ASC Argues Election Changes; Main Squabble Over Greeks

Action on a proposed change in election procedure, as set forth in an amendment to the Constitution of Associated Students, drew dissension and inconsistency in All-Student Council Tuesday night.

The amendment, brought before the council by Jean Oborny, men's residence hall representative, was found disfavorable in areas which would affect members of social fraternities and sororities.

7 Council Members Sport Perfect Attendance Records

The current members of All-Student Council have met nine times from Nov. 12, 1963 to Jan. 28 and seven of its 29 members have had perfect attendance records.

The members, number of meetings missed and whether or not they are voting members are as follows:

Phil Aldrich, 1, yes; Johnnye Appleton, 1, no; Mary Anderson, 2, no; Bev Claassen, 5, no; Rod Clausen, 6, no; Connie Congdon, 1, yes; Merwin Colburn, 3, yes; Bud Elliott, 1, yes; Eldon Fleury, 0, yes; Charles Fitzmeyer, 1, no; Dennis Garrison, 0, yes; Ron Hosie, 0, yes; George Kay, 4, yes; Carol Lipp, 5, no.

Kent Leichter, 0, no; Dave Meckenstock, 3, yes; Pat Mermis, 4, yes; Jean Oborny, 0, yes; Jerry Patterson, 2, yes; Larry Roberts, 2, yes; Jim Rock, 0, yes; Jane Schneebelen, 4, no; Jerry Sherrill, 1, yes; Judy Sipe, 0, yes; Tom Smith, 3, no; Clair Swann, 8, no; Bernadine Uhrich, 2, yes; Sandy Whitmore, 2, yes; and Mike Butler, 3, yes.

Leap Week Approaches; Dance Will Highlight

Feb. 23-28 are the dates set for Leap Week at FHS, with an official Sadie Hawkins dance held the 28th to complete the week's activities.

The funds raised during this week will be used to award a scholarship to a foreign student.

All housing groups are asked to present a candidate for the Daisy Mae and Bearded Joe elections. A 50c entry fee is required.

A traveling trophy is awarded to the organized housing group that wins the trophy for four consecutive years. The AKLs won last year's trophy, so a new one will be offered this year.

FHS Gets $58,400 Grant For Mathematics Institute

A $58,400 National Science Foundation grant has been awarded FHS to finance a summer mathematics institute for junior and senior high school teachers June 1 to July 31.

It is the fifth time in six years that FHS has been chosen as the site for a math institute. Earlier, a $31,300 award was made for a six-week chemistry institute.

A basic stipend of $675, an additional $135 for each dependent up to four and a travel allowance will be granted to the 40 teachers selected. However, participation will not be restricted to stipend holders.

To be eligible, teachers must have a bachelor's degree with a minimum of 15 semester hours' credit in mathematics, including trigonometry.

Under examination by the council was Section 1, which lists the requirements for persons running for office from various living groups.

Oborny's proposal stated that representatives from residence halls or the unmarried, unorganized district cannot be "a pledge or a member" of a social fraternity or sorority.

On vote of the council, this amendment was changed to allow pledges to be residence hall representatives.

An identical move involving unmarried students living in unorganized housing ended in a 6-6 deadlock, defeating the amendment.

One of the arguments for this amendment change was voiced by Merwin Colburn, unmarried, unorganized students representative, who contended that if a member of a social organization had the initiative to run for such an office, it was his right to do so. He is a member of Sigma Phi Epsilon.

Requirements for sorority, fraternity and married students representatives passed with little opposition.

The amendment stated that representatives of sororities and fraternities must be members of such a group during the entire term of office, and that a married students representative must be married.

Kent Leichter, president of Associated Students, commented: "It is strange that fraternities and sororities don't want non-members to represent them."

Four other sections of the amendment, concerning voting, filling of vacancies, change of living districts and when these changes would go into effect if passed, were postponed until the next ASC meeting.

Sheryl Sheets, president of Tigerettes, inquired why the council had recommended at an earlier meeting the elimination of seats for the Tigerettes and Kit Kats.

Jim Rock, Abilene senior, said that a primary reason was to draw attention to the problem, because several students were of the opinion that more support for the basketball team could be gained from fans.

Bud Elliot said that they weren't doing an adequate job and seemed to have "no interest in the game."

However, Carol Lipp, ASC member and head cheerleader, stated, "When the Tigerettes are there, it helps. They start things."

1,200 Musicians Expected For Statewide Meetings Here

Adults attending two state conventions and nearly 600 students will bring about 1,200 persons to the FHS campus Feb. 13 to Feb. 15.

The Kansas Music Teachers Assn. will convene Feb. 13 and members of the Kansas Music Educators Assn. will open their convention the following day.

At the same time, music groups from Kansas high schools and colleges will come for performances at the various sessions, including the all-state band, all-state orchestra and all-state chorus.

These three groups will begin rehearsals Friday morning, Feb. 14.

Choral Auditions on Tap

Choral auditions will be held at the beginning of this semester for persons on campus not now participating in a choral organization, but would like to. Interested persons should see Donald Stout, assistant professor of music, in the Coliseum, room 307.

and present a joint concert at the final convention session Saturday evening in Sheridan Coliseum.

A number of other performing groups will come for specific sessions.

Among the special events planned for the convention are auditions by 17 high school pianists and a comparable number of string players. The first place winners in each category will qualify for entry in the West Central regional auditions in Kansas City in April, competing with winners from 12 states. From there the winner will play in the national finals later in the spring.

All-Time Spring High

Enrollment Tops 3,750; Up 10 Per Cent Over 1963

A total of 3,754 students have enrolled thus far at Fort Hays State for second semester, according to Standlee V. Dalton, registrar.

