Debaters Leave for Texas Meet

Three teams of FHS debaters left this morning for Fort Worth, Tex., where they will compete in the rugged Texas Christian University tournament.

Those making the trip are veterans Jone Burris, Hays, and Rex Gaskill, Hutchinson; freshmen Cheryl Bentley of Garden City and Connie Luety of Ellsworth; and Jerry Michael, Bunker Hill, and Clair Swann, Russell, also freshmen.

In a meet last weekend at Emporia State, two teams of Fort Hays Staters met rough competition and finished with an overall 5-7 record. Forty-five schools from throughout the nation, including Dartmouth, Boston College, the University of Illinois and University of Minnesota participated.

Miss Burris and Gaskill, in their first year as a team, managed a 3-3 record in the tournament, defeating Pittsburg State, Hutchinson Junior College and Dodge City Junior College and losing to Oklahoma University, Minnesota University and Augustana College of Illinois.

A sophomore duo making their first major collegiate appearance as a team, Steve Tramel and Richard Scott of Atchison, defeated Wichita University and North Illinois University and lost to Northwestern University, Baylor University, Texas Christian and Southwest Missouri State.

"We have lots of room for improvement," said Coach Jim Costigan after the Emporia tournament.

Human Relations Council Elects New Officers

Students and townspeople met Thursday at Wesley Foundation to organize the Hays Council on Human Relations. The organization has formed to explore the position and opportunities of minority groups in and around Hays.

Officers elected were Bill Helmer, Hays, president; A. J. Cochran, Elwood, vice-president; Billie Dye, Mulvane, recording secretary; and Helen Francis, Hays, corresponding secretary.

KSTA Meeting Opens Today

Approximately 2,000 school teachers from Northwest Kansas began a two-day meeting in Sheridan Coliseum this morning.

Students will be dismissed for the week today at 5 p.m. However, night classes and Saturday classes will still be conducted.

One hundred years ago a mere handful of teachers (34) met in Leavenworth in the midst of a Civil War to organize the Kan-

ASC Picks Officers; Fleury To Preside

Eldon Fleury, Jamestown senior, was elected chairman of All-Student Council in the 1963-64 governing body's first meeting Tuesday night.

Other officers of the new council are Phil Aldrich, Garfield senior, vice-chairman; Sandra Whitmor, Brookville junior, secretary, and Jim Rock, Abilene senior, treasurer.

In other action taken by ASC, various committees were picked, representatives for campus organizations selected, Kent Leichter, student body president, was named Junior Rotarian of the Month and Mike Butler, Hoisington, voted graduate division representative.

The selection of Butler followed two elections between Butler and Harold Weinhold, Hays. The first, held with the regular ASC election ended in a tie, each candidate receiving one vote, and in a runoff election they received eight votes each.

Following a motion by Tom Smith, student body vice-president, ASC voted to hold another runoff. Later Leichter moved to rescind the motion. This motion was passed and Leichter moved to accept Butler as graduate division representative. This action also passed. section in the Constitution of the Associated Students which reads, Student Court officials were appointed by Leichter and approved by the Council.

Heading the court as chief justice this year will be Leland Brodbeck, Kinsley senior. Jone Burris, Hays junior, and Charles Miles, Garden City senior, were approved as associate justices and Robert Ochs, La Crosse junior, was named attorney general.

Leichter also appointed three members to the newly created student organizations committee. They are Gene Henderson, Norton senior, Ron Hosie, Abilene senior, and Smith.

This committee will work with faculty members as a policy making, governing and action committee at FHS.

ASC selected members for the finance committee and a committee to select the Professor of the Month. On the latter group are Jerry Sherrill, Burrton senior, serving as chairman; Connie Congdon, Garden City freshman; Patty Mermis, Hays junior; Jerry Patterson, Hill City junior, and Rock.

Members of the finance committee are Jean Oborny, Timken sophomore; Merwin Colburn, Russell sophomore; Rock, Hosie and Leichter. Rock is chairman.

Dave Meckenstock, Hays freshman, was elected Campus Boosters Club representative, and Sherrill was elected Memorial Union Board representative.

