Funds Earmarked For New Library

A total of $960,000 earmarked for construction of a new library is included in the $1,365,547 capital improvements expenditures recommended for FHS by Gov. John Anderson in his budget message to the Legislature.

A & L Presents 'Henry IV' Next

The Canadian Players will present Shakespeare's "Henry IV, Part One" in the next Artists and Lectures Series performance at 8 p.m. Feb. 11 in Sheridan Coliseum. The ticket exchange will start Monday in the Memorial Union.

Since the processing of student activity tickets will not be completed for the ticket exchange, the green IBM card will be accepted and punched for the purpose of obtaining tickets.

The Canadian Players will include three of the first graduating class of Canada's new National Theatre School. Directing the play is Desmond Scott who is also connected with the National Theatre School.

In the cast for "Henry IV" are: Peter Haskell—Prince Hal, Ron Bishop—Falstaff, Felix Munso—Henry IV, Ted D'Arms—Hotspur, Mary Benning—Lady Percy, John Davies—Glendower, John Hechet—Mortimer, Nancy Shaffner—Lady Mortimer, Jerry Martin—Prince John, Leo Leyden—Bardolph, Joyce Campion—Mistress Quickly, and Eric Donkin—Sherriff.

Ron Bishop, who has starred on Broadway, in Winnipeg, Vancouver and Toronto, besides innumerable other United States centers joins Eric Donkin, a Canadian whose work is known right across Canada and whose experience includes a seven month run as lead in a revue in Montreal.

Leo Leyden, an alumnus of Canadian Players, originally from the famous Abbey Theatre in Dublin, now one of those actors who works alternately between Canada and New York, is back with Mary Benning, star of last year's "Twelfth Night" production and who has been playing in England between Canadian Players tours.

Directly from New York are actors Ted D'Arms, Peter Haskell and Felix Munso, and directly from England is Patrick Blackwell, all established and talented performers of considerable experience.

The Players will perform in 24 states this tour.

President Won't Intervene In UCF Funds Squabble

President M. C. Cunningham's decision not to overrule All-Student Council's allocation of funds for United Christian Fellowship will result in the disposal of $150 to UCF.

The president chose not to voice an opinion on the issue, but said that he did not believe he should overrule action taken by ASC except in the most extreme cases.

The action against the allocation of funds, instigated by Mike Butler, Tom Smith and Bill Adams, was headed for Student Court, but the trio decided to take it to the president because they didn't "feel Student Court was qualified."

"After discussing this with the administration, we feel that we have exhausted all feasible courses of action on campus," they stated.

However, they also said that this decision does not alter their opinderson in his budget message to the Legislature.

The funds are pending legislative approval and work on the library cannot begin until late next summer, since the funds will not be available until July 1 when the 1964 fiscal year begins.

Currently the library is scheduled to be built south of the present library and east of Malloy Hall, the new speech and music center now under construction.

Forsyth Library, built in 1926, will be remodeled into a classroom and administration building.

Of the proposed appropriation, $395,547 is to go to the dormitory fund. Walter Keating, comptroller, said the dormitory allocation is not designated for any specific purpose, but is expected to be used to construct an addition to McMindes Hall, women's residence.

The $10,000 to be used for equipment will go primarily to industrial arts, according to Keating.

Among the six state colleges and universities, the total capital improvements expenditures recommended for FHS was second only to the University of Kansas' $2,751,000.

In addition to the improvement funds, Gov. Anderson recommended a $4,436,874 operating budget for the college.

Ugly Man Contest Plans Announced

Plans have been completed for the Ugly Man contest sponsored by Alpha Phi Omega, national service fraternity.

As now stipulated, professors are safe, since they cannot be nominated for this title, although they are eligible to vote.

Students must be sponsored by any organization which believes him ugly enough to merit an investment of $2. All entries must be accompanied by a 5x7 photograph of the nominee in a ridiculous pose, and the uglier the better.

Voting will be done by dropping pennies into the pocket of any Alpha Phi Omega member and prizes are offered. The ugly man will receive a plaque and a larger trophy will be awarded the organization sponsoring him.

In addition to this, a check will be presented to the Endowment Assn. by APO.

An entry deadline has not been set.

ion on the points of law involved. "Regardless of one's views on the validity of such laws, they should be upheld as long as they are laws," they commented.

They believed they were being forced to support religion.

"We are not non-Christian," but we believe in separation of church and state and feel that support of religious groups should be voluntary."

The issue had previously been sent to Student Court Attorney General Robert Ochs, who found in favor of UCF. The group had then taken it to President Cunningham, deciding to abide by his decision, rather than take it to Student Court.