This enrollment, a 10.25 per cent increase over last spring's enrollment at this time, includes 2,325 men and 1,420 women. "The picking should be good for women this semester, considering that 63 per cent of the enrollment is men," said Dalton.

Canadian Group To Do Henry IV

The Canadian Players will open Fort Hays State College's second semester Artists and Lectures Series with part one of William Shakespeare's "Henry IV" at 8 p.m. Feb. 11 in Sheridan Coliseum.

"Henry IV," completed by Shakespeare in 1599, was written in two parts. The first part, which has become one of the most popular historical plays, deals with the turbulent reign of Henry Bolingbroke, the rise of Henry Percy (called Hotspur) and the reformation of the king's oldest son, also named Henry and called Hal.

This play introduces some of the best loved characters in all Shakespeare's works. Hotspur is a favorite role with leading actors and the character Sir John Falstaff is one of the great comics of all time.

Ron Bishop, a native of New Haven, Conn., plays the role of "Falstaff" in the play. Bishop has appeared on Broadway and tours since 1940. Ted D'Arms, New York, plays the part of Hotspur.

The play introduces some of the best loved characters in Shakespeare's works and offers a combination of comedy and drama in equal parts.

Fees Payment Starts Today

Students are asked to pay fees at the business office from 8 to 5 according to the following schedule: Today, A-C; Friday, D-H; Monday, I-M; Tuesday, N-Sm; and Wednesday, Sn-Z.

Class breakdown of the enrollment is as follows: 1,092 freshmen, 823 sophomores, 746 juniors, 690 seniors, 264 graduates, 109 post graduates, 28 unclassified and 2 non-credit students.

Class rosters, only a small part of the data to be released by the IBM machines, were issued this week by the IBM machine to the instructors. Besides other data, the machines are now processing fee cards. Dalton advised students with difficult names to spell, or names out of the ordinary, to check the rosters to make sure that the machine had the names spelled correctly. He also reminded students that they must pay their fees at the appointed time or they will be withdrawn from their classes by the machines.

"We are well pleased with the new IBM processing of enrollment," said Dalton. "So far, everything has gone very smoothly."

'Buck Passers' Donate $1,862 To Aid Program

FHS students contributed $1,862 to the Endowment Assn.'s "Buck passing" campaign for student loan matching funds during enrollment.

This semester's contributions exceeded last semester's $1,238 by $860.

The total of more than $3,100 will provide over $31,000 in National Defense Student Loans, a federal government program, or up to $62,000 under United Student Aids loans, a private plan.

"We anticipate that we need $30,000 for matching funds in 1964," said Kent Collier, executive secretary of the Endowment Assn.

The needed money must come from private donations, including student's dollars contributed during the summer and fall semesters.

About one-half the student body made $1 contributions to the Endowment Assn. during this semester's enrollment procedure.

Approximately one in three students donated money in the "buck passing" campaign last fall.

Students were given the chance to give to National Defense or to United Student Aids.

"The choices were about equally divided," Collier said, "with a slight edge for National Defense. This shows, I think, that despite the lower interest rate, longer repayment time and the forgiveness clause in the NDSL plan, students like the idea of borrowing from private funds in the U.S.A. program."

Gaskill Ranks 18th at Harvard

Fort Hays State debaters fared very well in the big Harvard University debate tournament last weekend and Rex Gaskill, Hutchinson senior, ranked 18th among more than 200 debaters competing in the event.

Jane Burris, Hays junior, and Gaskill, downed five opponents and lost to three. One more win would have placed them in the final section of the meet.

The Hays duo dropped rounds to Ohio State University and Harvard who went on to the final rounds, and to Randolph-Macon of Virginia. They won over Boston University, Hunter College of New York, University of Wisconsin, Bates College of Maine and Macalester College of Minnesota.

The meet annually draws more than 100 teams from all parts of the nation.

Each youth pictured, Harold Weinhold of Sylvan Grove (left) and Larry Roberts of Pratt, spent more than 75 hours to construct a model for a Fort Hays State College industrial arts class assignment. 84 Outstanding Prep Seniors Expected for 'Muster Day'

Eighty-four seniors from 51 schools will attend a "muster day" for outstanding high school seniors on the campus of Fort Hays State Saturday.

The program, designed to give the students a look at the college's faculty, curriculum and facilities, is for seniors who have scored at the 87th percentile or above on the American College Tests, been a semifinalist on the National Merit Scholarship tests or been recommended by their high school principals.

Registration at 9:30 a.m. in the Memorial Union heads the day's activities. During the morning the guests will also visit with advisers and other faculty members in their fields of interest and become acquainted with such things as the Honors Program, college requirements, fees, housing and student aids.

Members of Alpha Lambda Delta and Phi Eta Sigma, freshman honor societies, will be hosts for the students at lunch in one of the residence halls and fraternities and sororities will hold social hours in the afternoon.

The students will be guests at

Cast Picked for Poise 'n' Ivy Concert Will Feature Pop Music

A three-act comedy about a Broadway group preparing for opening night, "Light Up the Sky," will be presented April 1 and 2 in the Memorial Union by 12 FHS students.

The play, written by Moss Hart, reveals the unreal world of theater. "I think that the first act of this play is one of the best ever written," said Al Dunavan, associate professor of speech, and director. "The characters make it a great comedy throughout."

Staging of the play will be done "in-the-round." "This allows the audience to step right into the action providing intimate theater," said Dunavan.

