1970 Reveille

Fort Hays Kansas State College
Hays, Kansas

The sun has gone down on one of the most tumultuous decades of modern man. War, political assassination and social upheaval rocked America and the world in the '60's. Man won his first battle with space.

More personally, the sun sets on the Cunningham era of Fort Hays State as Dr. John W. Gustad picks up the torch and leads the college forward.

Although barely risen over the horizon, one can feel the shadow of the '70's. The future of all mankind will be determined by the events of these years. The shadow of Fort Hays will be cast by President Gustad, but it is the students who will determine the depth of that shadow. Let us now begin.
This is the Beginning
Of Tomorrow —
The Way It’s Going to Be
For You and Me.
Life Is an Instant —
A Dream — A Summons.
We Follow the Sun,
We Burst Outside Ourselves.
In the Uncertainty of This Age,
A College Casts
Its Shadow of Growth.
We Select, Cast Away, Evolve.
1970 Ushers in the Gustad Era for Fort Hays
As the '60's slip over the horizon of time and 1970 casts its sunrise shadow, a new figure stands to guide the destinies and steer the course of action of Fort Hays State College.

A Minnesotan by birth and education, Dr. John W. Gustad becomes a Kansan by adoption as he accepts the Presidency of Fort Hays State and becomes its fifth president.

"I want to make this the best college in Kansas," he said, and he set about to inaugurate changes which he feels will help him fulfill his goal.

Reassessing the curriculum, reorganizing the academic structure and raising faculty salaries were the first endeavors to which he set his attention.

"Kansas has something very special and that's their people," declared Mrs. Doris Gustad as she and daughter Anne joined the new president in Hays to establish their home on the campus.
College Dignitaries Witness Gustad Inauguration

Cold, damp weather moved the inauguration ceremonies inside to Sheridan Coliseum Oct. 5. Dignitaries from colleges across the nation as well as those in Kansas were on hand to witness the investiture of Dr. Gustad as president of Fort Hays State.

Greetings from five elements of college life were included in the program. Gov. Robert Docking brought greetings for the State of Kansas; Steve Rayl for the students; Dr. Neil Walker for the faculty; and Dr. James McCain, president of Kansas State University, for the state institutions of higher education.

Dr. Walt Rostow delivered the inaugural address entitled "The Irrelevance of the Relevant." Presiding over the investiture of office was Thomas Griffith of Manhattan, chairman of the Board of Regents.
Academic Activities Mark Inauguration Week

Charge to the President

John W. Gustad, you have indicated your willingness to accept the position of president of Fort Hays Kansas State College. The questions that you, your faculty and students must seek to answer are myriad and complex. I can provide no solace by saying that the answer to these questions will be easy. The only encouragement that I can offer is that mankind, although it has demonstrated enormous capacity for folly, has also exhibited a hopeful capacity to achieve. My charge to you is to bring to bear all the resources and powers entrusted to your guidance to the task of insuring that Fort Hays Kansas State College plays its role in achieving peace, harmony and brotherhood for all mankind.
Special academic activities involving faculty and students continued throughout the week following the inauguration.

Dr. E. Laurence Chalmers, chancellor of the University of Kansas, spoke to an honors convocation held on campus Monday morning. Later that evening a special honors societies banquet was held with the president and family as honored guests. Dr. Gustad was also the feature speaker of the event.

Three faculty symposiums were held during the week. At that time, Dr. Leo Oliva, Dr. Samuel Sackett and Dr. Gerald W. Tomanek, all of the Fort Hays State faculty, presented scholarly papers.

An evening convocation in Sheridan Coliseum presented Dr. O. Meredith Wilson, nationally known as the president and director of the Center for Advanced Study in the Behavioral Sciences at Stanford, Calif. His message was entitled "Education and the Evolution of a Democratic Society."

Music also played a part in the activities of the week. The voice faculty of Fort Hays presented a vocal recital with an organ recital being held later in the week.

Capping the week for Dr. Gustad was the Chamber of Commerce banquet held on Friday Evening. Dr. Gustad was honored guest and speaker for the evening.

When a new president comes to office, new symbols are created to represent his authority. At Fort Hays, these symbols are in the form of the medallion, used in conveying the duties of office; the seal representing the authority of the office itself and the mace, which is carried during the inaugural procession.
What Man Can Conceive,
He Can Achieve.
Let's Sing a Song of Peace,
of Progress for the 70's.

FHS "Residents" Return

Balmy fall weather provided the perfect atmosphere for an unhurried return to class routine. The feeling in the air was one of speculation. How would the Tiger football season go? What about the new president? Would Vietnam receive more campus attention?

Whatever the expectations, students, new and old, found fall conditions—in a spring-like setting, right for getting to know campus life.
Students Welcome
Gustads, Parents

Associated Women Students and McMIndes Hall combined efforts to welcome Mrs. Gustad as the new first lady of FHS. McMIndes sponsored a tea honoring Mrs. Gustad and daughter Ann. All women students, faculty members and housemothers were invited to visit with Mrs. Gustad during the gathering.

Students all over the campus welcomed their parents to FHS for the annual Parents Day, Sept. 20. Parents heard President Gustad speak and and had the opportunity to sample dorm food and attend a Tiger football game.
Debate between the Moratorium and anti-Moratorium factions becomes somewhat formal in this instance. Below: Crowds in the Union show the apathy many students feel towards Moratorium activities. Below right: Feeble candle flames are carefully guarded during the November candle lighting for peace. Far right: Several students prefer to read about the Moratorium than become involved.
Fort Hays was no exception to the Moratorium activities as students became active in several programs, demonstrating their reaction to the Vietnam conflict. The reaction on October 15, however, was meager, characterized by only a smattering of black armbands and American flags.

Activities in November brought candle lighting ceremonies for peace and a debate between the Moratorium and anti-Moratorium groups. Large crowds in the Union during the proceedings indicated a general lack of interest.
RIGHT: Wet weather fails to wilt royal loveliness as Queen Robyn and her court share an umbrella. BELOW: Alumni and students experience a common plight as dampness continues to prevail during the Tiger football game.
Spirits High In Spite of Rain

Homecoming spirits were dampered, though not extinguished, as the weather turned wet and chilly Saturday, Oct. 18.

Students braved the rain to watch the main street parade built on the theme, "Highlights of the '60's." Capturing the Sweepstakes Prize was the combined entry of McMindes and Wiest Halls, "Dark Side of the Earth." Individual entry honors went to Custer Hall and Delta Zeta, taking first and second respectively. First place in the combined division went to Tri Sigma and Sigma Phi Epsilon.

The traditional pull across the murky waters of Big Creek ended in a sophomore victory.

Fort Hays met the Emporia Hornets in the traditional afternoon Homecoming game. The Tigers sustained a 7 to 34 loss on swampy Lewis Field. Half-time activities included the crowning of Queen Robyn Dansel, McMindes candidate. Her court included Loretta Miller, first attendant; Elia Domínguez, second attendant; Cynthia Hoffman and Jan Schneider.
A & L Program — Talent Plus

Gaiety and music concluded Homecoming week and opened the Artist and Lecture Series for 1969 on Oct. 18. The Serendipity Singers, a folk rock group entertained a capacity crowd of Fort Hays students and alumni in the barn of the Coliseum. Performing in spite of the loss of their own instruments, the Singers went on with the show aided by local merchants. Their program included skits and satirical social comment as well as contemporary songs.