Before being turned over to Ochs, state Attorney General William Ferguson had been asked for a decision, but he was of the opinion that this was a matter which should be settled on campus.

Debaters Travel To Harvard

FHS debaters are meeting several top flight debate teams in the oldest and biggest debate tournament in the country which opens today at Harvard University.

FHS debaters Rex Gaskill, Hutchinson senior; Jone Burris, Hays junior, and Jim Costigan, debate coach, left Tuesday for the eight round tourney, which will include more than 100 schools. They will return Sunday.

The debate topic is "All high school graduates should be guaranteed a higher education by the federal government."

Last year Gaskill and Dan McGovern, Upland, Calif., registered a 6-2 record, and were rated 34 and 33 among the 216 speakers.

The debate team won seven rounds and lost five at the Pittsburgh State College tournament last weekend.

Gaskill and Miss Burris, in the senior division, broke even in six preliminary rounds and failed to qualify for the elimination bouts. It was the first time since Gaskill's return from student teaching that the two have debated as a team.

They defeated Washburn University, University of Houston and Kearney State and lost to Southwest Missouri State, Northwestern University and Tabor College.

Steve Tramel, freshman, and Richard Scott, sophomore, both from Atchison, won over Oklahoma University, Oklahoma City U., Oklahoma State U., and Iowa State U., then lost to the University of Wichita and Southwest Missouri.

Gaskill was the only FHS entry to qualify for the final rounds of individual events. He scored among the top six of 40 orators, but failed to place among the winners.

The tourney drew teams from 40 colleges and universities in the Midwest. Southwest Missouri was the sweetstakes winner.

3 Missionaries Will Be Guests At Wesley Foundation

Three missionaries will be special guests of the Wesley Foundation Saturday and Sunday.

They are Jean Marie Powell, a missionary for five years in Korea; Mrs. Irvin Unruh, a wife of a missionary in India, and Dr. Charles Stephens, who spent a month in Southern Rhodesia in Africa.

The trio will acquaint students on the mission of the church around the world and explain their work.

They will be speaking to the college church school, Sunday evening forum and church services at the First Methodist Church.

Students interested in talking with these persons should contact the Wesley Office.

Memorial Union To Serve Japanese Gourmet Dinner

A Japanese gourmet dinner, sponsored by the Memorial Union food service department and the variety committee, will be held at 6:30 p.m. Sunday in the Union Black and Gold Room.

Reservations for the dinner can be made at the Union information desk. All reservations are $2 per person.

The dinner, complete with a full-sized teahouse, garden and pool, will feature authentic Japanese cuisine. It is one of a series of gourmet dinners.

Loan Fund Needs Boost; Students Give Over $1,500

Student loans may soon be curtailed if $15,000 is not raised by Feb. 20.

The Endowment Assn. needs to raise $2,000 of this sum by Jan. 30 or will lose part of the allotment from the National Defense Student Loan Fund, according to Kent Collier, executive secretary of the Endowment Assn.

Voluntary contributions have again been asked of students as they passed through the enrollment line. Collier said that he hoped the project would exceed the $1,239 collected during the fall enrollment.

The Endowment Assn. had received more than $1,570 from students enrolling by 11 a.m. Wednesday morning. This far surpasses the $1,238.78 total collected last semester. Kent Collier, association secretary, said they expected to receive approximately $1,650 to $1,700 by the time enrollment was over.

About $13,000 is needed to provide the college's share of United Student Aids loans, Collier noted.

Collier explained that the U.S.A. loans are available to more students than the federally-sponsored National Defense loans, which are given only to students majoring in certain fields.

He said that the U.S.A. loan is popular because, "Students apparently like the idea of borrowing from their home-town banks, and bankers appreciate the fact that the college and the United Student Aids Fund guarantee the loans."

The United Student Aids Fund was established by business and industry to provide private rather than public funds for lending to college students.

Through the U.S.A. Fund plan the college contributes $1 and the U.S.A. Fund provides up to $20 for each dollar. Last year FHS invested $5,000 and received $100,000 for lending to students.

ASC Discusses Instruction After Dick Outlines Problems

The All-Student Council barely raised a quorum to do business Tuesday evening, but those present discussed at length the problem of setting up machinery to handle teacher evaluation.

Dr. Dale Dick, chairman of the faculty improvement of Instruction Committee, spoke to the 13 council members present concerning the problem of getting an honest critical evaluation of teachers from students. Dick said that a "dialogue" between faculty and students was needed to provide the faculty with knowledge of how they are doing.