Cast members chosen by Dunavan and the parts they play are as follows: Richard Boss, Hill City senior—a flamboyant Broadway director; Becky Ragan, Ellis junior—Irene Livingston, a successful Broadway actress; Richard Boyle, Great Bend junior—Peter Sloan, a serious actor; Glenda Spicer, Hays senior—Stella Livingston, Irene's mother; Linda Ohlmeier, La Crosse sophomore—a secretary given the task of writing Irene's autobiography; Mary Taylor, Hays sophomore—Frances Black, a former ice skating star; Pat McAtee, Ellsworth junior—Sidney Black, hard-nosed businessman who is financing a Broadway play; Rex Gaskill, Hutchinson senior—Owen Turner, a successful author; Richard Wolf, Colby post graduate—Tyler Rayburn, Irene's husband; Jim Wiseman, Goodland sophomore—William H. Gallagher, a Shriner; Arthur King, a Shriner; and Vic Vishnyske, Salina sophomore—a plainclothesman.

The only "all-pops" concert of the year will be presented by FHS "volunteer" musicians at the fourth annual Poise 'n' Ivy concert.

Three groups composed of non-music majors, the Impromptuos, Men's Glee Club and Women's Glee Club, will have a two-night stand, presenting selections from Broadway shows, as well as other popular music, at 8 p.m. Feb. 21 and 22 in the Coliseum. Mary Maude Moore, assistant professor of music, is director of the show.

Proceeds from the performances are earmarked for the Wooster Endowment Fund. Tickets will be $1.

Assisting Miss Moore in the production are Al Dunavan, associate professor of speech, master of ceremonies; Richard Boss, set designer; Joe Terry and Dunavan, lighting; and Billie Allen and Suzanne Resler, instructor of physical education, choreography.

Soloists for the show will be Suzanne Day-Woods, Lawrence; Jane Wood, Hays freshman; Ernie Miller, Liberal senior; Mary Ann Schnoebelen, Lewis sophomore; Glenda Spicer, Hays senior; and Bill Huttanus, instructor of languages.

A special feature of the show will be three numbers whose lyrics and music were composed by Val Stecklein, Hays. The Impromptuos will perform these songs.

Under the name of Pops Concert, this production was first staged in 1961 as a one-nighter. In 1962 this concert was entitled Poise and Ivy, and has since been streamlined to Poise 'n' Ivy.

The performances have been given in the Memorial Union in the past, but because of its rapid growth and success, it requires the bigger accommodations of the Coliseum.

Reports were given by the three student members of the board. Dorothy Scovil, Hutchinson junior, told about the Ecumenical Conference she attended in Ohio, and Clinton Pearce, Blue Rapids senior, and JoNelle Carley, Hays freshman, about the work camp at Larned State Hospital between semesters.

Leaders Attend KU Prayer Breakfast

Fourteen young leaders represented Fort Hays State at the first annual Student Leadership Breakfast held Sunday at Kansas University.

The breakfast was a duplicate of the Presidential Prayer Breakfasts held annually in the nation's capital. Both breakfasts are nondenominational.

At the breakfast were such notables as Gov. John Anderson and Republican Representative William Avery. Swede Anderson, president of the student body at Colorado University, gave the primary address.

All of the Kansas colleges were represented with nearly 400 students in attendance.

A Fort Hays Stater, Roger Moffet, Liberal senior, said that the people in attendance were a sophisticated group and are proud that they know and understand God. He said that this caliber of people show the correlation between God, leadership and responsibility.

Reading Textbook By Dr. Dechant Is Now Available

Dr. Emerald V. Dechant, associate professor at FHS, is the author of a new book, "Improving the Teaching of Reading."

The 568-page book was published by Prentice-Hall and released this month. It describes the nature of the reading process in the various stages of reading development.

The volume emphasizes materials used to teach reading, problems associated with "learning to read" and "reading to learn" and teaching techniques. It is directed at teachers in training, reading specialists and reading supervisors.

He co-authored an earlier text, "Psychology in Teaching Reading," and also is co-author of a series of tapes and workbook, "Listen and Read."

A native of Hays, Dechant holds a bachelor's degree from Pontifical College Josephinum in Ohio, a master's degree from FHS and doctorate of philosophy from the University of Kansas. He was assistant director of the reading clinic at KU from 1956-58 and taught at Wichita University in 1958-59.

For Life," exploring personal and group concerns; "Sex in the Christian Life," and "Present Trends in Christian Thought."

The first meeting for "Living Dimensions in Sound" will be tonight at 7 p.m. at 710 Park Drive. The organizational meeting for "Sex in the Christian Life" will be today at 4 p.m. at the Wesley Foundation.

Art Faculty Exhibit In Kansas, Nebraska

Work by three members of the FHS art faculty is being shown in exhibits in Kansas and Nebraska.

Dr. Joel Moss, department head, and John Berland are exhibiting in an invitational sculpture show at the Mulvane Art Museum in Topeka and Leroy Twarogowski has three pieces in the eighth midwest biennial exhibition at the Joslyn Art Museum, Omaha.

Moss is showing earthenware, stoneware sculpture and two abstract drawings and Berland two bronze sculpture pieces and two drawings. Twarogowski entries are sterling silver items. A graduate student, Harriet Becker of La Crosse, is also exhibiting. A pastel portrait by Mrs. Becker has been accepted for the annual showing sponsored by Macy's Department Store in Kansas City, Mo. Artists from 10 states are entered in the show.

Harriet Becker, La Crosse graduate student, entered a pastel drawing, "Ann," in the annual Macy's "Living with Art" exhibit. The show is juried by several judges and the prize paintings are added to Macy's "Living with Art" collection. The show was open to artists in a ten-state area.

Art Graduates Show in Davis

Three recent graduates of FHS will display their work in the February art show in Davis Hall.

Gary E. Coulter of Hastings, Neb., Jim Hinkhouse of Lawrence, Mo., and Darrell McGinnis of Maryville, Mo., the three exhibitors, will be in Hays Saturday at an informal opening of the show in the lounge-gallery at Davis Hall. The public is invited.

Coulter is now an instructor at Hastings College. He will exhibit sculpture pieces in bronze, concrete and aluminum.