Second on the A&L program was the Rumanian Madrigal and Choir, performing Oct. 24 in the Coliseum. The Madrigal provided a variety of musical entertainment complete with authentic costumes. Dressed in the styles depicting the Spanish Renaissance, the group sang numbers attributed to that era. Highlighting the evening were Rumanian folk songs and a rain dance performed in traditional Rumanian dress. Upon returning for their second encore, the choir closed the presentation with the nationally popular folk song, "America the Beautiful."
Lloyd A. Frerer, former head of drama at Kansas Wesleyan in Salina, became the new director of the theatrical arts at FHS this year. Employing creative aspects in staging and combining professional technique with educational theatre has brought Frerer favorable results. Evidence of these results was the first major production of the year, "Philadelphia, Here I Come!", a three act tragi-comedy by Brian Friel.

"Philadelphia," starring Wayne Sipe, Kathy Faulkner, Tom Schroder and Dennis Dey, was an exploration of the joy and sadness experienced by a boy leaving his Irish home for a new life in America.
November 21 and 22 saw Sheridan Coliseum filled to capacity as the Dept. of Music presented its annual Varsity Band Show. All areas of musical interest performed, including the Jazz Ensemble, Ft. Hays Singers, Orchesis, Tiger Debs and Concert Band. Faculty and student soloists presented vocal and instrumental numbers. Money collected from ticket sales is used to provide a scholarship for a deserving student majoring in music.
Block Benefits Future Teachers

Each semester, the second nine weeks period finds Ft. Hays State senior education majors out on the teaching block. This practice, which originated at Ft. Hays State, allows future teachers to gain practical experience in actual classroom situations with the benefit of professional supervision.

Students devise their own lesson plans and teaching methods. They also have the opportunity to observe teaching methods different from their own.

Schools in the western Kansas area co-operated in this program by opening their classrooms to Ft. Hays students for the purpose of teaching block experience. Faculty of these schools fill supervisor positions. Regular Ft. Hays faculty also evaluate the teacher hopefuls.
Yule Season ‘Relatively Quiet’

Christmas proved to be relatively quiet on the Ft. Hays campus. Panhellenic Council brought the nationally famous Cowsills to the Coliseum Dec. 10 for a holiday concert. The group presented their hit song "Hair" along with a number of yuletide favorites.

AWS sponsored the annual Sno-ball, which was held in McMinides Hall; Kathy Berger reigned as Sno-ball Queen.

Kathy was chosen by Guercio's Studio of Hays on the basis of a photo entry. All entrants were judged on photogenic qualities.
AGD Fills Quota

Rush Week's end brought sixty-four coed pledges with 25 of them going to Alpha Gamma Delta, the first house to fill its quota. Taking place from Nov. 16 to Nov. 22, Greek Rush pledge announcements were only the aftermath of a round of teas, house parties, pref parties and union parties. Skits and gab sessions introduced the pledge hopefuls to various aspects of Greek life. By the final days of the week, friendships made between actives and rushees led to the signing of pref cards.
Dramatists Present 'Love' — Pun Against 1690 Aristocracy

The play was brought to life by director of theatre, Lloyd Frerer who presented the play with suggestive scenery and detailed period costumes. The costumes were designed and built by Cheryl Lovitt.

Starring in "Love" were Suzi Griffin, Wayne Alan Sipe and Allen Dreiling. In charge of stage properties was Bill Segal.
Enrollment — Mad, Mad Ordeal
For Both ‘Vet’ and ‘Rookies’

Enrollment at the end of January once again proved to be a hectic three days for FHS students. Veteran seniors, as well as freshmen with but a few hours of credit, stood in numerous lines in Sheridan Coliseum and McCartney Hall where they pulled class cards.

Although the weather was conducive to more pleasant activities, the students completed spring enrollment.

Student Initiative Makes HPER Complex Future Reality

Through a willingness to increase their fees by $43.87 a semester, students took the initiative in voting bonds to finance construction of an HPER complex. In a special election Feb. 13, half the student body turned out to pass the proposal by a 700-vote majority.

Initially approved by the Board of Regents and the state Senate, the plan had more difficulty in the House. However, in a conference committee, authority to issue the revenue bonds was restored and once again the bill was voted on by the Senate and the House, and subsequently passed.

Earlier the week of the voting, Vietnam critic Senator George McGovern, Democrat from South Dakota, presented his views to a packed Coliseum Feb. 10. He was the second speaker of the Artist and Lectures series.
Celebrities Phil Ford and Mimi Hines arrived March 15 to appear in the Artists and Lectures Series presentation, "I Do, I Do." The musical comedy depicted one couple's life story from wedding night to 50th anniversary.

A welcome highlight after spring break was "The Lettermen" in concert, another Series-sponsored appearance. During their April 8 show at Sheridan Coliseum, the trio performed audience requests in addition to several hit tunes.
"The Imaginary Invalid," an original three-act opera, premiered the second week in February to a standing-room-only audience. With the combined efforts of Dr. Lewis Miller, Patrick Goeser, the Music Dept. and Little Theatre, the production staff also included stage director Harriet Ketchum and orchestra director Lyle Dilley. The cast was comprised of three women and four men.

Once again drama came alive in the April 18-19 performances of Charlotte Chorpenning's adaptation of "Sleeping Beauty." The Little Theatre cast of 12 presented the fairy tale for the children of Hays and the surrounding area. Although it featured the traditional Prince Charming story, "Sleeping Beauty" also focused on making the action more meaningful for today's audience.
DZ's Sweep Derby Day Field; Sigs Net $600 for WV Kids

Delta Zeta sorority once again emerged as the victor in Sigma Chi's Derby Days May 14-16. The annual event to raise funds for Wallace Village, a center for treatment of minimally brain-damaged children, netted $600 to put Sigma Chis ahead of other Sigs in the nation.

Besides chasing Sigma Chi derbies, teams participated in the action at Lewis Field in such events as the great stagecoach race, lemon meringue relay, zip strip, skin-the-snake, musical tubs, disc quest, little furlough balloon bust, and yard contest.

Following the DZ's, Alpha Gamma Delta captured second place and Custer Hall third. The sportsmanship trophy went to McMindes Hall.
Fort Hays Joins National Protest of Cambodia, Kent, Environment

Fort Hays students observed the national Environmental Teach-In April 29. Included in the day's activities was a morning convocation with Dr. Eugene Fleharty, professor of zoology, as the speaker. As the organizer of the Hays branch of Zero Population Growth, Dr. Fleharty centered his remarks on over-population. Afternoon events began with a sing-in in the front of Memorial Union and concluded with a clean-up along Big Creek.

Campus rallies also made news as FHSers gathered on two occasions at the free speech podium in front of the Union to protest President Nixon's Cambodian policy and to mourn the deaths of four Kent State students. The peaceful demonstrations consisted of talks by students, and faculty and a march on the Ellis County Courthouse.

WRA Bags Fifth Straight Bike Win

Once again the bikes were in motion as May brought to Fort Hays its seventh annual Furlough. WRA captured the winning trophy for the fifth time in a row while Wiest Hall took first place in the men's division. Barbara Schreiner, Hays freshman, reigned as queen after her crowning during halftime ceremonies of the intrasquad football game. Proceeds are used for scholarships for the Endowment Association.

FHS Rodeo Club Maintains Top Standing in CPCRA

Rodeo excitement came to Fort Hays State as FHS Rodeo Club successfully defended its Central Plains Collegiate Rodeo Association championship. Tied for the all-around title with a K-Stater, Everett Miller later lost in a flip of a coin. Sandra Philip reigned as queen over the weekend activities.

