North Central Team To Evaluate College

Representatives from the North Central Assn. of Colleges and Secondary Schools will be on campus for three days beginning March 6 to examine the standards of Fort Hays State.

This three-man visit marks the first time in a number of years that North Central has sent a team to FHS, however, one representative serving as coordinator visits the campus each year.

Eight faculty committees worked for two years preparing reports for the March examination, finishing the bulk of the work last July.

Supplementary reports are still being sent to the association.

The team of evaluators will meet with committee heads and rate standards of different areas of the college.

Each college and secondary school subscribing to North Central pays a yearly fee, plus an extra charge for such services as next month's special investigation.

Another investigating team from the National Council for the Accreditation of Teacher Education will visit the campus sometime in April. Reports for this team have also been under preparation for two years.

Increase Shown In Spring Enrollment

Spring semester enrollment totals represent an approximate 12 per cent increase over last year's spring enrollment.

A total of 3,393, 2,136 men and 1,257 women, enrolled this semester compared to the February, 1962 enrollment of 3,042, 1,159 women and 1,883 men.

This year's fall semester enrollment reached 3,547, 2,182 men and 1,365 women. At the end of the fall semester, 111 graduated and some were lost to transfers and dropouts.

Standlee V. Dalton, director of admissions, expects a five to seven per cent increase in next fall's enrollment.

ASC OKs Proposal, Election Is March 13

A last-minute search of campus buildings provided the quorum of 11 needed by All-Student Council Tuesday night to pass a proposal for raising tuition to increase revenue for the student endowment fund.

A general student body election on the matter was set for March 13.

Tim Schumacher, ASC chairman, emphasized the obligation of students to vote in the upcoming elections. "ASC only formulates such proposals," Schumacher said, "and it's up to the students to approve them since the action will directly affect them."

If the proposal is passed by the student body, approval of President Cunningham and the Board of Regents remain to make it official.

The proposal is presented here again this week in its entirety so students may become familiar with it.

SECTION 1. Each student of Fort Hays Kansas State College will be assessed one dollar ($1.00) each fall, spring and summer session to be paid to the Student Endowment Fund.

SECTION 2. The executive secretary of the Endowment Association of Fort Hays Kansas State College will be responsible for the funds thus created and for their allocation. He shall be responsible, once each semester, to report to the All-Student Council.

SECTION 3. Twenty-five per cent of the student endowment fund will be allocated to the Student Aids Committee for the purpose of awarding fee scholarships to Kansas high school graduates. These scholarships will be awarded on the basis of need and scholastic attainment. The executive secretary will report the recipients of scholarships.

SECTION 4. Seventy-five per cent of the student endowment fund will be allocated to the National Defense Loan program at Fort Hays Kansas State College.

SECTION 5. If at any time in the future the national government discontinues the National Defense Loan program, the money obtained from the Student Endowment Fund will be used for establishing a student loan fund, or the president of this college will create a new fund to benefit the students of Fort Hays Kansas State College.

SECTION 6. Upon a majority of the votes cast by the student body this proposal will be submitted to the president of this college. With his approval the president will submit this proposal to the Board of Regents of the State of Kansas.

SECTION 7. This proposal will become in force and effective with the approval of the Kansas State Board of Regents.

Monday A&L Series To Feature Music Of Leonard Bernstein

A program featuring Leonard Bernstein's music, opera, ballet and Broadway theaters will be presented at 8 p.m. Monday in Sheridan Coliseum.

Featured on the program are:
1. Bernstein's triumph at the opera, "Trouble in Tahiti," a witty satire of contemporary American life in the suburbs.

2. The writer's first hit of the American Ballet Theater, "Fancy Free," a raucous tale of three sailors on leave, featuring Robert Gross and Mary Hensley.

3. Selections from Bernstein's many successes on Broadway, "West Side Story," "On the Town," "Candide," "Wonderful Town," "Peter Pan."

"West Side Story," the movie version of which won the 1962 motion picture academy award, gave music lovers throughout the world such songs as "Tonight" and "Marie."

Seniors Should Pay Fees Before March 1

Seniors expecting to graduate in May, 1963, must pay their diploma fees before March 1, according to Standlee V. Dalton, registrar.

Graduate students who are writing a thesis must also pay for the binding of two copies of the thesis.

The procedure for graduate students is to secure an application card from the registrar, pay the fee at the business office and then return the application card to the registrar.

Women Begin The Chase Monday

By Gordon New
Leader Staff Writer
Girls! Pay attention! Or as a loyal Dogpatcher might put it, take heed! This is a matter of life or death; a matter of the gravest importance; a matter of fun or no fun! To arms! To arms, ye brave! And snatch yer fellers up for Leap Week afore some other gal gits ahold of 'em.

That's right, Leap Week is a startin' Monday and in this game, the firstest with the mostest gets the bestest.

This here's the biggest time of the year when for a whole week you girls get to chase the boys that for a whole year you been a tryin' to get to chase you. Yes, it's this very next week, Feb. 18 through 22.

All this is gonna be complete with a Bearded Joe and Daisy Mae contest, the traditional Sadie Hawkins race, and a big shindig on Friday night.

Of course for the Bearded Joe and Daisy Mae contest there are a few qualifications to be met. There must be a lot of you Dogpatchers a rootin' for Joe and Daisy to git them to win. First, you gotta put up two bits to get 'em in the contest, then every penny afterwards counts a vote. The votin' tables will be open startin' Monday from 9-12 and 1-5 every day in the Memorial Union lobby except Friday when they'll be open for a half-hour at the dance, too. Then the winners will be announced at the dance.

Now the tradition of the Sadie Hawkins race goes back a long way when Sadie, one of the homeliest creatures in Dogpatch, decided to git married, or rather, when her pa decided he was tired of supportin' her. So Sadie's pa, he gathered up all the bachelors in Dogpatch and then turned 'em loose so Sadie could chase 'em. Now Sadie had from sunup to sundown to catch one of 'em. Well, she did and they got mar-

Five FHS Delegates Attend Model UN Assembly at OU

A five-member delegation from FHS attended the fourth annual Model United Nations General Assembly at the University of Oklahoma Friday, Saturday, and Sunday.