Hinkhouse is working on a master of fine arts degree at KU. His work on exhibit will be bronze and metal sculpture.

McGinnis, an art faculty member here at Hays in 1960-61, will display earthenware ceramic pieces and two ink and chalk drawings.

The show will close Feb. 26.

Back To Work

After some two months of school broken by vacations, we're starting a new leaf with about eight weeks of classes before Easter vacation begins March 25.

At least let's hope we're starting a new leaf. If we've survived semester finals and grades, then a new departure from enrollment should have stirred us to new heights of planning and determination.

The beginning of each semester is the time to re-evaluate the course one should follow to achieve as much as possible. Each semester is a unit of advancement and determination is the key that keeps the student from dropping or flunking out.

To be brief—now is the time to decide whether we'll sink or swim.

Happiness Is . . .

An some idiot asked, "What makes Wayne State students HAPPY?" And we replied:
Happiness is being able to be popular with everyone.
Happiness is knowing that your clothes and luggage are superior to your roommates'.

Happiness is owning a car with four tires, a motor, lots of chrome and a full tank of gas.

Happiness is a new pack of cigarettes.

Happiness is a large keg party.

Happiness is knowing that male students usually don't get drafted.

Happiness is winning float and skit awards without really earning them.

Happiness is playing first string football, breaking training rules and flunking courses simultaneously.

Happiness is an afternoon spent with billiard cue in hand.

Happiness is finding an inexpensive "ghost."

Happiness is cutting classes successfully.

Happiness is going home to Mommy and Daddy on the weekends.

Happiness is a fetish symbol.

Happiness is a dirty joke (not too subtle).

Happiness is having no deep convictions about anything.

Happiness is passing a test while recovering from a hangover.

Happiness is a feeling of supercilious complacency.

Happiness is at least two thrilling nights per week dedicated to verifying Kinsey's report.

Happiness is constructing and telling juicy gossip about administrators and instructors' private lives.

Happiness is having a personal copy of Masterplots for English courses.

Happiness is criticizing the faculty, administration, food service, book store and newspaper of Wayne State without having to make the effort to improve them.

Happiness is getting a pat on the back for being a watcher instead of a kick in the pants for being a doer.

We should be happy.

But are we?

Eastern Honor Plan Accepted By 52 Per Cent of Students

Allentown, Pa. (I.P.) — Student attitude toward the one-year-old honor system on the Muhlenberg campus is one of acceptance in over half of the cases. Partial results of an honor code questionnaire follows:

I believe that the present honor system is successful, 540 (52.4 per cent), not successful, 40 (3.9 per cent), partially successful, 450 (43.7 per cent).

If I see a student cheating, I will: report him, 85 (8.2), urge him to report himself, 640 (62.0), do nothing about it, 308 (29.8).

If I saw one of my best friends cheating, I would: report him, 45 (4.4), urge him to report himself, 656 (64.7), do nothing about it, 313 (30.9).

If I were a high school senior choosing a college, I would choose one: with an honor system, 425 (41.5), without an honor system, 21 (2.1), without consideration of an honor system, 578 (56.4).

Pierced Ears Return To Texas University

(ACP) — Pierced ears are making a comeback with at least one chic group on the campus of the University of Texas, Austin.

THE DAILY TEXAN says that sophomore Joanne Gayne, whose ears have been pierced for years and who learned how back home in Mexico, has pierced ears for about 30 girls so far. She charges $1 a head, or 50 cents an ear.

Hall Advisers Named

Three new residence advisers for two of the women's halls have been named for the spring semester. They are Ruth Kline, Morland junior, in Custer Hall, and Marilyn Denham, Tulsa, Okla., junior, and Danna Carter, Kinsley sophomore, both in McMindes Hall.

Brewings

"Hi! Welcome snowflakes; old and new, big and little, round and square. Welcome to the Fort Hays Ski Resort."

This is the third grade approach found in the Women's Recreation Assn. brochure, apparently designed to attract and acquaint students with the program.

In a publication on the college level, prepared for students supposedly near the brink of maturity, it's unfortunate that an organization would stoop to children's story books and primer methods to attract the interest of prospective members.

But this is the case, as exemplified in the following passage, which possibly is pointing up the basic need for efficiency and organization:

"... the snowflakes need to be efficiently molded together into a gigantic snowball. The molding of this snowball is the primary job of the Super Skiers. Although the Super Skiers do the final molding, the snowflakes must add new ideas and energies to make our snowball roll smoothly down the hill."

However, WRA girls cannot always expect smooth sailing, implies the brochure:

"... THUMP!!! Now we are in a fix—our skis are straddling a tree and our head is downhill. At long last, we manage to untangle ourselves from the tree's embrace, stand up and gleefully sail down the winner's trail."

Other precious excerpts include, "As we sit in front of the warm fireplace toasting our toes," or "As we stumble up the hill..."

In reference to the last phrase in quotes, I have to admit that "stumble" is an excellent choice of words.

WRA, one of the most active groups on campus, would do well to direct the energy required to produce a publication into another area if this year's brochure is typical. Also, such an inferior publication does little for what may be called the intellectual image of FHS. —Norman Brewer

Patterson Is New President of IFC

Jerry Patterson, Hill City junior, took over the IFC presidency upon the graduation of Don Vlasz, Aurora, Ill., at the regular meeting recently in Memorial Union.

Patterson, Delta Sigma Phi, was elected as interim president until elections in March.

Tom Smith, Syracuse senior, was appointed to write letters to three persons who would act as judges for the Greek Sing March 6.

Bob Cochran, Delta Chi field representative, inquired about the possibility of establishing a colony on the FHS campus. At the next meeting, IFC will decide whether to encourage or discourage Delta Chi on campus.

Help Week procedures for Sigma Tau Gamma were read and approved.