Chad Mitchell Trio To Appear Nov. 9

The Chad Mitchell Trio, considered by many to be one of the most versatile groups in popular and folk music, will include "Happy Birthday" among their repertoire for their engagement at Fort Hays State.

The Trio, sponsored by the Memorial Union and Artists and Lectures Committee, will appear at 8 p.m. Nov. 9 in Sheridan Coliseum in connection with the Memorial Union's fifth birthday celebration.

Tickets for the presentation will go on sale Monday for $2.00 each at the Information Desk in the Union.

Library Alters Hours

Forsyth Library hours will be changed this week during the Kansas State Teachers Assn. meeting. The schedule is: Thursday, close at 5 p.m.; Friday, open 9 to 12 and 1 to 5; Saturday, open 10 to 12; Sunday, closed.

Thousands Jam Campus for Homecoming

Clear, warm weather, an excellent turnout of students, alumni and friends and good participation in every phase of competition, entertainment and work resulted in what was termed by many Fort Hays Staters as the "most successful Homecoming ever."

FHS alumni who turned out last weekend were from Mississippi, California, Indiana, Colorado, New Mexico, Wisconsin, Oklahoma, Nebraska, Missouri and, of course, Kansas.

The crowning of Jane Schnoebelen, Lewis senior, as 1963 Homecoming queen opened the activities Friday with the ceremony taking place at the pep rally and bonfire. Her attendant was Sheryl Kay Wright, Kiowa senior, and second attendants were Linda Kortman, Colby junior and Janice Slate, Jewell senior.

That night, "With Love and Laughter," was presented in Sheridan Coliseum by Academy Award winner, Celeste Holm.

Saturday morning activities began soon after dawn for many. Sweepstakes float winners, Alpha Kappa Lambda, were trying to get their 27-foot wide flying saucer through the doors of the Armory hours before the parade.

Much of the activity before the parade was centered at the Memorial Union where hundreds of alumni gathered. The Endowment Assn. held its annual election with Arthur Leas, Hays, and Kenneth Hinkhouse, Hays, winning top posts of president and vice-president, respectively.

One alumna was missing from Homecoming activities Saturday—for the first time in her 37 years' association with Fort Hays State.

Mrs. Nita Landrum, supervisor of correspondence study at FHS, was unable to attend festivities because of illness. Mrs. Landrum graduated from FHS in 1926 with a bachelor's degree in education and also did graduate work here.

Even in the 75-degree weather, sophomore representatives in the tug-of-war found that the water of Big Creek was cold—and full of mud. For the first time in three years, the freshmen outpulled their older counterparts, dunking them in a record 10 seconds.

The Homecoming parade, termed by many as the best in years, included 43 bands and an equal number of floats and miscellaneous entries. Other winners in float competition in addition to the AKLs with their "Fort Hays Martian to Victory" were Sigma Sigma Sigma sorority, winners in the women's division with "Orbiting to Victory;" Delta Sigma Phi fraternity, men's winners with "Unity," and Newman Club, winners in open class, with "Victory through Unity."

Second-place winners were Alpha Gamma Delta, women's division, with "Tiger-Vac Predicts Victory" and the Prometheans, men's division, with "We're Atomizing."

To the delight of almost 8,000 spectators in Lewis Field Stadium, Fort Hays State beat Emporia State, 28-13, in the football game. Watching the game with particular interest were many alumni who had played in previous Homecoming contests.

In a pre-game presentation, Herb Stange received the Busch Gross Award as the outstanding FHS athlete of 1962.

The half-time show was presented by the FHS and Emporia State bands. President Cunningham crowned Queen Jane and she and her attendants were presented gifts from the student council.

Ending the day's activities were the Alumni Dinner and the Homecoming dance. Ernest Deines, WaKeeney attorney, was named president-elect of the Alumni Assn. and Betty Aubel, Hays teacher, is the new vice-president.

"We are very pleased with the 1963 Homecoming," said Harold Stones, executive secretary of the Alumni Assn. "I think there are three reasons for the increase in attendance this year. First of all, of course, was the successful job that our weather consultation service did for us.