Members of the delegation, which was sponsored by International Relations Club, were: Don McCoy, Ellsworth senior, President IRC; James Rock, Abilene junior; Jim Rusco, Great Bend junior; Steven Yow, Hong Kong sophomore, and Ken Nelson, Hugoton sophomore. Accompanying the five was Gordon Davidson, assistant professor of history, and adviser for the group.

Approximately 350 delegates, including those from FHS, made up the 110 delegations of the Model U. N. General Assembly sponsored by the Collegiate Council for the United Nations. Among the activities of the FHS delegation, which represented the Ivory Coast in the General Assembly, were two meetings of delegations representing the African Bloc, an informal dance, the General Assembly, and a banquet in the OU Union.

The General Assembly opened with a moment of silent meditation in honor of Eleanor Roosevelt. The most controversial resolution of the day, according to McCoy, was a resolution by Tunisia that the Arab Palestinian refugees who left their homes in what was then Palestine when the U. N. created a home for Jewish people in the Middle East be allowed to return to their original homes in Israel. It passed by a vote of 46-24-17.

The FHS delegation did much research and study beforehand in order to take part in the many debates. McCoy said that the trip was successful and added much to their knowledge of the U. N.

Follies Will Use Club Theme For April 26, 27 Performance

This year's Fort Hays Follies theme, "Club Esquire," promises to turn Sheridan Coliseum into an exclusive night club for a two-night run April 26 and 27.

Theme entries must be turned in to Karen Bebb, production manager, or Lynn Rogers, program direcgram Center by 5 p.m., Feb. 19. Tryouts will start at 8 a.m., Feb. 23 in the Memorial Union Black and Gold Room.

Following the "Club Esquire" theme, plans are being made to decorate Sheridan Coliseum. To create an atmosphere tables will be set up and soft drinks will be served.

Theme arrangements will also be carried out in sets, ticket sales, and publicity.

This is not the first time the night club theme has been used. In 1958 the Follies used "Club 58" for the setting with a "Gone, But Not Forgotten" theme.

Friday Is Deadline For Contributions

Friday is the deadline for National Defense Student Loan contributions.

At noon Wednesday the total reached $5,056.50. To reach the $8,000 goal, the Endowment Assn. needed an additional $2,943.50.

Since last week the number of donors has risen from 64 to 200. Although the appeal was directed to alumni, three campus organizations contributed $800.

Peace Corps Plans On-Campus Exam

Fort Hays State students planning to apply for Peace Corps service beginning this summer can take advantage of a special on-campus administration of the Peace Corps Placement Test 8 a.m. Feb. 23, in Pcken Hall, Room 211.

Dean of Men Richard Burnett, FHS Peace Corps liaison officer, urges interested students to take the test now. Feb. 23 is the only day that the test will be administered on the campus during this academic year.

To qualify for the test, a prospective applicant should bring a completed Peace Corps Volunteer Questionnaire to the test site if he has not previously submitted one.

The Peace Corps Placement Test is non-competitive and is used primarily in the placement of successful trainees, rather than as a selection device.

Dean Burnett said that the Peace Corps will be inviting thousands of applicants to train this summer for over 100 projects in fields of education, community development and agriculture. Students with prior study in Spanish and French are urged to apply, although a foreign language is not a prerequisite.

NEARLY HALF DONE — Work on McMinder Hall, the new women's dormitory, is considered 40 per cent complete and is expected to be ready for use by Sept. 1. At the left of the $1.8 million structure is the library on the top floor and the dining area below. The main corridor is seen at right.

DZs Win Plaque At Scholarship Tea

Panhellenic Council held its annual Scholarship Tea Sunday in the Memorial Union Sunset Lounge to present scholarship plaques to the sororities, both active and pledge classes, that compiled the highest grade point average.

Winning actives were the Delta Zetas who attained an average of 1.90 while the Alpha Gamma Delta pledges won their plaque with a 1.88 average. This is the second time in a row of winning a plaque for both groups. Any group winning a plaque three times consecutively gets to keep that plaque and a new one will be made to take its place.

The DZs had 57 per cent of their actives on the honor roll. The AGDs had six or 37.5 per cent of the pledges on the honor roll, including two pledges who earned a 3.00 grade point average.

The overall grade point of 112 actives was 1.73, while the overall grade point of the 47 pledges was 1.67, making the overall sorority average 1.71.

Other high points of the tea were the speech, "The Importance of Scholarship" by Dr. Sam Sackett, and the welcome to open bidding by Jone Burris.

$6,000 Grant To Chemistry Dept.

This grant is on the basis of matching funds, that is, the college supplies an equal or greater amount of money for purchases.

Dr. Harold S. Choguill, chairman of the division of physical sciences, said: "The grant will be used for purchase of major items of analytical instruments which could not be provided in the usual budget."

Unusual Tournament On Tap for Debaters

Fort Hays State debaters have an unusual tournament on tap at Wichita for the coming weekend.

One of the unusual factors of the Kansas Intercollegiate Debate Tournament is that each team debates the same side of the question in each round.

Two teams from FHS will make the trip. Tom Teschner, Atchison freshman, and Richard Scott, Atchison freshman, will compose the affirmative team. The KIDT will be the third tournament in which this team has debated. Scott and Teschner were undefeated at the University of Colorado with a 4-0 record and last week at McPherson they compiled a slate of 3-2.

The negative team will consist of Jone Burris, Hays sophomore, and Rex Gaskill, Hutchinson junior. This will be the first time Miss Burris and Gaskill have debated as a team.

We also sell a funny-looking car.

