KANSAS BANANAS? — Yes, the greenhouse at the college has some bananas. Displaying a few of the 200 produced this year are Sherry Larson (left), Scandia freshman, and Jeanne Riffel, Ellis freshman. One of the several sprouts which the greenhouse has in its tropical room is shown in the background. Because of their size, only one sprout is allowed to develop and produce bananas.

Sackett will discuss Edgar W. Howe's "The Story of a Country Town," which concerns a small town in Kansas. Howe, editor of the Atchison Globe for about 50 years until his retirement in the 1930's, is known as the first American author to write in the tradition of realism.

Debaters To Seek Win No. 2 At K-State Novice Tourney

FHS's debate team will be after its second victory of the young season Saturday when two teams enter the Kansas State University novice tournament in Manhattan.

Representing the college at the meet will be Clair Swann, Russell, and Jerry Michel, Bunker Hill, both members of last year's Russell High School team, and Cheryl Bentley, Garden City, and Connie Leuty, Ellsworth.

Four teams of first year debaters opened their season on the right foot last weekend by recording a 4-0 victory in as many rounds of debate over Dodge City Junior College.

Two Dodge City teams argued the pros and cons of federal aid to education with the Fort Hays Staters, with each of the FHS teams debating once and the juco teams competing twice.

Bentley and Leuty, a team of freshmen, outpointed Norman Wilson and Amelia Scrogg of Dodge as did two former Atchison High School debaters now at FHS, Steve Tramel and Richard Scott.

Swann and Michel and a team of Gary Kisner, Great Bend, and John Klever, Jetmore, scored their victories over Dodge City's Kyleen Lacy and Nicki Mayrath.

The teams of Tramel-Scott and Kent Leichliter, Nickerson senior, was elected Associated Student Body president Wednesday in balloting which saw only 832 students vote.

Leichliter, who was serving as temporary president before the election, received 474 votes to defeat Charles Myers, Great Bend senior, who had 348.

Tom Smith, Syracuse senior who was unopposed for the vice-presidency, received 720 votes to win election to that position.

Other election results (with winning candidates listed first):

Senior class officers: PRESIDENT, Ron Hosie, Abilene, 86; Leland Brodbeck, Kinsley, 77; VICE-PRESIDENT, Charles Fritzmeier, Stafford, 143; SECRETARY-TREASURER, Jane Schnobelen, Lewis, 184.

Junior class officers: PRESIDENT, George Kay, Hays, 80; Lance Clay, Meade, 63; VICE-PRESIDENT, Rod Clausen, Kinsley, 95; Mike Minson, Hoisington, 85; SECRETARY-TREASURER, Carol Lipp, Burdett, 136; Cathy Fowler, WaKeeney, 62.

Representatives elected to the ASC from the living districts are:

Women's Residence Halls: Bernadine Uhrich, Collyer sophomore; Connie Congdon, Garden City freshman; Judy Sipe, Denver freshman.

Men's Residence Halls: Jean Oborny, Timken sophomore; Dennis Garrison, Plains senior.

Married Students: Phil Aldrich, Garfield senior.

Social Sororities: Sandy Whitmore, Brookville junior; Pat Mermis, Hays junior.

Social Fraternities: Jerry Patterson, Hill City junior; Jim Rock, Abilene senior; Jerry Sherill, Burrtown senior.

Ballots were counted twice, but candidates may ask for a recount in a close race, said Marvin Martin, Quinter senior and All-Student Council chairman.

Voting on unmarried candidates living in unorganized housing is under protest and the results will be settled by the Student Court.

In the graduate division, two candidates, Harold Weinhold, Sylvan Grove, and Mike Butler, Hoisington, tied. A run-off election will be next Wednesday in connection with the Homecoming queen voting.

A joint meeting between new and old council members is planned at 5:30 p.m. Tuesday in Rarick Hall, Room 301.

Full Day Planned For Homecoming On October 26

Bands, floats, Celeste Holm, dedication of buildings and a football game matching FHS and arch-rival Emporia State headline the college's Homecoming schedule on Oct. 25-26.

Activities begin at 8 p.m. Friday when Celeste Holm, Academy Award winner for her performance in "Gentleman's Agreement," presents "With Love and Laughter" in Sheridan Coliseum. Tickets for the event, sponsored by the Artists and Lectures Series Committee, are available in the Memorial Union.

