 - a. Happy Halloween here in the SGA. Wanted to commend everybody who dressed up. Have Resolution 09/F/101 tonight, during open forum wanted suggestions of how we should support the United Way. This weekend on Sunday, November 1, will be the student leadership workshop. There will be breakout sessions, like how to plan an event, promotion marketing and fundraising will be led by Tyler. Also, Kent Stewart will be informing us about identity standards and the FHSU brand. Going to know more so we can educate our student organizations. Next Tuesday is the Healthcare reform event in the Forsyth Library. There will be a panel of questions and answers. There will be prizes and snacks. There will be a sign up sheet going around. Tyler Thompson and I went to the Chamber of Commerce. We would be joining up as the associate members. Wanted to wish the tiger football players good luck. Wear your costumes during the game and wear pink to support breast cancer awareness