He said that young instructors are looking for criteria by which they can set their teaching.

The Council moved to have the committee headed by Phil Aldrich, Garfield senior, that has previously worked with the faculty instruction committee find the most feasible method of acquiring information.

A motion was passed to send no more than 20 students to the first annual Student Leadership Prayer Breakfast at Kansas University Sunday. It was agreed to have the Council finance the trip. Eldon Fleury, Council chairman, is in charge of the group.

Ron Hosie, Abilene senior, was elected Junior Rotarian of the Month.

Kent Leichter, president of Associated Students, appointed Bill Adams, Colby junior, and Richard Scott, Atchison sophomore, as replacements for Gloria Dizman, Holyrood junior, and Jim Windholz, Hays senior, on the Student Court. His selections were approved.

Student Council also set Feb. 14 as the date for the CIC Student Council Conference, to be held on the FHS campus.

Hours Too Early

In a recent All-Student Council meeting the possibility of initiating senior keys or simply lengthening closing hours was discussed.

Both ideas or a combination of them has merit, but lengthening hours for all coeds living in residence halls seems most feasible.

We believe that closing hours in the coed residence halls are too strict. When women enter college we assume that they are responsible enough to manage their time and behavior day and night.

Present hours are 10:30 on weekdays, 12:30 on Friday and Saturday and 11 on Sundays. We would recommend a one-hour increase on Friday, Saturday and Sunday and a half-hour increase the rest of the week.

In addition to more freedom, such action would also provide studious coeds with more quiet since those who didn't want to hit the books would not be under foot. This "argument" was part of the thinking which resulted in the elimination of 9 p.m. hours for freshmen earlier this school year.

One stand for strict women's residence hall hours is that if the girls are home the men will also get off the streets. From observation and talking with men on campus, it seems this has little effect on men's hours.

It is understandable that such a change in hours would require some additional work on the part of the housemothers and increase expenses through the hiring of extra help. However, we fail to see where this can be so extreme that it is insurmountable, and with fewer women in the residence halls, some expenses would naturally take some decrease.

One more hour of freedom would be well deserved by responsible young women. Cages won't change a tiger's stripes.

Nursing Tests Saturday For High School Seniors

High school senior girls planning to enter schools of nursing next fall will be on campus to take pre-nursing examinations Saturday.

Those taking the tests required for admission to any accredited school of nursing, will report to Rarick Hall by 8 a.m.

Two later dates for taking tests are March 21 and May 2. Applicants must send in advance for the necessary forms, pay the required fee and designate the school of nursing they plan to attend.

Brewings

Some of us cried when grades came out, others got plastered and a few straightened up, threw out their chests and said, "What was your grade point?" Naturally, they expected you to ask the same.

This column will be directed toward the first two groups. After all, how dull life would be if everyone fell into the third category. A typical conversation would go something like, "2.65," said he.

"2.34," she cooed back.

"2.89" came a masculine interruption.

Whereupon 2.34 and 2.89 ride off into the sunset.

But this is not the time to be playing with sunsets. Let us look ahead to bigger and better things, such as:

—increased bankruptcy.
—new courses we know nothing about, and probably never will.

—comparing pipes and tobaccos now that the government report is out, even though everyone knew months ago what it was going to say.

—fighting for seats in Sheridan Coliseum.

—driving on streets under repair in the name of progress.

—too early closing hours and not enough local entertainment.

—listening to dormant instructors tell dirty war stories and over-enthusiastic ones comment on the per cent of students they are flunking out.

—probation and required courses.

—short nights and long days.

—dirty desks, typewriters and pencils without erasers.

—Ubangi hairdos.

—outdated texts that sell for $8.

—ASC, which has been defined as a conglomeration of improving uncertainty.

—more developments (if that is possible) concerning Liz, Richard and Ed.

—speculation on the final completion of McMindes Hall.

—sweating over grades, usually caused by the heat of bodies packed around a bar.

—bicycles on sidewalks, even though this is supposedly forbidden by college fathers (section 10 of Motor Vehicle Registration and Traffic Regulations for 1963-64).

—Union coffee, television and an election year, and that's quite a trio.

—eight a.m. classes.

—a trip to K. C.

—blazers for everyone.

By now I should have rubbed about everyone (including myself) the wrong way at least once. It looks like a good semester is in store.—Norman Brewer.

'The Man Everyone Knows' Ends Long Student Photography Stint

If the number of pictures a photographer takes has anything to do with the conditioning of his trigger finger, then 10,000 pictures should put Robert Carl Funk in A-1 shape.

