Song-----America, the Beautiful

"There is a tide in the affairs of men,
Which, taken at the flood, leads on to fortune;
Omitted, all the voyage of their life
Is bound in shallows and in miseries."

—Julius Caesar, IV, 3.

AMERICA, THE BEAUTIFUL

O beautiful for spacious skies, For somber waves of grain
For purple mountains majesties above the fruited plain.
America! America! God shed His grace on thee,
And crown thy good with brotherhood, From sea to shining sea.

O beautiful for pilgrim feet, whose stern impassion'd stress
A thorough-fare of freedom beat Across the wilderness.
America! America! God mend thine ev'ry flaw, Confirm thy soul in self-control, Thy liberty in law.

O beautiful for heroes prov'd, In liberating strife,
Who more than self their country loved,
And mercy more than life.
America! America! May God thy gold refine.
Till all success be nobleness, And ev'ry gain divine.

O beautiful for partiot dream, That sees beyond the years
Thine alabaster cities gleam, Undimmed by human tears.
America! America! God shed His grace on thee.,
And crown thy good with brotherhood, From sea to shining sea.

K. S. T. C. SCHOOL HYMN

All hail to thee, thou Black and Gold,
All hail to thee, let thy banners unfold;
For we love and adore, as have others before,
Our dear Alma Mater, All hail evermore!
Hope's banner bright be e'er our guide
Our love for thee will e'er abound,
To you our song shall aye resound;
To you our song shall aye resound.

All hail to thee, thou Black and gold!
All hail to thee, let thy banners unfold;
For we love and adore as have others before!
Our dear Alma Mater, We'll serve thee for evermore.

All hail to thee, thou glorious old plains!
All hail to thee, with thy boundless range!
Let our voices be raised in this Hymn of praise;
All honor and homage in each sounding phrase,
To the glory and fame that Kansas has won
We pledge in defense each daughter and son.
Our love for thee will e'er abound.
To you our song shall aye resound;
To you our song shall aye resound.
