The primary source materials contained in the Fort Hays State University Special Collections and Archives have been placed there for research purposes, preservation of the historical record, and as reflections of a past belonging to all members of society. Because this material reflects the expressions of an ongoing culture, some items in the collections may be sensitive in nature and may not represent the attitudes, beliefs, or ideas of their creators, persons named in the collections, or the position of Fort Hays State University.

Reflecting is a pastime in which all of us indulge. Memories are personal impressions; each private reflection is as individual as the person to which it belongs.

However, memories frequently become dim and indistinct with the passing of time. Names are forgotten; yesterday's events are slighted in anticipation of the future.

This book is designed in the manner of all yearbooks—to help you, the reader, remember. Pictures and words have been selected to make your memories more distinct. The Reveille strives to provide a glimpse of the things that were Fort Hays State during the year.

We of the staff hope that the 1960 Reveille will cast permanent reflections of the highlights and the sidelights of your college life.
Because he exemplifies the teacher at Fort Hays State . . .
Because he is respected as such and as a worthwhile citizen, not only of the college but the community in which he lives . . .
Because of the many hours he spends in extra work for the student and the interest he puts into student activities . . .
Because he represents others like him who are doing work for the future well-being of both the student and the college . . .
Because the staff of the 1960 Reveille wishes to recognize him and his associates . . .
We dedicate this yearbook to Wilmont Toalson.
The President

The theme of this 1960 yearbook is most appropriate, for all of you who are students will cherish the memories reflected in this Reveille. In the years ahead, I am sure you will find that the many happy memories of your days at Fort Hays State are very valuable possessions.

May the knowledge you have acquired here and the activities in which you have participated be a foundation upon which you may build a happy, successful, and unselfish life. May you furnish those qualities of Christian leadership in all fields of endeavor which will add to the well-being and happiness of mankind.

M. C. Cunningham, President
The nine-member Board of Regents is appointed by the Governor of Kansas, as is the permanent executive secretary, Hubert Brighton. The board supervises all operations of the five state institutions of higher learning and the state schools for the deaf and the blind. College presidents are elected by the Board of Regents. The state schools present annual budgets to the board, which adjusts them and presents them to the Governor.

Fort Hays State is fully accredited by the North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools, the National Council for Accreditation of Teachers Education, the National Association of Schools of Music and the American Association of University Women.

Seated: Leon N. Roulier, Colby; Clement H. Hall, Chairman, Coffeyville; Claude C. Bradney, Columbus. Standing: Russell R. Rust, Topeka; Ray R. Evans, Prairie Village; George B. Collins, Wichita; Charles V. Kincaid, Independence; Harry Valentine, Clay Center; Whitley Austin, Salina; and Hubert Brighton, secretary, Topeka.
From the aged stone of the Coliseum to the dramatic glass and steel of the Union, this is the campus. The older buildings have a quality of strength and endurance that span the seasons; they reflect the past that has been Fort Hays State for fifty-eight years. The new buildings, the Applied Arts Building and the Memorial Union, reflect the spirit of growth that the college has been experiencing since its founding.

These buildings are the setting for our activities—our scholastic and social achievements and disappointments. We pass through their halls each day on our way to class, to relax in the lounge, to check out a book. They are the background of campus life and they assume importance in their own right.

Administration

and

Faculty
These are the people who keep the college operating as an institution of higher education. The administration and faculty, collectively and individually, work at their professions to further the college. Theirs are the tasks of coordinating, counseling, advising, and directing college activities and policies. Enduring registration, working long and tirelessly, preparing students for careers, planning programs, they are there, day after day, to help the student on his way to becoming a better citizen.

Mrs. Hoffman, Awn Trelxler, Mrs. D. Smith, and Linda Stoskopf prepare material for pattern cutting.

Kerry McQueen ponders an answer as Margaret Burtscher and George Neylon pose a question in a speech class.
Education centers around the student's chosen area of study. During undergraduate work the daily class schedule is the pivot point. Throughout the academic year, term papers, outside readings and meetings with faculty advisors form the groundwork of education. Required courses and a choice of electives give variety and round out the curriculum.
Most seniors are familiar with the library after three years of college. Gordon Line, Deanna Lockman and Norman Ochs work at the card catalog file.

Organizations

Organizations provide opportunities for personal growth, development of friendships, and a chance for growth in creativity and leadership. Cultural, religious and social aspects play important roles in the complete education of a student. Campus organizations are a vital part of Fort Hays State students’ out-of-the-classroom learning process.
Alpha Lambda Delta

Gives Scholastic Recognition to Freshman Women

Alpha Lambda Delta, a national honorary society for freshman women, was installed on campus in the spring of 1959. This society's aim is the promotion and encouragement of high scholastic attainment among freshman women.

To be qualified for membership into this society a candidate must have a grade average of 2.5 or better for her first semester or first two semesters. Sophomores, juniors and seniors with a cumulative index of 2.5 or better may join.

President of Alpha Lambda Delta is Karen Getty. Margaret Langrehr is secretary, Judy Greiner, treasurer, and Joyce Showalter, historian. Dr. Katherine Nutt is sponsor.

Alpha Psi Omega

Dramatic Group Offers Theatrical Training

Alpha Psi Omega, national dramatics fraternity, endeavors to stimulate interest in dramatic activities on campus. This group, in co-operation with Little Theater, produces three three-act plays and also three one-act plays annually. Its members are chosen in accordance with their participation in dramatic productions. Alpha Psi Omega president, Dave Beckwith, is aided by Charlotte Folkerts, vice president, and Roberta Harkness, secretary. Dr. Geneva Herndon is sponsor.

Members are: Phil Webber, Lee McDaniel, Charlotte Folkerts, Dave Beckwith, Dr. Geneva Herndon, sponsor; Don Buser.
Kappa Omicron Phi
Develops Women With High Ideals of Everyday Living

Kappa Omicron Phi, professional home economics fraternity, is one of the oldest of the honorary groups on campus, having become active in 1925. This fraternity strives to further the best interests of home economics in four-year colleges.

Each September a formal tea is held for those students interested in home economics. Also an annual event is the Mother-Daughter banquet held to celebrate Founder’s Day. To be eligible for membership in this group a student must have completed 12 hours of home economics and maintain a grade average of 2. in home economics courses and 1. average in other courses.

Joan Hargitt Fisher is president of Kappa Omicron Phi. Other officers include Marcelline Koch, vice president, Beverly Starkey, secretary, and Ilene Davis, treasurer.

Lambda Iota Tau
Honors Scholarship in the Field of Literature.

Lambda Iota Tau, national honorary language and literature organization, pursues the recognition of scholarship achievement in the area of literature. Though not limited in size, only students with at least a 2. grade average in 6 hours of literature are eligible for membership. The group meets regularly to discuss recent novels and publishes in the spring a collection of literary studies containing student-written critical or research essays in literature.

Lambda Iota Tau president is Hazel Flock. William Epler is vice president, Paula Schumacher-Simons, secretary, and Annette Ruder, treasurer. Dr. Sam Sackett is sponsor.

Kappa Mu Epsilon is composed of students who have completed 13 hours of mathematics and who have maintained a 2. grade average. A national honorary mathematics fraternity, Kappa Mu Epsilon recognizes outstanding achievement and encourages the interest of mathematics on campus, helping undergraduates realize the important role that mathematics plays in the development of civilization and its increasing significance in the world today.

Officers are: Ron Nelson, president; Charles Rhine, vice president; Ellen Duff, secretary-treasurer.

Phi Eta Sigma
Honors Freshman Men of High Scholarship

Phi Eta Sigma, honorary scholastic fraternity for freshman men, recognizes and honors scholastic ability in freshmen for the work they've done during their first year in college. A 2.5 grade average for one semester or an overall average for the first two semesters will qualify a student for membership. Faculty members are elected as honorary members on the basis of outstanding achievement in their profession. A formal banquet and initiation is held each semester for new members.

Sam Lessig, as president of Phi Eta Sigma, is aided by Jack Stout, vice president; Robert Twenter, secretary; Brent Collins, treasurer; and Larry Hefel, historian.

Pi Kappa Delta
Promotes Speech and Forensics

Pi Kappa Delta, national honorary forensic fraternity, honors students who have proven themselves to be outstanding in public speaking. The group promotes organized speech activities on campus with particular emphasis on debate. Membership is extended to students who participate in oratory, intercollegiate debate, extemporaneous speaking, and other public speaking. Initiation is held for new members each spring.

Warren Norton is president of Pi Kappa Delta. Steve Staub, vice president; Patricia Trent, secretary-treasurer. James R. Start is the sponsor.

Phi Delta Kappa
Recognizes Leaders in the Education Profession

Phi Delta Kappa is a national professional fraternity for male educators. Membership is extended to those who have shown themselves outstanding in scholarship and leadership in the profession. Members fall into three classifications: proven administrators, graduate students in the department of education, and undergraduate students who are of senior standing with a 2. grade average. Delta Lambda chapter of Phi Delta Kappa endeavors to further education, conduct research and develop educators. A formal banquet and initiation is held in spring and summer for new electees. The fraternity holds a picnic for all men enrolled in the department of education for summer sessions.

Membership is large and includes both on and off-campus educators.

Phi Kappa Phi

Honor Society Elects Top Scholars

Phi Kappa Phi recognizes scholarship among the students of American colleges and universities by inviting them to membership. Election implies scholarship in the broadest sense of the word. The local chapter presents an outstanding speaker each year—one who exemplifies the ideals of the society. In addition, the chapter presents a Phi Kappa Phi scholarship to an outstanding senior.

Electees must be in the upper 121/2 per cent of the graduating class and not more than 10 per cent of the class can be chosen. Graduate students, alumni and faculty members may be selected on the basis of outstanding achievement.

Sigma Pi Sigma

Awards Distinction to Physics Students

Sigma Pi Sigma, national physics honorary society, recognizes students with a 2. grade average in 13 hours of physics. The group strives to promote interest in physics by sponsoring programs with regular speakers for students interested in physics. Members conduct slide rule classes and do tutoring in physics. The society also assists in the Science Open House held annually. A formal banquet and initiation was held May 2 for new members.

Charles Rhine is president of Sigma Pi Sigma. Other officers include Ralph Sitton, vice president, and Lawrence Dryden, secretary-treasurer. Doyle Brooks is the sponsor.

Radio Club

Operates Radio Station in Physics Department

Radio Club promotes the interest and welfare of the amateur radio society and extends benefits to amateur radio operators. A licensed station in the physics office serves as the club station. A holder of an amateur radio license or a student interested in radio is eligible for membership. The organization meets regularly to discuss theoretical electronics and to demonstrate electronic apparatus, and occasionally holds exchange programs with Sigma Pi Sigma.

Seventh Cavalry

Student Leaders Render Service to School.

Seventh Cavalry, men’s leadership fraternity, is composed of students who have met certain scholastic standards and have shown potential possibilities for growth and leadership. Named in honor of General George Custer’s regiment, this service club endeavors to aid and promote the general leadership activities of the school and aids in any united student effort which is helpful to the college. Fulfilling these goals, the group keeps a busy schedule by publishing student directories annually, ushering at Artists’ and Lecture series, and selling popcorn at varsity games to provide money for scholarships.

Ken Griffin, officiating as president of Seventh Cavalry, is aided by Jon Dellett, vice president; Rex Kerstetter, secretary; and Charles Rhine, treasurer. Standlee V. Dalton is sponsor.

Officers Charles Rhine, Jon Dellett, and Ken Griffin confer with Rex Kerstetter.

Members are: Frederick Twenter, Maurice Prine, Bob Baalman, Robert Koch, Jon Dellett, Ken Griffin, Francis Wilson, Jerry Vance, Jack Stout, Bob Beck, Meryl Grosshans.

Who's Who Elects Thirty-two Fort Hays Staters

Seniors with qualities of future leadership, capability, citizenship and promise for future usefulness were selected to appear in the 1959-60 edition of Who's Who Among Students in American Colleges and Universities. Thirty-two Fort Hays Staters having a grade point of 2.0 or higher qualified.

