Amendment to Abolish ASC Office Introduced

A constitutional amendment which would make class vice-presidents the only non-voting members of All-Student Council, thereby eliminating the class office of secretary-treasurer, was introduced into ASC by student body president Kent Leichter Tuesday.

The amendment consisted of:

Section 1. The vice-presidents of the four classes shall be the only non-voting members of the All-Student Council.

Section 2. Non-voting members shall at all times have speaking privileges.

Section 3. The vice-presidents of the four classes shall have the power of voting in all cases of absence of the president of his respective class.

Section 4. All sections, with the exception of section one of this amendment shall go into effect upon its ratification by the associated students.

Subsection A. Section shall go into effect on Homecoming Day, 1964.

Leichter said he preferred to eliminate the office of secretary-treasurer rather than provide a vote for this office because if this office was given voting privileges unequal representation would result.

If the vice-presidents and secretary-treasurers were allowed to vote the academic classes would have distinct power over living districts, which often have only one voting member. Leichter also said that such a move would be against the original idea of the founders of the Constitution, who did not give these voting rights in order to preserve equal representation.

He also pointed out that it has been proven in the past that the secretary-treasurer tends to lose interest during the latter part of the year because they have no direct participation.

However, direct participation for the vice-president would result if he were allowed to vote in the absence of the president, contends Leichter.

These people have not been checked yet because this policy is new, but traffic checks will be made to make sure all cars have one of the stickers.

Chad Mitchell Trio To Appear Saturday

Folk songs of the past will merge with pungent musical comments on the world of today when the Chad Mitchell Trio appears here Saturday.

Tickets for the 8 p.m. concert in Sheridan Coliseum are on sale at the Memorial Union information desk. All seats, priced at $1.50 for students, are reserved.

Sponsored by the Union Artists and Lectures Series Committee, the program is being held in connection with the Union's fifth birthday celebration which begins Friday and continues through Sunday.

and Paul Prestipino, draw their material from every possible source—other folk singers, the Library of Congress, field recording and night club revues.

The Chad Mitchell Trio

The group never claims to be "folk singers," since, to the group's way of thinking, a folk singer is one who experienced the things about which he sings. Nevertheless, they make considerable use of folk material.

The Chad Mitchell Trio originated at Gonzaga University in Spokane, Wash., during the 1959

Record Number Expected for ACT

Approximately 550 high school seniors are expected to take the American College Tests between 9 a.m. and 12:30 p.m. Saturday on the FHS campus.

The ACT tests are being given to any senior planning to attend college, regardless of the institution he may choose, according to Emerald V. Dechant, associate professor of education who is in charge of the program.

Students who indicate that they will probably attend FHS will also be given the reading tests, said Dechant.

"This is by far the largest group we have had taking the tests," Dechant commented. "The expected students surpasses the number of tests given in one session last year by more than 100."

Picture Proofs Due

Natalie Bodanya, American lyric soprano who has appeared with leading concert groups in this country and abroad, will perform at 8 p.m. Tuesday in Sheridan Coliseum.

Tickets for the concert, sponsored by the Artists and Lectures Series Committee, are now on sale at the Memorial Union Information Desk for $1.50, $2 and $2.50. All seats are reserved.

A ticket exchange for students with activity cards is also planned on Monday at the Information desk.

Miss Bodanya's career received its first big boost following a performance at Radio City Music Hall in New York when the director of the Metropolitan Opera heard her and signed her for the leading soprano role of Micaela in "Carmen."

Concert tours throughout the United States, Canada and England soon followed and she has also appeared on the Kraft Music Hall, Celanese Hour and Metropolitan Opera broadcasts.

A soloist with the Philadelphia Orchestra and the New York Philharmonic and a guest artist at the famous Venice Festival in Italy, she is active in teaching and now limits her concert engagements to colleges and universities under the auspices of the Assn. of American Colleges.

Second Class to Leader For 1963 Spring Term

The State College Leader has received a second class rating for the spring semester, 1963, from the Associated Collegiate Press rating service.

Papers are rated in one of five classes, from All-American to fourth class.