Roy Turley captured first in bareback riding, the only first place earned for FHS. Second places were picked up by Miller and teammates Dennis Alexander and KayLynn Philip.
Dole Addresses 1,000 Grads

Over 1,000 degree candidates donned caps and gowns as the largest graduating class from Ft. Hays State heard Sen. Bob Dole deliver the main commencement address May 29.

An all graduate luncheon was held in the Fort Hays Ballroom of the Memorial Union to honor degree recipients.

This year's commencement exercises initiated a new trend at FHS. Only one graduation will be held each year at the conclusion of the spring semester. Baccalaureate services were also dropped.

Harbin Chosen for Chairmanship of Multi-faceted Education Field

With the year’s faculty and curriculum revision, Dr. Calvin Harbin was appointed Chairman of the Division of Education. This division now includes the departments of industrial arts, library science, health, physical education and recreation; home economics and education.

These departments prepare students as future educators by exposing them to teaching techniques in their chosen field. Actual application of these skills was the test for those who took the teaching "bloc" before stepping into public education.

In addition, outstanding contributions were made in special education by key programs such as the Day Care Center and the Homer B. Reed Workshop for handicapped persons. These projects drew both state and national support and recognition for their work in a 22-county area.
Dr. Clement Wood serves as head of the Dept. of Education, setting curriculum standards and requirements.

The new Division of Humanities under the chairmanship of Dr. William R. Thompson is now a consolidation of the departments of Art, English, Foreign Language, Speech, and Music. Serving as department heads are Dr. Joel Moss, Dr. Verna Parish, Dr. Paul Graber, Dr. James Costigan and Dr. Leland Bartholomew, respectively.

Student art was exhibited in September and in May, while the faculty and graduate talent of FHS and surrounding colleges was shown at various times during the school year. The Speech Department's Drama division presented four attractions; the Music Dept. presented numerous concerts and recitals and jointly with the dramatists, presented the opera.

B.S. Degree — Nurses' Goal

Miss Leora Stroup heads the Dept. of Nurse Education and is aided by seven faculty members.

This four-year program is one of two in Kansas to offer a B.S. in nursing. It enables a student to go on to graduate work or to work as a registered nurse upon graduation.

To be admitted, a prospective candidate must be of junior standing with a 1.25 grade point average over all. Five weeks between the junior and senior year are spent studying psychiatric practices "on location."

Four nine-week sections make up the senior year. One section is spent in public nursing; one includes maternity and infant care; another is in pediatrics at the Chicago University Hospital and usually the last section is in the nurse leadership class.
LEFT: Mrs. Allen and Public Health nursing students learn while they serve in the community. ABOVE: Men, as well as women students, prepare for careers as nurses and learn to test blood pressure under the watchful eye of Mrs. Garwood.

Governing Bodies

Senate Serves Students' Views

During its first year after expanding from a council to a senate, Student Senate functioned as a representative voice of the students.

The governmental body approved a judicial code outlining and defining the powers of the Student Court.

The Senate also sponsored the referendum for the HPER complex and the petition for the sale of cigarettes in the Union.

Traffic Tribunal
Hears Appeals

Traffic Tribunal members spent most of their meetings considering FHS traffic regulations and revising them when deemed necessary. When needed, the Tribunal sits as an appeals court for campus traffic violations. Douglas Kingsley chaired the Tribunal. Jean Stouffer and Mike Stewart were sponsors.

SOC Approves
FHS Groups

Student Organizations Committee holds the responsibility of approving all student groups associated with FHS. All organizations must meet initial approval and maintain continued recognition to remain official on-campus organizations. Jean Stouffer was chairman and Shanann Johnston was secretary.
Legal Board

Screens Cases

As part of the Student Court structure, Legal Board serves as an intermediate judicial body and a screening board for disciplinary cases. Composed of the Student Court Chief Justice and Attorney General and the Associate Deans of Students, the Board determines jurisdiction of cases presented by students and deans.

Entertainment

Council's Goal

The Memorial Union Program Council provided a variety of entertainment for FHS students. Tiger Hops, movies, "Tiger Paws," Best Dressed Coed, Sweetheart Ball and Free Coffee Day were only a segment of the Council's projects. Steve Critchfield served as chairman and O. Z. Bizzell was sponsor.
Communications

Leader Adopts New Lay-Out

The State College Leader received a First Class Rating from the Associated Collegiate Press for the fall semester's publication.

As editor-in-chief, Les Anderson guided the weekly paper from story to publication. The editor was responsible for visual changes such as down style headlines using a capital letter only at the beginning of a headline and a horizontal lay-out pattern.

Conrad Downing completed his first year of advising a collegiate level publication. A revamping of staff positions allowed members to become familiar with more areas of newspaper production.

Photographers

With Lorraine Jackson as supervisor, the student photographers were on hand for all college-sponsored activities. The photo lab worked closely with Leader and Reveille staffs to achieve high quality publications.
TV Added to KFHS

KFHS Radio expanded to include closed circuit television cameras for broadcast and tape replays in classrooms.

Under the direction of Jack Heather, KFHS also expanded the staff of students and technicians to accommodate the television equipment.

Students in residence halls and the Memorial Union could receive the KFHS broadcasts by dialing 650. The radio facilities are housed in Malloy Hall.

POP Joins in Career Day
Psi Chi Initiates 30

April 24 marked the charter initiation of Kappa Delta Sigma into Psi Chi, national psychology fraternity. With 30 members to initiate, the group elected Don Binder as president while Dennis King served as advisor.

The group revised the by-laws and participated in curriculum changes. Their programs included topics on sensory awareness and behavior modifications used at a camp for emotionally disturbed boys.
Drama and Acting
Alpha Psi’s Bag

Alpha Psi Omega, theater honorary, assisted with dramatic productions at Fort Hays State. Members of the group are familiar with the technical as well as the acting side of theater production. The organization co-sponsored a May awards dinner with Little Theatre. William Segel served as sponsor, Wayne Alan Sipe presided as president.

EPT Men Handle
Annual News Letter

John Gingraux served as sponsor and Leon Albert was elected president of Epsilon Pi Tau, industrial arts honorary. The industrial arts group sent out the annual EPT News Letter to their alumni. A spring initiation of new members was held. Membership requires a minimum of 16 credit hours in industrial arts and a 2.0 in the field.
KOP Participates In National Study

Three service projects, a Founder's Day Dinner and participation in a national study of home economists' responsibilities to the needy occupied Kappa Omicron Phi members. The home economics honorary elected Mary Lou Mitchell president. Mrs. Maxine Hoffman was faculty sponsor.

Therapists Attend Chicago Convention

Sigma Alpha Eta, honorary speech therapy fraternity, baked cookies for children participating in speech therapy clinics as one of their service projects. The president and secretary of the honorary attended the national convention in Chicago. Mrs. Marcia Bannister and Dr. Charles Wilhelm were sponsors and Julie Jansonius was president. Key membership requires a gpa of 1.25, serving on a committee denotes active participation.
Music Men Aid With Programs

Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia members selected Vince Landau as president while John Huber served as sponsor of the music fraternity. Projects included advertising the Varsity Band Show, ushering for musical programs and helping with musical stage works. The men also contributed their time at the State Music Contest. The fraternity was originally founded in 1898.

SAI Promotes Musical Service

Sigma Alpha Iota, women’s music honorary, centered its service projects around music. The group sent money to Paraguay, their sister nation, to aid programs in music education. The women held several teas for music faculty wives and alumnae. Delegates attended the state SAI Day in Topeka. Marilyn Miller was president and Mrs. Joan Henry sponsored the organization.

