- II. Roll Call
Acting Admin Asst Hachmeister calls roll.
- III. Guest Speakers
- IV. Executive Reports
  - a. President (Tyler Hughes)
Booth in Union for letter writing. If wanting to help or donate, stop by tomorrow. KBOR this week. Stimulus package money was main topic. Fear that if tuition is frozen and stimulus money is used to backfill, then that money will dry up. Regents decided to freeze for one year. EOF first reading tonight. If you have questions, come down to the office to ask.
  - b. Vice President (Cole Engel)
Slow week, lot of absences. Participated in search committee. Catch up work from allocations. Received report on enrollment and was able to calculate number of senate seats available to each department. Business and Leadership lost one seat, but all the others remain the same.
  - c. Executive Assistant (Luke Hachmeister)
Simple majority is 12, 2/3 is 16. Updated intent to run forms, and other forms for next year.
  - d. Treasurer (Robyn Sellard)
Served office hours and wrote legislation.
  - e. Administrative Assistant (Ashley Shellnut)
Absent.
  - f. Legislative Affairs Director (Corey Anglemyer)
More concrete numbers provided at KBOR. Tentative agreement, agreeing to tuition increases if levels fall below x point. Contact representatives and senators. You have more impact than you think.
  - g. Webmaster/Historian (Doug Mercer)
Absent.
- V. Committee Reports
  - a. Appropriations (Sen. Stramel)
Did not meet. Two trip requests up for reading tonight.
  - b. Senate Affairs (Sen. Winter)
Constitution changes, one bill up for reading.
  - c. Student Affairs (Sen. Smriga)
Talked about Straighter Line.

- d. Legislative & Political Action (Sen. Engel)
Revised legislation that will be up for first reading after break.

VI. Open Forum

Sam Terry: Study abroad program in China. Emails were sent out to all students. Sister school to FHSU. Free air fare and housing. Passed around handouts.

Sen. Ye: Flyer is available in SGA office. If anyone has any questions go to Sheridan 308. It is a cost effective way to travel in China, and is a great experience.

Brad Haynes, FHSU Athletic Dept: EOF Funding, any questions? Making myself available for questions and comments you may have.

LD Anglemyer: What kind of things would students do in this program?

Haynes: Depends on their major. Provides real world experience in controlled environment. Also gives a chance to network in areas of expertise.

Sen. Engel: Could you give a rundown of proposal?

Haynes: Provide a program for non-HHP majors to experience athletics related industry. Overview position for internship, and then more specific material for the major. Chance to build resume.

Sen. Ladd: How many students?

Haynes: Originally 5, but funded 3-4. Wide range of majors.
