Mrs. Nita M. Landrum
Hays, Kansas

Dear Mrs. Landrum:

You will find inclosed a letter from an architect in Wichita. I thought the committee might like to have this when they meet to further consider some course of action.

I had a letter from Dr. Rarick this morning. He mentioned that you planned to meet yesterday, I believe it was. I wrote to the architect, Mr. Hamilton, above mentioned ~~architect~~ and told him I would let him know of the developments. The architect whom Mr. Rarick was in Hutchinson, was he not? We no doubt will be able to get enough architects interested to work out some good plans for us.

Very respectfully,

Hugh Burnett

I had a letter from Dr. Barker this morning. He mentioned that you planned to meet yesterday. I believe it was. I wrote to the architect, Mr. Hamilton, about mentioned arrangements and told him I would let him know of the developments. The architect said he would be in town on Wednesday, and he said we had better be sure to get enough architects interested to work out some good plans for us.