"Every year we have more people graduate from FHS, thus giving us more alumni to return. Third, Fort Hays State's growing reputation draws many alumni, as well as many friends," explained Stones.

"One of the things I was most impressed with," said Stones, "was the big-school caliber of the floats. I felt that the imagination and hard work that went into the floats resulted in near-professional jobs."

The Homecoming Committee will meet at 4 p.m. today in the Prairie Room of the Memorial Union to summarize the 1963 Homecoming.

A review and discussion of this year's activities will be given by the group. Suggestions for improvements and changes will be made at this time while Homecoming is still fresh in the minds of committee members.

Voting Methods Lax

Upon observing how the All-Student Council election was handled recently, The Leader is of the opinion that changes should be made in order to eliminate the opportunity for stuffing ballot boxes.

While this was probably not the case, judging from the number of votes cast, and while we do not believe this campus has a student body of this low caliber, as long as there are fallacies in the way an election is run, the possibility is there.

Just where does the problem lie?

Simply in the method used to check qualified voters. To be sure, every student is a qualified voter, but freshmen are not eligible to vote for graduate division representatives, nor are unmarried students eligible to vote for married students representatives.

We realize that most students are satisfied to vote a correct ballot, but in a tight race, possibly where friends are involved, it may be more appealing to help "good old Joe."

Under the present system, there is no way of determining if a student is picking up the correct ballot, because student identification cards do not specify classification.

And, under the present system, the vigilance of the people running the ballot box is lax, often to the point of not checking the pictures on the ID cards. It does not appear that it would be difficult to borrow several ID cards and by going to the polls whenever election officials changed, cast several ballots.

One way in which this problem could be alleviated would be for ASC to have a list of students. One such a list would be name, classification and housing districts, and students could be checked off as they voted.

While such action would demand additional time and effort on the part of election officials, it would eliminate the chance for stuffing the ballot boxes, if these officials diligently check pictures on the cards.

Of course, this does not eliminate the problem of which housing district a student is eligible to vote in. For instance, a Greek living in unorganized housing who is unmarried can now cast either a social organizations or unmarried, unorganized ballot.

This problem also should be considered by ASC, but more important is setting up a reliable system of voting which would eliminate the unethical opportunities which now exist.

Brewings

As with nearly everything today, jokes have taken the form of a fad. A series of funnies comes along, lasts six months and then falls by the way—victim of a new line of jokes or at least a new subject.

In an earlier column, several of the too often repeated elephant jokes appeared. They seem to have dropped by the wayside in favor of a new subject—the whale.

Last weekend a friend initiated me to this form of humor by blubbering, "Do you know why whales steal bread?"

Upon receiving a negative answer he muttered with a fishy grin, "They'll have something to spread their jelly fish on."

While this isn't exactly inspiring, it might bring one to compare whales with elephants and wonder if the latter don't lie on the ocean floor to trip the shrimp and are gray so they can be distinguished from sunfish.

Whales are usually not considered as vicious as sharks, but if you should run into a tame shark or a wild whale and wonder which it is, you might check the pointedness of the lower, left molar to find out. If this doesn't work, and you're persistent, try weighing them—on fish scales, naturally.

Now, we might consider briefly the heritage of the whale and think just a minute about that No. 1, All-Ocean whale, Moby Dick. After considerable thought it becomes apparent that he was slain because he spouted off once too often.—Norman Brewer

Letters to the Editor

To the Editor:

A successful Homecoming depends entirely on the work and cooperation of many people—students, faculty members, Hays citizens, police, college staff personnel—and this is particularly true of the Homecoming Parade.

I extend sincere thanks to every individual and group who participated for helping make the parade the success it apparently was. The cooperation received from organizations entering floats, from bands, from the Hays police and campus patrol and Marshal Scotty Philip was first-rate, and it was appreciated.

Members of the college Ham Radio Club provided five radio cars for instant communication along the parade route. Their help was extremely valuable and much appreciated.

Thanks to all.

HOW SMALL CAN YOU GET?

Today let us address ourselves to a question that has long rocked and rolled the academic world: Is a student better off at a small college than at a large college?

To answer this question it is necessary first to define terms. What, exactly, do we mean by a small college? Well sir, some say that in order to be called truly small, a college should have an enrollment of not more than four students.