Drawing from three years of Navy photography experience and 4½ years as photographer for the college news service, yearbook and newspaper, R. C. (as he's called by everyone) has become the best known photographer on campus.

Funk started the job on campus for a basic reason—he needed the money. Since that start, the initials R. C. and photography have become synonymous on the campus. There are a few, but not many, FHS students who haven't been photographed by Funk since he's been here.

Because of his job, the Wilson youth is, as one student says, "the man everyone knows." As he ended his college career last week, Funk has taken more than 10,000 pictures.

His assignments have included picturing such notables as the late John F. Kennedy, Academy award-winning actress Celeste Holm, singer Mahalia Jackson and many other celebrities who have visited the campus.

However, the meat of his job has not been photographing dignitaries. It's found in the everyday assignments he has taken so often—the student in the classroom or laboratory, the moment of excitement as a queen is crowned the concert choir rehearsing or the construction of a campus building.

He's also largely responsible for movies of Tiger athletic events which have been taken in recent years. Through rain, sleet, snow and dark of night his camera has clicked off a record of Tiger contests.

"Though I enjoy photography and certainly needed the money," he says, "the best aspect of the job was the people it enabled me to meet—faculty members and students whom I'd never met without my job."

Funk graduated from Wilson High School in 1956 and served three years in the Navy. He then enrolled at FHS. Like many college students, he had difficulty picking a major field and dabbled in geology, psychology, journalism and education before settling in business administration.

A year and a half ago he married Delores Chastil, a FHS student from Wichita.

With the degree in his pocket, Funk now has two typical college graduate objectives.

"I'd like to make a little money for a change," he says. "Here I am, almost 26 years old and I've never made over $2,000 in a single year. It's about time I became completely self-supporting for a change."

"Also, I'm looking forward to a new car. The old crate (a rusty blue sedan that has become almost as familiar as its driver) has about had it."

Temporary Permits Required For Cars

Temporary registration permits are to be issued to a student or staff member, at no charge, who brings a motor vehicle to the campus for a short period of time.

This includes vehicles which are to be registered, but for which the operator has not had time to obtain standard registration. Such vehicles are borrowed vehicles, parent's vehicles, dealer-owned vehicles being used while the owner's car is being repaired, etc.

Temporary registration stickers will be issued at the Dean of Students Office and residence halls.

The temporary registration permit should not be issued for a maximum time of more than seven days. If necessary, a second temporary registration may be issued.

These temporary registrations should not be used to replace regular registration stickers and cannot be used to park on campus where a parking permit is needed.

Students are also reminded that in section six of the traffic regulations it states that an appeal on a traffic ticket should be made within seven days of the date of the violation.

Matmen Face Busy Weekend at Home

FHS wrestling squad finishes a busy home schedule this weekend when they entertain Kearney (Neb.) State Friday night and Trinidad (Colo.) College Saturday night. Both meets will be at 7:30 p.m. in Sheridan Coliseum.

The Tigers go into the meets with a 2-3 record.

Earlier this season the grapplers, riddled with academic ineligibility this semester, defeated Kearney, 29-5, and walloped Trinidad last year, 30-0.

Ineligible this semester is Lee Albert, Wichita sophomore, who was the team's top scorer at 123 pounds; Glenn White, Newton freshman at 130 pounds; Bob Brown, Oberlin freshman at 137 pounds; and Don Keller, St. Francis junior who had expected to be eligible this semester.

FHS's lineup this weekend:
123 pounds—Roger Buck, Atwood sophomore.

130 pounds—Jim Noel, Wichita freshman.

137 pounds—Ed Hanson, Atwood freshman.

147 pounds—Tom Perkins, El Dorado freshman.

157 pounds—Dennis Hupfer, Russell freshman.

167 pounds—Pat Peterson, Clyde sophomore.

177 pounds—Delbert Erickson, Atwood senior.

Heavyweight—Jim Tinkler, Russell senior.

FHS bowed to Colorado University, 28-5, in a dual meet before 400 fans, one of the largest turnouts of the wrestling season, at Sheridan Coliseum Tuesday night.

Rated 10th in the nation, the Buffaloes won three bouts by pins, two by decision and one by default.

Hanson and Tinkler charted the points for FHS. Hanson won by a decision, 8-4, and Tinkler fought back from a 6-1 deficit in the second period to earn a 6-6 draw in the heavyweight class.

Colorado earned the five-point default at 167 pounds when Vic Lyczak, Northbrook, Ill., junior, suffered a sprained ankle and could not continue. According to Dave Winter, wrestling coach, Lyczak will probably be out of action this weekend.