Historians Take Spring Journey

Phi Alpha Theta, honorary history fraternity, combined monthly meetings with History Club to hear speakers discuss "Intellectual Origins of the New Left," "Paleontology in Western Kansas" and other topics of significance. Headed by Jerry Ramsey, the group took a May trip to the Rocky Mountain Social Science Convention in Colorado Springs. Ann Liston sponsored the group.

Frat Recognizes Math Students

Kappa Mu Epsilon, honorary mathematics fraternity, admitted initiates with a "B" average in math and a 1.75 overall. A May banquet and initiation of new members culminated the year.

John Bailey was elected president. Mrs. Marilyn Wilson sponsored the mathematicians. The organization provided recognition of outstanding mathematics students and familiarized members with advances in the field.

SCSA Aids
Anti-Pollution

Student Chapter of Soil Conservation actively participated in pollution clean-up projects. Members worked during the Governor's Clean-up Week and on the college farm situation. Wesley Drosselmeyer served as president with Thaine Clark advising this nationally affiliated organization.
French Club
Stresses Culture

French Club members elected Tom Mitchell as president. Maria Codinach served as the sponsor. The club's objective is to acquaint American students with French culture. This objective was gained mainly through films shown during monthly meetings.

German Club
Holds Festival

German Club supplemented the classroom program in an extension of the students' understanding of the German people. Allen Elliott served as president and Mrs. Leona Pfeifer was sponsor.

The club held the annual Christmas party as well as a German dinner and wedding dance during the Hays Art Festival. The group also sponsored two feature-length films and joined with the Spanish and French Clubs for a spring picnic.
Films Promote Spanish Culture

Spanish Club members gained cultural insight of Spanish-speaking countries through festivals, films and slides. Barb Johnson served as president and Antonia Alcantara sponsored the group. In the spring, club members joined other language clubs for a picnic.

AKP Sponsors Business Week

As an honorary fraternity for business administration majors, Alpha Kappa Psi joined with other campus business organizations in sponsoring Business Week activities. Ten members set up accounting procedures for the Homer B. Reed Center. Monty Applebee served as president. Richard Osborne and Walter Manteuffel co-sponsored the club.
Soc. Club Joins Campus Groups

Through programs and speakers, the newly formed Robert E. Witt Sociology Club increased members' awareness of the field. Greg Shubert served as the first president. Robert Witt sponsored the group during the first semester. After his death, Mrs. Rose Arnhold and Bill Abruzzi became sponsors.

Some of the programs included a paper on Indian students in the U.S., a talk by the manager of the Girls Industrial School in Beloit, and an FHS student related his experiences in VISTA.

SCEC Displays Concern for Kids

Students from the areas of education, speech correction and special education worked with exceptional children through the Student Council for Exceptional Children.

With Dale Sekavec as president and Mrs. Martha Claflin as advisor, SCEC members sponsored recreational programs and a Christmas party for exceptional children in the Hays area. Delegates attended the national convention in Chicago.

SEA Hosts Gustad

Dr. John Gustad, Fort Hays State president, keynoted the February Student Education Assn. banquet. Elaine Adamson was president; Gerald Duncan and Dr. Ray Kurtz were sponsors. SEA officers attended a state workshop in Topeka. Other delegates attended the state convention in Wichita.

Nurses Give Service

Open to students interested in nursing, the Fort Hays Nurses Club sponsored several projects. Christmas caroling to the Hays hospitals, helping with the bloodmobile and immunization projects are highlights of the group’s many services. Mrs. Helene Allen and Mrs. Ruth Theis were sponsors. Dean Zerr served as president.
Exchange Gives Chemists Funds

With Alan Klusener as president and Robert Richards serving as sponsor, the Fort Hays Chemistry Club presented a scholarship to a Chem. Club member. The chemists raised money for this scholarship through an exchange of laboratory equipment and handbooks. Delegates attended the American Chemical Society convention.

PDE Receives National Charter

Pi Delta Epsilon, journalism recognition fraternity, received its national charter in a February initiation with the Washburn University chapter in Topeka.

Les Anderson served as the first president of the organization. Mrs. Katherine Rogers sponsored the journalists. The editor and the former publisher of the Hays Daily News presented programs on opportunities in the field.
Dr. W. D. Moreland discusses old times with colleagues during a coffee given in his honor by the newly formed Political Science Club.

Poly Sci Completes First Year at Hays

Completing its first year on the Fort Hays State campus, the W. D. Moreland Political Science Club sought to create informal lines of communication between students and faculty involved in political science. James Pearson was president and Pat Drinan sponsored the new organization.

Hosting speakers which included academic consultants and political figures from several governmental levels, helped to acquaint club members with all facets of political science. During the fall semester the club held a coffee for Dr. W. D. Moreland, retired Chairman of the Division of Political Science, History and Sociology.

Geologists Sponsor Naming Museum

With Myrl Walker as sponsor and Doyle Saddler as president, the Sternberg Geology Club promoted naming the museum to honor its founder, the late George F. Sternberg, a world renowned paleontologist and long-time curator of the museum.

Letters Present Eta Rho’s Purpose

Coke parties and letters introduced freshmen and new members to the function of Eta Rho Epsilon, women’s physical education organization. A spring picnic and softball game culminated activities. Sarah Mangelsdorf was sponsor and Debbie Artman was president.

Diamonds, Spaghetti Highlight Home Ec.

Making handpuppets for children in the Hays hospitals, spaghetti suppers, speakers on such topics as hair-pieces and diamonds were on this year's agenda for women in the Home Economics Chapter.

The chapter provided an opportunity for home economics students to become better acquainted with others in the field. Also the women were able to develop professional skill while utilizing their knowledge in community service. The club aided members in keeping abreast of new developments in the field. Miss June Krebs was sponsor while Joan Zimmer served as president.

Bikes, Contest
Occupy MPE

With Steve Seirer at the helm and Glen Lojka as sponsor, Men's Physical Education Club members entered the annual Furlough Bicycle Races and sponsored a girls' free throw contest during basketball season. The men attended the annual P.E. majors' spring picnic. The club also dealt with the professional and educational aspects of P.E.

IA Devours
Watermelons

Watermelon feeds, pictured at right, and hamburger feeds kept the appetites of Industrial Arts Club members satisfied. Gary Tobias sponsored the club and Kirby Clarke served as president. The men managed and supervised the Industrial Arts Fair. Along with overnight camping trips, the programs included speakers on industry and education.

Business Frat Hosts FBLA

Phi Beta Lambda business fraternity sponsored the Future Business Leaders of America convention for area high school students. Delegates gleaned many ideas for meetings and projects from the state convention in March and the June national convention held in Philadelphia. Sharon Giebler was president and Sharon Vlasak sponsored the business organization.

Historians Hear Films, Speakers

With Roy Ingram as president, History Club combined with Phi Alpha Theta for monthly meetings of films and speakers on topics pertinent to historical or present day events. Helmut Schmeller sponsored the organization. History Club members rounded out the year by attending the Rocky Mountain Social Science convention in Colorado Springs.

All-Campus Organizations

Rodeo Members
Stage Ride-off

During the year Rodeo Club practiced with the May championship rodeo as their goal. Members met K-State in a match ride contest. The alumni ride-off pitted former members against present members. Neil Barstow was president. Bob Lowen, Jack Jackson, Doug Philip and Rosemary Smith sponsored the club.
Square Dancing —
Pure Enjoyment

With Bob Dey as president and Cade Suran as sponsor, the main objective of the Fort Hays Star Promenaders was to promote interest in square dancing. During the Homecoming Parade the club danced on one of the floats. Bob Dey served as caller during the bi-monthly dances.
P-t-P Enhances Understanding

People-to-People encourages students from the United States to broaden their knowledge of other spheres of the globe while stressing cultural understanding.