The critique was commendable toward the general news and headline writing and makeup of the paper, while criticizing the job done on depth reporting and coverage of controversial issues.

This was the first semester in the past six that The Leader dropped from a first class rating. Managing editor for the 1962-63 school year was Dave Webster, Salina, and business manager was Leon Wilber, Derby.

"ABOUT THAT LAST POINT . . ." — Clair Swann and Jerry Michels, freshman debaters from Russell, listen as their opponents discuss the issues at hand.

FHS Debaters Score High In Tough Texas Tourney

The novice team of Jerry Michel and Clair Swann, both of Russell, placed high in the elimination rounds of the Texas Christian debate tournament last weekend.

The team was defeated by Augustana College in octo-finals to place eighth in the tournament. They won five of their first six rounds, becoming eligible for the eliminations.

Jane Burris, Hays junior, and Rex Gaskill, Hutchinson senior, the varsity team, had a three-win, three-loss record. Cheryl Bentley, Garden City, and Connie Leuty, Ellsworth, a freshman team, won two and lost four.

Many top debating teams were entered in the tournament at Fort Worth. Schools defeated by Fort Hays State were Stephen F. Austin State College, Hardin Simmons University, University of Houston, Texas Southern University, Washburn University, Baylor University, University of Texas and Central Oklahoma State College.

Coach Jim Costigan feels that the debaters are showing marked improvement over early season meets.

Debaters will travel to Boulder, Colorado, for the Colorado University tournament this weekend.

Reading Classes Start Next Week

Enrollment is now open for the second eight-week session of the reading improvement course. Sessions begin on Monday and Tuesday, and meet twice weekly in the reading laboratory, Rarick Hall, Room 206.

Students may enroll any time in Rarick Hall, Room 203.

Classes will be held at 10 and 11 a.m. and 3 p.m. on Monday and Wednesday and 11 a.m. and 2 p.m. on Tuesday and Thursday.

"Effective reading and study demand concentration, an aggressive, inquiring approach and the ability to perceive accurately and rapidly," said Dr. Hulda Groesbeck, director of the service. "These attitudes and skills can be improved significantly through practice and guidance."

Music Students, Faculty To Participate in Auditions

Dr. Lloyd K. Herren and Don Stout, both faculty members in the division of music at FHS, will serve as judges for student auditions at a music convention Tuesday at the University of Oklahoma, Norman.

Some 200 instructors and 350 students are expected to be present for the 12th annual convention and student auditions of the Southwestern Regions of the National Assn. of Teachers of Singing.

Several students from FHS will be participating in the auditions. Among these will be five members of Sigma Alpha Iota, honorary music fraternity for women.

These are Margie Colburn, Stockton senior; Emilie Miller, Russell junior; Connie Cody, Oberlin sophomore; Connie Milford, Healy senior, and Eleanor Pool, Phillipsburg junior.

Other music majors who will be participating are Vernon Goering, Hutchinson junior; Shari Holliday, St. Francis senior; Jim Krentzel, Hudson senior, and Dave Ketchum, Rexford junior.

Three-Year Study Completed On Cheyenne Bottoms Refuge

A three-year study was completed recently at the Cheyenne Bottoms Waterfowl Refuge by the Biological Science Division of FHS.

The report entitled "Ecological Studies at Cheyenne Bottoms Wildlife Refuge" was written by Dr. G. W. Tomanek and Dr. F. E. Kinsinger. Included in the study are vegetation and soil studies, plant and water relations, seed and seedling studies, duck food studies, shorebird migration and survey of algae.

Results of the study have been sent to the Forestry, Fish and Game Commission at Pratt. The commission financed the study and parts of the study were used in four master's theses.

Students involved were: Duane Sonnenburg, Arnold, now working in Winnemucca, Nev.; Willard Ferguson, Haviland, teaching in Burundi, Africa; Stanley Schlegel, Hays, working for the Petrified Forest National Park at Holbrook, Ariz.; Kenneth Goodrow, Morland, doing study at the U. of New Mexico at Albuquerque; and Ed Brazda, Timken, teaching at St. Mary of the Plains at Dodge City.