Not pictured are: Gary Anschutz, Adolph Beyerlein, La Vonne Bridges, Beverly DeLay Clark, Phyllis Dinkel, Hazel Flock, Joan Hargett Fisher, Larry Kopke, Mary-Kurtz, Barbara Palmer, Vina Oldach.

Women’s Leadership Organization
Recognizes Women With Leadership Ability

Women’s Leadership Organization is composed of students who have shown themselves to be leaders on the campus. Women who have a 2. grade average and who participate actively in extracurricular activities are eligible for membership. From this group, initiates are selected by a vote of the entire faculty and then voted on by WLO members. The organization fosters high ideals, recognizes and develops leadership, and sponsors cultural interests. Activities have included decorating the Christmas tree in the library, having coffees for faculty members, and holding a formal initiation in April.

Betty Edwards acts as president of WLO and is assisted by Marcalene Cody, vice president; Deanna Lockman, secretary-treasurer; Paula Simons, publicity chairman; and Margaret Stapleton, historian.

WLO members add finishing touches to the Christmas tree.

Members are, back row: Paula Simons, Mary Deshien, Donna Murray, Margaret Stapleton, Deanna Lockman, Rosa Lee Whitmer, Wilma Baus, Lela Ormsbee, Betty Edwards, Kay Kaufman.
Front row: Nancy Thelen, Hazel Flock, Wanda Mease, Phyllis Dinkel, Marcalene Cody, Mary Ellen Clark, Miss Verna Parish, sponsor; Sylvia Kaiser.

Officers are Margaret Stapleton, Deanna Lockman, Paula Simons, Betty Edwards, and Marcalene Cody.
Honors Seminar

Honors Outstanding Academic Work

Honors Seminar is composed of students who have a record of outstanding achievement in several subject fields, besides that of their major field. Admission to the honors program is the highest academic privilege the college can bestow, and accordingly, admission is by invitation only. There are three seminars each school year, each granting two hours credit. The Honors Board consists of Dr. Robert Marple, Dr. Verna Parish, Dr. Paul Graber, Dr. John Garwood, Doyle Brooks, and Stanley Mahoney.

Other students not pictured are participating in the honors program.
Epsilon Pi Tau
Furthers Scholastic Achievement for Industrial Arts Majors

Epsilon Pi Tau, honorary industrial arts fraternity, was established as Beta Theta chapter in April, 1958. The group gives recognition to those industrial arts students who have reached the top 25 per cent of their class in all subject fields. Admission is by invitation only and membership is not limited solely to students on campus.

Activities include raising money for scholarships which are extended to outstanding industrial arts students throughout the area. A major project this year was the promotion of an Industrial Arts Fair for high school students of Western Kansas who brought their work to the campus for the two-day festival, the first of its kind ever held at Fort Hays State.

Robert Scott is president of Epsilon Pi Tau; he is assisted by Donald Layton, vice president; Thomas Keenan, secretary; and Harold German, treasurer. Paul Griffith is sponsor.

Alpha Phi Omega
Is Composed of Former Boy Scouts

Alpha Phi Omega, which is open to all former Boy Scouts, is a nationally affiliated organization. The Fort Hays chapter has served two years of pledgeship and is awaiting installation as a chapter of the national fraternity. It is designed to provide service to local Boy Scouts and to further the interest of young men in scouting. This is an honorary organization which serves Fort Hays State, the community and nation by service activities.

For service projects on campus, the members serve as ushers for Artist and Lecture programs, makeup the stage crew for the Follies and help girls move into the dormitories at the beginning of school. They work with the Union in operating a lost and found department and they dispose of unclaimed articles by sponsoring an auction in the spring.

Officers are Charles Youngdahl, president; Richard Schmalzried, secretary-treasurer; Richard Burnett, sponsor.

Several actives and their sponsor have an informal meeting with some of the new pledges. Those present include: Lowell Griffis, Curtis Carley, Bob Ridgway, Charles Youngdahl, Richard Burnett, Richard Schmalzried, J. D. Forsyth, Dennis McMullen, Lionel Gray.
Campus Boosters Council

Stimulates Pep Activities

The Campus Boosters, a student council committee, is responsible for school rallies, pep assemblies, and the general promotion and stimulation of school spirit.

Planning pep assemblies, holding rallies to see the teams off and planning halftime entertainment at home basketball games were all projects of the Campus Boosters Council. A representative from each campus organization make up this committee.

Chancery Club

Organized for Pre-Law Students

Chancery Club is open to students interested in the legal profession. The main goal is to promote the development of a training program to help prepare for the study of law. The members also further their knowledge and interest concerning the career they have chosen.

Last year the club became the Eta chapter of the national Chancery club at the national convention held in Dallas.

Officers include the chief justice (president), Claude Hanson; associate justice (vice president), LouJean Brown; clerk of the court (secretary), Troy McAfee; and bailiff (treasurer), Bill Catlin.

Chemistry Club
Encourages Chemistry Careers

The Chemistry Club is open to all students interested in chemistry. This organization strives to acquaint the members with the possibilities of a career in chemistry as well as to encourage all students to further their study in the chemistry field.

Each year the club presents an award to the outstanding senior chemistry major.

Selling chemistry textbooks and aprons for use in chemistry lab classes is the financial project of the club.

Collegiate 4-H Club
Promotes 4-H Interest on Campus

Collegiate 4-H club is open to Fort Hays State students who are interested in 4-H work or who have been members of 4-H clubs. This club is sponsored by students who are interested in furthering 4-H work on our campus.

Serving as judges for 4-H Achievement Days and working with the Ellis County 4-H Clubs have been projects of the group.

Speakers make-up the largest part of the programs of the Collegiate 4-H club.

Officers are: Judy Griffith, secretary; Bob Smith, treasurer; Jerry Westbrook, president; Karen Conard, reporter.

Collegiate Young Democrats
Kennedy's Visit Is Highlight of Year

Preparing for Senator John Kennedy's appearance in Hays was the Collegiate Young Democrats' major project of the year. Kennedy spoke at a dinner in his honor.

State representative E. J. Dreiling and Sixth District Democratic Committee chairman Norbert Dreiling were speakers at two meetings.

The Collegiate Young Democrats strive to promote understanding of politics. They sponsor open forums, speakers and group discussions to encourage students' interest in local and national political issues.

Dames Club
Social Activities Offered for Student Wives

The Dames Club is a national organization established in 1921 at the University of Chicago. At present there is a Dames Club on nearly every campus across the country. The purpose of the club is to promote a spirit of friendliness, provide for social opportunities, and to stimulate general culture among its members.

To become a member of "Dames," one must be a wife of a student, a mother of a student, or a married woman attending college. Many of the girls have children and a number of them attend school or hold jobs. This year marks the thirteenth year for Fort Hays State College Dames Club.

Officers are: Jack McCord, vice president; Lou Jean Brown, secretary-treasurer; Mr. Witt, sponsor; John Ivan, president.

Collegiate Young Republicans
Stresses Education in Politics

The Collegiate Young Republicans started the year with a membership campaign held during the first week of school.

Any students interested in politics are welcome to join the Collegiate Young Republicans.

With “Education in Politics,” as their theme, the club strives to promote local and national politics among the members of the club.

The Collegiate Young Republicans have been active on campus and many well-known Republicans have been speakers at their meetings. Among them were: Ned Cushing, National Chairman; Donna Attington, National Committee woman, Sam Millinger, state Republican chairman and Vern Hoisington, state senator.

The organization sponsored a candidate for homecoming queen and also entered a float in the parade. They sponsored a dance in the fall; their traditional formal was held in February.

A highlight of the year was the state convention held in Topeka in March.
Debate

Teams Rate High in Several Tournaments

Endeavoring to repeat last year’s performance of winning the CIC sweepstakes award, the debate squad has seriously and fervently discussed the pros and cons of the question. Resolved: That Congress should have the power to reverse decisions of the Supreme Court.

Highlight of the season was the invitation to participate in the Harvard Invitational Tournament in February with the Karst-Trent and Norton-Staub teams and Coach Harold Stones flying to Boston for the meet.

First year debaters entered the novice tourney at Kansas State University and the Pittsburg meet. The varsity squad entered at Kearney, Southwestern and McPherson with outstanding records in all three meets. After accepting the Harvard invitation, the remainder of the schedule was shortened to include only the CIC meet and the Pi Kappa Delta Province meet.

Eta Rho Epsilon

Aids Physical Education Majors

Any second semester physical education major or maintaining a one point grade average, is eligible to become a member of Eta Rho Epsilon. Physical education minors may join through approval of major members.

This organization, which was just established last year, strives to promote professional attitudes, knowledge and relationships among its members.

Work days are held throughout the year as money-making projects. The group is raising money to be used in future years for a scholarship.

The organization holds a social and a business meeting each month. Discussion groups are held during the business meetings and the members participate in various forms of recreation as part of their social meetings.

Officers for the group are: president, Dixie Barb; vice president, Elsie Hildebrand; secretary-treasurer, Sandy Ford and sponsor, Joan Bailey.

Dixie Barb, singles bowling champion, demonstrates the correct form to be used in bowling.

Spanish Club
Broadens Knowledge of Spanish Culture

Newly-organized last year, Spanish Club provides opportunities for Spanish students to broaden their knowledge of the language and cultures of other countries. Members held conversational sessions at 4 p.m. during the week in addition to regular meetings. Activities in meetings included practice for Christmas caroling in Spanish and movies of archaeological excavations in Mexico, which were shown by Alex Richards and his wife.

Officers of Spanish Club were: Frank Magana, president; Eugene Barrett, vice president; Marilyn Chastain, secretary-treasurer; and Harold Wilcox, sponsor.

German Club
Stimulates Understanding of German Language

Providing an understanding and appreciation of the German language, as well as striving to improve German speaking ability of the members is the main purpose of the German club.

Each year the Club enters a German Band in the Homecoming Parade. Dressed in typical costumes and singing German folk songs, the band is inevitably a favorite in the parade.

Any students in a German class who have German speaking ability or who are interested in German customs and the language may be members of this organization.

The German Club members provided a special attraction for homecoming as they entered their band in the parade.
Home Economics Club
Helps Provide Two Scholarships

Students who plan to major or minor in home economics are eligible to join the Home Economics Club. To provide the members with professional development in home economics is one of the main purposes of the organization. The club holds study group meetings once a month in the Applied Arts Building.

An International Relations program is included in meetings once during the year. The group participates in a scholarship fund at Fort Hays State as well as an International Scholarship fund. This year the club gave $100 to the college loan fund.

The club observed the 50th Anniversary of home economics at Fort Hays State this year.
International Relations Club
Grants Scholarship to Foreign Student

Any student interested in foreign affairs is encouraged to become a member of the International Relations Club, for its main purpose is to promote better relations with foreign countries.

Several foreign students come to our campus each year; it is the responsibility of the members of I.R.C. to make these students feel at home and welcome here at Fort Hays State. A scholarship is provided by the organization each year to some foreign student. The recipient this year is Carlos Revilla. To help finance this program, I.R.C. sponsors the annual Leap Week dance and the Bearded Joe-Daisy Mae contest.

All foreign students on our campus are urged to participate in the I.R.C. program.

Officers are: Priscilla Taylor, vice president; Frederick Twenter, president; Dr. Eugene Craine, sponsor; Mike Francis, secretary-treasurer.

K-Club

Varsity Lettermen Advance Athletic Interest

K-Club is an organization for varsity lettermen in all Fort Hays sports.
To promote sportsmanship and to support all sports events is the main purpose of this organization. It strives to advance the athletic interest of the college and helps to develop fellowship among the members.

Operating the concession stands at all home games is the main money-making project of the organization.

Officers are: Cade Suran, sponsor; Dale Getty, treasurer; Don Bigham, secretary; Dale Williams, president. Not pictured: Hal Morris, vice president.

Kit Kats
Give Active Support to College Teams

The Kit Kats provided an added attraction to the Homecoming parade with their signs, pom poms, drums and trick marching.