The international group elected David London as president. Dr. Benito Carballo served as sponsor. Leap Week and the International Arts Festival highlighted P-t-P activities.
Service Stressed
In APO Fraternity

Alpha Phi Omega, national service fraternity, sponsored the Beauty and Beast contest and Furlough races to raise money for Endowment Assn. scholarships. The group also aided the campus bloodmobile, ushered at Artists and Lectures programs and helped distribute Reveilles.

Astronaut James A. Lovell wrote, "I heartily recommend this fraternity to you for I believe that your participation in this organization will give you a sense of fulfillment and will bring honor and distinction to your school." Lovell carried his APO pin on the historical Apollo V.
Retreat Group Develops Site

The FHS Lake Retreat Organization spent the year developing and maintaining a Cedar Bluff recreation area for students and faculty. In concentrating on their goals the group built rafts, lakeside basketball goals and graded all roads leading to the retreat area.

Glen Lojka served as chairman and Lynn Rogers as secretary-treasurer. The lakeside area is leased by the college.

YAF Supports ‘Involvement’

With “involvement” as its motto, the FHS Young Americans for Freedom chapter was organized. Installing Pat Brown as president and Dr. Howard Reynolds as sponsor, the group participated in the nationwide “Tell it to Hanoi” movement by distributing campus literature and sending petitions to Hanoi delegates at Paris. In the spring the YAF held a Vietnam referendum to gauge campus feelings on the war.
Plays, Awards
In Little Theatre

Membership in Little Theatre is earned by accumulating 10 points in any facet of theater work. Members participated in "Sleeping Beauty" and a series of one-acts. The outstanding actor, actress and technical producer received awards at the annual banquet. Denny Dey was president and William Segal was sponsor.

Vets Help With
Furlough, Flags

Veterans' Club members used the spring semester to help Alpha Phi Omega with Furlough. With John Pyle as president, Bob Maxwell and Thaine Clark as sponsors, the group presented a U.S. flag to the Homer B. Reed Center. They also contributed litter containers for the campus.
High Spirits, Precision Routines
Tiger Deb and Cheerleader Goal

Tiger Debs and Cheerleaders made a hit throughout the year with performances at athletic events. Both groups were instrumental in contributing to school spirit. The Cheerleaders accompanied the teams for away games as well as leading cheers and the fight song at Lewis Field Stadium and the Coliseum.

Combining with other Hays schools, the Tiger Debs presented a half-time show at a Kansas City Chiefs football game. The precision dance unit performed for FHS half-times and at the Varsity Band Show.

WRA Endorses Recreation

Women’s Recreation Association strives to interest FHS women in recreation and the ideals of sportsmanship. A September coke party served to acquaint new and old members. September also found the women on a camp-out at Fort Fletcher Camp Grounds. The fall semester was topped with a playday for area high schools and a Halloween party.

Beverely Ritter served as president and represented the group as a Homecoming Queen candidate. Monice Somers completed her fourth year as WRA sponsor.

During semester break WRA members headed to Colorado for skiing at Arapahoe Basin. In March the group again hosted high schools for a volleyball sports day. The annual WRA banquet closed the school year.
Under the direction of Sarah Mangelsdorf, Orchesis members staged four performances during the year. Coupled with the Varsity Band Show, the fall production included "Voodoo" and "Something's Coming." An Evening of Dance titled the spring concert. Orchesis members usually did their own choreography.

The group also presented an assembly performance at Hays High School and prepared arrangements for an original play by an FHS student.

Ensembles Aid Musical Variety

Small instrumental ensembles and large orchestras offer a variety of performance media to Fort Hays State musicians. Membership in the ensembles is through audition. Lyle Dilley directed the Civic Symphony and the Symphonic Band, Robert Brown directed the Woodwind Ensemble, Clarinet Choir was directed by Harold Palmer and Dr. Leland Bartholomew conducted the Brass Choir.

All groups, except Civic Symphony, toured area schools. The Civic Symphony is made up of college personnel and residents of the Hays area. Symphonic Band highlighted its season with a performance at the Southwest CBDNA Convention at the University of Oklahoma. All the groups presented formal concerts for the entertainment of Hays and campus communities.
Curtis Wright, solo trombonist, was among several soloists adding to the entertainment at the Varsity Band Show. The Concert Choir and Fort Hays Singers performed in formal and informal settings heightening a cabaret effect.
Music, Dancing Focuses on Cabaret Style

Varsity Band lent its name to title the November Varsity Band Show. The Jazz Ensemble, under the direction of James Olcott; Fort Hays Singers, with Dr. Donald Stout as director; Concert Choir, also directed by Stout; Orchesis, instructed by Sarah Manglesdorf and the Tiger Debs, under Karen Johnson, joined the band, directed by Lyle Dilley, for an evening of musical entertainment in a cabaret setting.

Music Groups

Offer Concerts

Men's and Women's Glee Clubs, under the direction of Donn Graham, and Collegian Chorale, under Patrick Goeser, each presented several concerts during the year. The Collegium Musicum joined with the Faculty String Quartet to present a program of modern and ancient string music. String Trio and String Orchestra are directed by Edwin Moyers.
Churches

In our modern day of technological advancement, students continue seeking solace in their God. The churches of the Hays community welcome FHS students to services and activities. Many churches extend their fellowship to students through specially organized college youth groups. Students also participate in ecumenically oriented organizations.

New Coach Stymied
By Losing Season

Tom Stromgren, first season head football coach at Fort Hays State, was formerly head mentor at the College of Emporia. With him he brought a fine record of past achievement and "sic 'em" football, a new system designed to take the game to the opponents. Confidence, pride and dedication characterized the man and his method.

His coaching experience comes from three Kansas high schools where he compiled a 42-15-2 record. Upon coming to the College of Emporia in 1965, Stromgren carried on the winning tradition and ended the '67 season compiling a creditable 13-4-1.

In ten years of experience, the 0-9-0 outcome of the '69 Tiger season is only the second losing season in Stromgren's coaching history.

Tom Stromgren, new to the returning Tigers, began his first year at FHS as head coach of the football squad. ABOVE: The Tiger defense stiffened to stop a midfield third down play. RIGHT: Lionell Jenkins (82) tries an end-around against a much improved Washburn U. defense.

Junior tailback Tommy Evans, (right) who turned in many sparkling performances and set a new rushing record, proved to be a major asset in the '69 season. The "Mini-Brute" racked up a total of 1,022 yards for the season and was the team high scorer with 62 points. Quarterback John Covington (lower left) and end, Dennis Spratt (lower right) also contributed to the individual record division. The team as a whole set 15 records and extended one.
Tigers Down; Anticipate Comeback

The story of Fort Hays State's 1969 football season was one of frustration and disappointment. For the first season in the history of the school the team failed to win one game.

At the start of the season the Tigers found themselves with a new coach, Tom Stromgren and a new conference, the Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference (RMAC).

In the first match against N.W. Oklahoma, a crowd of 4,000 viewed the Tigers' 6-34 defeat. Hope and high spirits still prevailed when Kearney invaded Lewis Field and did their thing, leaving with a 12-28 victory. Colorado State returned and scored another defeat at 6-53. Depressing losses to N.W. Missouri 14-35 and to Washburn 6-27 shattered all hopes of a winning season.