Bill Jellison, dean of men, asked that extreme care be exercised in conducting paddle hunts by those fraternities who still include this as part of their Help Week.

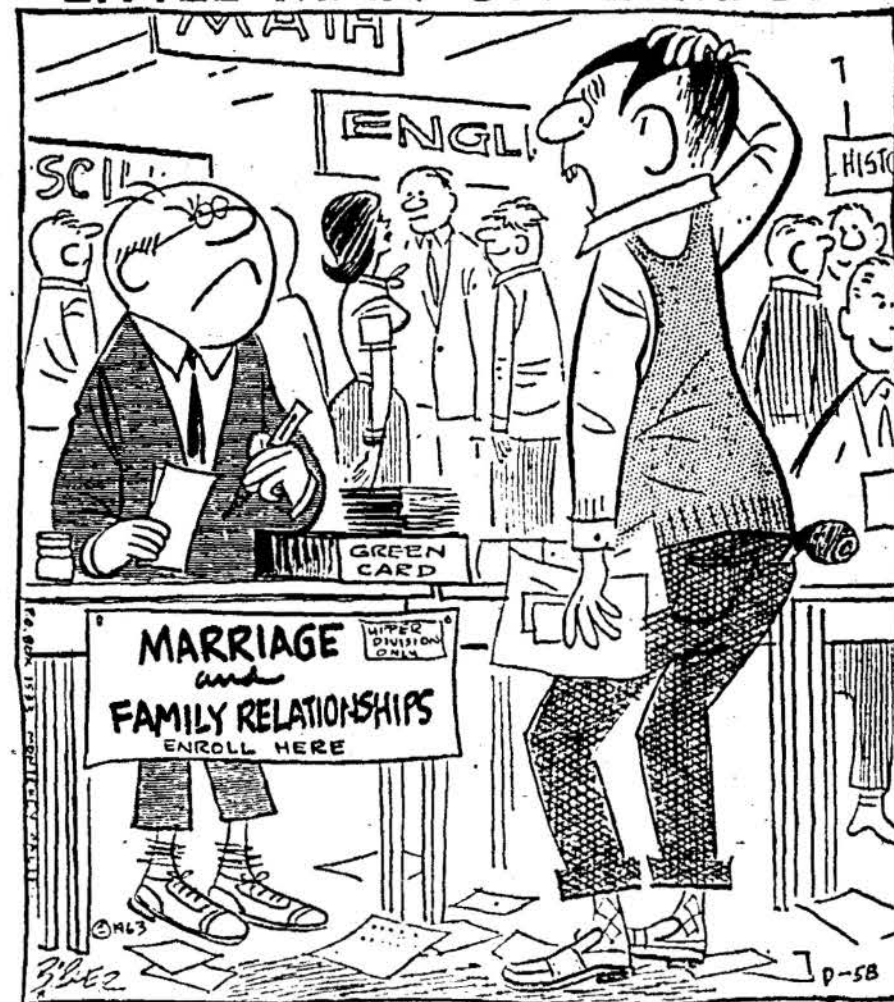

English Proficiency Test Date Scheduled

LITTLE MAN ON CAMPUS

"YOU MEAN IT'S ALL THEORY?"

Letters to the Editor

Dear Editor:

"It (the Japanese Gourmet) was one of the finest functions I've ever attended. A large ballroom was made smaller by the amazingly beautiful setting of a teahouse and a Buddha that was set in excellent surroundings of trees, huge rocks, Japanese lanterns and two reflecting pools with clear blue water."

I want to say that Walt Wetzel and his crew of Program Council people are to be heartily congratulated for a most superior setting. It would hard to match the excellence of their work.

The sukiyaki that was served "was the same as served in my country" said Kozo Terado. It would be difficult to even match such a fine compliment for Mrs. Helen Gallagher and her staff. The food was well worth the aching fingers of trying to maneuver chopsticks (many of us were too proud to use American silverware).

All of this was added to by the dancing of our own FHS "Japanese Geisha Girls," beautiful scenic color slides of Japan with narration by Kojo, and finally, the Schilling AFB Judo Team. The entertainment was most welcome and educational.

It was indeed a fine "evening out." Congratulations should go to Mrs. Betty Brandenburg, our Program Director and Lynn Rogers, our Program Council Chairman, who "ooohed and aahed" during the entire setting up, eating and entertainment. It would never have come to pass without them.

I hope I am one of many who told you what happened at the Memorial Union Feb. 2. An opportunity to "travel abroad" was given you by the Program Council of the Memorial Union. Those of you that were too tired, too busy or in some cases too forgetful, missed as fine an evening as will ever be offered you.

Somewhat enlightening, somewhat reprimanding, I am endeavoring to tell you that those of you who wish somewhat for a change, somewhat for seeing students out of their mediocrity, somewhat for a fresh idea, could have seen Japan in all of its splendor... somewhat.

G. E. Ruttman

Dear Editor:

Representatives from the Tigerettes were present at the ASC meeting Feb. 4. The discussion was centered around this quote from the Jan. 16 issue of The Leader.

"The Council recommended discontinuance of reserved seats for organized cheering and the motion carried unanimously. The Kit Kats and the Tigerettes are the two groups affected by the action."

Members of the Student Council stated that the above quote was meant only as a recommendation and warning to the organizations, not as a definite action as was understood by many.

Girls, be in the designated seats promptly by 7 p.m. or they will be relinquished.

Opera Class Offered Now

The presentation of small operas by Fort Hays State students has become a part of the curriculum offerings of the music department. This was made possible by the addition of a course in opera production being offered for the first time this semester.

Class members will learn aspects of opera production both from the stage and behind the scenes. During the course, the class will prepare and present either scenes or complete works, and will also learn the requirements for staging a musical drama.