Open to all freshman women on the campus, the Kit Kats is one of the two pep clubs organized to support sports activities. These freshman women find ample opportunities to display their enthusiasm at all games throughout the year.

The main purpose of the club is to exhibit and promote good sportsmanship and to participate in projects that will benefit the athletic program on our campus.

The Kit Kats demonstrated their spirit as they marched in the homecoming parade, sat in a special section at all home games, participated in pep rallies and by wearing the traditional Kit Kat uniform on the day of a game.

The State College Leader, campus newspaper, strives to reflect the day-by-day life and activity of the campus, present a comprehensive picture of college news and provide a practical laboratory project for journalism students. The Leader is published weekly in the college print shop and distributed to students and faculty. Subscriptions are included in enrollment fees and the paper has a large mailed circulation. Voluntary contributions from students are given consideration and letters to the editor have created more than usual interest this year as various controversies have been presented pro and con.

Union Board and Union Program Council

Assists in Developing Campus Programs and Activities

The Union Board forms and approves the policies for the operation of and program of the Memorial Union. It is the group which co-ordinates the Union's programs, activities, services, and long-range planning. The Board meets regularly once a month and is composed of 7 students and 5 faculty members. It assists in developing and improving student-faculty services and services to alumni and friends of the college.

The Union Program Council is responsible for the co-ordination of all Union committees in their presentation of a recreational, cultural and social program for students. The work includes promotion of an active campus program and use of the Union facilities.

Three officers and the chairman of the eight Union committees make up the membership of the Union Program Council.

Standing: Burnie Horton, executive secretary; George Leinmiller, Nancy Geist, Ellen Duff, Walter Keating, John Thorns. Seated: Paul Friesner, Mary Ann Lolstead, Warren Norton, chairman; Alice Beasley, Karen Seery, vice chairman; Sandra Harkness.

Union Committees

Students Devote Extra Time to Union Committee Work

Various committees are responsible for planning and promoting activities sponsored by the Memorial Union. A chairman is appointed for each committee; these chairmen also serve on the Union Program Council to co-ordinate activities.

The Exhibition Committee plans displays and art exhibits to stimulate appreciation of art and to highlight campus events and personalities.

The committees are composed of many students who work behind the scenes to make the union functions available to Fort Hays Students. These students gain experience in special work in which they are interested.

The Dance Committee plans and administers college dances, including the making of arrangements for bands, decorations, entertainment, refreshments and guests.

The Hospitality Committee promotes wise use of the Union by students and presents the Union in the most desirable way possible to visitors on the campus by serving as hosts and hostesses.

The music committee encourages the use of the Music Listening Room in the union and plans various "live" programs.

Members are: Roberta Lucas, chairman; Linda Luke, Garry Ball, Joan Fink, Larry Pedigo. Not pictured: Carol Denny, Phillip W. Phillips.

The games committee encourages use of the facilities for games and recreational activities and sponsors tournaments and lessons. It strives to develop an interest in billiards, table tennis, bridge, chess and other games.

Members are: Don DeLair, chairman; Jim Nelson, Jack Blauer, Larry Mears, Larry Hawkins, John Riedel.

The main purpose of the variety committee is to present student programs, handle questionnaires, hold talent auditions, and compile information for the use of groups needing student talent.

Little Theatre

Promotes Dramatic Interest On the Campus

Any student interested in dramatics is eligible to participate and become a member of Little Theatre. The purpose of this group is to further interest in the department and to encourage more and better drama on the campus and in the community.

Opportunities in several forms of theatrical activity are given to the members through Little Theatre; individual members may work in the fields of acting, writing, directing, and stagecraft.

Two major productions are presented each year by the Picken Players.

Officers are: Bill Catlin, president; Kim Toland, program chairman; Linda Anderson, secretary.

Members are: Harriet Ketchum, sponsor; Mary Lynn Scott, Sandy Holmes, Bill Catlin, Kim Toland, Linda Anderson, Rex Mahan, Julie Rissoe, Donna Jensen, Ruth Anne Spencer.

Linda Anderson tells several students the many advantages of being a member of Little Theatre at a get-acquainted party given by the organization.
Math Club

Affords Opportunities For Math Students

Math Club is open to students who have an interest in mathematics. The purpose of this club is to promote an interest in mathematics, and give a better understanding of math to the members. The group meets twice a month and club meetings are held in the Science Building. The chief part of the programs consists of special problems with the whole organization working toward a solution. Members also discuss many mathematical problems that seem to occur in many life situations.

Orchesis

Is For Those Who Like Modern Dance

Membership in Orchesis is chosen by tryouts of interested dancers. The aim of the group is to promote the enjoyment and appreciation of modern dance. The group also strives to improve dancing skills as well as developing creative abilities in dancing. Orchesis provides entertainment for the women's sports department during high school play days and members performed in "Finian's Rainbow" and the Fort Hays Follies. The club members plan and participate in dance programs of all types. Orchesis has a membership of ten women and is under the direction of Miss Elizabeth Barbour.

Orchesis members include Vera Fross, Loretta Socha, Luanne Engel, Sue Mog, Elgerine Roth, Nina Rooser, Carol Beckham, Georgetta Heister, Karen Hibbs, Ann Lafferty.
Nursing Club
Stimulates Interest In Nursing Careers

Any nursing student or registered professional nurse enrolled at Fort Hays Kansas State College may apply for membership in Nurses' Club. Instead of the three-month Pediatric affiliation at the Kansas University Medical Center, under the new nursing plan, the Fort Hays students will receive their instructions and practice, beginning in June, 1960, at the Children's Hospital in Denver. Under this plan, Fort Hays Nursing Students will receive all of their training in Hays except nine months of their senior year, when they will spend three months away from Hays in each of the three specialties, Pediatrics, Psychiatry, and Maternity Nursing.

Officers are: Doris Goehring, secretary; Linda Anderson, president; Virginia Hager, vice president; Judy Henderson, reporter; Carol Knudson, treasurer.

Reveille Staff
Edits the College Yearbook

Executive staff members are Tom Kugler, Diane Amos, Mary Desbien and Mary Bowen.

The Fort Hays Yearbook, the Reveille, has as its contents, the year’s activities both in pictures and words. The Reveille staff is responsible for production of the yearbook. Work begins early in the fall semester and is an extracurricular activity for many students throughout the year. Students who are interested in the yearbook publication are welcome to seek positions on the Reveille staff. Mrs. Katherine Rogers supervises the group as faculty sponsor.

From the first day of school until the day the yearbook is sent to press, the staff is kept busy scheduling pictures, planning pages, selling ads and trying to meet all deadlines. Sponsoring the Reveille Ball is one project of the staff. At this dance, the first of the winter formals, the cover design of the book and the beauty queen are revealed.

Editorial assistants include Jan Ball, Judy Sellens, Beverly Suchy, Helen Moreland, Bernie Gilmer and Leroy McMullen.

Organizations staff includes Darlene Lowe, Cynthia DeRosear, Norma Keady, Janet Harrison, Janice Pinney and Marilyn Orme.

Photographers are: Gene Burns, Ken Griffin, Lloyd Peterson and Robert Funk.

Class and Faculty editors are Sara Barnett, Virginia Lorbeer, Marjorie Rohr, Patty Leflingwell, Paula Schumacher and Pat Heaton.
Penguin Club
Improves Individual Swimming Ability

The Penguin Club membership is made up of girls who show ability in swimming and who can pass certain specifications in swimming. The opportunity to develop one's individual ability and the understanding of creative expression is provided through the Penguin Club. Miss Bailey is the sponsor of these 10 girls and she helps them to learn various water formations as well as striving to improve their swimming form.

This year Penguin Club presented a special water ballet. They also help to sponsor the national officials' test which is given yearly for swimming ratings.

Penguin Club members are: Sandra McFadden, Peggy Bowans, Deanna Burroughs, Sharon Pollnou, Anita Lang, Marilyn Patton, Susan Kohler, Jill Karst, Ann Boosa. Not pictured: Sue Mog.

Second Generation Club
Sons and Daughters Serve Fort Hays

The Second Generation Club provides avenues for service and hospitality to the campus of Fort Hays State. The sons and daughters of former students and alumni are the members of this organization. The principal project of the group in the fall is planning and conducting of Parents' Day. Club members act as hosts and hostesses during such campus events as Homecoming.

Industrial Arts Club
Newly Organized Group

Acquainting students with the developments in industrial education and the opportunities for success in the field of industrial arts is one aim of the Industrial Arts Club. The main purpose of the organization is to further industrial arts and help prepare the members for teaching careers.

One project for this group is sponsoring an industrial arts fair for all secondary schools in Western Kansas. The college organization made all the trophies awarded at the school.

The Industrial Arts Club, which is open to anyone majoring in the department, was newly formed on campus this year. Richard Cain is the sponsor for this organization.

Industrial Arts Club members “take a break” from classes to pose in front of the Applied Arts Building.

Student Affairs Committee
Aids The Students In Many Ways

The Student Affairs Committee formulates and publishes campus regulations supervising traffic control. Students who have traffic violations may appeal to this board. The committee makes recommendations for improvements in parking lots and streets.

The group also accepts applications and grants approval for all money-making projects of various school organizations. Five students are appointed by the student council; the president of the college appoints two staff members to the committee which makes a total membership of seven members serving on the board.

Members are, standing: Miss Stouffer, Mike Butler, Robert Smith, Wilma Opfinger, Julie Jensen, Dean Richard Burnett. Seated: Lois Selfridge, Bob Beck.
Student Council
Governs the Campus

The representative governing body of the students is known as The Student Council. The Student Council has fifteen members consisting of the three class officers elected from each class and the three student body officers. The campus student government is a combined influence and initiative of the class officers and student body officers. Some of the duties of the Student Council are to consider student body problems and activities. The actions of the Student Council are of interest to every student. The Council meets weekly and welcomes suggestions.

The Student Council also provides for the student elections held each year. Each month the council members choose an outstanding senior man to represent Fort Hays State at Rotary Club meetings every Monday noon. Selling beanies to the freshmen at the beginning of every year is another project of the Student Council.

The Student Council officers are Wanda Mease, treasurer; Dean E. R. McCartney, sponsor; Jack Byler, president; Don Harzman, vice president; Virgie McKenzie, secretary.

The Student National Education Association is open to all students preparing to teach. The purpose of the organization is to promote interest in the teaching profession and to offer professional experiences for students in this college who are interested in a teaching career.

Speakers make up a large per cent of the programs for their meetings and this year a panel of foreign students was a special attraction. The highlight of the year is the state convention which was held at Wichita University this spring.

The SNEA has the largest membership of any one group on the campus and is nationally affiliated. Officers are: Rex Kerstetter, president; Lela Hendricks, vice president; Lynn Dyatt, state recording secretary; Janice Dinkle, treasurer; Wanda Mease, publicity chairman; Elaine Howard, historian; Mr. Harbeston, sponsor.
Tigerettes
Promote School Spirit

To promote and display school spirit is the purpose of the Tigerette club. This upperclass pep organization is composed of a selected group of thirty-eight women. Membership in the Kit Kats is a prerequisite to membership in the Tigerettes; and together the groups form a large segment of the student body cheering section.

The Tigerettes do many things to promote school spirit among the other students of the campus. Black skirts and gold sweaters are the traditional uniforms worn by all Tigerette members the day of a game. Holding pep rallies, participating in parades and sitting together at all games are various ways the members assist the cheerleaders and support the team. Win or lose, the Tigerettes always give their full support to the Tigers.
Women’s Recreation Association

Interests Students In Physical Activities

The Women’s Recreation Association encourages interest and participation in physical activities for recreation as well as furthering the ideal of good sportsmanship. To become eligible for membership, a student must earn a certain number of points through participation in intramurals, individual or team sports. Members who earn the required number of points in various activities are awarded letters and sweaters.