We sell a car that looks like a beetle. And a station wagon that looks like a bus. But we (and all our fellow VW dealers) think of them a little differently. We think both VWs look just like what they are.

The VW Sedan carries 4 people. The station wagon carries 8 (bag and baggage). The wagon also handles a staggering amount of just stuff. (It has 170 cubic feet of space, compared to about 105 in conventional wagons.)

Both VWs have air-cooled rear engines. (No water or anti-freeze needed; terrific traction on ice and snow.) Both park in practically the same space. (The wagon is only 9 inches longer than the sedan.) Both defy obsolescence. (Nobody knows what year Volkswagen you drive. Except you.) And both have restored a sense of proportion to the size of cars.

The VW Sedan is a pretty familiar sight, so not too many people laugh at it any more. But the VW wagon is still good for a few chuckles.

Suggestion: have some fun yourself. Come and take either or both for a ride today.

Great Bend is only 60 miles from Hays. That's about $1.20 worth of gas, round trip, for a VW. Less if you have a tail wind.

The next nearest authorized VW dealer and service department is around 100 miles from Hays. It could cost as much as 80 cents more to go there and back.

Although 80 cents doesn't sound like much, it does add up; especially if you have your VW serviced often.

Nurses To Be 'Capped' Feb. 24

"Capping," a traditional step toward the goal of becoming a registered nurse, is eagerly anticipated by 26 sophomore nursing students. They will receive their caps Feb. 24.

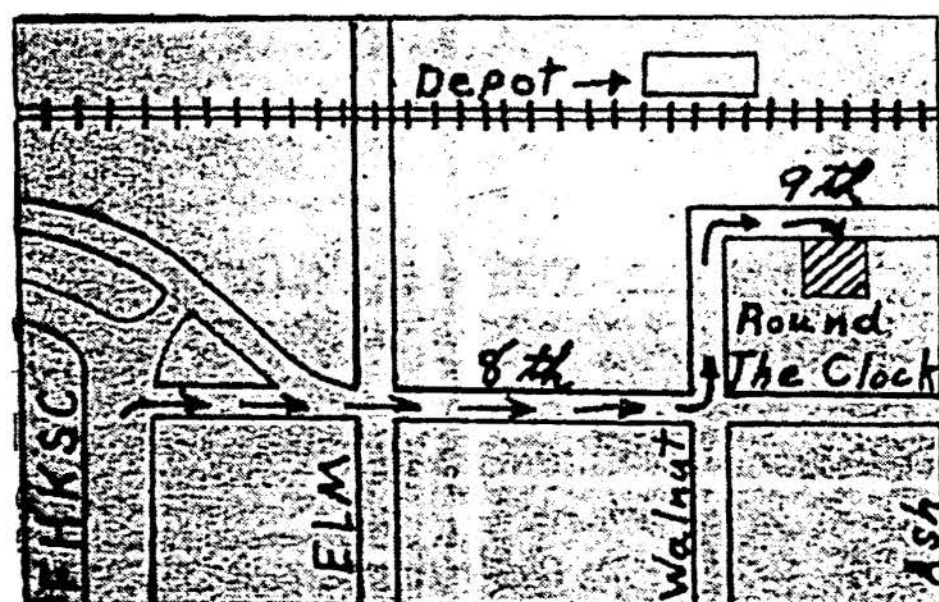

A small polished clay lamp and cap received by the students is customary for the rite. The lamp is symbolic of one used by Florence Nightingale in her nursing efforts during the Crimean War. She was named "The Lady of the Lamp" by Henry Wadsworth Longfellow.

The 26 future "Miss Nightingales" will light their lamps from a larger one held by Prof. Leora B. Stroup, chairman of nurses education at FHS. Miss Stroup said, "The main idea of this ceremony is one in which the older nurses are passing on their knowledge to the younger members of the profession."

After capping, the neophytes will begin training at Hadley Memorial Hospital, and, in uniform, will for the first time come in contact with actual patients.

FHS Senior To Represent State In Washington

Few Kansas girls ever think of the gay social whirl carried on in the nation's capital, and until Saturday, Patricia Lou Thiele, Scott City senior, was like most of her fellows.

Today, she is planning a week in Washington, D. C., where she will be a prominent figure in high society. Miss Thiele, a 21-year-old brunette, was selected Saturday as Kansas representative in the national Cherry Blossom Festival, sponsored by the Conference of State Societies.

The festival, which celebrates the blooming of cherry trees in the capital city, will be held March 31 to April 7. Two balls—one to present the 51 princesses selected and another later in the week to crown the national cherry blossom queen—are on the agenda along with receptions, a ride down the Potomac and a Pennsylvania Avenue parade. Some of Washington's biggest names will be on hand for all the activities.

Miss Thiele is undoubtedly an admirable combination of beauty and brains. While attending Scott City High School, she placed second in the Miss Southwest Kansas contest. At Fort Hays State, she has been a candidate for Sweetheart, Homecoming and Reveille queen honors and placed third in a beauty and talent contest sponsored by the Hays American Legion. She was also a finalist in Tau Kappa Epsilon's national sweetheart contest last summer.

Through seven semesters of college, Miss Thiele has compiled a 2.31 grade index as a mathematics major. Her scholastic excellence has contributed to her election to Alpha Lambda Delta, honorary freshman women's group; Women's Leadership Organization; Delta Epsilon, honorary science; Kappa Mu Epsilon, honorary mathematics, and Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges.

The Kansas princess also holds membership in Alpha Gamma Delta social sorority and Student National Education Assn. She has served as a member of the All-Student Council, Panhellenic Council, Women's Glee Club and as a cheerleader.

As Kansas representative in the national festival, Miss Thiele is preparing a 500-word essay on one of four suggested topics. Her essay, "Culture with Agriculture," concerns Kansas artists, composers and writers.

Young Republicans To Meet Tuesday

Mr. McDill "Huck" Boyd will be guest speaker at the Collegiate Young Republicans meeting 7 p.m. Tuesday in the Memorial Union Gold Room.