I surely have no quarrel with this statement; a four-student college must unequivocally be called small. Indeed, I would even call it intime if I knew what intime meant. But I submit there is such a thing as being too small. Take, for instance, a recent unfortunate event at Crimscoot A and M.

Crimscoot A and M, situated in a pleasant valley nestled between Philadelphia and Salt Lake City, was founded by What, exactly, do we mean by a small college?

A. and M. Crimscoot, two brothers who left Ireland in 1825 to escape the potato famine of 1841. As a result of their foresight, the Crimscoot brothers never went without potatoes for one single day of their lives—and mighty grateful they were! One night, full of gratitude after a wholesome meal of French fries, cottage fries, hash browns, and au gratin, they decided to show their appreciation to this bountiful land of potatoes by endowing a college. But their generosity contained one stipulation: the enrollment of the college must never exceed four students. They felt that only by keeping the school this small could each student be assured of the personalized attention, the camaraderie, the esprit, that is all too often lacking in larger institutions of higher learning.

Well sir, things went along swimmingly until one Saturday a few years ago. On this day Crimscoot had a football game scheduled against Minnesota, its traditional rival. Football, as you can well imagine, was something of a problem at Crimscoot, what with only four undergraduates in the entire college. It was easy enough to muster a backfield, but to find a good line—or even a bad line—baffled some of the most resourceful coaching minds in the nation.

Well sir, on the morning of the big game against Minnesota, its traditional rival, a capricious fate dealt Crimscoot a cruel blow—in fact, four cruel blows. Sigafos, the quarterback, woke up that morning with an impacted incisor. Wrichards, the slotback, flunked his taxidermy exam and was declared ineligible. Beerbohm-Tree, the wingback-tailback, got his necktie caught in his espresso machine. Yuld, the fullback, was stolen by gypsies.

Consequently, none of the Crimscoot team showed up at the football game, and Minnesota, its traditional rival, was able to score almost at will. Crimscoot was so cross after this humiliating defeat that they immediately broke off football relations with Minnesota, its traditional rival. This later became known as the Sacco-Vanetti Case.

So you can see how only four students might be too meagre an enrollment. The number that I personally favor is twenty. Why? you ask. Because, I reply, when you have twenty students and one of them opens a pack of Marlboro Cigarettes, there are enough to go around for everybody, and no one has to be deprived of Marlboro's flavor, of Marlboro's filter, of Marlboro's staunch and steadfast companionship, and as a result you have a student body that is brimming with sweet content and amity and harmony and concord and togetherness and soft pack and Flip-Top box.

That's why.

There are twenty fine cigarettes in every pack of Marlboro's, and there are millions of packs of Marlboro's in every one of the fifty states of the Union. We, the makers of Marlboro and the sponsors of this column, hope you will try our wares soon.

Tiger Harriers Defeat E-State

Fort Hays State and Wichita University cross country teams tangle in a dual meet here at 4 p.m. Friday. The two teams face each other in a four-mile affair at the Fort Hays Country Club.

The Tigers have defeated the Wichita squad three times previous in the Wichita U. Invitational, Oklahoma State Jamboree and Wichita U. quadrangular.

Tuesday, the cross country B team meets Hutchinson Junior College there for the second time in a three-mile event. The young Bengals defeated the juco team last week here.

The Tiger harriers defeated the defending national champion Emporia State and Kearney (Neb.) State in a four-mile event Saturday noon at the Fort Hays Country Club.

E-State's John Camien and Ireland Sloan took first and second, respectively, as expected, but the Bengals placed third, fourth, fifth, sixth and eighth to tally 26 points to Emporia's 46. Kearney was third with 55.

Leading the FHS squad was Don Lakin, third, followed by Lowell Smith, fourth; Gerald Hertel, fifth; Charlie Rose, sixth, and Joe Twyman, eighth, all sophomores.

This was the second straight upset for the Tigers over the Hornets. The first time was in a quadrangular at Wichita, but Sloan wasn't in action. Camien, undefeated this season, turned in a time of 19:28.1.