Women’s Recreation Association promotes physical fitness by sponsoring Play Days for high school students as well as Sports Days for colleges. As a service project, a scholarship is awarded annually to a high school senior girl.

Officers are: Elsie Hildebrand, publicity chairman; Peggy Swords, secretary; Karen Cronic, treasurer; Sandra Ford, president; Dixie Barb, social chairman; Marilyn Tallman, vice president; JoAnn Bernritter, parliamentarian.

Participating in intramurals is one way the members may earn points toward their letter sweaters.

Musical Organizations

Groups assume importance in cultural development of the campus.

Fort Hays Singers

Experienced voice students at Fort Hays State College combine their talents to form a highly selected ensemble. This group, called the Fort Hays Singers, has a limited membership of sixteen.

Under the leadership of Eugene Schweitzer, this organization has given numerous concerts throughout the school year. Much in demand, off campus as well as at school, the Fort Hays Singers give willingly of their time and talent and provide many people with the opportunity to hear this talented ensemble.

The Singers presented a program of Christmas carols on KAYS-TV and made a two-day tour of South-Central Kansas in December.

Orchestra

Composed of outstanding musicians from the campus, Hays High School, and the surrounding area, the orchestra presents several concerts during the year and accompanies the Christmas Messiah. The group is directed by E. Edwin Moyers.

Fort Hays State Bands provide training for musicians and entertainment for audiences.

In honor of Homecoming Royalty, the band stands at attention.

Christine Wickizer displayed poise and ability as she led the Fort Hays Marching Band for her first year.

The band is assembled for a college concert.
Adding color and spark to half-time football performances and parades were five high-stepping majorettes who were chosen at the beginning of the marching season. They are Elaine Roberts, Shara Sue Bomgardner, Glenda Griffith, Norma Gibson, and Patsy Leuty.

Band

The Fort Hays State Marching 100, under the direction of Harold G. Palmer, performs at football games and leads the Homecoming Parade. The band presented the show, “Love in Bloom,” for Parents’ Day at the Southwestern-Fort Hays game and formed the traditional heart for the crowning of the queen at Homecoming.

Membership for Concert Band is selected from the Marching 100. This band presents concerts throughout the year and climaxes the concert season with an annual performance in the spring. The highlight of the year for the members is the tour where they give concerts for high school audiences over the state. The organization is governed by the Band Council, a group of eight students elected from the band.

The two pep bands, made up from the Marching 100, help to promote spirit at basketball games and pep rallies.
Women's Ensemble and Men's Quartet

The Women's Ensemble made its first showing at Fort Hays State College this year. The newly-organized group is composed of 12 members and is a three-part ensemble. Under the direction of Miss Mary Maude Moore, the Women's Ensemble is available for public and campus appearances.

One of the busiest music organizations on campus is the Men's Quartet. Composed of upperclassmen with experienced voices, this group is always on the go, performing in Hays and various towns throughout this part of Kansas. They also add spark and variety to many choir performances. John Norman is the director.

Concert Choir

Outstanding in its choral performances, the Fort Hays Concert Choir provides musical entertainment in many areas of Kansas as well as on the Fort Hays State campus.

The 56 members of the choir, under the direction of Eugene W. Schweitzer, presented "Finian's Rainbow" as one of the highlights of their musical performances.

The choir also made a three-day tour of Northwest Kansas in March.

The Concert Choir proudly displays black and gold robes as the group poses for a formal photograph.

"Finian's Rainbow"

"Finian's Rainbow," this year's production by the Concert Choir, was a fanciful musical which involved the poorer classes of Southern people during the development of the TVA. Problems begin when Irishman Finian McLomergen, portrayed by Francis Wilson, steals a leprechaun's gold and comes to Rainbow Valley, Mississucky, U.S.A., to plant it. Leprechauns, financiers, witches, senators, sailors, and sheriffs make the musical an exciting production. One of the highlights was a "jig" done by Finian and his daughter, Sharon, portrayed by Margaret Caldwell. All problems are solved and Finian devised a new means of becoming rich. The show was directed by Eugene Schweitzer and Karen Kennedy was accompanist.

Cast members in a scene from "Finian's Rainbow": Randall Weller, Margaret Caldwell, Francis Wilson, Larry Brandon, Neil McNeerney, and Don Allen.

Clarinet and Brass Choirs

One of the most popular instrumental groups at Christmas and Easter is the Brass Choir. This group makes a two-day tour of South-Central Kansas in December. The Choir, a highly selective group, is under the direction of Leland Bartholomew.

One of the newest instrumental groups on the campus is the Clarinet Choir, directed by Harold Palmer. They perform in connection with the Concert Band in the spring.

Members of the Brass Choir are: Don Wittig, standing, Donna Atkinson, and Joyce Schwalter. Seated: Roger Cody, Jerry Vance, Earl Blauer, and Phil Law.
The purpose of Sigma Alpha Iota, women's professional music fraternity, is to uphold and further the standards of music. Sigma Alpha Iota members take part in music department activities and assist with Band Day. Outstanding events of the year include the Pledge Recital and the Contemporary Recital presented with Phi Mu Alpha. Miss Lucille Felten is Sigma Alpha Iota sponsor.
Phi Mu Alpha is composed of college men who are majoring in music. The fraternity promotes musicianship and activities in music, sponsoring a scholarship.

Activities of the group include ushering at Artists and Lecture Series. The organization works closely with Sigma Alpha Iota. Sponsor of Phi Mu Alpha is Harold G. Palmer.

Canterbury Club
Episcopal Club Awards Student Scholarship

Canterbury Club is the organization for Episcopal college students. Some of the activities include guest speakers, "sloppy joe" suppers for money-making projects and Bible study. Also the group awards a scholarship to a student who is deserving and needs financial assistance. The Canterbury Club is designed to promote fellowship and growth among those who are interested in the Episcopal Church.

Members are: Stephen Ostrom, R. U. Brooks, sponsor; Norman McIntosh, Robert Miller, Gregg Trask, Iris McIntosh, Herb Hagman, Karen Reimert, Mary Ann Lofstead, Arnold Lewis, Mary Hagman.

Christian Council
Fosters Cooperation Among Churches

Organized last year, the Christian Council's objective is to cooperate with the individual churches and their associations in the promotion of church programs. Each church has three representatives: two students and an adult.

The group encourages the Fort Hays State faculty and students in religious participation and association.

While meeting at the Memorial Union the second Wednesday of each month at 6:30, the Christian Council discusses how to improve the programs and workshops of international nature.

Christian Youth Fellowship
Emphasizes Christian Living

Christian Youth Fellowship seeks to enrich the social, mental and spiritual lives of students connected with the organization, those who are members of the Christian Church. It strives to bring fellowship and understanding among its members.

The organization is sponsored by the Rev. Ward Patterson and meets every Sunday night at the church. Activities of the group include swimming parties, caroling, and programs to better understand the teachings of the Bible.

Kappa Phi
Rose Tea Is Given for Pledges

Membership in Kappa Phi is composed of college women with a Methodist preference. The members meet every second and fourth Thursday of each month. Special traditions of the organization are the Christmas party and the parents’ banquet in the spring. All new members must go through a pledging period before becoming active members. Every year a Rose Tea is given for the pledges. The aim of Kappa Phi is to make every Methodist woman in the college world today, a leader in the church of tomorrow.
Gamma Delta
Affiliates Messiah Lutheran Students

Encouraging and maintaining fellowship and keeping students within the church is the purpose of Gamma Delta. This religious group is an international organization of Messiah Lutheran affiliated college and university students. Alpha Psi is the name of the chapter established on our campus.

With knowledge and service being the foundation upon which this group was organized, members strive to further growth and service in Christian knowledge.

Dr. Garwood is the sponsor of this group which meets every Wednesday evening, at the Messiah Lutheran Church on North Main.

Officers are: Ronald Soeken, president; Gene Burns, vice president; Don Parsons, treasurer; Glenda Opitz, secretary.

Lutheran Student Association
Unites Trinity Lutheran Members

The Lutheran Student Association works to unite Lutheran students in Christian fellowship and to help them build a mature type of faith that will continue to grow as long as they themselves grow. By offering weekly opportunities for stimulating group studies and discussions confronting the academic mind, the group works to attain its purpose of creating a better world that embodies Christian ideals and the highest human values.

Sponsored by Dr. Doris Stage, the group meets each Wednesday evening in the Prairie Room of the Memorial Union at 7 p.m. The Lutheran Student Association is connected with the Trinity Lutheran Church.

Roger Williams Fellowship
New Organization on Campus

The Roger Williams fellowship is a new organization on campus this year. They are affiliated with the Baptist Student Movement through the Kansas and American conventions. Some of the members have attended conventions in Pittsburg, Kansas and Green Lake, Wisconsin.

In the spring, the Rogers Williams Fellowship produces a play to make money for a scholarship so that a member may attend the conventions.

Back row: Kenneth Voss, Lee Salmans, Bill Wilson, George Turner, Gary Saddler, Jerry Harrington. Front row: Myrna Fiss, Sherry Camburn, Gail Murray, Mary Brummitt, Elaine Howard.

Officers are: Gail Murray, Kenneth Voss, Gary Saddler, and Bill Wilson.
Newman Club
Promotes Fellowship Among Catholic Students

The Newman Club is an organization of Catholic cultural, intellectual and social interests for the Catholic student at Fort Hays State. Newman clubs are organized in non-Catholic colleges and universities in the United States and Canada to promote fellowship among Catholic students.

Regularly the club has scheduled speakers, monthly socials and meetings. The group participates in college intramural activities. In the spring a formal dance and a picnic are held. The club meets in the Gold Room of the Memorial Union Building twice during each month.

Officers: Mary Lou Horning, treasurer; Sonja Danielson, secretary; George Bagall, president; Father Camillus Schmidt, chaplain.

Not pictured: Jim Daniel, vice president; Mr. Edgar McNeil and Mr. John Berland, sponsors.

Wesley Foundation
Provides Opportunities for Religious Service

Things are always popping at Wesley—the student center with the forward look—at the corner of Elm and West Sixth. The foundation offers a program of worship, retreats, camps, forums, lectures, banquets, and dances. The basic program begins each Sunday evening with supper followed by discussion groups and vespers.

The purposes of the Wesley Foundation are to develop the personal religious life of its members, to promote Christian fellowship on the campus, to develop Christian leadership, to help build a Christian world fellowship, and to provide opportunities for Christian service.

Enjoying the comfort of the student center are Gerald Lindsey, Kay Dundas, Bernie Mills, Janice Finney, and Lynn Drake.

Serious discussion occupies Wesley members.

Karen Getty, Marita Tuttle, and Elaine Roberts confer on Wesley business.

The new Methodist Youth Center provides comfortable space for weekly meetings of the Wesley Foundation and informal gatherings of members.
United Student Christian Fellowship
Builds a Christian World Fellowship

Sponsored by the Rev. Sam Maier and Dr. Dale Dick, the Presbyterian student group, United Student Christian Fellowship, holds meetings every Sunday evening at the Westminster Hall.

Their program is to offer the student the benefits of worship, fellowship, and discussion within a religious community. The program is, an “Orientation to Christian Campus Living,” and takes in students of four co-operating churches.

Y.W.C.A.
Open to All Denominations

Every first and third Wednesday at 7:15 in the Santa Fe Room of the Memorial Union, the Young Women’s Christian Association meets. This organization is open to women students of all denominations.

It has as an objective, fellowship with girls of various interests who work through the Y.W.C.A. to seek and learn more about God.

It is affiliated with the National Student Council of Y.W.C.A. and World Student Christian Federation.
Agnew Hall could now be called a sister dormitory to Custer Hall as it is no longer for upperclasswomen. The upperclasswomen find the freshmen “a swell bunch” as they share their dorm life with them.

Agnew’s 170 women completed the year successfully with many activities. Among them were formals, guest nights, homecoming decorations, intramurals, and free baby-sitting for faculty during faculty night activities.

The dorm has set up a council program to make college life as comfortable as possible. Six upperclasswomen and two married couples are counselors to Agnew residents, Mrs. Esther Biays, and Mrs. Adah Churchill are housemothers.