Saturday's full schedule opens at 8 a.m. with coffee and registration for visiting alumni in the Memorial Union. The traditional tug-of-war between the freshmen and sophomores, with the losers getting soaked in Big Creek, begins at 9:30 a.m. at the Custer Hall bridge.

The Homecoming parade, featuring more than 40 high school bands, the FHS marching band and a variety of floats built by campus organizations, will get under way at 10:45 a.m. and move south on Main Street.

Alumni will get together for a smorgasbord in the Union Cody

Kisner-Klever are expected to enter either the Texas Christian University or University of Colorado meet early in November.

FHS Coach Jim Costigan has only one experienced team, Jone

Burris, Hays junior, and Rex Gaskill, Hutchinson senior, on which to build his hopes this season. Both have several years' experience, but have worked as a team only one year.

YOUNG DEBATERS — Gary Kisner (left), Great Bend, and John Klever, Jetmore, scored a victory in their first college debate Saturday, defeating a team from Dodge City Junior College. The two freshmen are expected to see their action in either the Texas Christian University or University of Colorado meet early in November.

dents, Leland Brobeck of Kinsley and Jim Windholz of Hays.

Two Political Science Students Getting On-the-Job Training

Two outstanding political science majors at FHS, Jim Windholz of Hays and Leland Brobeck of Kinsley, are getting a first-hand look at city governmental matters this year.

The two seniors are serving as administrative interns to Jerry Johnson, Hays city manager, under a program initiated last January.

In their work, the youths are assisting Johnson with long-range planning, conducting research into a variety of governmental areas and studying operations of the various city departments.

Under the plan begun by John Tomlinson, instructor in political science, Windholz and Brobeck work with Johnson about eight hours a week. They receive no pay, but get three hours' credit for field work in government. Regular class sessions with Tomlinson also are part of the program.

Brobeck plans a career in public administration and Windholz will enter either public administration or law.

Moore To Direct Sylvan Grove Clinic

Mary Maude Moore, assistant professor of music, will be guest director at a high school vocal clinic at Sylvan Grove Oct. 21. Several high schools in the Sylvan Grove area will participate.

Emilie Miller, Russell junior, will serve as accompanist for the event.

Miss Moore also will go to Atwood on Nov. 6 to give a speech and demonstration for the high school music club. Margie Colburn, Stockton senior, and accompanist Linda Scheideman, La Crosse sophomore, will assist Miss Moore in her demonstration of musical techniques and song materials.

Movie Scheduled Sunday

"The Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse," starring Glenn Ford, Ingrid Thubin, Charles Boyer, Lee J. Cobb and Paul Henreid, will be shown Sunday in the Memorial Union. There will be a matinee at 2:30 p.m. and an evening show at 7:30 p.m.

The movie is the story of an Argentine family torn apart by war. Sons of a German father fight for the Nazis and become a power in Paris when the Germans take over. On the other side of the family, a cousin with French ancestry joins the French Underground. He is given an assignment which could mean the success of the forthcoming invasion and at the same time seal the fate of his German relatives.

Following Dr. Garwood's address, the participants will divide into panel discussion groups to conduct sessions on their particular business or professional activity.

Groups of 40 to 50 teachers will attend each discussion session, rotating to enable them to learn as much as possible about the various businesses and industries.

Student Aid Up $12,000

Financial grants to students at Fort Hays State have increased by $12,660 to 27 more students over last year.

So far this fall, 234 students have received $45,835 in scholarships, awards and grants, according to a report from the student aids office. Last year FHS awarded $33,175 to 207 students.

Of the 234 students receiving scholarships or awards, 116 are freshmen, 47 sophomores, 41 juniors and 30 seniors.

Of the $45,835 awarded, $30,324 was allocated for scholarships, $2,272 for music awards and $13,239 for athletic grants.

Student organizations on campus raised $4,356 of the $30,324 given in scholarships, while Hays businessmen and individuals contributed $5,090 and $20,878 came from out-of-town corporations, groups and individuals.

All funds raised for music grants were raised on campus, while all of the athletic aid came from Hays, except for $810 from out of town and $192 came from the campus.

"Some of the increase over last year is accounted for by the $30 increase per year in college fees," said Kent Collier, Endowment Assn. executive secretary. "However, we've experienced an encouraging increase in the number and size of contributions to the scholarship fund."

Good Example Set

A good example of the assistance Fort Hays State provides area secondary schools is a program under which members of the science faculty spend a half or full day talking to students and teachers.