Third Student Recital Features 9 Students

The third in the 1963-64 series of student recitals was presented by nine students from the FHS division of music last Thursday in Picken Hall.

New Tape Recorders Installed in Forsyth

Six new language laboratory tape recorders are being installed in the Forsyth Library language lab, replacing outdated equipment.

The dual channel recorders are the same type that is now used in the lab in Picken Hall, and the same type that will be installed in Malloy Hall, new speech and music center now under construction.

Four of the recorders being removed from the library were installed in 1956. Since that time these machines have been used an estimated 14 hours a day, six days a week.

A Lost Weekend

Dismissal of school for a day, a football victory and additional time to study for the nine weeks tests now being given add up to the possibility of an enjoyable and profitable weekend.

However, other circumstances last weekend left much to be desired.

School was dismissed for the annual teachers' meeting conducted last Thursday and Friday. There is no doubt that most students were in favor of the free time this brought.

But, while many used this time to advantage in preparing for forthcoming tests or catching up on other subjects, probably a majority found the weekend wasted from an academic standpoint. Many undoubtedly tried to make a hurried trip home and, for those who stayed, library facilities were closed much of the time.

Perhaps more students would have stayed in Hays and studied had Forsyth Library been open enough to make a stay more profitable.

The degree of departure was probably felt more Saturday night than at any other time. It was then that the Tigers posted their second win of the season in Lewis Field Stadium before a miniature crowd of 2,000, at the most. Less than half of the smallest crowd of the season were students.

A more profitable approach in terms of study and support for the football team, would be not to dismiss school during teachers' meeting. Under the present system, the large teachers' sessions are conducted on Thursday and the small group meetings on Friday. Classrooms at the college are more crowded on Friday than on Thursday.

Perhaps if more planning were given to the scheduling of teachers' meetings, classes could be held on both days and accommodations still given visiting instructors.

But don't get us wrong—we like vacations as much as anyone less. However, an extra day at Thanksgiving or in the Spring probably would be better spent and more appreciated than the one-day layoff we just received.

Resident Assistants Discuss Problems

Resident assistants of all five residence halls met in Custer Hall recently for dinner.

They were tested on various problems with which they might be faced. Dr. Emerald Dechant, associate professor of education who is in charge of college counseling, spoke to the group.

Language Students Undergoing Survey

All foreign language students are being surveyed to determine what the student plans to do next semester and identify those planning to major in foreign language.

In past semesters this has assisted students, since it allows time for the department to arrange student teaching positions in this area.

26th Annual Barbecue Scheduled Nov. 19

Fort Hays State's 26th annual barbecue, scheduled Nov. 19, is expected to attract about 200 Western Kansas school men administrators.

Sen. Paul Wunsch, Kingman, and former Sen. Verne Hoisington, Paradise, will speak on school legislation at an afternoon program starting at 3:30 p.m.

The Danish gym team will be featured on the evening program. Barbecue name tags will admit administrators to the 8 p.m. performance in Sheridan Coliseum where the 32 Danish gymnasts will appear.

The Danish Gym Team ticket exchange is next Thursday. Activity tickets may be exchanged at the information desk in the Memorial Union.

Brewings

Now that more than two weeks have passed since I returned from the Associated Collegiate Press conference in New York, I have had time to digest what I saw and make the following first-impression observations:

—8,500,000 people are a lot of flesh.

—there's almost more to be seen in an average block of that city than there is in all of Hays, America.

—the traffic problem there is slightly worse than in Hays, but the brave souls who dare get behind a steering wheel in New York are proficient.

—in a city where conformity is so necessary, nonconformity is also more evident than any other place I have visited.

—unless you hit the tourist traps, Greenwich Village isn't what it's played up to be—it's more.

—the only time the streets of the city could be empty would be just before a nuclear attack, and even then people in the village would sit in coffee houses discussing what had caused such a catastrophe.

—it's cheaper to take the subway than own a car, usually faster and often safer.

—people on the street are usually in such a hurry that you can't figure out if they're going, coming or been there and got kicked out.