Fort Hays won the meet with 36 points, followed by Emporia State with 40. Oklahoma University was third with 50 points and Wichita University was last with 99 points.

IM Cager Practice Starts Saturday

Delta Sigma Phi fraternity holds a slight edge in the organization IM race with a third of the year's competition completed.

The next IM event will be the swimming meet Nov. 20-21. The college pool will be available for practice and tryouts Nov. 5.

IM basketball competition starts Nov. 25. The meh's gym will be available Nov. 2, 4, 5, 6, 7, 11, 12, 13 and 4 from 6 to 10 p.m. Teams must sign up in the IM office, Sheridan Coliseum Room 210, prior to the date they wish to practice.

A meeting of all managers of teams planning to participate in men's intramural basketball will be held at 6:30 p.m. Nov. 19 in Sheridan Coliseum Room 210.

High School Harriers To Run Here Saturday

The high school cross country regional meet will be held at the Country Club at 11 a.m. Saturday.

Entries received thus far include Concordia, Clay Center, Phillipsburg, Smith Center, Oakley and Sacred Heart in Class A. Class B schools entering runners in the two-mile race thus far are Bucklin, Holcomb, Paradise and Manter.

Stange Receives Busch Gross Award

Herb Stange, scoring star on FHS's CIC championship basketball teams the past two years, received the seventh annual "Busch" Gross Award at the college's Homecoming last Saturday afternoon.

The annual award is named for Paul "Busch" Gross, presently in his 34th year as Fort Hays State athletic director. Each year a recipient is chosen by a selection committee on the basis of scholarship, leadership, character and athletic achievement.

Stange, a 1963 spring graduate, was named to the NAIA All-Tournament first team and also to the NAIA All-American third team. Tied for fourth among the all-time FHS leading scorers, he also accumulated eight school basketball records, including the single game scoring record, season scoring record, best season average, game, season and career field goal records, and a tie for the one-game rebounding record.

Bengals Seek Second Win Against Southern Colorado

With the first win of the season under their belts, Fort Hays State's Tigers will be going for two when they meet Southern Colorado of Pueblo at 7:30 p.m. Saturday in Lewis Field Stadium.

Coach Wayne McConnell said, "Southern Colorado has good passing and running. We have a 50-50 chance of winning, and we can win easily if we have the teamwork we had against Emporia State."

Colorado, sporting a 2-4 record, is in its first year as a four-year college and does not have any seniors. They have however, 18 returning lettermen, led by quarterback Bob Berry, Empire Conference pass leader, and all-conference back Milt Banks.

McConnell praised end Cliff Leiker for an exceptional game Saturday. Leiker caught three passes for 115 yards and intercepted two, running one back 42 yards.

In Saturday's game, the Tigers, led by the passing of quarterback Bob Johnson and the running of halfback Jack Johnson, stung the Emporia State Hornets, 28-13, before a Homecoming crowd of some 7,750 people.

Bob Johnson passed for 147 yards and ran for 27 with tosses to Cliff Leiker for a 59-yard touchdown and Jesse Kennis for a five-yard touchdown.

Jack Johnson carried the load for the Tiger backfield with 104 yards on 19 carries. Jack scored on 13-yard and two-yard runs.

Tiger fans had visions of a long afternoon when Hornet back Lew Lane took the opening kickoff and ran it back for a 90-yard touchdown. The visions didn't last long as Johnson connected with Leiker for the 59-yarder. Max VanLaningham kicked his first of four extra points to put the Bengals in the lead, 7-6.

The lead lasted only minutes when Lane went over again, this time from two yards to give Emporia State a 13-7 edge.

FHS then pounded out 60 yards, including a 44-yard pass from Johnson to Cliff Leiker, with Jack Johnson's 13-yard run for the score. Jack added another touchdown five minutes later to put the Tigers ahead 21-13 at the end of the first quarter. The pass back from center was bobbled on the extra point, but scrappy VanLaningham picked up the ball and sneaked across for the pointer.

The Tigers scored their final touchdown with 10:05 left in the second period on a pass from Johnson to Kennis in the end zone. The 33-yard drive followed a punt by Earl Hurst which went for only three yards gain.