Custer Hall

Custer Hall is no longer a dormitory for only freshman women, but now additionally houses upperclasswomen. This integration was a new arrangement this year and was designed to help new women adjust better to college life.

The dormitory housed 200 women with housemothers Kate Rawley and Grace Goodman supervising. Counselors on each floor discuss etiquette, dating, and grades with the other residents.

The women participate in both formal and informal dances, teas, guest nights, and intramurals as well as the usual campus activities.

Once again the selection of royalty proves that our campus has its share of beauty and personality. Some queens were chosen by a popular vote of the student body; others were chosen by a judge considered to be qualified to recognize beauty. These are the special people who have won a deserved place as royalty of our college.

Greeks

As a part of national Greek organizations, sororities and fraternities uphold and aid their individual groups by local leadership, activities, and standards. Most chapters maintain houses work on philanthropic projects, strive for high scholastic standards, and provide leadership in campus and chapter activities.
Panhellenic Council Governs Sororities

The Panhellenic Council is the governing body of the five national sororities affiliated on the Fort Hays State campus, Alpha Gamma Delta, Alpha Sigma Alpha, Delta Zeta, Sigma Kappa, and Sigma Sigma Sigma.

The representatives, the rushing chairman and one official delegate from each chapter or colony of a National Panhellenic fraternity located on the campus, constitutes the membership of the organization.

The purposes are: to maintain on a plain fraternity life and interfraternity relations within our college, to further fine intellectual accomplishment and sound scholarship, to cooperate with the college administration in the maintenance of high social standards, to be a forum for the discussion of questions of interest in the college and fraternity world and to compile rules governing rushing, pledging, and initiation on the Fort Hays State campus.

Officers are: Karen Lofstead, president; Joan Fink, vice president; Laura Ann Thompson, recording secretary; Loretta Socha, corresponding secretary; Jo-Lynne Frederikson, treasurer.

One of the most important aspects of being affiliated with a sorority is maintaining high scholastic ideals. Each sorority promotes within its own membership the desire to reach the highest achievement possible. Panhellenic Council awards a scholarship shield to the group with the highest average each semester.

Members are: Loretta Socha, JoLynne Fredrikson, Diane Amos, Barbara Nelson, Karen Bruggeman, Jan Ball, Laura Thompson, Karen Lofstead, Ellen Duff, Mary Bowen, Mrs. Maxine Hoffman, sponsor, Marjorie Thysault.

Karen Lofstead, Panhellenic president, presented the fall semester shield to Laura Ann Thompson and Mary Bowen, Alpha Gamma Delta representatives.
Interfraternity Council Directs Fraternities

Interfraternity Council is composed of the president and one representative of the six national fraternities: Delta Sigma Phi, Kappa Sigma Kappa, Phi Sigma Epsilon, Sigma Phi Epsilon, Sigma Tau Gamma, and Tau Kappa Epsilon. The group is nationally affiliated.

The council aims at promoting a cooperative, friendly feeling among fraternities and between fraternity men and independents. It attempts to encourage all chapters to take part in college activities for the common good. It sets standards for fraternity participation and for the betterment of the members of the fraternities, the organizations and the general college. It sponsors activities for the benefit of the college community and for the education of all on the values of fraternity life.

Officers are: Mike Money, treasurer; Victor Johnson, first semester president; Bill Inman, second semester president; and Sam Lesseig, vice president.
Greeks Lead Active Year...

Delta Sigma Phi won top honors in the Greek organizations competition in intramural basketball.

Mrs. Lulu Vogelsang, grand international president of Alpha Gamma Delta, presented the charter to Epsilon Mu chapter president Marilyn Dreher at the fall installation.

Greek activities strive to promote the overall growth of fraternity men and sorority women. Mental, physical and social maturity are emphasized through intramurals, social functions and interest in higher scholarship achievements for all members. These pictures are merely representative of the many Greek activities.

Alpha Gamma Delta

The home of Alpha Gamma Delta is 409 West 8th. Mrs. Sue Davidson is housemother.

Alpha Gamma Delta was founded in 1904 in Syracuse, New York. Chapters of this fraternity have been established on the campuses of 83 universities and colleges. International Reunion Day, the traditional day for gathering throughout the fraternity, is an annual tradition.

Epsilon Mu chapter of the fraternity was officially installed Sept. 12, 1959, and was formerly Mu chapter of Theta Sigma Upsilon. The local chapter now has 38 undergraduate members.

The colors of Alpha Gamma Delta are red, buff, and green. The badge is a monogram of the three Greek letters which may or may not be jeweled. The flowers are red and buff roses.

National philanthropies include the international altruistic project, which involves work for the cerebral palsied and physically handicapped people. Local projects also include parties for physically handicapped children and contributions to special designated funds.

The chapter officers this year are Marilyn Dreher, president; Wanda Mease, vice president; Joan Spicer, recording secretary; Gwen Jeffries, corresponding secretary; and Glenda Heany, treasurer.

Delta Zeta was founded with three fraternities called the Miami Triad on October 24, 1902, at Miami University in Oxford, Ohio. Delta Zeta is the largest national sorority with 129 chapters. The Delta Omega chapter was established in 1925 at Fort Hays State as Delta Sigma Epsilon and merged with Delta Zeta in 1956. Local membership is 38.

The official badge is the Roman lamp resting upon an ionic column and having upon each side three wings of Mercury with a diamond in the flame and four pearls at the base. The Greek letters are on the lamp. The flower is the Killarney rose and the colors are old rose and vieux green.

Delta Zeta awards a scholarship annually to a student in the field of audiology and furnishes remedial equipment to handicapped children. The sorority also helps to support Gallaudet College for the deaf. Another project is helping to support a colony of Hansen's disease victims at Carville Hospital in Louisiana.

The chapter officers are Ann Estes, president; Kathy Anderson, vice president; Patti Percival, recording secretary; Carol Stremel, corresponding secretary; and Sandra Harkness, treasurer.

Sigma Sigma Sigma

The Tri Sigma house is located at the corner of 8th and Elm.

Sigma Sigma Sigma sorority was founded at Longwood College, Farmville, Virginia, in 1898; there are now 55 active chapters. Alpha Gamma chapter was founded December 12, 1925, and has 38 members.

The colors of Tri Sigma are royal purple and white. The badge is an equilateral triangle with pearls on its indented border and a Greek Sigma on each point of the raised inner triangle in the center of which is a skull and crossed bones. The flower is the purple violet.

The largest project of Sigma Sigma Sigma is the Robbie Page Memorial, funds from which are donated to the North Carolina Memorial Hospital for aid in the rehabilitation and convalescence of children patients. In 1959 a new children's room was made possible through Tri Sigma funds, and money is now being pledged toward a new isolation wing. An annual Christmas party is held for local children.

Chapter officers for this year are: Kay Kaufman, president; Kay ImMasche, vice president; Jeanie Morrow, corresponding secretary; Clarene Leonard, recording secretary; Carolyn Wanker, treasurer.

Phi Sigma Epsilon

The Phi Sig house is located at 207 W. 7th.

Phi Sigma Epsilon was founded at Kansas State Teachers College, Emporia, Kansas, in 1910 and there are now 34 chapters. Zeta chapter was founded on the Fort Hays State campus in 1931.

The badge of this fraternity is a twelve-sided figure with six points composed of three triangles converging in the center of a hexagon. Greek letters are arranged in a triangle also bearing a gold crown. The base has pearls surmounted on gold.

The flower of Phi Sigma Epsilon is the white tea rose. The colors are cardinal and silver. The national magazine is The Triangulum.

The chapter officers are Ramon Powers, president; James Reiss, vice president; Dennis Popp, recording secretary; Bob Hammer, corresponding secretary; and Larry Bennett, treasurer.

Polishing trophies is one duty that comes to every pledge.
Sigma Phi Epsilon was founded at Richmond University in Richmond, Virginia. The Fort Hays State chapter of the fraternity was founded in the spring of 1956 by two active members who transferred from other schools. The chapter was named Pegis Club until it became Kansas Zeta chapter on May 3, 1958. There are 148 chapters in the national organization.

The badge is a pearl-set heart with gold Greek letters in the center. A skull and crossbones are inscribed beneath the letters. The colors are red and purple, the flowers are the American Beauty rose and violets.

The fraternity helps underprivileged boys by sponsoring summer camps. Locally the chapter helps the city collect for the heart fund. The fraternity sends red roses to all sorority pledges.

The officers are Daryl Jensen, president; Pete Womochil, vice president; Delbert Lessor, comptroller; Lynn Wickizer, recording secretary; Neil McNerney, corresponding secretary.

Athletics

Competition and sportsmanship—qualities which train young adults for later life—are found in all sports. From the first pigskin pass to the last round of golf, the sports year at Fort Hays State encompassed eight competitive sports. Enthusiastic spectators provided the spirit needed to give that extra drive for the winning basket and the encouragement to pin an opponent.
Football

Injuries Mar Tiger Success

Fort Hays State finished the 1959 football season with three wins despite numerous injuries to key Tiger performers. From the opening kick-off of the Kearney State game when halfback Elmer Trail suffered a broken arm and was lost for the campaign and continuing throughout the season, Coach Wayne McConnell was faced with the problem of organizing new offensive and defensive units for each contest. A rugged schedule coupled with many Tiger injuries formulated six Tiger defeats.

Cliff Leiker gained recognition in the Central Intercollegiate Conference for his spectacular end play, gaining a first-string berth on the All-CIC team. Other Fort Hays State players receiving all-conference positions were halfback Darrell Hildebrand and center Ron Campbell, who placed on the second team.

Leiker led Tiger receivers with 11 grabs and tied for team scoring leadership with halfback Wayne Schumacher.

Three Fort Hays State defense men smother an Emporia State back in Tiger Homecoming game won by the Hornets.

Coaching Staff

Head football coach McConnell is in his fourth year as coach at Fort Hays State. He has been in the coaching profession since 1943 and came to Fort Hays State from College of Emporia. While at Emporia he was named Little All-American Coach of the Year by the Rockne foundation.

McNeil worked under McConnell at College of Emporia as line coach. He served one year at North Dakota University before rejoining McConnell at Fort Hays State. McNeil was a third team All-American selection as a tackle on the Kansas State squad in the late 1940's.

Weakley is a graduate assistant and a College of Emporia graduate. He serves as chief Tiger scout and junior varsity coach.

The Tigers began the season on the right foot by downing the Kearney State powerhouse 19-14. Quarterback Jim Hooten hit end Warren Miller with a scoring aerial to ignite the Fort Hays State season touchdown production. Coach McConnell’s forces forecast a successful campaign by showing a commanding offense and a compact defense.

After the Antelope clash, the Tigers dropped a 13-8 contest to Maryville, Missouri. The game was played in a field saturated with water and mud. The Fort Hays State offense faltered and the Tiger defense was unable to get set.

On Parents’ Day evening, the football team surprised the visitors by trouncing Southwestern 20-6. A capacity crowd was on hand to see Hooten once again connect with Miller for the initial score.

From here the Tigers took a definite tailspin as they dropped the next four games, all CIC clashes. The Gorillas of Pittsburg trimmed the Bengals 14-12. Conference champion St. Benedict's ran over the Tigers 45-27, followed by a 19-12 skimming by Washburn University.

Fort Hays State whipped Omaha 18-6 which enabled the Tigers to tie for the league cellar with a record of 1 win and 4 losses. Coach McConnell's weary squad ended the season by taking a 47-0 trouncing at the clutches of Colorado College.

C. I. C. Enjoys Finest Year

The Central Inter-Collegiate Conference had three teams this year who would have been a credit to any post-season tourney. For the defending Fort Hays Tigers, injuries slowed them down as much as any opponent. Three of Coach Suran’s top men never did mature into the limelight as they had been expected to do, because of pre-season and season ailments. Yet, the Tigers gave a good account of themselves in every game against the first and second place teams, losing two games in the last half-minute and another in a double overtime.