—about the only form of segregation I noticed was that if you're going one way, don't get in the midst of a crowd going the other. They won't stand for it, and if you persist you won't stand long either.

—about the only thing bad about the city is making up your mind where to go next.

—it would take a year to hit the high points of New York, and by that time so many things would have changed you would have to start over.

—the Statue of Liberty must have a Lady Schick for her legs and underarms; they look mighty smooth.

—Chinatown isn't all it's cracked up to be, but it is an example of how to conserve space.

—you get what you pay for; not original, but true.

—living in New York doesn't sound too good, but I'd like to spend a couple years there convincing myself.

—14 hours' sleep in five days is hard to catch up.—Norman Brewer.

Library Services Are Outlined

Editor's Note — This is the second of two articles written by Robert Kemper, instructor of library science, to explain the function and problems of Forsyth Library.

Forsyth Library attempts to offer students and faculty all services provided by outstanding college libraries throughout the nation.

Included in the services is the attempt to have complete bibliographical control of necessary material in areas vital to instructional programs of the college.

Although complete bibliographic control has not been achieved here, or in any other college library, the program has been coordinated through the available public shelf list, the card catalog, comprehensive periodical indexes, government document bibliographies and catalogs, the inter-library loan program and the acquisitions program, where all available bibliographies of value to researchers are purchased.

The library provides in its acquisitional policies for sizeable and constantly renewed collections of materials for class and individual use. Regular class visits to the library by students and visits by librarians to the classrooms are also provided.

Forsyth Library is a laboratory for research and study where students learn to work alone or in groups. It is organized to serve individual differences and to work with every student according to his needs and abilities, providing challenge and stimulation in areas of their interests.

Although its resources are carefully selected to meet the needs of the college curriculum, they offer the patron the opportunity to extend the boundaries of his knowledge and experience, and to explore and satisfy curiosities beyond the requirements of the classroom.

The library program also includes help to students through instructional leaflets and courses in library science. Further study is currently being done to include instruction to all students in the use of the library, a skill that is important in college and will develop students who are life-long users of libraries.

Union Plans Fifth Birthday Celebration for This Weekend

By Deanna Johnson
Leader Editorial Assistant

"The living room of the campus," better known as the Memorial Union, will celebrate its fifth birthday this weekend.

Highlighting the celebration will be a birthday dance at 9 p.m. Friday in the Black and Gold Room and a concert by the Chad Mitchell Trio at 8 p.m. Saturday in Sheridan Coliseum.

Looking backward, a student wonders how the college managed without the Union. It is where he (the student) goes to relax with a cup of coffee between classes, play a game of ping pong or pool, meet a friend or eat lunch. It is also where most of the organizational meetings are held and where many of the annual dances take place.

Actually, the history of the Union began at the 1939 Homecoming. Plans were drawn for a memorial building but were shelved until after World War II. However, a Union building fee was established in 1944.

During the war, the old gymnasium (now Martin Allen Hall) was converted into a social building, and served as such until the Memorial Union was dedicated at Homecoming in October of 1958, 19 years after the original Union proposal.

The Union was built and financed exclusively by students, faculty, alumni and friends of the college. The building was completed at a cost of $800,000, but no state funds were used in constructing or furnishing the building. Students pay a fee each semester to help support the Union.

The Memorial Union is the realization of a dream of students, staff and faculty members. It stands as a memorial to the men of Fort Hays State who lost their lives in the defense of their country during two world wars and the Korean conflict. A bronze and walnut plaque in the lobby of the Union lists the names of the FHS men to whom the building is dedicated.

The Memorial Union is more than a student union because staff, faculty, alumni and friends have also played a large part in its development.

Welty Honored With Life Membership

Dr. Raymond L. Welty, FHS professor of history who retired last spring, was honored by Phi Kappa Phi by being elected recently to emeritus life membership in the national honor society.

In other business by the chapter, the Committee for the Promotion of Advanced Study set a meeting for interested students in such study for Wednesday at 4 p.m. in the Black Room of the Memorial Union.