The next encounter, Homecoming, seemed the ideal time to stage a comeback. A crowd of 7,000 turned out to generate all the spirit and excitement they could muster. It rained and Emporia went home a 7-34 winner. Following losses were Southern Colorado, 8-43 and Pittsburg at 18-41. The final game was perhaps the most surprising. While hosting Omaha University, the Tigers put forth a valiant effort but once again fell prey to the foe, ending the season with a disappointing 20-28 loss.

Said Coach Stromgren, "We played our best . . . in my book every one of those kids who stuck it out is a winner."

Visions for a brighter tomorrow? "When at the bottom there is only one way to go . . . and that ain't sideways!"—Z. Zhalavodka

'Bumpy' Season
For Harriers

The Fort Hays State 1969 cross country season began with some question. Larbi Oukada, former Moroccan Olympian, was out on injuries suffered in the 1968 track season. Carrying the load, Alvin Penka led the harriers to five dual and triangular victories.

Oukada joined the squad at the Oklahoma Jamboree and landed a third place, defeating the powerful Kansas University runners. Late in the season when the Tigers ran into illness and injuries, clutch performances by Dennis Wheatcroft kept the harriers on top. For the major part of the season the double punch of Oukada and Penka sparked the Tigers to numerous triumphs.

Conference Performance
‘Finest Ever Seen’

For the Rocky Mountain Cross Country meet this year, the Tigers were free of injuries and at the peak of condition. After the victorious encounter, Coach Francis dubbed the team’s efforts as the finest display of stamina that he had ever seen.

At the NAIA finals, the squad not only duplicated last year’s championship but won by a greater margin. Oukada missed the national individual title by only seconds. The season ended as it began—in glory, as Oukada and Penka won NAIA All American and Dennis Wheatcroft missed the honor by three places.

Bengals Win Six

Thirteen Tiger victories and a 6-4 conference record with a three-way tie for second place made the 1969-70 Fort Hays basketball season a "very good year." Ten defeats and a two point loss to St. Mary of the Plains College in District 10 regional playoffs prevented rating the year as a "a great one."

Head Coach Chuck Brehm initiated the season with a complete team overhaul, recalling only three lettermen and one starter. Making up the final top five were Darryl Apel and Leneal Locke, guards; center Bob Bartkoski and forwards Daryl Stockstill and Martyn Howgill. Supporting roles were filled by Duane Rauhut, Mike Gaskell, Jim Keller, Pat James, Al Campbell, Duane Creamer, Troy Rampy, Mel Kitts, Gary Vejvoda, Joe Gresnick and Dennis Richmond.

Losing only one of 10 encounters in Sheridan Coliseum, the Tigers' home play was almost invincible. Not quite so impressive was the road record of 4-9.

Wrapping up his fifth year as Fort Hays basketball coach, Brehm commented, "I was extremely pleased with our overall performance and thought the squad did a tremendous job."

Stockstill, Locke Capture Honors

Daryl Stockstill, Geneseo junior, and Leneal Locke, Stockton senior, won individual honors in the District 10 basketball tourney at Emporia and were named to the elite squads of the Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference Plains Division and NAIA Dist. 10.

Stockstill, standing 6-4, averaged 19.1 and totalled 444 points for the 23-game schedule to claim first team honors on the All-District 10, RMAC and District 10 tournament squads. His 11.5-rebound average was tops in the RMAC Plains Division.

Locke, team captain for the 1969-70 season, was second high scorer for the Bengals at 17.8. Locke’s play netted him second team All-District 10, first team RMAC and second team District 10 honors.

He also placed as a top free throw shooter in the national NAIA poll with an .864 percentage.

Freshman Gymnasts Lauded

Following the year's 7-3 record, the Fort Hays State gymnastics squad is looking optimistically toward the 1970-71 season.

Coach Ed McNeil launched the season with only two lettermen—Billy Holmes and Jim Green—but supported by freshman recruits, the Tigers swept through five meets undefeated.

In a double dual at Warrensburg, Mo., the Tigers suffered the first loss of the year dropping a match to the University of Kansas. The Tigers then retaliated by defeating Central Missouri State and Northwestern Oklahoma State, both for the second time.

Although the Tigers ended the season on a losing note to Colorado State College and Wichita State, Coach McNeil is looking forward to the upcoming season. "We'll have everyone back next year," McNeil said, "and it should be one of the best years I've had here.

"We were really lucky that our freshmen came through the way they did—they made our season."

Wrestling Ends With NAIA National Meet

Fort Hays State wrestling came to a halt at the NAIA National Championships when the two Tiger representatives, Bob Brown (142) and Bob Brock (150), were defeated in the first and second rounds.

Though young, the wrestlers compiled a 7-7 dual meet record for the year. Starters for the season's second half were three freshman, three sophomores and four juniors.

The final dual meet records of the Tigers were 118 lb. Mike Holliman, 6-11; 126 lb. Greg LaCoss, 5-3; 134 lb. Gary Ulmer, 6-12; 142 lb. Brown, 10-2; 150 lb. Brock, 10-4-1; 158 lb. Thinclads Rack Up Wins, Records

Dual meet wins for the Tigers during the regular season occurred at Kearney State 72-70 and Wichita State University 81 1/2-63 1/2. The Tigers also made a strong showing in the Mid-American relays at which scores were not recorded. The lone dual meet loss was to the Air Force Academy, 97-34.

At the Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference meet, Fort Hays defending meet champions took second place with 108 points. The squad captured six firsts, including two that shattered RMAC meet marks. Mike Estes churned a 47.4 in the 440-yard dash and in the mile relay Dave Schneider, Bob Young, Ron Borger and Estes combined for a 3:14.9 clocking to top the record by four-tenths of a second.

Tracksters Have ‘Record-Busting’ Season

A well-balanced running attack coupled with experience and desire proved to be key factors in the success of the 1970 FHS track season. The Tigers won the distance medley in the "Big Three" relay meets of the year—Texas, Drake and Kansas. At the Texas encounter the Tigers set a new record in the distance medley in 9:46.6.

Mike Estes ran a 47.1 quarter-mile, Steve Boehmen, 3:00.5 three quarter mile and Larbi Oukada 4:06 in the mile.

Oukada was named the outstanding performer for the Kansas Relays. He won the 6-mile run in 28:45.3, breaking the relay's record of 29:44.4. He also anchored the winning distance medley relay team and finished third in the 3,000-meter steeplechase.

FHS Baseball Posts 'Cinderella' Season

Fort Hays State recorded its best baseball season this year by closing out with a 29-12 record. Coming from last place to RMAC championship, Coach Earl Hobbs and his Tigers earned the title of the "Cinderella" team and continued to amaze fans throughout the season.

As a team, they were the "most cohesive unit" Hobbs has ever coached. Made up of freshmen, transfer students, and only four Tiger veterans, the 1970 Tigers were a "team" both on and off the field. Although pitching was a major factor for their success, the biggest contribution was team spirit and team unity, Hobbs declared.

Since coming to Fort Hays State in 1967, Hobbs raised the baseball overall tally from 30 wins and 45 losses to a 59-57 record in the four-year period. This was Hobbs' second winning season since beginning coaching at FHS.

Tigers Win RMAC Crown; Compete in NAIA Playoffs

The Tigers battled their way into the NAIA District 10 Playoffs at Emporia by winning the Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference. In the first round of conference play, the Bengals fell to Kansas Wesleyan University, 11-5 in extra innings. All-American candidate Ken Dinkel continued to lead the NAIA sluggers by adding another homerrun and three RBI's to his record. Mike Hannafin was pinned with the loss.

In the title game Emporia won the right to continue in sectional tournament play at Wichita by defeating Kansas Wesleyan 3-0 in 10 innings.