"Why Should I Care?" will be the title of Boyd's speech.

Immediately following his talk, there will be a short discussion period for any questions the group might have. The group will then adjourn to a short business meeting to elect the coming year's officers.

English Proficiency Test

The first English Proficiency Test of the spring semester will be given from 3-5 p.m. Wednesday, in Picken Hall, Room 307.

Those who will be taking the test should sign up in Picken Hall, Room 312.

All students are required to take the examination before their junior year unless they received all A's and B's in English Composition 1 and 2. All students, however, are required to sign up for the tests.

Physicals Are Needed

New and transfer students for the spring semester are urged to turn in their college entrance physical examination reports to the Student Health Office as soon as possible.

These examinations are used as a guide, in which each student is classified as to the physical activity that is necessary for his optimum health.

ried by Marryin' Sam with the aid of Pa's 12 gauge for moral support.

Now, all you gals have from sunup to sundown to catch you a fellow on Friday, Feb. 22, and drag him off to the official Sadie Hawkins dance at 8 p.m. in the Memorial Union Black and Gold Room.

Marryin' Sam will be there to do his job giving certificates, wedding bands and marryin' you up.

It's gonna cost you girls six bits for you and your date. For those of you who weren't homely enough to take part in the Sadie Hawkins race, it'll cost you four bits, you poor things. You Dogpatchers don't have to wear any fancy riggin', just wear your Dogpatch outfit you know, like in the funny papers, but if you want to show off your store-bought duds, you can wear them too. But you can't take part in the contest for the best costume then. This here dance will last from 8 to about midnight or so.

And now, here comes the rules of this here game that you gals gotta follow all week long:

1. Open doors for men whenever the opportunity arises.

2. Provide men with cigarettes.
3. Do not molest men! (Except when they want to be molested!)
4. Share all men, except under permanent conditions.
5. Do not have more than three dates after 6 p.m.
6. Give men at least ten minutes notice before date time.
7. Be prompt when calling for dates.
8. Provide transportation whether by car, tricycle or walking.
9. Pay all expenses on all dates.
10. Walk on the side toward the street when walking with men.
11. Help men with their coats.
12. Call for men and see them home.
13. Behave like perfect gentlemen.

Well, this is all sponsored by the IRC of course, and they really know how to have a shindig.

show idea," Miss Bebb said, "it will be fine. But we're not trying to limit the nature of the acts at all. Almost any type of act will do. The Follies will remain a variety show."

Regulations set by the production staff of the Fort Hays Follies are:

1. Any two organizations may merge to present one number.
2. A typewritten copy of the script including staging, lighting, sound effects, etc. should be turned in at the tryout.
3. The scripts must include the names of all the participants.
4. Each act must furnish its own costumes and properties. No setting beyond that provided by the committee will be permitted.
5. All properties must be removed after the final performance or before 3 p.m. the following day.
6. All members of the cast and crew will be admitted free.
7. The time limit will be a maximum of 10 minutes for all group organizations. Five minutes will be allowed for individual acts.
8. All ratings of judges will be made on the basis of originality, execution of them, quality of performance and audience appeal. A panel of four faculty members and three students will judge tryouts. These judges will be the production staff and their names will be communicated to the participating organizations and living groups. Final performance judging will be done by five qualified judges on the second night of performance.
9. Prizes will be awarded as follows: Sweepstakes traveling prize; first, second and third group prizes; first, second and third single prizes.
10. Questions will be submitted to Karen Bebb at the Memorial Union Program Center.

Ticket sales proceeds will be divided between the L. D. Wooster Endowment Fund and the National Defense Student Loan Program.

Seniors Eligible For Contest

Fort Hays State seniors who collect books are eligible to compete for a $1,000 first prize in the second annual Amy Loveman Award competition, Dr. S. J. Sackett, associate professor of English, announced today.

A campus committee consisting of Dr. Sackett, Dr. R. Dale Dick, Dr. Max Rumpel, and Richard Marcus will choose a campus winner and submit his name to the national judges. Deadline for submission of entries is April 5.

Contestants are asked to submit an annotated bibliography listing at least 35 volumes, other than textbooks, which are in their personal libraries. They are also asked to comment on "How I Would Start Building a Home Library"; "The Next Ten Books I Hope to Add to My Personal Library"; and "My Ideals for a Complete Home Library."

The winner's library may be general in nature or built around a specific subject. The scope, imagination, and insight revealed in the annotations and comments will determine the winner of the award.

The national competition will be judged by a distinguished panel made up of a university librarian, a famous literary figure, and representatives of the three co-sponsors: the Women's National Book association, the Book-of-the-Month club, and the Saturday Review. The award will be presented at the commencement exercises of the winner's college.

LITTLE MAN ON CAMPUS

"YES, I DID WANT TO BE A ENGINEER—BUT, I THINK NOW I'D LIKE SOME KIND OF MAJOR WITH CLASSES CLOSER TO THE STUDENT UNION."

Biological Students Enjoy Variety of Specimens

A two-pound toad, a rare mountain salamander, 14 species of bats and six species of snakes are some of the new specimens FHS biological students now have to enjoy.

Who's responsible? Dr. Charles A. Ely, professor of zoology, and Eugene D. Fleharty, assistant professor of biology.

These FHS scientists drove over 700 miles last August to New Mexico to hunt rattlers, bats, rats, lizards and other wildlife specimens.

Armed with several types of traps, guns, nets and other equipment, the two collectors covered the deserts and mountains of Western and Northern New Mexico hoping to increase the college's collection of mammals, amphibians, reptiles and birds which are needed in class and research work in the biological sciences.

The bat hunting was especially good. About 30 bats were caught in two hours over a pond of water about six by 10 feet.

"In this instance, we strung a silk net across the pond to trap the bats," Ely explained. "About dusk the bats go on a drinking spree. To drink they swoop down and dip their lower jaw in the water while still on the fly. This particular time they became trapped in our net."