Phi Kappa Phi also voted to begin a new project to recognize freshmen who show academic excellence. This project will be supervised by the Honors Convocation Committee, under the direction of Paul Friesner, chairman of division of libraries.

The group is preparing for the election of new members and the selection of a junior scholar.

Science Teachers Meet Here Nov. 13

Biology and physics teachers from Northwest Kansas are being invited to a seminar and science program at FHS Wednesday.

New approaches to teaching high school biology and physics will be discussed at the afternoon session beginning at 1 p.m. Sessions will be in Albertson Hall and the Memorial Union.

A dinner, sponsored by Southwestern Bell Telephone Co., is planned at 6 p.m. in the Union, followed by Bell's "Aid to High School Science Teaching Program." Bell engineers from Topeka will present the program.

Dr. David Pierson, assistant professor of biology, is coordinating the event. The seminars are designed to provide a basic understanding of what is involved in the various teaching approaches and give teachers an opportunity to discuss common problems and approaches in teaching.

I WAS A TEEN-AGE SLIDE RULE

In a recent learned journal (Playboy) the distinguished board chairman (Ralph "Hot Lips" Sigafoos) of one of our most important American industrial corporations (the Arf Mechanical Dog Co.) wrote a trenchant article in which he pinpointed our single most serious national problem: the lack of culture among science graduates.

Let me hasten to state that Mr. Sigafoos's article was in no sense derogatory. He said emphatically that the science graduate, what with his gruelling curriculum in physics, math, and chemistry, can hardly be expected to find time to study the arts too. What distresses Mr. Sigafoos—and, indeed, all of us—is the lopsided result of today's science courses: graduates who can build a skyscraper but can't compose a concerto; who know Newton's Third Law but not Beethoven's Fourth Symphony; who are familiar with Fraunhofer's lines but not with Shelley's.

The lopsided result of today's science

Mr. Sigafoos can find no solution to this lamentable imbalance. I, however, believe there is one—and a very simple one. It is this: if students of science don't have time to come to the arts, then the arts must come to students of science.

For example, it would be a very easy thing to teach poetry and music right along with physics. Students, instead of being called upon merely to recite, would instead be required to rhyme their answers and set them to familiar tunes—like, for instance, the stirring Colonel Bogey March. Thus recitations would not only be chock-a-block with important facts but would, at the same time, expose the students to the aesthetic delights of great poetry and music. Here, try it yourself. You all know The Colonel Bogey March. Come, sing along with me:

Physics
Is what we learn in class.
Einstein
Said energy is mass.
Newton
Is high-falutin'
And Pascal's a rascal. So's Boyle.

Do you see how much more broadening, how much more uplifting it is to learn physics this way? Of course you do. What? You want another chorus? By all means:

Leyden
He made the Leyden jar.
Trolley
He made the Trolley car.
Curie
Rode in a surrey
And Diesel's a weasel. So's Boyle.

Once the student has mastered The Colonel Bogey March, he can go on to more complicated melodies like Death and Transfiguration, Sixteen Tons, and Boo-Hoo.

And when the student, loaded not only with science but with culture, leaves his classroom and lights his Marlboro Cigarette, how much more he will enjoy that filter, that flavor, that pack or box! Because there will no longer be a little voice within him repeating that he is culturally a dolt. He will know—know joyously—that he is a complete man, a fulfilled man, and he will bask and revel in the pleasure of his Marlboro as a colt rolls in new grass—exultant and triumphant—a truly educated human person—a credit to his college, to himself, and to his tobaccoist!

© 1963 Max Shulman

We, the makers of Marlboros and sponsors of this column, urge you not to roll colt-wise in the grass if you are carrying a soft pack of Marlboros in your pocket. If, however, you are carrying the crush-proof box and weigh less than 200 pounds, you may safely fling yourself about.

Tiger Harriers Defeat Wichita U., Sharpen Up for CIC Meet Upset

The eighth annual Central Inter-collegiate Conference cross country meet will be held here for the first time in six years at 2 p.m. Saturday at the Fort Hays Country Club.

