities.

Officers chosen by the dormitory residents are Ethelmae Wilson, president; Lola Young, vice-president; Phyllis Suiter, secretary; Dolores Sutton, treasurer; and Ruth Ann Reed, social chairman. Mrs. Gladys Stewart is director of the dormitory. She is assisted by Mrs. J. H. Rockwell.

Football

The 1950 gridiron team at Fort Hays State compiled a record of three wins, four losses, and two ties.

The Tigers opened the season against Northwest Missouri State at Maryville, and won the game in the last few seconds on a pass from freshman Kayo McGillivray to end Don Fowler.

The first conference game saw the Tigers playing a 0-0 deadlock with the Southwestern Moundbuilders.

Wahlmeier and Fowler stood out in the line, while Betts was the hero of backfield play.

In their first home game, the Tigers lost by a 6-0 score to the Pittsburg Gorillas. The next game saw the Tigers tie the St. Benedicts Ravens 7-7 at Atchison. Passes from Carmody to McGillivray and Fowler set up the touchdown, with McConnell scoring from the one-yard line.

The Homecoming game provided one of the greatest shows ever seen in Lewis Field Stadium as the Tigers nipped the Quincy, Ill., Hawks 26-25. The following week, the Tigers were victims of the C. I. C. champions, Emporia State, with a 27-0 score.

The next week the Tigers took the short end of a 7-0 score against the Washburn Ichabods to close the conference season. Colorado College made the Tigers its ninth consecutive victim with an easy 32-0 win on Nov. 4. In the season's finale, the Tigers garnered a 26-13 win over Kansas Wesleyan.

Coach Marion McDonald's "B" squad played only one game, losing to Sterling College 12-0.

The Tigers, with a 9 win-10 loss record outside of tournament play, were not as successful as in previous years under Coach Suran, but the team, built around a nucleus of young players, played brilliant ball at times. The Tigers failed to repeat as champions of the Central Intercollegiate Conference but the loss of eight starters from last year's winning aggregation through graduation was partially responsible for this.

The Tigers pulled two highly-regarded upsets the past season. The first was a 74-67 pasting of New Mexico A. & M., which later defeated Arizona. Arizona previously had defeated Long Island University. The other upset was a 76-62 defeat handed to Emporia State. The Hornets were leading the conference with a 6-0 record and the loss to Hays cost them the championship as they were later edged out by Washburn University.

The Tigers opened the season by losing to the Southwest Oklahoma State Bulldogs 50-47 on the Tigers' home court. The next week-end the Tigers handed the visiting Colorado College Tigers two defeats, 72-70 and 61-51.

Back in the conference, the Tigers eked by Southwestern, 41-39, lost to Emporia, 58-55, and lost to Washburn, 54-43. In the meantime, they won non-conference victories from New Mexico A. & M. and Oklahoma Baptists.

After the holidays, the Tigers outlasted St. Benedicts, 55-40, but suffered an embarrassing loss to Kansas Wesleyan. A disastrous road trip found the Tigers losing two important conference games, to Rockhurst and Pittsburg State, both of whom the Tigers defeated on the home court later in the season.

Under the able and capable tutelage of Coach Marian McDonald, Fort Hays State's Tiger Cubs wound up their season play with a record of 10 wins and six losses.

Bill Rupp, Glenn Pfortmiller, Walter Hobbs, and Kayo McGillivray showed well in these "B" squad contests and will be valuable to Cade Suran's "A" team next year.

Among the games which the Cubs won were two over the Russell Oilers, one of the best town teams in the state and a team which entered in the state AA meet at Wichita.

Other wins chalked up by the Cubs were at the benefit of Lorraine, Gove, Holyrood, Grinnell, and La-Crosse town teams, and Phi Sigma Epsilon Fraternity, one of the better organization teams on the campus.

"Jumpin' Jack" Ziegler gets the tip.

The 1950 Fort Hays State Track and Field Squad, Runners-up in the Central Intercollegiate Conference, undefeated in dual, triangular, and quadrangular competition.

Below, left, is Cade Suran, assistant coach, shown in a discussion with Glenn Tuttle, co-champion of the C. I. C. in 1949, who was held from conference competition last year by an injury received early in the season. Tuttle has won his most points in pole vault competition, but is also an excellent low hurdler.

Below, right, is Leon "Blackie" Roberts, the only defending C. I. C. champion on the 1951 track and field squad. Roberts also won the Colorado Relays title in his favorite event, the javelin throw, and placed second in the 1950 A. A. U. meet in Kansas City.

