ABOUT THE COVER . . .

Stars and stripes forever . . . seems to be the theme conveyed by the beautiful football on the cover of today's football program. Synonymous with football and athletics of all kinds today is the U. S. flag and all the glory and feeling that accompanies it. Long may the flag and football continue to be on the same team.

Today's Game

Top Two Teams to Battle

Today's football game brings together the top rushing team in the Central Intercollegiate Conference (Fort Hays State) and top rushing defense team in the CIC in the Pittsburg State Gorillas. Something has to give.

The Bengals, under the direction of Coach Wayne McConnell and the leadership of senior quarterback Bob Johnson, have been averaging 278.4 yards a game on the ground. The Gorillas, under veteran coach Carnie Smith, have been limiting opponents to a per-game average of 116.1 yards rushing.

If the Tigers can't get their patented ground game moving, it's highly probable they will go to the air against the Pitt State crew. Pittsburg State has the unenviable position of having given up the most passing yardage per-game of any team in the league. The Tigers are the stingiest squad in the conference in giving up passing yardage.

The outcome of today's football game will have a definite bearing on who will wear the CIC crown until next fall. Going into the game, the Tigers are atop the league with a 2-0 mark. They are 6-1 overall, including six straight wins.

Pittsburg State is 2-1 in the conference and 5-2 overall. The Gorillas defeated Omaha University and Washburn University, then lost a squeaker to Emporia State last weekend in CIC action.

If the Tigers can get by the Gorillas, then defeat Omaha University next weekend, they will have won the first solo CIC crown for FHS since 1936. If Pittsburg State wins and Emporia State wins from Omaha today, the conference race is still wide open.

The Tiger-Gorilla series is one of the oldest in the CIC. The two schools first met on the gridiron in 1925. Since that time, 38 games have been played with Pittsburg having the upper hand with 21 victories, 11 losses and there have been six ties. The Tigers have won the last two meetings between the schools.

One Year Ago . . .

Last year, the Tigers invaded Pittsburg and took a 21-7 decision from the Gorillas. On the ground, both teams stayed about even with the Tigers gaining 254 yards and the Gorillas 223. In the air, however, there proved to be a difference as the Bengals connected on 5-14 for 78 yards and the Gorillas only connected on 4-6 for 12 yards. The highlight of the game was a 73-yard punt return by Tiger Max VanLaningham for a touchdown. Adding additional TD's were quarterback Bob Johnson on a one-yard run and halfback Bob Anthony on an 18-yard run. VanLaningham was 3-3 in kicking extra points.

Next Week . . .

Next Saturday afternoon, the Omaha University Indians will provide the competition for the Fort Hays State Tigers in a 2 p.m. contest at Omaha. The Indians, winless going into today's game with Emporia State, are defending CIC champions. With the loss, early in the season, of star quarterback Marlin Briscoe, the Indians seemed to go down hill with each game. They have lost to Idaho State, Hiram Scott, Morningside, Bradley, Pittsburg State, Eastern New Mexico and Washburn. In the nine-game series between the two schools Omaha has won 6, lost 2 and one game ended in a tie. Last year's contest between the two schools ended in a 26-21 loss for the Tigers and gave the Indians their third CIC crown.

Coach McConnell

Head football coach Wayne J. McConnell, in his third decade of coaching, is in his 11th season at Fort Hays State this fall.

Prior to coming to FHS, he coached for six years at College of Emporia, where his teams compiled a record of 39 victories, 12 losses and a single tie. His C of E teams were undefeated in regular season play in 1951, 1953, 1954 and 1955, and McConnell was named Little All-American Coach of the Year by the Rockne Foundation in 1953.

At FHS, his ten teams have compiled a record of 37 victories, 48 losses and four ties. His 1962 team was his most successful, charting a 6-2-1 mark. His 1957, 1958 and 1961 teams finished right on the .500 mark, the record in 1964 was 5-4 and last year's mark was 6-3.