"After the mammal is trapped, the sex, weight, locality and date of the catch are recorded on a tag which is permanently attached to the animal," the zoologist continued. "On mammals, measurements of tail, hind foot, ear length and head to tail are taken. Such detail is necessary since many variations of species from one locality to another are determined by the length of one of these portions of the mammal's body."

Actual preparation of the animal includes skinning, stuffing the body and head with cotton and the legs with wire, then pinning it out to dry. But this is only part of the job.

The skull of each animal is a vital part of the collection and the scientists rely on beetles, rather than human hands to prepare the skull. The skull is placed in a colony of dermestid beetles, the larva of which eat the flesh from the bone. Additional cleaning is then done with a bleach.

The beetle colony can "make or break" the preparation process.

"The cleaning, drying and stuffing processes, under optimum conditions, require about two weeks," Fleharty explained. "If the beetle population is low—a difficulty we've had in preparing these animals—it causes a slowdown in the entire operation because we have to wait longer for the skulls to be cleaned."

Amphibians and reptiles are much easier to prepare than mammals. After they're tagged and catalogued, they're hardened in formaldehyde, then stored in a special solution.

"We can prepare about 10 to 20 of these in the time it takes to prepare one mammal," Fleharty said.

The New Mexico jaunt plus several field trips by Fleharty's advanced classes this fall have increased the college's mammal collection five-fold. In June of last year, only 100 mammal specimens were included in the collection; some 550 specimens are now recorded.

Library Lacks Books

At the close of the fall semester, 23 single issues of periodicals and 141 books were missing from Forsyth Library. At least four cases of mutilation of bound periodicals (articles having been torn out) had been reported.

Some of these missing items may be returned in the future, or replacements may be obtained. But until this happens their absence from the Forsyth Library collection may seriously hinder the study of some person.

Treating library materials with respect and returning them to the library promptly shows consideration for the rights of others. This also helps to keep materials readily available for all those who need to use them.

Instructor of Broadcasting Says Television Is A Performing Art

By Karen Jo Fleming
Leader Society Editor

"Neck in neck with the clock, one minute to air time when the cue is given and the training of the radio-TV student becomes a performing art," Mary Jo Siebert, head of the broadcasting area at FHS, summates the deadline connected with the weeks of work students must lend to one production.

Continuing, Miss Seibert said, "Final production comes after weeks of work. I believe that reading about the area isn't enough. If you can learn about broadcasting and can't put it into practice then it's not going to do you any good."

"It doesn't matter whether you can recite the lessons word perfect, if you can't do anything with what is learned, in the form of application, then it is of little use," Miss Seibert pointed out her methods of teaching: "We learn the theories and then we see if they work."

The success of this application could be seen in the recent television programs on KAYS-TV. The series, Fort Hays Journal, depicts life on the campus as well as the surroundings of Fort Hays State. The students are placed in a learning situation. "I'd say at least one-half of the students in the production, continuity and announcing classes are connected, directly and indirectly, with putting on the programs," Miss Seibert stated.

The first 15-minute program was a documentary on the history of FHS. In December, the second in the series was presented with a theme "Christmas on Campus." This program was concerned with Christmas activities and was highlighted by two vocal groups. Featured vocal groups were the 18-member Girls' Glee Club and the Fort Hays Singers.

"Students in the radio-TV area were responsible for collecting and arranging data for programming," Miss Seibert said. In this way they develop the entire show under the direction of Miss Seibert.

"We plan to do at least four more television shows before the year is out," Miss Seibert commented. The next Fort Hays Journal is tentatively scheduled for the last Wednesday in February or the first Tuesday in March.

This program, to be presented on KAYS-TV, will be a documentary similar to the first show. Historical pictures depicting the city of Hays and its yesteryears will be the topic for the half-hour presentation.

"We plan to do one music show later, covering various areas of music at the college. Groups such as the Brass Choir, the Clarinet Choir and small instrumental groups, will perform," Miss Seibert said.

Adding that the programming is dependent "to a large extent upon the cooperation of and help from the KAYS staff" as well as the use of the facilities and air time, Miss Seibert pointed out, "They have gone out of their way many times to help us."

As television rapidly grows in popularity and programming, it is an important phase in the broadcasting student's curriculum. Actual programming benefits the student in equipping him with the necessary tools which he must have and the emphasis must lie on performance.

"It is work. Just like anything else, programming starts out slow," Miss Seibert concluded. Smiling, she confessed, "Then it gets to that point, the last minute before air time, it's unbearable."

Two Added to FHS Faculty

Two full-time instructors were added to the FHS faculty list at the beginning of the spring semester.

The newcomers are G. Rex Henrickson, assistant professor of economics, and Michael Merritt, German instructor.

Dr. Henrickson received his elementary and secondary schooling in Toledo. He holds bachelor and doctorate degrees from the University of Michigan and a master's degree from the University of California.

Dr. Henrickson has held positions on the faculty at the University of Toledo, Kent State University and Morehead State College, Ky., and he also worked in the export sales department of the DeVilbiss Co.

He is a member of the American Economics Assn., Southern Economics Assn. and Assn. of American Geographers, as well as the Kiwanis Club and Methodist Church.

He and his wife, Geraldine, have one son, Kenneth, 6.

A German instructor, Merritt is replacing Dr. Paul Graber who is on sabbatical leave for the spring semester. Merritt received his bachelor's degree in German and Greek from the University of Tennessee and has done additional work at the University of North Carolina and University of Wisconsin. During 1961-62 he was an instructor of German and classical civilization at Kentucky Wesleyan College.

A native of Knoxville, Tenn., Merritt is a member of Phi Eta Sigma, Phi Kappa Phi and Eta Sigma Phi honorary fraternities. He is single.