Track and Field

Due to copy deadlines, the story a yearbook carries of track and field must always be a hybrid account of past and present seasons.

It would be unfair to fail to mention three of the most gallant all-around competitors Fort Hays State has ever known—all of whom climaxed their careers last spring and are pictured here only in the squad picture. They are Don Nichol, who won C. I. C. championships in both the 440 and 880 during his competition and who could always be relied upon to give whatever he found he had to give as anchor man on Tiger relay teams; Fred Simmons, who won the C. I. C. high jump championships for three consecutive years; and Jack Hague, all-around field performer, who has one C. I. C. pole vaulting championship on his record. These men also won A. A. U. championships and set five Fort Hays State records during their college careers—Simmons in the high jump and shot put, Nichol in the 440 and 880 yard runs, and Hague in the pole vault. Also lost by graduation were Billy Campbell, 1949 C. I. C. javelin champion; Dale Thornburg, high jumper; and Roger Browne, javelin thrower.

WHAT OF 1951?

New men who are expected to add strength to the Tiger hopes of maintaining high standards of track competition at Fort Hays State include the Nicholas brothers, Richard and Mansel, of Coldwater; Emil Zeigler, dash man from Quinter; Kayo McGillivray, all-around athlete from Ulysses; Gene Anderson, high-jumper and hurdler from Kinsley; the Hobbs brothers, Earl and Walter, of Pueblo, Colorado; Henry Kohfeld, hurdler from Norton; Gene Jaco, dash man from Plainville; and Dick Scott, broad-jumper from Belleville.

Below, left, are the distance runners, who are caught out on a cold day. They are Gerald Wade, Lawrence Tedford, Bill Rupp, Ronald Hopkins, Max Terrell, and Bob Malone.

Lower right, Sam Teaford, who tied for first at the Colorado Relays with a jump of 6'4" shows the height to his fellow highjumpers, Gene Anderson, Gerald Siemsen, and Earl Hobbs.

Tennis and Golf

The 1951 tennis squad is made up mainly of newcomers, with Leroy Bingaman and Eugene Ray, the only veterans from the 1950 squad. Tennis matches were played with Hutchinson, Garden City, and Dodge City Junior colleges, Kansas Wesleyan University, and Kearney (Nebraska) Teachers. The C. I. C. meet was held May 4-5, but Reveille deadlines do not permit a report on the outcome.

Dave King is the only returning letterman around whom Coach Marion McDonald built his 1951 Tiger golf team. Matches were played with Kansas Wesleyan and Kearney (Nebraska) Teachers prior to the C. I. C. meet, which was held in Kansas City early in May.

Twenty teams participated in an exciting intramural basketball program, which saw the Sigma Tau Gamma fraternity (shown upper right) win its first organization championship in recent years. The same team went on to cinch the school championship by defeating the Smoos, (lower right) independent champions, in the final play-off. During the season, 92 intramural basketball games were played.

The intramural touch football championship was won by the Phi Sigma Epsilon fraternity, which also walked away with the swimming team championship. Championships in volleyball, track and field, and softball had not been decided when the Reveille went to press.

In the spring of 1950, the rotating trophy was won by Phi Sigma Epsilon fraternity.

The program was directed by Alex Francis, intramural director; Herschel Betts, intramural manager; and Gene Hess, assistant manager. This group is pictured below.

Straight from Broadway, Julie Haydon lent glamour to "The Glass Menagerie," but it was our own Jack Harris, Harriet Ketchum, and Jack Juergens who made it the drama event of all time for Fort Hays State students and other Western Kansans.

Gayle Combest assisted Harris with the direction and Betty Laizure was Miss Haydon's understudy.

Speech

Below—"The Great Big Doorstep" lent a lighter note to the dramatic season. It was presented in December by the Little Theatre group, under the direction of Miss Harriet Ketchum.

Above—Ethelmae Wilson and Bob Fleming are shown in a tense moment in "Antigone", which was the first presentation of the Little Theatre group.

The department of speech includes many activities, which are popular among campus extroverts. In the scene below, members of Dr. Geneva Herndon's class in speech correction practice technique on each other.

Speech

The Fort Hays Radio Review, a daily broadcast over station KAYS in Hays, provides the practical experience so necessary for radio students.