The program, financed by the National Science Foundation is designed to:

1. Increase the ability and interest of secondary school students in science and mathematics.
2. Provide help and assistance in secondary school science and math teachers.
3. Attempt to develop better understanding between college-industrial scientists and secondary school teachers and students.

However, this is only one example and one area of assistance offered Western Kansas schools. Just as the science department makes an effort to inform high school students and build better relations with them, so other departments on campus make the same attempt.

One doesn't have to look far to notice the work being done along these lines by the music, physical education and speech departments, to name only a few.

To the student interested in promoting his department and college this provides an example to follow.

One of the best ways to attract high school students to Fort Hays State is to inform them of the benefits and advantages we are receiving on this campus and create interest and a good impression of this college.

Added Attraction

Atmosphere and color are two things which increase the excitement and crowd appeal at any football game and the setting for this stage has been improved by the performance of the Tiger football marching band.

As was demonstrated at Parents' and Band Day last weekend, and the weekend before that, the performance of the band is much improved with the addition of a flag corps (the Bannerettes), a high-stepping drum major and five proficient twirlers. When these elements are coupled with a larger marching band, one striving for perfection in precision marching, the result is increasing enjoyment for spectators.

The Leader commends this group for the job they have done and hopes that the hours of work necessary to prepare such shows are appreciated by the student body.

Kemper Explains Function, Problems of Forsyth Library

Editor's Note — This is the first of two articles written by Robert Kemper, instructor of library science, to explain the function and problems of Forsyth Library. The second article will appear in a future issue of The Leader.

Quality education requires use of a great wealth and variety of materials to meet the many needs, interests and abilities of students and faculty members. Independent study has become the educational keynote of the future—which means that quantities of instructional materials must be available to students and faculty.

It is through the college library that these needs must be met. As a service agency to Fort Hays State, the educational program of Forsyth Library is aimed at providing instructional materials to meet every need of students and faculty, as fostered by educational aims and goals of the college.

The library staff is keenly aware of the problems confronting both the college and library today. The two major issues that hinder the services provided by the library are lack of space for housing library collections, staff and library patrons, and funds for purchasing needed materials.

The first problem, that of providing adequate space, is now undergoing radical change. Money has been allocated by the State for a new, completely air-conditioned, open stack arranged library with adequate seating capacity.

The building is being planned and construction is due to start in July, 1964. But even the new building will be inadequate to meet the needs of the college when it is finished, since the amount of allocation has been deemed too small to provide facilities. The second stage of an additional two stories will follow closely in order to meet the building need of the college.

The second issue, one that will never be completely solved, is concerned with requests for available funds so that needed materials can be secured. The library has asked for yearly increases in the book budget to offset rising costs of book production and labor costs, plus a special appropriation to purchase a backlog of materials.

Because limited funds seem to be inevitable, the acquisitions department can attempt to secure only those materials that will be of immediate value and vital to instruction. This effort is to see that valued funds will not be spent in areas the library has no obligation to support.

Brewings

To address you in a fashion used by Hal Boyle, "Things a columnist (?) would never know if he didn't open his mail." (The question mark isn't used by Boyle, rather for the sake of my dissenters.)

Taken from a dictionary compiled by the Daily Nebraskan at the University of Nebraska in Lincoln:

Card — What everyone has to fill out millions and millions of to stay in this place.

Dropped — What you become if you don't fill out the cards.

English — The language which most professors are least able to put across clearly.

Grass — This is the most important product produced by the University. Many acres are planted, watered, walked on and harvested each year. Forty-three per cent of the crop is used to stuff mattresses at the dorm. The remainder is used for salads in the Nebraska Union.

Homecoming — A semi-religious, half-animalistic feast celebrated at this institute each fall.

Kicks — What 50 per cent of the student body is here for.

Laughs — What the other 50 per cent is here for.

No — The favorite word of your girl, your adviser, your dean or anyone engaged in the University administration.

Timid — A term used to describe the Student Council in nearly all its dealings.

BOOM!

Today, foregoing levity, let us turn our keen young minds to the principal problem facing American colleges today: the population explosion. Only last week four people exploded in Cleveland, Ohio—one of them while carrying a plate of soup. In case you're thinking such a thing couldn't happen anywhere but in Cleveland, let me tell you about two other cases last week—a 45-year-old man in Provo, Utah, and a 19-year-old girl in Northfield, Minnesota. And, in addition, there was a near miss in High Point, North Carolina—an eight-year-old boy who was saved only by the quick thinking of his cat, Fred, who pushed the phone off the hook with his muzzle and dialed the department of weights and measures. (It would, perhaps, have been more logical for Fred to dial the fire department, but one can hardly expect a cat to summon a fire engine which is followed by a Dalmatian, can one?)