THE CURSE OF THE CAMPUS: NO. 2

As was pointed out last week, one would think that with all the progress we have made in the education game, something might have been done by now about roommates. But no. The roommate picture has not brightened one bit since Ethan Goodpimple founded the first American college.

(Contrary to popular belief, Harvard was not the first. Mr. Goodpimple started his institution some 75 years earlier. And quite an institution it was, let me tell you! Mr. Goodpimple built schools of liberal arts, fine arts, dentistry, and tanning. He built a lacrosse stadium that seated 102,000. Everywhere on campus was emblazoned the stirring Latin motto CAVE MUSSI—"Watch out for moose." The student union contained a bowling alley, a clock, and a 16-chair barber shop.

...and as for shaving, they didn't

(It was this last feature—the barber shop—that, alas, brought Mr. Goodpimple's college to an early end. The student body, being drawn from the nearby countryside, was composed chiefly of Pequots and Iroquois who, alas, had no need of a barber shop. They braid their hair instead of cutting it, and as for shaving, they don't. The barber, Tremblatt Follicle by name, grew so depressed staring all the time at 16 empty chairs that one day his mind finally gave way. Seizing his vibrator, he ran outside and shook the entire campus till it crumbled to dust. This later became known as Pickett's Charge.)

But I digress. We were discussing ways for you and your roommate to stop hating each other. This is admittedly difficult but not impossible if you will both bend a bit, give a little.

I remember, for example, my own college days (Berlitz, '08). My roommate was, I think you will allow, even less agreeable than most. He was a Tibetan named Ringading whose native customs, while indisputably colorful, were not entirely endearing. Mark you, I didn't mind so much the gong he struck on the hour or the string of firecrackers he set off on the half-hour. I didn't even mind his singeing chicken feathers every dusk and daybreak. What I did mind was that he singed them in my hat.

To be fair, he was not totally taken with some of my habits either—especially my hobby of collecting water. I had no jars at the time and just had to stack the water any-old-where.

Well sir, things grew steadily cooler between Ringading and me, and they might have gotten actually ugly had we not each happened to receive a package from home one day. Ringading opened his package, paused, smiled shyly at me, and offered me a gift.

"Thank you," I said. "What is it?"

"Yak butter," he said. "You put it in your hair. In Tibetan we call it gree see kidstuff."

"Well now, that's mighty friendly," I said and offered him a gift from my package. "Now you must have one of mine."

"Thank you," he said. "What is this called?"

"Marlboro Cigarettes," I said and held a match for him.

He puffed. "Wow!" he said. "This sure beats chicken feathers!"

"Or anything else you could name," I said, lighting my own Marlboro.

And as we sat together and enjoyed that fine flavorful Marlboro tobacco, that pure white Marlboro filter, a glow of good fellowship came over us—a serene conviction that no quarrels exist between men that will not yield to the warmth of honest good will. I am proud to say that Ringading and I remain friends to this day, and we exchange cards each Christmas and each Fourth of July, firecrackers.

Sig Taus Feel Happy About New House

By Gail Schwindt
Leader Staff Writer
Sigma Tau Gamma members have made the big switch, house-wise, that is.

Sig Taus, of Eta chapter, are now living in their new house located at 518 West 21st Street. They moved from 413 West 5th to the house during Christmas vacation and between semester break.

The house was purchased from George Keating and financed by loans made possible by alumni.

Only slight remodeling was necessary to change the house over to the "dormitory" plan in which the men sleep, study and eat in different rooms, rather than each man having his own room.

"I like the attractive appearance of the kitchen, and I am especially pleased to have all-electric cooking facilities," said Mrs. Jessie Harper, Sig Tau housemother. "Also," she added, "I have the most luxurious bathroom that I have ever seen."

'Mother Harper' has the help of a cook, Mrs. Gertrude Wikoff, 414 West 19th St., who formerly cooked at Custer and Agnew Halls.

Many of the men cook their own meals on weekends, as meals are not served then, but, Mrs. Harper said, "I find the boys very helpful in keeping the kitchen clean."

Along with the kitchen, dining room, and housemother's quarters on the first floor, there is a storeroom, shower rooms and a sleeping dorm which accommodates 14.

The TV room, living room, two large dressing rooms and two sleeping dorms which hold four and six men are on the second floor.

The furniture in the living room and dining room is Early American.

The entire third floor is devoted to study space.

Men staying in the house should be comfortable throughout the year since there are two central heating and air conditioning units in the house.

"We have a parking ramp for guests and the housemother in front of the house, and plenty of parking space for our members out back," Delwyne Fechner, Colby sophomore and house manager, stated.

"We are happy and fortunate to have this new house. We have many things that we didn't have in the old house, such as space, air conditioning, a separate TV lounge, study rooms and adequate living space for our housemother," Fechner added.

The big switch has been made, and all seem happy with the new accommodations.

Trackmen Open Indoor Season Against Kearney State Saturday

Fort Hays State's track team makes its indoor season debut at Kearney (Neb.) State Saturday for a meet in Cushing Coliseum. Last year the Tigers downed the Antelopes, 59½-53½, in their indoor clash, to remain unbeaten against the Nebraskans.

Coach Alex Francis has 10 returning lettermen and several new prospects on the squad that are expected to bolster this year's chances to continue as a track power.

Heading the list of returning lettermen are three school record holders. Gene Hayes, Smith Center senior, holds the 880-yard run record with a 1:58.3 time and John Rose, Haviland senior, holds the record for the mile run with a 4:27.8 time. Rose also set the standard for the two-mile at 9:50.7.

Hayes' availability for the Kearney meet is pending improvement of a recurrent heel injury.

The third record holder is Jon Day Eldorado senior, who has the fastest time in both the 220-yard dash and the 440-yard dash with clockings of 22.8 and 50.1, respectively.

Strong points found on this year's track squad are in the high jump, middle distance runs and sprints, but the Bengals are lacking in the pole vault and javelin, according to Francis.