The season saw three teams, Pittsburg, Emporia and Hays, battle all the way down to the wire in close games. Pittsburg got off to a good start by nipping the Tigers and squeezing past Emporia. From then on it was anyone’s guess as to whether or not the Hays team would be strong enough to stay in the race to tie in the next-to-last game, or whether a three-team play-off would be necessary. As it turned out, Pittsburg had what it took to withstand a fired-up Tiger bunch in a double-overtime at Hays.

For the year, Fort Hays State compiled a 15 win and 6 loss record, still one of the best in the basketball records of the college. Through the year the Tigers had a 40.5 shooting average against an opponent’s average of 35 per cent.

Fourteenth Year for Suran

Over a period of fourteen years at Fort Hays State, Cade Suran has guided the basketball aspirations of the college to 188 wins against 108 losses. In rolling up this enviable record, Suran has won the conference title twice and last year pushed his men to fourth place in the N.A.I.A. post-season tournament.

This year’s record of 15-6 compares favorably with some of the most outstanding years under the amiable coach’s tutorage. The 1959 quintet finished with a record of 23-4 for the best year, followed by a 19-8 tally by the 1950 conference champs. Identical records of 17-6 were compiled by both the 1949 and 1952 editions. In 1954 the Suran delegation boasted a 16-4 year.

A graduate of Kansas Wesleyan, Suran himself has an All-Kansas Conference selection to his credit. While playing for the Coyotes he was the leading scorer. After graduating he coached at Harlan, Downs and Wellington before coming to Hays.

In mute tribute to the man and his abilities it can be noted that many Western Kansas high school teams have caused their opponents to fall victims to the Suran-innovated “Wagon-wheel offense.” For the past two years Fort Hays State has been witness to a near-perfect execution of a favorite Suran recipe, steady shooting from a high post offense.
Fort Hays Breezes Past Omaha Twice

MERL STURD
Led team in field goals with 140. Scored 336 points for 16 point average. Merl is a 6-foot senior.

DON BIGHAM
Led team in free throws with 87. Led team in scoring with 353 for a 16.8 average. Led in rebounds with 224. Don is a 6-3 senior.

DEAN LARSON
Led team in free throw accuracy with 79 per cent. Scored 109 points and got 108 rebounds. Dean is a 6-3 soph.

The Tigers roared to an 83-44 conference victory in their opener against Omaha. Hitting on thirty-six per cent of their field shots, fourteen Bengal players added to the scoring column. Omaha, destined for the cellar, was never in the game as the Suran-men ran to a 38-20 half-time lead. Don Bigham led the scorers with 18 points.

Merl Sturd blistered the nets in the second meeting against the Indians from Omaha with a torrid 19-point second half. The Tigers won going away, 78-58, at Omaha. With Merl Harris and Dick Whittmer pulling in the rebounds, Sturd and Bigham counted 24 and 14 points.

Sophomore Dick Anderson zeroes in on another two-pointer against the hapless Indians.
St. Benedict’s Ignores Home Court Jinx

Free throws spelled the difference in the first outing against St. Benedict’s. The Tigers could do no wrong as they committed only nine fouls. Meanwhile the Ravens were fouling eighteen times. With 17 more points from the line, the Tigers won 66-53. Dean Larson and Merle Sturd combined for 38 points and Don Bigham added 15.

For the first time in two seasons, Fort Hays dropped a decision in the friendly confines of Sheridan Coliseum. St. Benedict’s turned the trick with a 70-63 victory. The Ravens pushed through fifty-seven per cent of their shots and lead at the half 42-27. In the second half the Bengals managed to cut the lead to five before St. Benedict’s could stall out the win. Don Bigham and Billy Townsend paced the Suran cagers with 19 and 16 points.

With a sweep of the arm and a head fake Merle Harris spins around his man for two.

MERLE HARRIS
Top free throw shooter at 49.2 average. Scored 168 points and had 161 rebounds. Merle is a 6-5 senior.

BILL TOWNSEND
Excellent ball handler, scored 109 points and got 52 rebounds. Billy is a 5-9 frosh.

DUANE CHANNELL
Injured early in the year, still totaled 101 points and brought 97 rebounds. Duane is a 6-5 senior.
Pittsburh Edges Tigers Twice

Merl Sturd flips in the game-tying points to send the game into overtime.

A disputed call at Pittsburg told the story as the Tigers dropped their first conference game of the year. The Hays team got off to a fast start, hitting fifty-four per cent of their shots in the first half while Pitt could muster only twenty-seven per cent. At the beginning of the second half the Tigers began a delay game after leading 40-34, but they were unable to cash the easy shots. Billy Townsend put the Tigers ahead by two, with four minutes showing, but Pitt was not to be denied and came back to win it, 62-67. Don Bigham scored 17 to pace Fort Hays.

When Pittsburg came to Hays, the two merely took up where they had left off in the game at Pittsburg. Playing nip and tuck ball all the way, a double-overtime was necessary to separate the conference champs from the Suran-men. A steal by Dick Anderson and a lay-up by Merl Sturd knotted the game at 66-66. In the first overtime both teams pushed through six points to tie it again. Dick Whitmer came through with four points in the second overtime, but a reserve forward, Bob Gough, for Pitt, swished the game-winning basket with only four seconds on the clock. Merle Harris played the best game of his career, dominating both boards against the towering Gorillas, and added 9 points to the fray. Don Bigham counted for 20.

PAUL PALMER
Has earned three basketball letters. Scored six points and had five rebounds. Paul is a 6-2 junior.

JOHN SEARS
Scored 46 points and grabbed 29 rebounds. John is a 6-foot frosh.

DALE GETTY
Pulled down 25 rebounds and got 23 points. Dale is a 6-6 junior.
Emporia State collapsed in the second half to allow the Tigers to hang a 56-44 loss on them. Trailing by 24-26 at halftime, the Fort Hays men blazed to take the lead with seven minutes remaining. Sturd and Townsend turned in their best defense of the year, holding All-Conference guard, Ron Slaymaker, to only four points while Sturd was arching in 19.

At Emporia, Fort Hays gave the Hornets all they could handle before Ron Slaymaker drove for a lay-up and a 62-60 win with three seconds left. Cade Suran’s Tigers could not forge into the lead throughout the game, but managed to knot the score at 60-60 with a minute left. This set the stage for the Emporia guard’s clutch shot. Don Bigham led the Hays scorers with 20 points.

Lyle Wingate drives past Frailey and Slaymaker during the Tigers second-half rally at Hays.

LYLE WINGATE
Scored 131 points as the fourth highest point producer. Lyle is a 5-10 junior.

RICHARD WHITMER
Collected 34 points and 41 rebounds. “The Hook” is a 6-4 senior.

RICHARD ANDERSON
Managed 85 points and gathered in 87 rebounds. Dick is a 6-3 soph.
Fort Hays sneaked through a close game at Washburn, winning 71-68. Don Bigham and Washburn’s Bill Quick locked horns in a scoring duel with Bingham getting 28 to Quick’s 27. It was Dean Larson, however, who put the Tigers out of reach with a couple of free throws with fifty-five seconds left.

Coach Suran gave the fans a night to remember as he let his big guns play all but three minutes of a fast scoring, lop-sided win over Washburn in the Tigers last outing. Seniors Merl Sturd and Don Bingham closed their careers with 23 and 22 points while Dean Larson pumped in 17. Leading 46-37 at half-time, the Tigers went on to post a 90-73 victory.

Junior Varsity Wins Seven

Coach Guy Conner led his junior varsity charges to a seven win and two loss season. Several players should be in line for advancement to the varsity squad next year. Leading scorers for the Tiger Cubs were Don Reed, Duane McEwen, Everett Schoen and Jim Bodge. The two losses suffered were wild scrambling games, the Hutchinson Juco game featured a total of 62 fouls and the Great Bend Co-Op encounter found the Cubs losing by two points. The Kearney State battles found the little Tigers scoring 115 points in one game and holding their opponent to 15 points in the first half in the return match. Hope for the future was extended when the Emporia State juniors were beaten twice and Kansas Wesleyan was trounced 93-56. McPherson found the Cubs tough, losing 81-58.

Gross Nears Retirement

This year may mark the end of athletic directorship for Paul "Busch" Gross who reaches retirement age soon. A decision is in the offing for the board of regents as to whether the job of athletic director constitutes an administrative post or not. "Busch" has been associated with the college for 29 years. He was head basketball coach from 1930 until 1947. He has served as athletic director since 1935 and will continue to teach in the physical education department. His exact responsibilities for next year are still uncertain, but he will be in the department, teaching, encouraging, advising and supporting Fort Hays State and its athletic program.

Meet the Unsung Heroes

At the left are pictured two of the truly unsung heroes of the athletic department, Bill Townsend and Tom Bubonic. To them falls the task of assembling and distributing the programs for all athletic events. Their task includes soliciting for advertising and gathering helpers to sell the programs at games. Both men are scholarship athletes and play basketball.

Sports publicity manager, Jack Backer, outlines the week ahead to his assistant, Bernie Gilmer. From his office, Backer compiles all of the statistics for athletic events, issues daily press releases and is in charge of all photography for news media. Gilmer is a news-journalism major.
Cross Country Team Seventh in N.A.I.A.

TIGERS SURPRISE ALL; SECOND IN C.I.C.

The Tiger cross-country team surprised the experts by coming in second in the C.I.C. meet, placing behind national champs, Emporia State. Hays totaled 57 points, one ahead of Pittsburg who got 58. In cross-country scoring, only the first five members of a team are counted. Gary Donner placed eighth, Hal Morris was ninth, Jim Schulze came in number twelve, followed by Larry Davidson in thirteenth place and Dan Rose was fifteenth. Emporia dominated the first five places for the best possible score, fifteen. Omaha rounded out the field getting 105 points.

HARRIERS WIN SEVENTH NATIONALLY

In N.A.I.A. competition Fort Hays State proved their worth by winning seventh place in a field of twenty schools and eighty-eight runners. Dan Rose was twenty-second, Hal Morris twenty-fifth, Gary Donner forty-third and James Schulze forty-eighth. As an indication of the caliber of competition which the Tigers face yearly, Emporia State took top honors and Kearney State ran second, only four points behind. Both teams are regular foes of the Tigers.

Back row: Coach Alex Francis, Larry Davidson, Deke Brinkman, Gary Donner. Front row: Jim Schulze, Hal Morris, Melvin Bremenkamp, Dan Rose.
Ten gymnasts met Coach Ed McNeil for a full schedule of precision acrobatic maneuvers. Captain Ron Halling was one of four lettermen on the squad. To become adroit at gymnastics takes many hours of tedious concentration and strict adherence to training and development rules. Gymnastics is one of very few sports where the small man may excel, as exampled in the fact that the average weight of this year’s team was 155 pounds, while the median height was 5-8.

Squad members are: Ron Halling, Don Price, Mike Langley, Harold Wasinger, Larry Beaver, Stan Estes, Ron Heier, David Gagnon, Bill Walter, Duane Kraft.

All-College Meet

Eleven matches were on tap for the Fort Hays State wrestling team this spring. Coach Walter Kroll had high hopes as eighteen men reported for duty in the fastest growing sport on the college scene. Competition is keen among the team members, as Western Kansas is reputed to produce some of the best wrestling talent in the nation. Among the more prominent schools the grapplers met are: U.S. Air Force Academy, Kansas State University, South Dakota University, Omaha University, Nebraska University, William Jewell College and Adams State. Climax of the year was Missouri Valley A.A.U. match at Maryville, Missouri.
Gary Gottschalk and Norman Mai, KEK tennis doubles champions.

Fred Bond, Sig Ep golf champion.

Tom Hamel and Elton Beougher TKE horseshoes doubles champions.

Men’s Intramurals Reach All Time High

Intramural activity continued to gain members and prestige this year. Headed by track coach Alex Francis, both affiliated and unaffiliated men interested in athletic competition have their opportunity in intramurals. To add interest and bolster egos of those fortunate enough to win, trophies are given. In the Greek competition, added incentive comes with recognition of total point winners.