But I digress. The population explosion, I say, is upon us. It is, of course, cause for concern but not for alarm, because I feel sure that science will ultimately find an answer. After all, has not science in recent years brought us such marvels as the maser, the bevatron, and the Marlboro filter? Oh, what a saga of science was the discovery of the Marlboro filter! Oh, what a heart-rending epic of trial and error, of dedication and perseverance! And, in the end, what a triumph it was when the Marlboro research team, after years of testing and discarding one filter material after another—iron, nickel, tin, antimony, obsidian, poundcake—finally emerged, tired but happy, from their laboratory, carrying in their hands the perfect filter cigarette! Indeed, what rejoicing there still is whenever we light up a Marlboro which comes to us in soft pack and Flip-Top Box in all fifty states and Cleveland!

Yes, science will ultimately solve the problems arising from the population explosion, but meanwhile America's colleges are in dire straits. Where can we find classrooms and teachers for today's gigantic influx of students?

Well sir, some say the solution is to adopt the trimester system. This system, already in use at many colleges, eliminates summer vacations, has three semesters per annum instead of two, and compresses a four-year-course into three years.

This is, of course, good, but is it good enough? Even under the trimester system the student has occasional days off. Moreover, his nights are utterly wasted in sleeping. Is this the kind of all-out attack that is indicated?

I say no. I say desperate situations call for desperate remedies. I say that partial measures will not solve this crisis. I say we must do no less than go to school every single day of the year. But that is not all. I say we must go to school 24 hours of every day!

The benefits of such a program are, as you can see, obvious. First of all, the classroom shortage will disappear because all the dormitories can be converted into classrooms. Second, the teacher shortage will disappear because all the night watchmen can be put to work teaching solid state physics and Restoration drama. And finally, overcrowding will disappear because everybody will quit school.

Any further questions?

© 1963 Max Shulman

Yes, one further question: the makers of Marlboro, who sponsor this column, would like to know whether you have tried a Marlboro lately. It's the filter cigarette with a man's world of flavor. Settle back and enjoy one soon.

Delta Sigs Defeat Sig Eps for Greek Champ, Playoffs Tonight

Delta Sigma Phi rallied for two fourth quarter touchdowns Tuesday to defeat Sigma Phi Epsilon, 15-13, for the organization league championship. Play-offs for the all-school championship begin today.

Trailing 13-2 with five minutes remaining, Delta Sig Don Herron, Kinsley junior, passed to Darrell Hosie, Abilene sophomore. Hosie then flipped the ball to Clinton Pearce, Concordia senior, who crossed the goal line to narrow the margin 13-8.

With less than a minute left, Herron tossed to Ted Witt, Hudson senior, for another Delta Sig score which gave them a 14-13 lead. Herron's pass play was good for the extra point.

The Sig Eps made a futile effort to reach paydirt in the closing seconds, but time ran out with them on the 15-yard line.

The Sig Eps opened the scoring in the first quarter on a pass play from Jon Ficken, McDonald sophomore, to Brent Merydith, WaKeeney sophomore. Ficken's tosses to

Later in the first half, the Sig Eps crossed the goal again on a 45-yard pass play from Ficken to Jim Johnson, Zenith, junior, and the defending champions had a 13-0 halftime lead.

Delta Sigma Phi opened the third quarter with a long drive which was halted on the Sig Eps' two-yard line. But two plays later, Ficken threw to Merydith who was tagged behind the goal line for a two-point safety which proved to be the winning margin.

Both teams were troubled with penalties throughout the game, with several long gains and touchdowns called back because of infractions.

Other results are: Delta Sig 13, AKL 12; TKE 14, Phi Sig 0; Sig Ep 21, Sig Tau 13; Roamers 26, 69ers 13; Wesley Wildcats 19, Woodpeckers 7.

FHS Harriers Defeat Kearney

With all seven Tiger cross country runners turning in their best times of the season, the FHS harriers defeated Kearney (Neb.) State 21 to 38, in a dual meet at Kearney Saturday morning.

All seven of Coach Alex Francis' runners finished in the top ten, as sophomore Don Lakin broke his own school record for three miles to take the top individual honors.