Opera selections chosen for this semester, as announced by Donald Stout, assistant professor of music, are a one act comedy opera, "Gianni Schicchi," by Puccini, and an excerpt from "The Marriage of Figaro" by Mozart.

Class members will be singing actors, while other members will be assigned the duties of musical coach, musical director, stage director, and properties and costume chairmen. All members will participate in designing the stage set and constructing the scenery. They will learn about other jobs required to put a production on stage.

Dates for opera presentation have been set late in the second semester. Two performances will be held May 8 and 9.

GRATITUDE TRAIN — This antique depicts the appreciation of France for the aid given by the United States during World War II. It was dedicated to FHS in 1949 by columnist Drew Pearson.

Box Car Brings Memories Of American Generosity

By Sharon Kleweno
Leader Staff Reporter

It's an old maxim that the best gifts come in small packages, but on campus stands a reminder of one of the biggest gift exchanges of all time.

The grey box car that stands between Forsyth Library and Albertson Hall is the Kansas car of the French Gratitude Train which was presented to the people of the United States.

The Gratitude Train was a gesture of thanks from the French people for the Southwest Friendship Train presented to them. The Southwest Friendship Train was originated by Dick Long, day editor of the Wichita Eagle and Drew Pearson, a nationally syndicated columnist.

In 1947 the Southwest Friendship Train sent 225 carloads of food and clothing needed by France following World War II.

In exchange, France sent back the Gratitude Train consisting of 49 antique box cars, 40 feet by 8 feet, used during World War I. The box cars were salvaged, repaired, painted and decorated with shields from the 20 provinces of France.

Into the cars poured the works of internationally famous French artists as well as the family keepsakes representing six million people.

Among the gifts were: An original composition by Saint-Saens who composed the opera "Samson and Delilah;" a portrait of Joan of Arc woven in pure silk; 49,000 dolls depicting 500 years of French dress fashions; 500 coniferous evergreen seeds, and a barber's dish used to shampoo beards before the coming of running water. The largest single object was a five-foot replica of "The Greek Athlete" from the National Museum in Paris.

The box cars were sealed and loaded aboard the freighter "de la Reconnaissance" that sailed for New York in January, 1949. After the ship's arrival, the 49 cars were split into sections and rolled to every state in the union.

Even before the Kansas Car of the Gratitude Train arrived in Newton, a nonprofit organization, Merci Gifts for Kansas, Inc., was being formed to display and distribute the gifts. The organization was headed by Barney Lamer of Hays and Ross, Beach Jr., also of Hays, served as secretary.

The box car was made into a show case and 100 of the gifts were chosen to be displayed in the state's 105 counties.

After the tour was completed, the corporation distributed the gifts to schools museums and county historical societies, anywhere that the gifts might be viewed publicly.

The box car was brought to Hays and dedicated by Drew Pearson on Armistice Day, 1949. According to Beach, it was through Lamer's untiring efforts that the car was brought to Hays to be displayed on the FHS campus.

On the afternoon of the dedication, President M. C. Cunningham selected a hammered bronze plaque in an ebony frame that dates back to the sixteenth century. The gift was presented to the college and is now permanently displayed on campus.

Today, the Merci car is used to store several antique musical instruments, according to Myrl Walker, curator of the museums.

THE INNER MAN

College is fun and frolic and fulfillment—except for one melancholy omission: we don't get to enjoy Mom's home cooking. (In my own undergraduate days, curiously enough, I did not undergo this deprivation; my mother, a noted cross-country runner, was never home long enough to cook a meal until her legs gave out last Arbor Day.)

But most of us arrive at college with fond gastric memories of Mom's nourishing delicacies, and we are inclined now and then to heave great racking sighs as we contemplate the steam tables in the campus cafeteria. Take, for an extreme example, the case of Finster Sigafoos.

Finster, a freshman at one of our great Eastern universities (Oregon State) came to college accustomed to home cooking of a kind and quantity enjoyed by very few. Until entering college, Finster had lived all his life in Europe, where his father was an eminent fugitive from justice. Finster's mother, a natural born cook, was mistress of the haute cuisine of a dozen countries, and Finster grew up living and eating in the Continental manner.

He arose each morning at ten and breakfasted lightly on figs,

My mother was a noted cross country runner hot chocolate, and brioche. (It is interesting to note, incidentally, that brioche was named after its inventor, perhaps the greatest of all French bakers, Jean-Claude Brioche (1634-1921). M. Brioche, as we all know, also invented croissants, French toast, and—in a curious departure—the electric razor. Other immortal names in the history of breadstuffs are the German, Otto Pumpnickel (1509-1848) who invented pumpnickel and thus became known to posterity as The Iron Chancellor; the two Americans, William Cullen Raisin (1066-1812) and Walter Rye (1931-1932) who collaborated on the invention of raisin rye; and, of course, Hans Christian Andersen (1805-1875) who invented Danish pastry.)

But I digress. Finster, I say, breakfasted lightly at ten a.m. At eleven a.m. his Mom brought him his elevenses. At twelve she brought him his twelveses. At 1:30 she served his lunch: first a clear broth; then a fish course (porgy and bass); then an omelette; then the main course—either a saddle of lamb, an eye of sirloin, or a glass of chicken fat; then a salad of escarole; and finally a lemon soufflé.

At three p.m. Mom served Finster low tea, at five p.m. high tea, and at ten p.m. dinner—first a bowl of petite marmite (she trapped the marmites herself); then a fish course (wounded trout); then an omelette of turtle eggs; then the main course—either duck with orange or a basin of farina; then a salad of unborn chicory; and finally a caramel mousse.