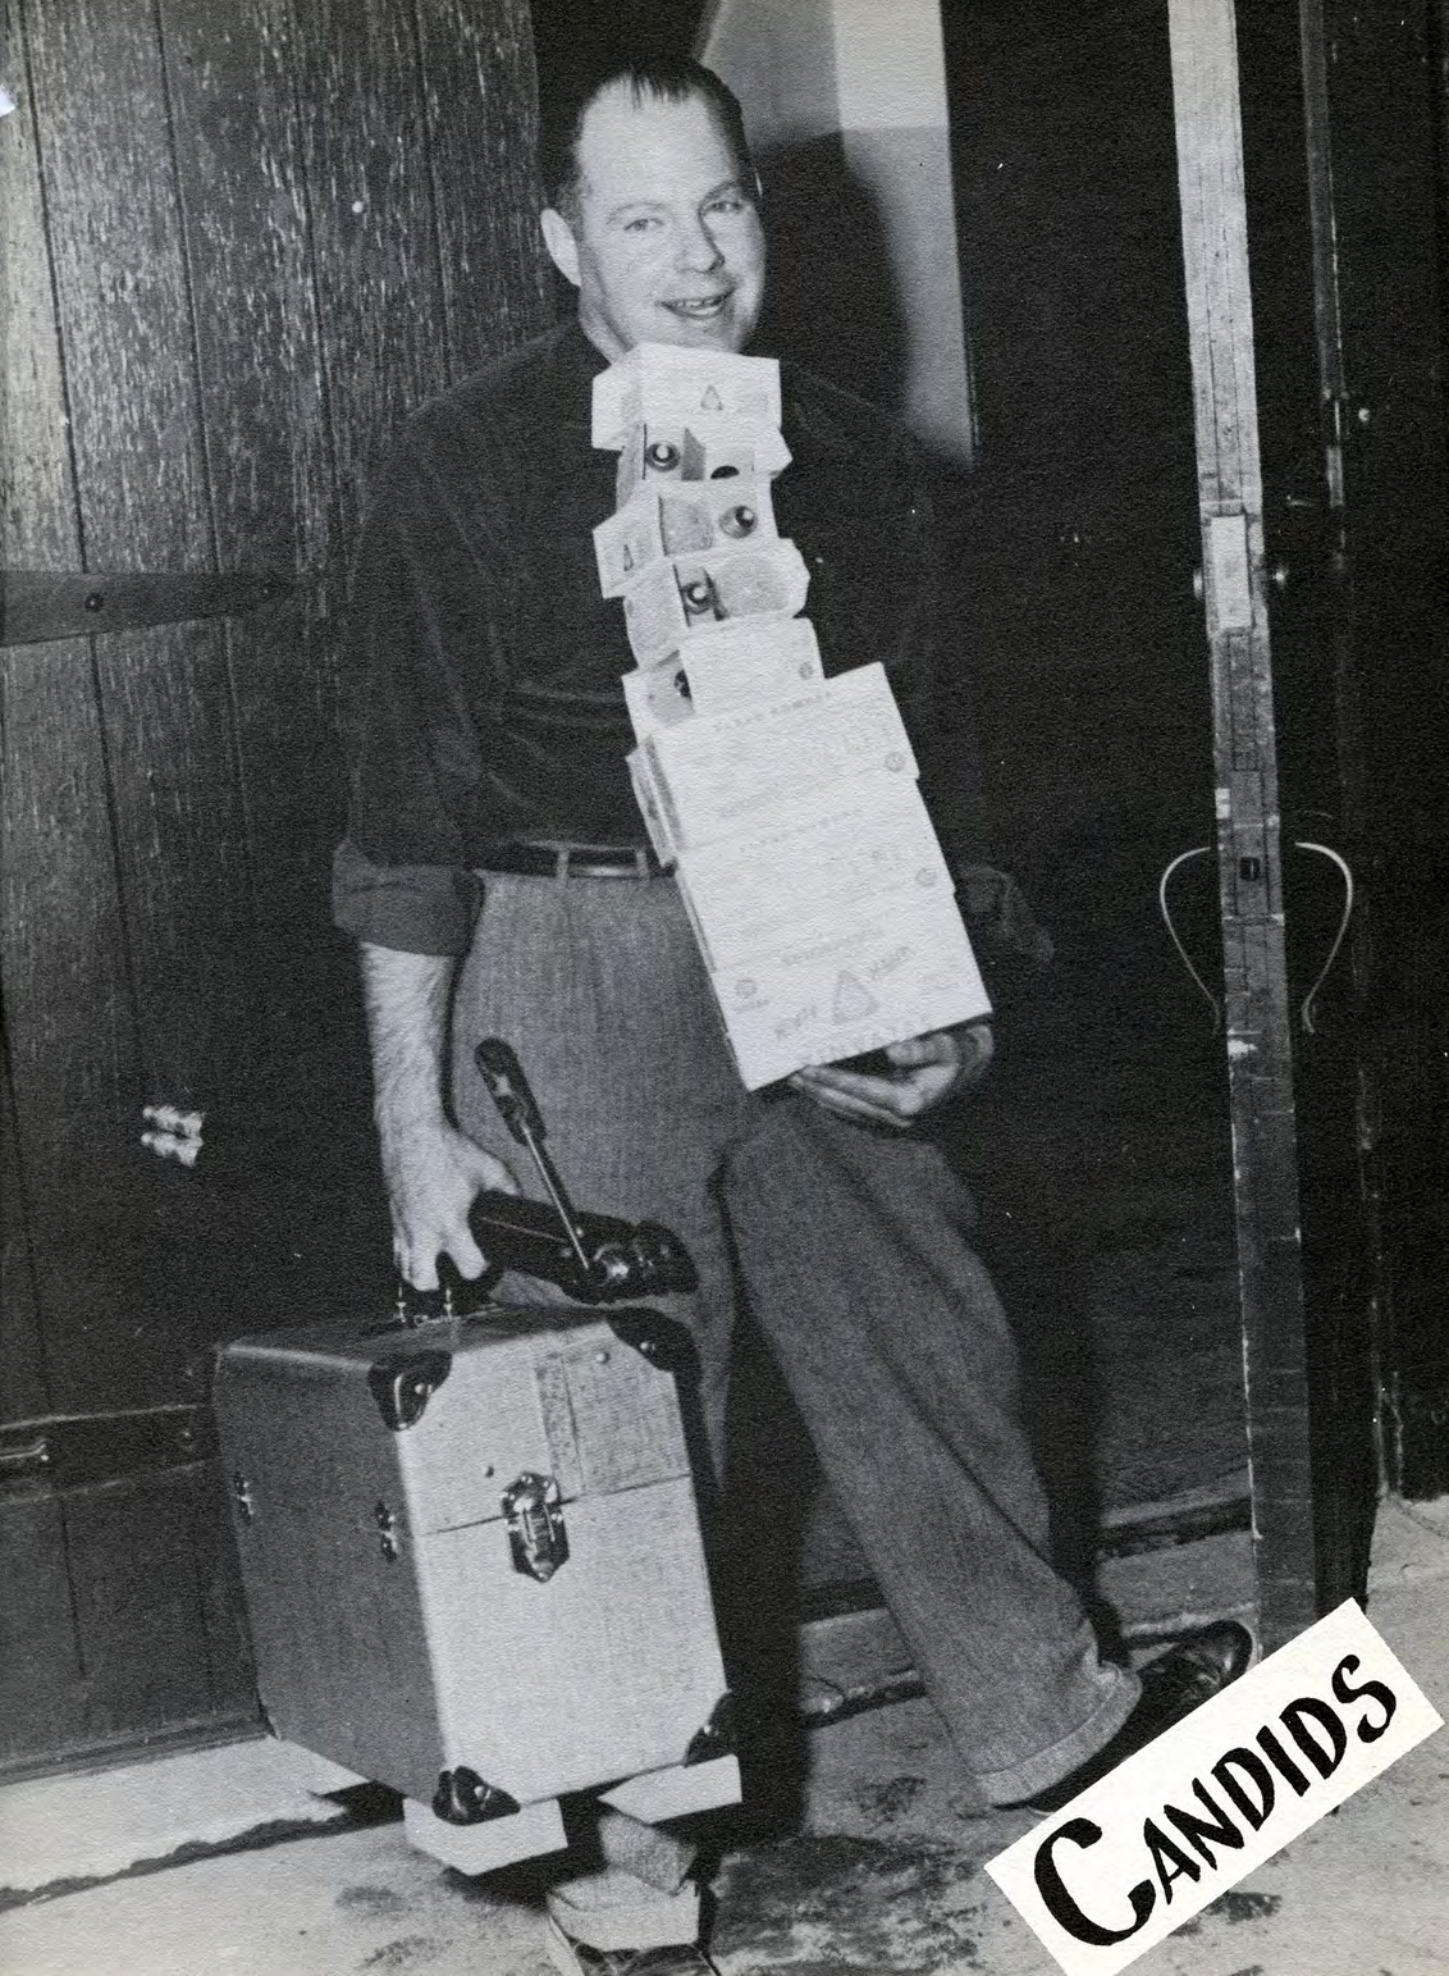

At the right, Ethelmae Wilson and Loren Schmitzberger present a campus news broadcast.