The veteran mentor went on to comment that he expects Emporia State to be considered a favorite for the Central Intercollegiate Conference crown, while FHS, Pittsburg State and Omaha University battle for runner-up honors.

FHS entries at Kearney are:
Mile—Don Lakin, Pawnee Rock freshman;
Jerry Hertel, Russell freshman; Dwight Gillespie, St. John sophomore; Lowell Smith, Clyde sophomore; Mel Pfannenstiel, Hays junior, and Rose.
440—Jack Harms, Ellinwood freshman;
Mervin Poore, Woodston freshman; Harry Walker, Englewood junior, and Day.
75—Larry Pickering, Wakeeney freshman;
Dwayne Ashbough, Ellis sophomore, and Larry Drees, Hays freshman.
75-yard high hurdles—Gary McCarty, Lakin senior; Charles Lundblade, Courtland sophomore, and Ashbough.
220—Day, Pickering, Harms and Drees.
75-yard low hurdles—McCarty, Lundblade and Ashbough.
High jump—Robert Schmidt, Ellis freshman.
Shot put—Ken Richards, Great Bend senior; and Clark Engle, Abilene sophomore.
Broad jump—(Deke) Brinkman, Cimarron

Southern Colorado College, currently Pueblo (Colo.) Junior College, has been scheduled to replace St. Benedict's on Fort Hays State's 1963 football schedule.

The new college will begin its first year as a four-year college next fall and will meet FHS in both football and basketball.

Athletic Director Paul "Busch" Gross announced that the contract was signed on a two-year basis. The schedule vacancy occurred when St. Benedict's announced in December that it would discontinue football competition.

Coloradans Next For Wrestlers After Bengals Down Nebraska Foes

Fort Hays State wrestlers leave for Colorado on a two-day road trip to meet Adams State Friday night and Trinidad College Saturday, after recording two victories over Nebraska Friday and Saturday night at Sheridan Coliseum.

Friday evening FHS edged Nebraska University, 14-11, and Saturday night the Bengals dropped Omaha University, 19-8.

The Tigers' dual record stands at one defeat and six victories, which equals the best record in the history of wrestling at FHS.

Tiger Jim Tinkler of Russell broke an 11-11 tie in the heavy-weight match with a 3-1 decision over NU's Don McDermott to give FHS its second victory out of three matches with Big Eight contenders. The Bengals earlier downed Missouri University, 28-8, and lost to Kansas State University, 25-3, which was rated by AP in the top 10 at the time.

Nebraska University gained an early lead in the dual meet, 8-2, winning two of the first three matches. FHS's Vic Lyczak, Northbrook, Ill., and Gary Adams, Colby, making his debut of the season, outscored their opponents in the 147 and 157 bouts, respectively, to bring the count to 8-8.

The Huskers pulled ahead again by winning the 167-pound match, but Delbert Erickson, Atwood, brought Fort Hays State back into the running, by beating his rival in the 177-pound event, tying the score, 11-11.

Against Omaha, Marvin Schultz of Colby started the Bengals off to a 5-0 lead when he pinned Gary Cozard in the 123-pound event. FHS won five of the eight matches and one event ended in a draw.

The Indians won in the 130 and 167 brackets by decisions.

The draw came in the 147-pound scrap when Vic Lyczak and Omaha's John DeGeorge engaged to a 4-4 draw. Lyczak in the last five second received two points for a reversal to tie the match.

Four different ways to make going more fun than getting there

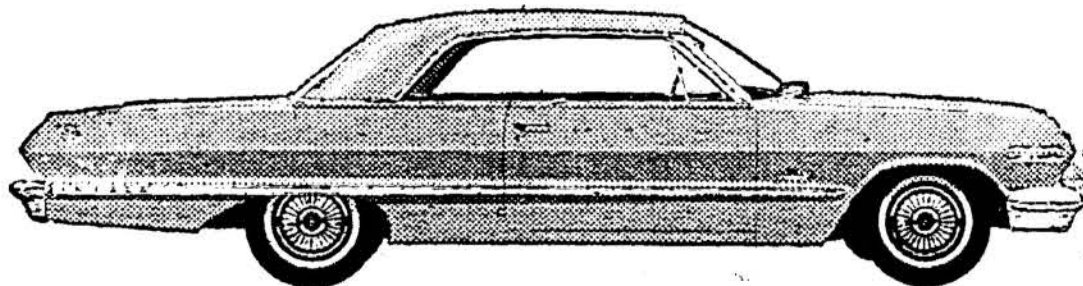

You can see why one of America's favorite outdoor sports is driving Chevrolets, with four entirely different kinds of cars to choose from. There's the Jet-smooth Chevrolet, about as luxurious as you can go without going overboard in price; the low-cost Chevy II, a good-looking car that would send any family packing; another family favorite, the sporty Corvair, whose rear-engine traction will make you think that ice and snow are kid stuff; and for pure adventure, America's only sports car, Corvette—now in two all-new versions with looks that can stop traffic like a rush-hour blizzard. Picked your favorite already?

The next thing is to take the wheel at your Chevrolet dealer's. If that doesn't have you thinking of places to go, maybe you'd rather just have a ball around town!

Three Colorado Schools Next For Gymnasts

Fort Hays State's gymnastics team will return to action Saturday, as they travel to Fort Collins for a scheduled double-dual meet with Colorado State and Denver University.

Coach Ed McNeil looks for some added strength on the squad this semester from three boys that were not eligible for gymnastics last semester—Billy Holmes, Hoxie sophomore, David Blackwell, Larned sophomore, and David Gagnon, Grinnell senior.

"I look for another win over Colorado State, however, I don't know about Denver U. They have one of the best teams in the NCAA," said McNeil.

After their trip to Colorado State, the Tiger gymnasts will meet Colorado University in a dual match Monday at Boulder.