Results:
123—Vic Tisone, CU, pinned Buck, 6:51.

130—John MacArthur, CU, pinned Noel, 4:17.

137—Hanson, FHS, decisioned Marvin Hein, 8-4.

147—Dave Ziegler, CU, decisioned Perkins, 8-0.

157—Jack Ford, CU, decisioned Hupfer, 13-0.

167—Leo DeRock, CU, won by default over Lyczak.

177—NCAA champ, Dean Lehr, CU, pinned Erickson, 3:54.

Heavyweight—Tinkler, FHS, and Rick Redd drew, 6-6.

Jayvees Journey To Kearney Today

Fort Hays State's junior varsity basketball squad, composed of all freshmen, will begin second semester play at Kearney (Neb.) State, today, however, the team will play again five days later, Tuesday, against McPherson Central College in Sheridan Coliseum.

The young Tigers are sporting a 7-2 record and have all five starters averaging in double figures. Guard Jerry Maska, averaging 17.1 points per game, leads center Ron Jamison, who is averaging 16.7.

Forwards Paul Graber and Rod Heitschmidt are averaging 13.4 points per game and guard Jim Tieszen has been able to score 11 points a game.

Cagers Win On Second Half Splurge

Fort Hays State's Tigers, down one point at halftime after a saw-saw battle during the first half, caught fire and raced past the Pittsburg State Gorillas, 108-93, in a CIC game played at Sheridan Coliseum Saturday night.

With the lead changing hands nearly 20 times, the Tigers finally went ahead to stay with 15:44 left in the contest on a driving shot by captain Sam McDowell.

Behind the steady shooting of McDowell, center Dick Schur, and reserve forward Jude Gerstner, the Bengals widened the lead to as much as 17 points at 101-84, as Gerstner's basket put FHS over the century mark.

Leading the scoring for the Tigers was McDowell with 17 free throws and six field goals for 29 points.

The Tigers hit 41 of 80 shots from the field for 51.2 per cent, while the Gorillas could manage only 37 per cent on 37 out of 100.

Tuesday—Washburn at St. Benedict's

Tigers Play Ravens, Indians on Road

Fort Hays State, with two conference victories since their loss to Omaha, Jan. 4, face former CIC member St. Benedict's Saturday at Atchison.

The Ravens, with a 5-6 record, defeated Washburn twice, 88-85 and 85-81 before losing their last three games to Rockhurst, Pittsburg, 92-75, and Emporia, 82-75.

Gordon Stout and Neal Kinlund, FHS Tiger basketball players, may not see action this weekend for the Tigers' two-game road trip, said Coach Cade Suran.

The two were hospitalized after a one-car accident Monday night. Both suffered numerous cuts and bruises.

Suran said, "Pending further examination and their release today or Friday, we just don't know if they'll be available for the trip."

Leading scorer for St. Benedict's is junior center Pat Hare, 6-6 transfer student from Dallas University. Hare leads the Ravens with 17.0 points-per-game average and leads the rebounders with 10.4 per game.

Following Hare in scoring is 6-½ sophomore, Mike Olson with 12.8; Joe Gillespie, 6-3 junior forward with 12.5; Don Schuerling, 5-11 freshman, with 9.4; George Kelley, 5-11 freshman, with 9.1, and Dick Maurer, 6-2½ sophomore with 9.0 average.

This will be the 49th meeting between the two clubs. The Tigers have won 25, the Ravens, 23, although the Ravens have defeated Cade Suran-coached teams 18 of 35 times.

This will be the first year St. Benedict's is independent since they joined the CIC in 1937. The Ravens won the CIC championship three times, 1953, 54, and 1958.

The Tigers move north Monday when they meet the Omaha University Indians, at Omaha.

This will be the second meeting between the Tigers and the Indians, the Indians took the last contest, 85-82, at Sheridan Coliseum.

Omaha sports a 9-7 record with six consecutive home victories.

Leading scorer for the Indians freshman Sam Singleton with a 18.8 average. Singleton also leads the rebounders with 11.5 per game.

Rounding out the starting five are 6-7 center Larry Villnow; 6-4 forward Mike Demkowski; 6-0 guard Paul Kaster; and 5-11 guard Charles Myers.

Omaha is in second place in the CIC with a 3-2 record, with victories over Pittsburg, Washburn and FHS and losses to Emporia and Pittsburg earlier in the season.

The Tiger squad will be boosted by four transfers. Joining the squad for second semester are Ed Walters, 6-3½ forward; Bill Strait, 6-2 forward; Johnnie Locke, 6-1 guard, and Keith Riley, 5-11 guard.