And then Finster went off to college, which reminds me of Marlboro Cigarettes. (Actually it doesn't remind me of Marlboro Cigarettes at all, but the makers of Marlboro pay me to write this column and they are inclined to get surly if I fail to mention their product. Mind you, I don't object to mentioning their product—no sir, not one bit. Marlboro's flavor is flavorful, the filter filters, the soft pack is soft, the Flip-Top box flips, and the tattoo is optional. Marlbors are available wherever cigarettes are sold in all fifty states of the Union. Next time you're in the U.S.A., try a pack.)

But I digress. We were speaking of Finster Sigafoos who went on Continental dining to dormitory feeding. So whenever you feel sorry for yourself, think of Finster, for it always lifts the heart to know somebody is worse off than you are.

WINS BY PINS — Tiger grappler Del Erickson won two matches last weekend against Trinidad and Kearney by first period pins. The Atwood senior, a co-captain on the Bengal squad, wrestled in the 177-pound division.

Grapplers Meet Central Missouri State Saturday

The Tiger wrestling squad meets Central Missouri State College Saturday at Warrensburg after defeating Kearney (Neb.) State, 24-6, and Trinidad (Colo.) College, 20-13, last weekend which placed the FHS matmen in the column, 4-3.

In two encounters last year, the Bengal grapplers stomped the Missourians, 35-5 and 26-5.

Vic Lyczak, Northbrook, Ill., junior, will probably be out of the action for a month according to Dave Winter, wrestling mentor. Lyczak suffered a sprained ankle in the meet against Colorado University Jan. 28.

With Lyczak out of action and the ineligibility of three starting wrestlers, Coach Winter feels that the dual meet will be tough and the outcome unpredictable.

Dennis Hayes, Levant sophomore, and Bill Ritterhouse, Salina junior, were added to the wrestling roster for this semester. Hayes is in the 130 pound class, while Ritterhouse is at 167 pounds.

FHS's lineup at Missouri:
123 pounds—Sid Cooley, Salina junior; 130 pounds—Jim Noel, Wichita freshman; 137 pounds—Ed Hanson, Atwood freshman; 147 pounds—Tom Perkins, El Dorado freshman; 157 pounds—Dennis Hupfer, Russell freshman; 167 pounds—Pat Peterson, Clyde sophomore; 177 pounds—Delbert Erickson, Atwood senior; heavyweight—Jim Tinkler, Russell senior.

The Coloradoans led the Bengals, 10-13, after six matches Saturday night in Sheridan Coliseum. But veterans Erickson and Tinkler pushed FHS ahead for the victory by pinning their opponents at 177 and heavyweight, respectively. Hanson also contributed a pin in the 137-pound bout.

The Tigers won six matches,

Jayvees Bomb McPherson; Oilers Next

Fort Hays State's junior varsity ran its season record to 8 wins and 3 losses with a 138-50 victory over McPherson Central College at Sheridan Coliseum Tuesday night.

Seven of the eight Tiger jayvees were in double figures, with four men who scored 20 points or more. Duane Schneider led the scorers with 24 points. Then came Jim Tieszen with 23, Don Givens with 22, and Alan Billinger with 20.

Playing without top scorer Jerry Maska, the young Tigers rushed to a 68-24 halftime lead. The final margin of 88 points was the largest of the game.

Last Thursday the junior varsity fell to Kearney State's powerful junior varsity, 83-77. The loss avenged an earlier 104-79 setback handed the Antelopes by the Tigers.

Jerry Maska led the losers with 23 points. He was followed by Paul Graber and Duane Schneider with 15 and 12, respectively.

It was one of those nights when nothing went right for the FHS team. Cold shooting from the free throw line and the field, along with poor ball control enabled the home team to gain the victory.

The Junior varsity will play the Gilmer Oilers of Manhattan Wednesday night. The Oilers, studded with several past college players, will be out to gain revenge for an earlier 81-80 defeat suffered at the hands of the jayvees last December.

Women's Bowling Team Deadline Is Today

The entry deadline for women bowling teams is today at 4 p.m. in the intramural office in Sheridan Coliseum, Room 203.

Bowling starts at 4 p.m. Tuesday at Centennial Lanes.

Signatures are also needed for the table tennis tournament before noon next Thursday. Women may sign up in the women's residence halls or in the Coliseum dressing room.

The tourney is scheduled for Feb. 17 through the 19 and March 3 and 4.

Tennis Meeting Friday

Prospective varsity tennis players should attend a meeting in the Sheridan Coliseum arena at 4 p.m. Friday. Practices are now under way and the first match is scheduled with Hutchinson Junior College March 24.

Anyone who is interested in playing but cannot attend the meeting should contact Malcolm Applegate in Martin Allen Hall, Room 104.

FHS Thinclads Prepare For Opener at Kearney

A total of 33 FHS tracksters are currently working out for their first indoor dual meet of the season at Kearney (Neb.) State Feb. 15.

Track Coach Alex Francis, in his 18th year at FHS, hopes for an improved record over last year's fourth place finish in the CIC. Emporia State is favored for first place in the conference with FHS, Pittsburg State and Omaha University battling for lesser honors, according to Francis.

He believes one of the weakest spots of the team to be his dash men. He summed up the team this way: "The team should be better, but we suffered a real blow by the loss of three of our best men. Charlie Canty was by far the finest prospect we've ever had."

Francis said that Canty would have solved the dash problem, but failed to return to college this semester.

The Tiger track team has 12 returning lettermen. They are Dennis Mannering, Clark Engle, Dwight Gillespie, Charles Lundblade, Jack Harms, Gerald Hertel, Don Lakin, Larry Pickering, Bob Schmidt, Lowell Smith, Rod Williams and Charlie Rose.

Squad members and their tentative events are:

Mile and two-mile — Lakin, Smith, Jerry Hertel, Rose, Joe Twyman, Bill Parker and Steve Stewart.

880—Harms, David Brookshire, Mannering, Dwight Gillespie, Cecil Johnson, Harry Walker and Palmer Meek.