Fort Hays State recognizes the need to develop not only the highest in scholastic achievement, but also to provide for physical outlets for the tensions built up in the normal course of college study.

Francis has two assistants in Doug Morrissey and Robert Klein. Both men are delegated the authority to see that the whole intramural program is scheduled correctly and run properly.

Swimming Place Winners, SIG EPS: Reginald Milhon, Bob Powelson, Ben Crocker, Lynn Wickizer, Max McIntyre.

Melvin Gunn and Carlos Revilla, Kappa Sig table tennis doubles champions.

Gary Shaffer and Tom Hamel, TKE golf doubles champions.
Women Play, Too

The women of Fort Hays State take an active part in the intramural program. Competition is offered in ten separate sports and medals and trophies are presented to the winners. More than 300 women took part in the program this year. In charge of the proceedings is Joan Bailey, of the health and physical education department. Besides the purely recreational aspect of an intramural program, it is here that those desiring competitive sports to keep in trim, healthful, physical shape come. It has long been realized that one is healthy mentally only when one is healthy in a physical way also. The athletic department of Fort Hays State is providing an important part of cultural improvement in its women’s intramural program.
Individual bowling winners were Dixie Barb, first; Martha Kerr, second; Shari Holliday, fifth.

Esther Thompson and Dixie Barb, shuffleboard doubles champions.
Enthusiastic cheers at a basketball game, the nervous smile of a freshman co-ed on the eve of her first college dance, the feverish, last-minute preparations for Homecoming—these are as much a part of college life as any class. College becomes a time of awakening social graces. This social development lessens the step from student to participating citizen.
The College Year Began . . .

Even Dad helped Barbara Dawe move into her new room.

Dr. L. D. Wooster was honored at the annual Faculty Dinner preceding the beginning of school.

The campus buzzed when students started moving in, unpacking, and meeting new people. Roommates, neighbors, fraternity brothers and friends discussed summer experiences, the current gossip, reminisced a little, or got acquainted with newcomers as they settled in rooms and prepared to begin another school year. Class schedules were examined intensively, while faculty advisors prepared to meet the wave of students who would need consultation.

Joyce McNulty chatted with President and Mrs. Cunningham and Jan Smith at the Cunningham’s open house for new students.
Soon students faced enrollment lines and made out schedules to fit required courses of study. Questions were asked and answered; finally enrollment was completed. In the last hours before classes began, many students attended the Tiger Hop, while others saw a movie, played ping-pong, or chatted before getting down to books, pens, and serious study habits.

Everybody enjoyed the Tiger Hop, the first big dance of the year, climaxing enrollment week.

Dr. Dale Dick gave pointers to freshman women on “How to Study.”

New students met each other at the student-faculty picnic during enrollment.

Two freshman co-eds happily completed their first day of classes.
Elections and activities were features of the new term. The freshmen chose class officers while upperclassmen voted on constitution amendments and other debatable issues.

The results of being without a beanie were witnessed when one met a lipstick-smeared girl and the chagrined face of a fellow just through the belt line.

The day-to-day routine of the college student was established and once again the busy campus was evidence of a growing college.

Mrs. Kate Raleigh talked to Warren Miller and Margaret Langrehr at Custer Hall's open house.

Sometimes even the innocent suffered—as was witnessed when transfer student Margaret Caldwell said, "I'm not a freshman!"
And Soon October Came.

Second Generation Club members registered the parents who visited the campus for Parents' Day.

The Patricks came from Pennsylvania for Parents' Day to visit their son, Tom, a freshman.

Max McIntyre captured the mood of the Sig Eps' Blue Mountain Blast on film.

Even the smallest guests registered for Band and Parents' Day.

Parents Day brought one thousand parents and thirty high school bands to the campus. Music filled the afternoon as the bands marched down Main Street. After the parade, students guided parents around campus and through dormitories and other residences. The day was climaxed by the Southwestern-Fort Hays State game, from which the Tigers emerged victorious.

Ever present in the schedule of events are the social functions scattered throughout the year. Fall semester found fraternities, sororities, and the dormitories entertaining guests with informal parties of varied themes.

Friday, the 13th, found Kappa's Don Darnell and Jerry Neely entertaining dates at an informal party.
The tedious job of stuffing chicken wire faced many people before homecoming.

The sophomores looked confident before the tug-of-war. . . But the freshmen pulled hardest . . . And proved the victors for the first time in several years.

William Warfield autographed programs for Fort Hays Staters and guests after his concert.

The College Celebrated . . .

In the weeks before Homecoming, the pace of campus activity picked up. Meetings, plans and negotiations occupied many minds. As the big weekend drew near, students slighted school and lessons to make last-minute preparations. Organization members stuffed napkins and Kleenex into chicken wire, while others used papier maché on floats and house decorations.

As eager as the students, alumni and friends of the college returned to campus to participate in the various activities traditionally associated with homecoming at Fort Hays State.

When the sophomores went into the water to conclude the tug-of-war, the freshmen lining the sides of Big Creek quickly tossed hundreds of beanies into the air, ending freshman initiation. Homecoming had officially begun.
A Memorable Homecoming . . .

Old friends met and discussed college days during class reunions. Ten hopeful coeds waited anxiously for the time when the identity of the 1959 Queen would be announced. The queen and attendants were announced shortly before the parade.

The parade started Saturday’s eventful agenda. Featuring bands, new cars, and the queen candidates, it was a colorful affair, one that compared favorably with those of the past. Float competition was keen because each group sought the sweepstakes award given by the Chamber of Commerce.

Gilding to Glory, Sigma Sigma Sigma’s float won first in the women’s division and the sweepstakes award.

Members of the class of 1939 became re-acquainted during the Reunion dinner.

The members of the 7th Cavalry led the parade.
The Queen Was Beautiful . . .

Queen Lorita Edwards led the Homecoming Parade. She was chosen from a field of ten candidates.

With the motto, "The Man You Save May Be Your Own," the old maids' club was one of the most amusing features of the parade.

"May Our Dreams Come True" won first place in the men's float division for Tau Kappa Epsilon.

The Young Republicans' Club float won first in the open float division.

Dr. L. D. Wooster crowned Lorita Edwards queen of the 1959 Homecoming at the halftime of the football game.
And Work Was Rewarded.

The Alpha Gam's house decoration featuring a Genie won first in the women's house decorations competition.

The Phi Sigs won first in the men's division with their Thump 'Em Thumper decoration.

The finale of the festivities was the dance where former queens, present royalty, and winners of house and float decorations were honored.

Later the decorations came down, the floats were taken apart and another homecoming was completed. Tired, but satisfied, students once again resumed studying.

Left: The winners of the float and house decorations displayed the silver bowls awarded as prizes. The awards were presented at the dance.

The Homecoming Dance, featuring Matt Betton's dance band, climaxed Homecoming.
Things Happened Everywhere...

Top: This quartet composed of Leroy McMullen, Don Crosby, Marvin Cochran, and Jon Shively sang in the production.

Below: Beverly Stutterheim, Sharon Borell, Barbara Geritzin and Betty Bae were also featured.

One of the birthday presents for the Union was a number of record albums for the music listening room.

The year moved on. The Concert Choir produced "Finian's Rainbow," combining music with comedy, romance and drama. Picken Auditorium was the scene as the curtain went up on Rainbow Valley: Margaret Caldwell and Francis Wilson were supported by a large cast.

The Union continued its schedule, celebrating its first anniversary October 20. Business increased as the Union progressed into its second year. Around 2,500 cups of coffee were served each day. The Union's features ranged from art exhibits to state conventions.

The Union's birthday cake didn't last long. Ellen Duff and Dennis Popp served Dr. Thompson.

Randy Weller sang to Margaret Caldwell in the choir show, Finian's Rainbow.
And it’s Pizza time at the Union... Food Service Director Bill Moody offered the specialty to Douglas Daugherty. Ellen Duff approved.

Harold Stones met the subject of his master’s thesis, Senator John Kennedy, when he visited the campus. Kennedy, a possible presidential candidate at the time was on a tour of Kansas.

As Autumn Rushed By...

Seemed to be good, too.

As Union functions continued, other parts of the campus contributed to the picture of campus life. The music department presented varied recitals, musicales and concerts. The Artists and Lectures series featured prominent artists.

To the political minded, the appearance of Senator John Kennedy was a highlight. The Collegiate Young Democrats sponsored the Senator’s press conference at the college. Kennedy was guest of honor at a Democratic dinner held in Hays.

Mary Moore and Sylvia Zaremba discussed music before Miss Zaremba’s piano concert. Her program was part of the Artists and Lectures series.
Sororities Added Forty-four

The Greek Poox Party provided information for the rushees about the sororities at Fort Hays State. An active member and an alumni member talked to the rushees about what it meant to be a sorority member and interested women registered for the formal rushing period.

Informal rushing found sorority girls and rushees drinking cokes in the Union and coffee at the sorority houses where rushees learned about sorority activities, functions, and projects.

Diane Amos and Virginia Wood talked to Becky Vance over a coke.

Formal rushing began Nov. 15 when each sorority entertained guests at the registration teas. The houses were spotless and sorority women greeted everyone with sparkling smiles. Rushees tried to leave their best impressions as they met the alumni members, housemothers, and advisors of each group.

Roberta Stevens met Mary Thompson of Sigma Kappa at the registration tea at their house.

Right: Paula Schumacher and Lori Socha, members of Alpha Sigma Alpha, showed Sharron Northrup, Anita Palmgren, and Pat Hayes some sorority jewelry.
After Rush Programs.

The first round of parties found sorority women and rushees informally getting to know each other more. Skits about each sorority gave information about the group and its association with college life. Rushees began thinking about the sorority with which they wanted to affiliate.

Donna Stevens, Lee Kimball, and Ann Estes entertained with a skit at the Delta Zeta party.

Second parties featured a variety of themes from ships to fantasies and dreamlands. After the parties, suspense mounted while both the active sorority members and rushees observed the quiet hours of the silence period.

The Alpha Gams sang good night to the rushees as they left their Dreamland party.

Rosemary Gilson, Darlene McMullen, and Karen Hibbs admired each other's new pledge pins.

Tri Sigma's Jan Fletcher and Clarene Leonard found that cleaning up was part of entertaining during rush work.

And at last the bids were matched. Excitement and anticipation ran high as each group waited for pledges. And when it was all over . . . forty-four women were new sorority pledges.
Many Areas of Interest . . .

Layton Kaiser, David Hopkins and Larry Kahle talked to Shaul Ramati from Israel.

Left: Two of the leading characters in “The Country Girl” were Phil Webber and Rex Mahan.

The major fall production of the Picken Players was “The Country Girl,” with Phil Webber, Patty Trent, and Rex Mahan in heavy roles.

The Foreign Affairs Conference sponsored by I.R.C. featured Middle East authorities. Saadat Hasan presented the Arab viewpoint; Shaul Ramati explained Israel’s position; and Nejat Sommex discussed Turkey’s role in Middle East Affairs.

“Most Happy Fella,” a Frank Loesser prize-winning musical, was the first Broadway Musical Comedy to be presented for several years.

The Panhellenic Council entertained pledges of all Greek organizations at the All-Pledge Dance . . . and the year moved on.

Two members of the cast of “Most Happy Fella” which was presented at Fort Hays State, appear on stage.

This scene from the dramatic production brought a moment of suspense to the stage.

The pledges of both fraternities and sororities met and danced at the All-Pledge Party given by the Panhellenic Council.
These two chess players were concentrating so hard on the game that they were completely unaware of surroundings.

Projects and papers drew students to the library searching for information and knowledge. Discussion groups, special reports and exams drew students away from coffee until after classes when projects were completed and classmates met to discuss just what was the correct answer on the already finished test paper.

Gary Kraisinger and Ann Boosa talked to Judy Ellison and Carl Mooney about seasonal activities.
Carol Steckline, Jerry Hauck, and Helen Mack paused between classes to catch up on posted activities.