Mac earned his bachelor's degree at Washburn University in 1934 and was a social welfare worker in Topeka until 1941, when he entered the Army for two years.

Following the service stint, he taught and coached in high schools at Effingham (three years), Gaylord (one year), Downs (two years) and Manhattan (one year) before moving to C of E. His coaching record after 23 seasons stands at 106 victories, 72 defeats and seven ties.

Wayne earned his master's at Emporia State in 1954 and is an associate professor of physical education on the FHS faculty.

Tigers Lead CIC Stats

Fort Hays State's fighting Tigers come into this afternoon's football game leading the Central Intercollegiate Conference in four of six departments on the statistics chart as a team and the Tigers also have leaders in every individual performance category.

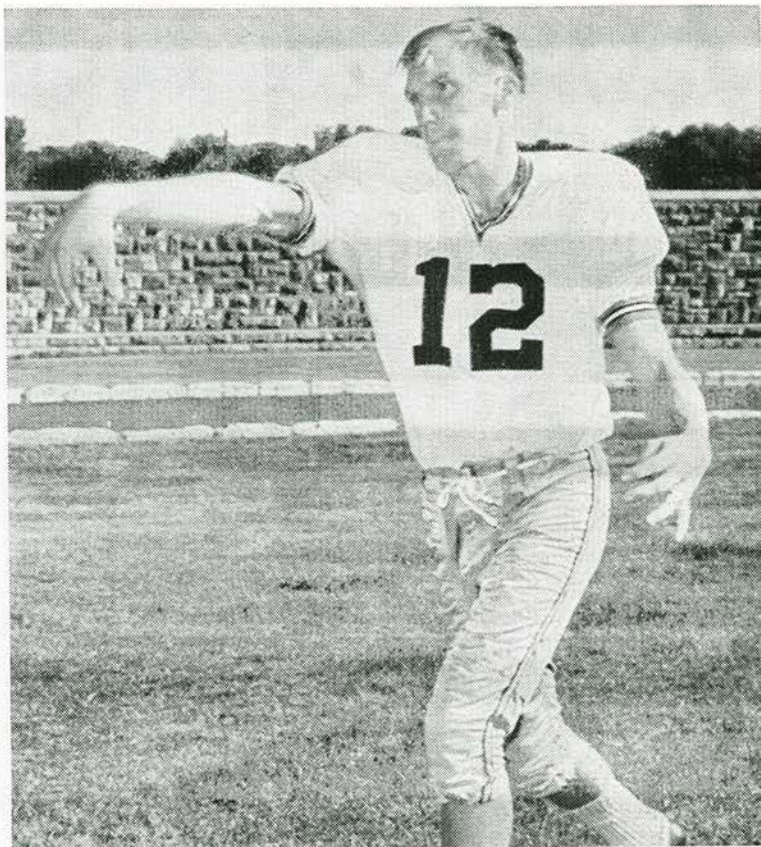

As a team, the Tigers lead in rushing offense with a per-game average of 278.4 yards; total offense, averaging 339.4 yards a game; passing defense, limiting opponents to an average of 74.4 yards a contest; and in total defense, limiting opponents to a game average of 219.7 yards gained.

The Bengals are second in rushing defense, limiting the opposition to a per-game average of 145.3 yards and the Tigers are fourth in the conference in passing offense, averaging 61 yards a game.

On the individual charts, Tiger quarterback Bob Johnson leads the conference in total offense (1,095 yards) and scoring (56 points). He is second in rushing (684 yards) and second in passing (34 of 73 for 411 yards and six touchdowns).

Rich Dreiling, Tiger fullback, is first in the league in rushing (749 yards) and second in total offense with that same figure. He is also tied for third in scoring (42 points) with Pittsburg State's Gaylen McCubbin.

Ken Caywood, Bengal halfback, is leading the conference in pass receiving with 10 catches for 123 yards and one touchdown. And Larry Ollek, Tiger punter, is second in the CIC in his specialty. He has booted 29 times for an average of 35.4 yards.