Thirst, Too, Seeks Quality

Months of study—Months of pleasant companionship—

All of them summarized in this yearbook, a memento to the effort you have put forth to make a success of your school work. It is our hope that Coca-Cola has in some small way made your task easier—contributed a friendly pause for refreshment to your work or play.

Anywhere, anytime, you will find a frosty bottle of Coca-Cola near-by to help you make any pause "The Pause That Refreshes".

From Other Lands

A cosmopolitan air was added to the Fort Hays State campus this year, as seven students from other countries were on hand on enrollment day. For the first time, Fort Hays State also had an exchange teacher from a foreign country.

At the left: Posing in this fashion was not Jacques Pages' idea, but he obliged to satisfy the whim of the college publicist. He is framed in the doorway of the French Merci car, which is on exhibit on our campus. Pages is a graduate student in the biology department. He is a native of France, but his home is now in French Morocco.

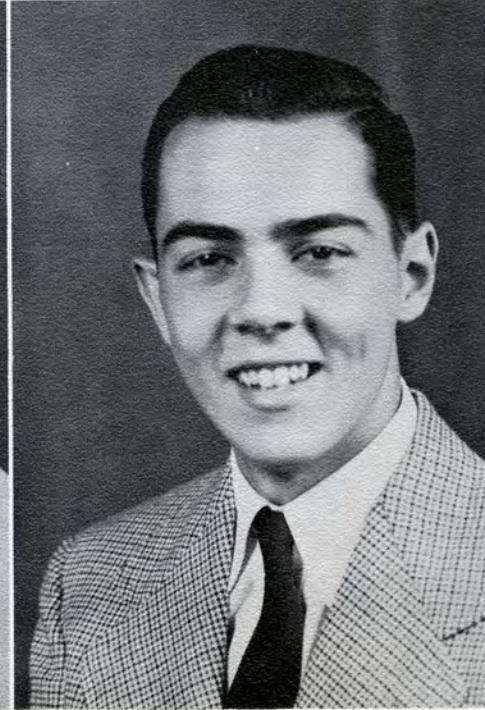

Pictured below are the following: Carlos Evers, Mexico City, Mexico, who will receive his bachelor's degree in agriculture from Fort Hays State this spring; Catharina Slapp, graduate student in the department of social science, who claims the Netherlands as her homeland; Augusto Martinez, a freshman from Bogota, Columbia, whose major will be economics and business administration.

Carlos Evers

Catharina Slapp

Augusto Martinez

Miss Edna Pickard, left, a member of the faculty of the Truro County School for Girls at Cornwall, England, exchanged positions for the year with Mrs. Kathryn Bogart of the Fort Hays State English faculty. Her friendly manner and her cheery, efficient approach to her job in America endeared her to students and fellow faculty members alike.

Pictured at far left is Ausma Vildins, a pre-medic freshman. Ausma lived with her family in Latvia until World War II forced them to come to Western Kansas as displaced persons.

At the far left is Zinowiz Melnyk, a displaced person from Ukrania, who was brought to the Fort Hays State campus this fall on a scholarship financed by the UNESCO Council. Zin is a student in the department of economics and business administration.

Below, left, is Alex Suenaga, who made history by being elected cheerleader only a few days after his arrival on the campus in January, 1950. A native of Honolulu, Hawaii, Alex had served three years in the United States Army before coming to this country for pre-dental training.

Above, A simple operation, IF you have that scientific mind!

A Few Words To The Students Of Fort Hays State

The reading of a daily newspaper is a broad education in itself. The daily paper affords a background of general information which no one can obtain in any other way.

Few college students need to be told this, it goes without saying, but there may be young men and young women attending Fort Hays State who do not know the Hays Daily News has complete coverage of world-wide, national, state and home news on every weekday except Saturday, and on Sunday as well. The Sunday Morning News also has features and a comic section as well. The over-all news coverage provided is that of the Associated Press, the world's largest news-gathering agency.

This is what happened to a perfectly good Reveille photographer about midnight of the biggest Homecoming in history. It typifies the confusion of the entire Reveille staff as we approach the end of a long and dizzying task.

Our thanks to the hundreds of students and faculty members whose cooperation we have needed on so many occasions.

Our deep gratitude, too, to the advertisers who have made this book possible.