Pitching was a major determinant of the Tigers' success this year. Dennis Nelson compiled a perfect 5-0 for the regular season with an earned runs average of 1.96. Freshman Brian Bates recorded win number six against three losses as he hurled a two-hit victory over Adams State in the RMAC tourney. His six victories represent the highest ever for FHS pitchers. Nelson's 5-0 record is the best percentage in FHS baseball history.

Bengal hurlers did not spot one losing record. Depth was a key to the pitchers' success with Vic Perri at 4-2, Dwight Williams 3-0, Ken Dinkel 3-1, Jim Coffin 3-1, and Art Koster 1-0. Mike Hannifin, 3-4, the Tiger relief ace, recorded seven saves for the season.

Golfers Take Four Major Titles

In season play, FHS varsity golfers collected an 18-2 record while the B-team marks were 7-21. The Tigers took first and third place in both the Hays Invitational and the Fort Hays Invitational and tallied No. 1 at the Denver Invitational.

On the second day of the NAIA District 10 tourney, Emporia State edged out FHS with a 319 defeating the Tigers by one stroke. Buddy Butler tied for tourney low honors with a 36-hole score of 156 and was named to the All-District 10 team.

The squad won both team and individual titles in capturing the RMAC golf title at Denver. Fort Hays shot a 589 and Kelly Deines a 141 for individual honors.

Fort Hays Netsters Suffer Letdown After Experiencing Losing Streak

Coach Dave Winter's varsity Tiger tennis squad experienced a frustrating season this year winning only three meets, losing seven and tying one.

Greg Robinson recorded the best dual record with five wins and six losses. Randy Lawrence was next with three wins and eight losses.

In doubles competition the teams of Joe Kramer and Larry Laubhan comprised a 2-3 record, Kramer and Lawrence a 2-4 record, Lawrence and Robinson, 2-3, Robinson and Laubhan 0-6 and Greg Schwarz and Tom Schrieber a 1-5.

The general aim of the Fort Hays State Intramural Sports Program is to provide an opportunity for every student to participate in some type of competitive sports activity as frequently as his interest, ability and time will permit.

The five objectives of the program are recreation, social contact, permanent interest, group spirit and physical fitness. This year over 50 per cent of the student body participated in 17 different sports provided by the program.

Wayne J. McConnell, is currently the Intramural Director.

Agnew's Where the Action Is

Supper guests, special dinners and campus participation are only a few featured assets of Agnew Hall.

Agnew residents are active in a wide variety of campus groups such as Tiger Debs, honorary sororities, AWS and the Student Senate.

Guiding the year's activities were Mrs. Esther Biays, housemother, and residence managers, Charlotte and David London, Faye and Don Whittecar and Linda and Jim Gfeller.

The year was a complete one which included the honor of sponsoring Homecoming queen candidate, Loretta Miller, chosen as a finalist.

Coed Dorm Unique At Fort Hays State

Wrestlers, football and baseball players, Tiger Debs, Leader Lasses are only a sample of the personalities who occupy Custer Hall. Custer is unique in being the one co-educational residence on campus, housing 87 men and 127 women.

The co-ed dorm received first prize in the individual entry bracket for its Homecoming float and was represented by Homecoming queen finalist, Elia Dominguez.

As a Christmas service project hall members sang carols and played bingo with the residents of Hillcrest Manor Nursing Home.

Combining their efforts, McMinders Hall and Wiest Hall designed the winning Homecoming float and McMinders also sponsored Homecoming queen Robyn Dansel. McMinders Hall hosted several campus activities such as the AWS tea for Mrs. Gustad and the AWS Snoball.

Keeping order in the hall were housemothers Mrs. Mary Redd and Mrs. Ruth Stranathan. Helping the housemothers were Miss Karen Hensleigh, assistant head resident, and Mr. and Mrs. Ned Toms, residence managers.

Wiest Construction
Adds to Hall Facilities

Construction begun the spring of 1969 added considerably to Wiest Hall's facilities. The men of Wiest enjoyed the neighboring pond when cold weather allowed ice skating. For the second successive year Wiest's candidate captured the Daisy Mae title. This year's winner was Sue Shaw. Wiest was also active in intramurals and aided in promoting school spirit.

Mrs. Marguerite Walters enjoyed her job as housemother and the activities involved with the coming Wiest addition.

Married Students at Home in Wooster

Family housing on the Fort Hays State campus consists of the 84 apartments making up Wooster Place. The apartments are conveniently located for easy access to classes and give the occupants the feeling of having a real home. Pictured are Mr. and Mrs. Lary Stull presenting life in Wooster Place.

Over 75 Per Cent Live Off-Campus

More than 75 per cent of the student population lives off-campus. They choose off-campus housing for a variety of reasons including privacy, freedom, economy and marriage.

Two apartment complexes, Hillcrest and Campus, are easily accessible to Fort Hays State's campus area while the city of Hays offers living space in trailers, basement apartments, sleeping rooms and full-size homes.

Panhellenic, IFC
Serve Greeks

Two vital groups serving the Greek system are Panhellenic Council and Inter-Fraternity Council. Through these organizations, an attempt is made to unite the Greeks on campus. Besides acting as courts to settle disputes and differences, Panhellenic and IFC also take part in rush, Greek Week and other campus activities in which Greeks are involved.

Another unifying group, Junior Panhellenic, saw its first year trying to coordinate the activities of the women pledges in sororities. This group, sponsored by Mrs. Maxine Hoffman with Margaret Moore as president, attempts to aid Panhellenic while serving sorority pledge needs.

Dean Jean Stouffer and Dean Michael Stewart served as Panhellenic and IFC sponsors. Jane Rice and Fred Johnson filled the offices of president.

Junior Panhellenic meets to adopt a new constitution for the purpose of uniting sorority pledges.
Two fundamental parts of Greek life which remain vital each year are rush and Greek Week activities.

Rush is the life’s blood of the Greek system. Actives spend long hours seeking out men and women to carry on the traditions of the system.

Greek Week spotlights a brighter aspect of Greek life. Throughout this frenzied week, members from all the fraternities and sororities on campus participate in a varied assortment of activities. This year, the activities ranged from fun and games at a wild, frolicsome carnival to just plain drinking at the kegger. Other activities included the crowning of the Greek God and Goddess at the Greek dance, the Greek sing, various exchange dinners and housemothers’ teas.

Alpha Gamma Delta highlighted their year during rush week by accomplishing the task of filling quota with a 25-woman pledge class. Alpha Gams were proud of their busy group being involved in many campus activities. Tiger Paws, honor societies, queen pageants, and the cheerleading squad were all enhanced by Alpha Gam members. Karen Johnson led the Tiger Deb drill team for a second year; many Alpha Gams were marchers. Despite all this action, the chapter retired the scholarship trophy in the fall.

Some of Alpha Gamma Delta's activities included their annual Rose formal and "Realm of Rejection" informal, along with Parents Day, senior breakfast, and a powderpuff football game.

As a sisterhood, Alpha Gamma Delta enjoyed the Christmas party and attending church together.
Hot pink dresses signify Delta Zetas in many campus activities. The highlight of the sorority's year was capturing the scholarship trophy with the highest overall grade point for women. Honoraries, cheerleading squad, Tiger Debs and queen pageants all included DZ members. Kathy Berger reigned as both Sno Queen and Kansas Wheat Queen, while Diane Bircher took Best Dressed Coed. Greek Goddess was a DZ, and Greek God was the DZ's candidate.