Lakin was clocked at 14:39.5 for the three-miles, bettering his mark of 14:43 set at Kearney last year.

The victory was sweet revenge for the Tigers after losing to Kearney twice last year in dual meets.

Other FHS runners and their times were: Gerald Hertel, Ness City, 15:07, 3rd; Charlie Rose, Haviland, 15:30, 4th; Lowell Smith, Clyde, 15:35, 6th; Joe Twyman, Overland Park, 15:48, 9th, and Jack Harms, Ellinwood, 15:51, 10th. All are sophomores. Dwight Gillespie St. John junior finished 7th with a time of 15:45.

Two Tiger runners Joe Dunham and Mel Pfannenstiel were unable to compete because of illness.

KWU Bows Before Junior Harriers

Dwight Gillespie, St. John junior, took individual honors, covering the three miles in 15 minutes, 55 seconds. Gillespie is in his first year of cross country after two years as a track and football letterman.

Pitt State Gorillas Entertain Winless Bengals Saturday

After failing, 39-6, at the hands of Omaha (Neb.) University last weekend, Fort Hays State's football team travels to Pittsburg State College Saturday as the Gorillas' Homecoming opponent.

The Gorillas have beaten Central Missouri, 7-0, Missouri Mines, 35-6, and Southern Colorado, 46-0, while losing to Southwest Missouri, 21-0, and Northeast Missouri, 21-0, and Northeast Missouri, 25-20.

Although they have lost three players by ineligibility and several by injuries, the Gorilla team has bounced back strongly. Last weekend, they held Southern Colorado to only four yards net rushing. The victory was the 100th for Coach Carmie Smith in his 15 years at Pittsburg.

Meanwhile in the Tiger camp, FHS remains winless after four starts. An impotent offense, untimely injuries, and several drop-outs have been deciding factors in Bengal defeats.

The biggest problem for the Tigers is the quarterbacking spot. Since two quarterbacks have dropped off the roster and Max VanLaningham was injured in the Omaha game, the starting duties will be pointed toward Bob Johnson, Logan freshman. Johnson, at 5-10, 150 pounds, is better known for his pole vaulting ability after clearing just under 13 feet at Logan High School last year.

The 36th game between the Gorillas and the Tigers, Pittsburg has won 20 games while losing nine, with six ending in ties.

Changes in the Bengal lineup Saturday will find Jack Johnson or Larry Bates possibly at halfback for the injured Charlie Canty, Bob Ridler at one of the defensive tackle spots and Johnson at quarterback.

In last Saturday's game, Fort Hays State couldn't stop Omaha's ever-moving attack and had trouble penetrating a strong and persistent Omaha defense.

"We had good effort and played the best we could, but we just couldn't match the exceptionally good Omaha personnel," stated Coach Wayne McConnell.

The Tigers, greatly outweighed, were also plagued by the performances of all-conference quarterback Carl Meyers, sprint champ halfback Roger Sayers, hard-hitting halfback Gerald Allen, and the defensive abilities of sophomore middle linebacker Jim Jones.

The Tigers trailed the Indians, 14-6, at halftime, but the Omahans boomed back after intermission with four touchdowns.

Scoring the Tigers' only touchdown of the evening was VanLaningham on a fake and keeper around left end from the five-yard line in the second quarter.

Basketball Practice Starts for Tigers

Six lettermen, one squadman, nine eligible transfers, and four transfers who will be eligible the second semester are among over 55 candidates who reported for the first basketball practice.

Practice officially started Tuesday afternoon and in addition to the 20 basketball players trying out for the varsity squad, over 35 men reported for junior varsity action.

Lettermen on the roster are Sam McDowell, Smith Center senior; Bill Royer, Lawrence junior; Larry Phillips, McKeesport, Pa. senior; Merv Heitschmidt, Cass Lake, Minn. junior; Jude Gerstner, Hays junior, and Rick Brown, Ellis junior. The squadman is Dee Deckert, Tescott sophomore.

Coach Cade Suran had this to say: "You can't lose men like Herb Stange, John Channell, Tom McKain, Jim Bodge and Dave Hurt and make any wild-eyed prediction. Our individual talent for this season looks reasonably promising. But it will take time to see what kind of team develops."

The 1963-64 schedule for FHS begins Nov. 28 at Weatherford, Okla., against Southwestern Oklahoma State. First home game for the Tigers is Nov. 30 with Southern Colorado State.