The Tigers will be out to break Emporia State's seven-year winning streak. They have captured the four-mile crown ever since the sport was introduced into the conference in 1956.

Alex Francis, cross country coach, commented it should be a battle between the two schools. FHS has taken runner-up honors six times and third once. Pittsburg State placed second in 1960.

In the past two years, the Bengals placed second to the Hornets in the NAIA meet. Emporia has copped the national crown four times in seven years.

Last year in the conference meet FHS was hampered by injuries and illness, but captured five of the first ten places for second with 30 points. E-State was only four points below the Tigers. P-State had 79 points for third and Washburn University entered individual runners, but did not compete as a team.

This season, FHS and E-State have met four times, each winning two, but Emporia has had one of their top five runners out of action both times.

"I've received notices from E-State and Omaha University that they'll be coming. Washburn and P-State haven't let me know, but have participated in cross country this season," said Francis.

"This year's team has improved and my first five men are the best I have ever had," continued Francis.

The other four runners who scored for the Tigers in the dual meet were Jerry Hertel, third; Charlie Rose, fourth; Lowell Smith, fifth, and Jack Harms, sixth.

Cal Elmore, Wichita's No. 1 man, placed second. He was 15½ seconds behind Lakin.

Tigers Tackle Ichabods in Homecoming Bout Saturday

After picking up their second straight victory by defeating Southern Colorado State, 18-14, the Fort Hays State Tigers invade Washburn University Saturday afternoon at 1:30 p.m. intending to put a damper on the Ichabod's homecoming.

Washburn University, leading the league in passing and rushing defense, sports a 2-6 record. The Ichabods have won four games, but had to forfeit over Northwest Missouri and Central Missouri for using an ineligible player.

The Ichabods are led by quarterback Bill Harper, who has played also with Drake University and Cameron (Okla.) Juco.

In reviewing Saturday's game, Coach Wayne McConnell was pleased with the offensive ground attack in the first half, especially the 80-yard drive by the Bengals and the 83-yard punt return by Max VanLaningham. McConnell praised Dudley Fryman, Dave Jones, Larry Noffsinger, and Bob Anthony with outstanding blocking which enabled VanLaningham to score on the long jaunt.

Bob Johnson again played a good game at quarterback, being lauded by McConnell for his passing.

Besides the regular drills this week, the Tigers are working on the mistakes which cost them the two touchdowns. McConnell's prime concern is using the ends, tackles, linebackers and halfbacks to work as one unit.

In Saturday's game, the Fort Hays State Tigers jumped out to an 18-0 halftime lead and then outlasted a strong second half comeback by Southern Colorado State College to notch an 18-14 victory over the Indians at Lewis Field Stadium.

It was the second straight victory for the Bengals after four consecutive losses. The Bengals now are 2-4-1 and Southern Colorado is 2-5-0.

The two halves seemed to reverse themselves as the Tigers, marching to what appeared a possible rout in the first half, only to have the Indians dominate the play after intermission.

FHS tallied its three touchdowns on scoring passes by quarterback Johnson to Cliff Leiker and Jesse Kennis and a school-record punt return by VanLaningham. The old record was 80 yards by Kayo McGillivray in 1951.

VanLaningham took a Cal Headrick punt on his own 20, cut back to the 17 and sprinted 83 yards for the second Tiger tally.

The first Bengal TD came on a 16-yard toss from Johnson to Leiker, capping an 80-yard drive and the final score came on a pass also from Johnson, this time to Kennis for 18 yards.

Johnson consistently kept the Indians on their toes with wide rollouts which netted him 87 yards on a school-record of 31 carries. Johnson netted 101 yards in the first half only to be thrown for several large losses in the final period to bring down his total.

Southern Colorado scored its first touchdown to climax a 92-yard drive in 13 plays with halfback Chet Foster passing to end Tony Sarno in the end zone on a 29-yard TD pass.

With 1:25 left in the game, Foster broke loose for a 63-yard sprint that netted the second Indian tally.

Leading the Tigers in tackles were Jones with 11, Ronnie Morel with 10, Fryman with nine, and Kirk Pope with seven.