Greek week, Derby Days and Furlough were events Delta Zetas entered. The women sponsored their annual Rose formal and "Branding Party" informal, along with donating clothing to the Navajo Indians as a service project.

Delta Zetas took time to thank their housemother, Mrs. Ollie Newcomer by giving her a surprise Mother's Day party.

Sigma Kappas were a significant part of FHS. Several members participated in honorary groups such as SWH and Alpha Lambda Delta, and many were officers of these organizations. Carolyn Olson served as AWS vice president, while Jan Bendel held the position of WLO secretary. Many of the Kappas were queen candidates. With a 2.0 grade average Sigma Kappa pledges won the pledge scholarship trophy.

Activities of the group included a founder's day banquet, a mum sale for parents day, and a Christmas party for children. Throughout their busy year they found time to participate in Greek week, Furlough and homecoming. As always, these women sponsored a formal and informal.

Sigma Kappas were active on the campus and have exciting plans for a new house in the future.
Sigma Sigma Sigma women saw their first year in their new colonial-style house featuring great white pillars. Besides this accomplishment, they were represented on campus in Tiger Debs, Tiger Paws, Golden Hearts, and Student Senate. Who's Who and several other honoraries claimed Tri Sigma members. As for queens, they competed in many campus contests, and Deb Leis became Miss FHS. Gloria Mitchell captured lead role in the opera.

Their year was enhanced by a pledge shoe shine, homecoming mum sale and Christmas party for underprivileged children. Sigmas sponsored their annual "Deep Purple" formal and "Roaring Twenties" informal.

Housemother Agnes Townley aided Sigma Sigma Sigma throughout the year.

AKL

Alpha Kappa Lambda highlighted its second year in the new house with enthusiastic participation in campus events and activities. AKL’s served as members of Student Senate, Traffic Tribunal, and performed in athletics. Fred Johnson was elected president of the junior class. AKL’s won the ping-pong crown in intramurals and the ugly man contest. The pledge class won the Greek scholarship award for the fall semester.

Alpha Delta chapter was led by president, Steve Hewson and vice president, Doug Kingsley, while Mrs. Lillian Gennette served as housemother.

In social activities, the AKL’s held their traditional Spring Splash Formal and Go-to-Hell Informal. Their service projects included a picnic for the special education children of Hays.
For the men of Delta Sigma Phi, the year brought planning for the new house they hope to begin building soon. Campus participation highlighted the year as Delta Sigs actively took part in Student Senate, Seventh Calvary and SOC. Delta Sig Doug Lyman served as vice-president of the student body.

Leadership for the fraternity was provided by Kelly Deines, president and Jeff Painter, vice-president. Mrs. Esther Steinle was the housemother.

Among the social activities of the Delta Sigs were the Sailor’s Ball, Sphinx Ball, and their formal, the Carnation Ball. The Delta Sigs also sponsored a Pyramid Day for the parents of chapter members.
Phi Sigma Epsilon, the oldest fraternity on campus, was active in campus organizations and in student government. Phi Sigs served as members of Student Senate as well as in various service and occupational organizations. To raise money, the chapter held a win-a-stereo contest and a spring trap shoot. The Phi Sigs also sponsored the Best Dressed Coed and the Snoball Queen as well as other royalty candidates.

Phi Sigs selected Leo Herman and John Sandwell as president and vice president, Mrs. Pearl Veed served as housemother.

Socially, among the activities of Zeta Chapter were the White Rose formal, the Farmer's Ball informal and a homecoming party for chapter alumni.

During the past year, members of Sigma Tau Gamma once again traveled to Pittsburg to win the regional Sig Tau basketball tournament. The Sig Tau's also were actively involved in campus activities, as members were included in Student Senate, APO and athletics. In intramurals, the chapter won swimming, volleyball and singles in horseshoes. The Sig Tau's also sponsored the winning candidate for Furlough Queen.

Conducting the business of the fraternity were Greg Heinze, president and Garret Gwaltney, vice-president, while Mrs. Ina Thomas served as housemother.

Among the social activities of Eta chapter were the Age of Aquarius informal and the White Rose formal.
Sigma Phi Epsilon marked FHS this year not only with their red blazers, but also in all aspects of campus life. Steve Rayl served as student body president, and Dave Tarrant is 1970-71 vice-president of the student body. The fraternity placed first in intramurals, second in scholarship, and first in homecoming floats in a combined effort with Sigma Sigma Sigma. Sig Ep candidates for Sweetheart Queen and Greek Goddess gained top honors, while Bob Hellerud walked away with the Greek God title.

One of Sig Ep’s strongest points was their women’s auxiliary organization, Daughters of Golden Hearts. The Golden Hearts aided the men in rush, filling their new 50-man house.

Activities included the Red and Blue Mountain Blasts and the Golden Heart Ball. Sig Ep Sweetheart was Mrs. Esther Eslinger, housemother.

The men of Sigma Chi fraternity retired the scholarship trophy this fall after winning it for the third straight semester. Sigs were involved in campus organizations including Student Senate, SOC, athletics and in business and service groups.

John Petty served as president of the Sigs and Howard Schaetzel was the vice-president. Housemother was Mrs. Nina Stuart.

Perhaps the highlight of the year for the men of Zeta Tau chapter was the Wallace Village project and Derby Days. Delta Zeta won the event again this year. Social activities included the Christmas informal and the White Rose formal. The Sigs also sponsored a canned food drive at Thanksgiving.
For the men of Tau Kappa Epsilon, the past year was one of rebuilding. The theme of the year for the Tekes was spirit as they supported the athletic teams of FHS avidly, winning the spirit stick several times. Members also participated in campus activities by serving in Student Senate, athletics and other student organizations. The lovely Teke "Golden Girls" highlighted the halftime of the Fort Hays-Washburn basketball game.

The president of the Tekes was Dennis Martin; his vice-president was Pat Treu. Mrs. Marguerite Thompson was the housemother.

The Tekes of Alpha Upsilon chapter sponsored several service projects. These included a Christmas party for underprivileged children, cleaning the campus fish ponds and building a mall on Main Street for the Fine Arts Festival. Their social activities included the Red Carnation Ball and the spring formal.

The year has passed;
Our shadows have lengthened.
Hopefully, we have begun to learn
The special lesson of loving.
Our year is over. All of us have grown in some aspect of life; each is closer to casting his own independent shadow.

My year as editor has been a series of memorable frustrations and accomplishments. But this Reveille is not my book alone; it belongs to the school and especially to that part of Fort Hays that did the most to make it a reality: the students.

In giving thank-you’s, the biggest must go to the staff for their loyalty and willingness to work extra hours in order to complete the book. Leader staff has proven to be priceless ally. Mrs. Rogers, our advisor, and Taylor Publishing Co. representative Paul McClellan, have given me the needed knowledge and assistance to do the job. Thanks to the Photo Lab staff for providing the pictures you see in this book. Without them the fun part—the pictures—would be lacking.

And finally, a special hug of appreciation to Lynn Bunker, Ella Rayburn and Rita English who did so much to keep my spirits up and get the pages done.

Editor

REVEILLE Says Thank You Advertisers

The Reveille would like to take this opportunity to thank all of the Hays businesses who have advertised in the Reveille, this year and in previous years, for their good faith and patronage. You have been very good to us.

This volume of the Reveille is the last to include an advertising section. Omitting this section is not something the Reveille alone is doing. Yearbooks all over the nation are discontinuing ads for various reasons.

Three Hays firms have been with the Reveille since its first volume was published in 1914. To you we say a special Thank You.

May you all continue to prosper in the years to come.