BOB JOHNSON, Tiger quarterback, is having another banner year in leading the Tigers to their 6-1 mark. The Logan senior established 17 records last year and has broken or established 11 new marks going into today's game.

COLLEGE ANTHEM

On the plains of Western Kansas
Stands a school we all love well.
'Twas built by the toil of our fathers;
To its glory our voices swell.

Chorus.

Hail to old Fort Hays State!
Let your voices ring.
Praise for the Black and Gold
We will ever sing.
Long may our valor last
Through the future days,
Hon'ring and praising
Dear Fort Hays.

In the years that lie before us
We foresee our land's many needs.
Through the efforts of new generations,
We'll go on to more noble deeds.

McNeil Guides Gymnasts

Ed McNeil

Sixteen Fort Hays State gymnasts, headed by eight returning lettermen, are presently working out in preparation for the 1966-67 season.

Coach Ed McNeil, beginning his tenth year at the Tiger helm, says that this year's squad should be of about the same caliber as last season's. The Bengals compiled an 8-4 mark last year and finished tenth in national competition.

1966-67 Schedule

Dec. 10	Nebraska University and Central Missouri State at Hays
Dec. 16	Wichita State University at Hays
Feb. 3	Central Missouri State at Warrensburg
Feb. 11	Eastern New Mexico and NW Oklahoma State College at Hays
Feb. 24	Wichita State University at Wichita
Feb. 28	Colorado State College at Hays
March 3	NW Oklahoma State at Alva
March 9-11	NAIA Championships at Natchitoches, La.

HAVE A DATE EVERY SATURDAY NIGHT

You'll finally be able to afford to, if you get a Honda. Trade in your gas-eater for a thrifty Honda 50. Up to 200 miles per gallon, and at least that many laughs. Maybe more.

Hondas are just the ticket for campus traffic and campus parking, and you'll notice a big difference in your pocket-book, too. It'll bulge for a change.

And so will your date book.

Today's Opponent-Pittsburg State College

GARY WILSON . . . 6-0, 178-pound halfback from Leon, is probably the Gorillas' greatest breakaway threat. Ranks second in CIC scoring with 49 points and is fifth in rushing and fourth in pass receiving.

Pittsburg State College is a state-supported school of liberal and applied arts located in Pittsburg.

Situated in the southeast corner of Kansas, Pittsburg State College has an enrollment of over 5,595 students this fall.

The head football coach of the Pittsburg State Gorillas is Carnie Smith, the dean of CIC coaches. Carnie is in his 18th year at the Pitt helm and has compiled an overall mark of 114-52-6.

Under Smith's direction, the Gorillas have won or shared the CIC title five times. Their latest crown was won in 1961. Since joining the CIC as a founding member in 1928, Pittsburg State has won or tied for the crown eight times.

The Tiger-Gorilla series dates back to 1925, with 38 games being played intermittently. Pitt has won 21, the Tigers 11, and six have ended in ties.

The worst shellacking administered one team by the other was a 54-0 drubbing absorbed by the Tigers in 1957 when Pitt had a national championship squad. Two years ago, the Bengals got partial revenge as they walked on the visitors 40-7.

In the 38 games, the Tigers have found the Gorillas a hard team to shut out. The Bengals have held the Gorillas scoreless on only six occasions, while Pitt State squads have shut out FHS on 14 occasions. Neither team has failed to score on the other since the 1957 contest.

Guiding the athletic department at Pittsburg State is Prentice Gudgen, a veteran of 21 years. The president of Pitt State is Dr. George F. Budd.

GAYLEN McCUBBIN . . . 6-0, 210-pound fullback from Monett, Mo., provides the power for the Gorilla charge. An All-CIC fullback two years ago, McCubbin is having another banner year. Is third in CIC in punting; fourth in rushing; fourth in total offense and tied with the Tigers' Rich Dreiling for third in scoring.