Young Tigers Face Menlo, Brewster

Fort Hays State's junior varsity squad will engage the Brewster and Menlo town teams tonight at Sheridan Coliseum in an attempt to improve its 4-3 season record. The first game is scheduled to start at 7 p.m.

Thursday night at Kearney, the young Bengals lost to the Kearney (Neb.) State jayvee squad in the closing minutes, 86-78.

It was the second time this year the Antelopes had won over the Tigers. The first was a 106-104 decision in Sheridan Coliseum in December.

Senior assistant Don Reed's cagers trailed in the early minutes of the first half, but fought back to trade leads with the Antelopes several times before settling for a 32-32 halftime score.

After intermission, Phil Delp, St. John sophomore, kept the Tiger cubs in the game as he tossed in 12 points in a 10-minute span. But Kearney's Larry Litchi and Roland Anderson pulled the Antelopes ahead for good.

Darrell Ehrlich, Jetmore freshman, led the Tigers in scoring with 20 points, followed by Delp with 18.

Kearney's high scorers were Frank Sokol and Larry Frederick, both with 13 points.

Bowling Winners Enter Region Eight Action

The five top bowlers from the Campus Bowling Tournament left today for Lawrence where they will enter the Region Eight Bowling Tournament.

Twenty-three colleges from four states will compete for the championship. The states represented are Iowa, Missouri, Nebraska and Kansas.

The bowlers from FHS who made the trip are: Darwin Brown, Grinnell freshman; Gene Karst, Russell freshman; Dale Schmutz, Abilene freshman; Warren Schmidt, Hays junior; and Gary Strouse, Ashland junior. Lynn Rogers will accompany the group.

Tigers Sting Hornets, Gain Tie For Second; Pitt On Deck

Fort Hays State's basketball team moved into a tie for second place in the Central Intercollegiate Conference by defeating Emporia State, 78-67, Tuesday night.

The Tigers are now tied with Washburn for the runnerup spot, both teams having 4-3 records. Pittsburg State leads the conference with a 5-1 mark.

John Channell took scoring honors for the Bengals against the Emporia Hornets, pouring in 22 points. Close behind were center Herb Stange, who had 20, and guard Sam McDowell, with 18.

FHS jumped to a 14-8 lead with five minutes of play gone and led 40-28 at intermission. However, in the second half Emporia took advantage of the friendly confines of its home court and whittled the margin to 68-62 with 4:42 left to play.

The wagon wheel again proved to be reliable and 6-5 John Channell broke loose for three straight field goals to carry the Tigers out of danger. Stange added two points on a short jump shot and guard Jim Bodge, who finished the night with eight points, pumped in two free throws to complete the scoring.

Tom McKain, who played a fine floor game, being credited with five assists, tallied eight for the winners and reserve guard Dave Hurt also saw limited action and added a single counter.

Doug Glaysher, all-CIC first team choice last year, tallied 19 for the losing Hornets and teammates Garry Patterson and Travis Wallace also figured in the double figure scoring with 14 and 12, respectively.

Stange also led the Bengals in rebounds with 19, closely followed by Channell with 18. The caroms pulled down by Stange equalled the school record for a single game, held by Channell and former cager Dean Larson.

In the preliminary contest, Emporia won over the FHS junior varsity, 71-65. Darrell Schultze led the Hornet attack with 19 points. High for the young Tigers was Darrell Ehrlich, who had 14, and also in doubles figures were Phil Delp and Larry Phillips, with 12 and 10, respectively.

Saturday night the Tigers meet league-leading Pittsburg State at 7:30 p.m. in Sheridan Coliseum.

It will be the second meeting between the two clubs. Earlier in the season the Gorillas thumped the Bengals, 96-83, to hand the Tigers their worst CIC loss.

Heading the aggressive attack fielded by coach John Lance has been Dave Holt, who is averaging 14.4 points per contest while pulling down 8.3 rebounds per game.

Two other Gorillas, Jerry Couch and Del Locke, are also averaging in the double figures at 13.3 points per game and the other two starters, freshman Jim Chroust and hefty Bob Jenkins, are averaging over nine.

Chroust, a 6-6 center, is the rebounding leader, averaging 8.6 per game, and also a rough competitor on the boards is 6-3, 205-pound Jenkins, who has been pulling down slightly over eight caroms per game.

In the earlier clash between the two clubs Jenkins scored 25 points to lead the Gorilla scoring. Chroust and Locke also hit the double figure scoring with 24 and 16 points, respectively.

Tuesday night coach Lance won his 600th victory at Pittsburg to become the fourth coach in the nation to reach that milestone of victories at one school. However, Tiger coach Cade Suran has not added significantly to this number. In the games between the two tutors Suran has emerged victor 21 times while losing 14.

The Tigers may well have found their best working offense in the quintet that led the FHS cagers to a 101-76 victory over Omaha University Saturday night.

Coach Cade Suran moved guard Sam McDowell into a forward position and Herb Stange, who alternates at forward and center, to the pivot. Top reserve guard Jim Bodge took McDowell's usual place in the lineup and guard Tom McKain and forward John Channell retained their customary posts.

Behind the 57.8 per cent shooting exhibited by the Bengals in the first half they led 52-22 at intermission.

A fired-up and determined group of Omaha cagers returned to their home floor the second half and the action turned rough and ragged. But the smallest margin the Indians could muster was 22 points, at 78-56.

Herb Stange led the Tigers both in scoring and rebounding as he meshed 25 points, 23 of them coming in the first half, and grabbed 16 caroms.

McDowell finished the contest with 21 points and 6-5 Channell hit for 18, while pulling down 12 rebounds. Bodge, playing one of his best floor games of the season, and Jude Gerstner both added nine and McKain scored eight.

FHS hit 48.7 per cent of its shots from the field for the game while Omaha mustered only 37.5.

The victory broke a two-game losing streak and marked first Central Intercollegiate Conference win on the road for the Bengals. FHS now has an 11-5 season record while Omaha sports a 7-9 mark.