Could this have been Continental Classroom at 6:30 a.m.?

Students Relaxed Occasionally . . .

Between classes, after studying at the Library, and on dates, students had time to relax and enjoy themselves. Such moments were occupied by watching television, simply talking over a coke or dancing. Generally speaking, everyone had a good time—when it was pleasure time.

Gerald Schrater and Marcia Brann found time to do a few fancy steps.

The Corral was usually crowded.

Part of dorm life was the stimulating "gab session."
Thes onlookers added to the confusion of the decoration project.

Bill Townsend, Jeanne Watts, and Tom Patrick strung tinsel in the Astra Room.

Terry Deal painted the huge wreath on one of the windows at the union.

The tree received a once-over from the committee.

Before The Christmas Rush Began.

Seasonal gaiety filled the air as the Christmas season approached. Suddenly the campus was transformed into a wonderland with Christmas surroundings. Decorating the campus became an all-student project as various spots, from the Memorial Union to Forsyth Library, assumed the Christmas look when students decorated trees, hung tinsel, and painted windows with gay scenes. Carolers’ voices filled the air at times, adding a festive note.

“You can’t tell, but it’s going to be a fireplace,” said LaDene Votruba.
T he dance drew a large crowd.

Intermission was rest time for tired feet.

President Cunningham crowned the queen.

The 1960 Queen was Lois McCoy.

Beauty Reigned at the Reveille Ball . . .

The attendants were Nancy Humes and Dorothy Voss.
While the Band Played On . . .

The first all-school formal dance was the Reveille Ball held December 5. Ted Amith's Orchestra provided music for about 200 couples in the Black and Gold room.

Suspense mounted steadily in the early evening until Steve Staub as Master of Ceremonies opened the letter from Candy Jones, judge of the photos, and announced the 1960 Reveille Queen, Lois McCoy. Attendants were Nancy Humes and Dorothy Voss.

A hugh replica of the cover of the 1960 Reveille served as a backdrop for the crowning ceremony.

Mrs. Wilmont Toalson was guest of honor at the ball because the yearbook is dedicated to her husband.

These couples not only found time to dance, but to visit too.

The queen candidates were Jeri Wilson, Nancy Humes, Shara Bongardner, Dorothy Voss, Lois McCoy and Mary Bowen.

Tired of dancing, couples relaxed in the lounge.
Nicholas Nyaradi, former finance minister of Hungary, talked to Fort Hays Staters about world affairs.

Fort Hays State's foreign students pictured with Dr. Craine, sponsor for I.R.C., were: Harpal Singh Gill, India; Myrna Domingo, Mexico; Romualdo Segovia, Mexico; Min Ja Pang, Korea; Louis Kyriakides, Cyprus; Louis Naranjo, Costa Rica; Song Rin Ro, Korea; Sam Sangrungruang, Thailand. Not pictured were the Revilla brothers, Luis and Carlos from Peru.

Luanne Engel and Curtis Thompson stopped for a quick chat before an assembly.

Visitors Were Welcomed . . .

Students from seven foreign countries attended Fort Hays State this year. They picked the college for many reasons, perhaps from reading a brochure, meeting a faculty member in their home country, or because of the curriculum offered. Regardless of the reason, they were here, a part of college life, friends of everyone.

Julie Jenson, Joann Griffiths, and Karen Selfridge presented a check for the Home Ec Club loan fund to Mrs. Landrum. The fund is part of the National Defense loan fund for students.
Don Boese enjoyed even the last drop of free coffee when the faculty donned waiters' caps to serve students during free coffee day.

As Were Christmas Festivities.

Decorating parties were fun and the campus glowed with the warmth of Christmas. Tinsel and Christmas trees glittered—but alas, no snow! In spite of the “brown” Christmas, gifts and clothes were packed—and a few books—for intended study. The longest vacation of the school year arrived with caroling, eggnog, and cheery cards; it departed amid the confusion of whistles, confetti, and Auld Lang Syne. Classes began once more January 5.

A birthday cake formed into a Christmas stocking was presented to Mrs. Cunningham at Christmas festivities.

Student and faculty children were the center of attention at a special Christmas party. Dressed in Sunday best, they eagerly munched cookies served by the Cunninghams.

The traditional card tree, bearing cards from campus organizations, was presented to President Cunningham by Ellen Duff of the Union Program Council.
Merle Harris, the Tigers’ 6’5” basketball center, found his height a hindrance when entering the college bus used for road trips.

Coffee at 9:30 a.m. is usually refreshing, Dr. Graber and Miss Stout agree.

The Picken Players rehearsed for “Ah, Wilderness,” under the direction of drama student, Phil Weber.

January’s Agenda Included...

The same scene looked quite different opening night! After adding costumes and stage sets, the show went on. It’s not a phone booth packing—just an Agnew Hall stairway. The occasion? “A man in the house!”
The first winter storm left snow-covered walks as a warning for bundled-up students to tread cautiously to class.

Final Week and Snow . . .

A heavy snowstorm blanketed the city in mid-January, making the walk to school dangerous but beautiful. Ice-covered trees glittered in the sun, a winter wonderland.

Final week loomed in the near future, causing students and faculty to step up study programs. Classes became all-important. Dates and social life were forgotten as students concluded their courses of study for the first semester.

And then, with the last exam, a sigh of relief, and the selling of books, final week was over and it was time to enroll again.

Warmer days found skaters enjoying the icy lengths of Big Creek.

Students listened to lectures with renewed interest before facing finals.

"And grand right and left" was the 'call for the square dancers when they practiced for their final test.
Social and Scholastic Enterprise . . .

Classes changed, new faces appeared on campus, and social life picked up after enrollment. The Tiger Hop ushered in the semester; basketball games provided excitement; the usual round of "flu" took its toll.

Remodeling began on the old Social Building, converting it into areas for the news service, the print shop and duplicating services on the main floor. A second floor is being added to supply offices for the English and business departments.

Bridge fans attempted to improve their game through lessons.

Linda Riggs and Rose Petracek discovered that new classes with different books required library work.

The Tiger Hop was the first social function of second semester. Phil Aldrich, Louetta Wilken, John Boyd, and Bobbie Kingrey took time from dancing to drink a coke.

Initiates of Alpha Psi Omega, dramatics fraternity, pictured with sponsors Harriet Ketchum and Dr. Geneva Herndon were: Glenda Morris, Gay Paustian, Rex Mahan, Francis Acre, and Charlene Goetz.
And Crowning of Sweetheart Royalty.

Mary Ann Lofstead and Larry Davidson, sponsored by Sigma Tau Gamma and Agnew Hall respectively, were crowned Queen and King of the 1960 Sweetheart Ball February 13. Last year’s royalty crowned the new King and Queen before approximately 300 couples during the formal dance sponsored by the Union Dance committee.

Larry Davidson and Mary Ann Lofstead discussed the ball after their crowning.

The trophies, crowns and cakes were displayed at the dance.

Attendants were Homer Unruh, Marjorie Rohr, Patti Percival and Harvey Leiker.

Anna Russell, the "Queen of Comediennes," appeared in Sheridan Coliseum Feb. 29.

Campus movies drew large crowds. Karen Veverka, Mary Fagan, and Elaine Peterman ponder one such attraction.

Campus Entertainment Highlights . . .

Jose Greco and his troupe of Spanish dancers appeared on campus February 5 through the Artists and Lectures series, giving a brilliant performance to an appreciative audience. Another Artist and Lectures artist, comedienne Anne Russell entertained in Sheridan Coliseum February 29.

February 29 was proclaimed President Cunningham Day as the college celebrated his leap-year birthday with festivities which included free coffee for students and a cake presented to him by the Student Council.

President Cunningham celebrated his 14th birthday Feb. 29. Sondra Smith and Judy Langrein sign his giant birthday card.

The President cuts a rare birthday cake.
Leap Week Festivities . . .

International Relations Club sponsored Leap Week to raise money for a scholarship for a foreign student. Candidates were nominated and voted upon on a monetary basis, and royalty was announced at the Leap Week dance. Tau Kappa Epsilon and Sigma Sigma Sigma came out on top with Bearded Joe candidate Gary Griffith and Daisy Mae candidate Luetta Wilken.

Jack Stout and Priscilla Imhof won prizes—a super-deluxe razor and a bar of lava—for the best costumes.
As spring approached, official duties of the five Fort Hays State cheerleaders ended. With characteristic enthusiasm, the girls put in many hours during football and basketball season cheering the teams and leading the student body’s yells. It goes without saying that their spirit was appreciated.

Another group deserving special recognition is the Fort Hays State debate team. After early season triumphs, Hays was invited to the Harvard Invitational tourney, for the first time in school history. The men’s team of Warren Norton and Steve Staub progressed through eight rounds of preliminary debate at Harvard in February, to rank as one of the top eight of 92 teams competing. The duo entered the quarter-finals and was eliminated by Loyola of Chicago. Also making the trip to Harvard with coach Harold Stone was the team of Jill Karst and Patty Trent. As we go to press, the debate squad is still competing, leaving final records incomplete.

Led to the Beginning of Spring . . .
Painting is only one of the aspects of the primary grades. Elizabeth Edwards supervised the work of several children busily painting a landscape.

High school history is often confusing but with the help of Tom Kugler the story of the country is made clearer.

At Fort Hays State.

Spring or fall, a selected group of students receive valuable training in the field of education. Under the supervision of qualified master teachers, prospective instructors do seven weeks' teaching to qualify for their degrees. Cooperating schools help develop better teachers through experience.

This page brings the story of the year to the first spring activities. Many more will be included in the sixteen-page supplement.

Under the direction of Hal Morris, this young man found that correct measurements and following instructions were most beneficial when constructing any article.

Darrel Hildebrand gave instruction to a junior high student in mechanical drawing, representative of the work done in the class.
The following pages carry advertisements of those business organizations who not only patronize the Reveille but give support to the college during the year in many ways. Both the college and townspeople strive to develop a better community. Since the city and the college are growing, the results speak for themselves.

In Memoriam . . .

Dr. Lyman Dwight Wooster, president emeritus of Fort Hays Kansas State College.

A member of the faculty from 1909 until his death February 21, 1960; Dr. Wooster taught science courses for twenty-seven years until his appointment as dean of the college in 1939. He was inaugurated as president in 1941 and served until his retirement in 1949.

“He was a fine educator, a fine scholar and, above all, a gentleman. The community of Hays, Fort Hays State and all of Western Kansas are much better for having him devote a lifetime to the youth of this region. At every opportunity he challenged the young citizens to develop qualities of leadership and responsible living. His influence was wide, touching the lives of thousands of students with whom he associated.”

—President M. C. Cunningham
In Appreciation . . .

As the last pages go to press and the staff breathes a sigh of relief, the editors pause to take stock of the work and figure out how it was finished on time. It occurs to us that many people, on and off campus, have played an important role in the production of the 1960 Reveille.

Without the staff members who survived the Saturday morning sessions, the emergency meetings, the rush for deadlines, the editor’s jittery nerves and worried consultations, this book would not be in the reader’s hands. So thanks, staff—for the many unpaid hours you spent planning pictures and layout, typing and drawing up pages. News service photographers supplied amusement, some harassment, and hundreds of pictures to help us. Delma Studios of New York and Larry’s Studio of Hays also provided photos.

Mrs. Katherine Rogers deserves recognition for her guidance and her patience with procrastinations and “goofs” along the line. Her advice and encouragement were always welcome.

To those students and faculty members who posed (endlessly it seems) for us, we say thanks. We did appreciate the graceful endurance of photo settings, scheduling of group pictures, occasional missed appointments, and the relapses necessary in the course of the year.

A special thanks is due to the Taylor Publishing Company of Dallas and its representative, Paul McClellan, and to the Memorial Union personnel who accommodated our photographer in September when class pictures were taken and who allowed us space for offices when our regular offices were being remodeled.

It is the editors’ hope that these people will be satisfied with the 1960 Reveille, because their efforts have made the book what it is.