440—Harms, Brookshire, Mannering, Pickering, Tom Kindsvater, Ron McKown, Ron Morel, Meek and Johnson.

Dashes—Pickering, Kindsvater and Dan Rouse.

Hurdles — Lundblade, Leon Schnedier, Schmidt, Keith Wilson, McKown and Morel.

High jump — Schmidt and Williams.

Broad jump—Lundblade, Morel, Wilson and Gary Smith.

Pole vault—Bob Johnson.

Shot—Larry Flint and Darrell Humphrey.

Javelin—Rod McCabe and Bill Schumacher.

Discus—Engle and Tim Gerstner.

Seven men will be added to the track roster after basketball season is over. They are Jerry Maska, Don Givens, Bill Strait, Keith Riley, Bob Anthony, Ed Walters and Duane Schneider.

WRA Scholarship Winners Announced

Vicki Harlan, Republic sophomore, and Judy Hammon, Garden City junior, are the recipients of this year's WRA full tuition scholarships. The girls, chosen by the college scholarship committee, must have at least a 1.5 grade average to apply for the scholarship.

Miss Harlan, an elementary education and physical education major, and Miss Hamman, a physical education major, were chosen on the basis of grades, need and WRA participation.

NEWCOMERS — These four transfer cagers joined the Tiger squad for the St. Benedict's-Omaha road trip last weekend. Keith Riley (left), was lost for the season when he sustained a broken bone in the lower, right leg in practice Wednesday night. No. 53 is Bill Strait, 43 Ed Walters, and standing beside Coach Cade Suran is John Locke, who started the two away-from-home games.

Cold Shooting Decides Games for Tiger Cagers

Cold shooting plagued the Fort Hays State Tigers over the weekend as they fell to St. Benedict's, 86-80, Saturday night, and to Omaha University, 86-71, Monday night. The loss to the Indians could possibly determine the outcome of the CIC this season.

In Monday night's game, the Tigers shot wildly hitting only 30 per cent of their shots the first half to trail, 51-25, at intermission.

With all 12 Bengal cagers seeing action, Sam McDowell again led the team with 25 points and 15 rebounds. He received support from Dick Schur with 16 points and six rebounds. Newcomers to the lineup, Ed Walters and Johnnie Locke, each contributed six points.

Larry Villnow, 6-7 forward, led the Indian scoring with 22 points followed by Sam Singleton, 6-5 freshman standout, with 20. Villnow led all rebounders with 21.

At Atchison Saturday night, the Tigers again could not find the range, hitting only 36 per cent of their field shots the first half to 55 per cent for the Ravens. The Bengals trailed, 43-35, at halftime.

With Dick Schur leading the scorers with 27 points, and Jude

Gerstner and Johnnie Locke leading the rebounders with 16 and 13 caroms, respectively, the Tigers could still not catch the Ravens.

Leading scorer for St. Benedict's was Pat Hare, Dallas University transfer, with 25 points. Hare also led the rebounders with 15. Supporting Hare were Carl Pratt with 18 points plus 10 rebounds, and Jack Dugan with 18 points and six rebounds.

FHS Chosen As Site for NAIA Gym Meet

FHS was selected recently as host school for the first national NAIA gymnastics championship meet March 20-21 in Sheridan Coliseum.

It will be the first national championship meet held at FHS and it is the 12th event to be added to the sports program of the NAIA.

Ed McNeil, gymnastics coach, will be meet director.

Other members of the gymnastics tournament committee are Dr. Robert Hussey, Eastern Illinois University, chairman of the NAIA Gymnastics Committee, and Wayne Truex, Illinois State University.

The NAIA meet will be open to all teams and individuals from all active NAIA member institutions.

A. O. Duer, executive secretary of the NAIA, said that the addition of gymnastics was recommended by the NAIA executive committee by the gymnastics coaches.

"We feel that the addition of gymnastics will increase the number of our member institutions who will sponsor the sport on their intercollegiate program and thus give strong support to our program as well as to the national Olympic effort," Dues said.

FHS is the only small college offering the sport on a competitive basis in Kansas. Last year the team compiled its best season record at FHS, 6-2. The squad has registered a 4-1 record this season.

Bengals Face Washburn In Crucial CIC Contest

Fort Hays State's Tigers, after two road trip losses, one possibly deciding the CIC outcome, returns home to play a return match with the Washburn University Ichabods, Saturday night, and the St. Michael's College Knights, Monday night, at Sheridan Coliseum. Both games start at 7:30 p.m.

The Tigers and Washburn University met earlier this season at Topeka in a game in which the Ichabods defeated the Tigers 93-89 in the overtime period after tying 38-38 at halftime and 81-81 at the end of regulation time.

The Tigers outrebounded, outplayed and outshot the Ichabods from the free throw line, but couldn't match the shooting from the field that Washburn provided. FHS hit 36.7 per cent from the field compared to 48.9 for Washburn, while hitting 79.3 per cent from the charity stripe to 43.8 for WU.

Sam McDowell led the Tiger scorers with 26 points, followed closely by Tom Ashleman with 23 and Paul Vega with 16.

Kenny Hendrix showed the way for WU with 26 points also, supported by Greg Gibb with 20 and Gordon Hibbard with 16.

Washburn has won eight games with one victory and three losses in conference play putting them in the cellar of the CIC.

Washburn's leading scorer is Greg Gibb who has been averaging 16.8 points per game and 11.3 rebounds per game to lead that department.

Other members of the starting five are Jerry Williams, 6-6 senior forward; Ron Ford, 6-7 sophomore forward; Kenny Hendrix, 6-2 junior guard, and Gordon Hibbard, 6-3 junior guard. Gibb is a 6-6 junior center.

Although Fort Hays State has dropped three conference games this season, hopes for a tie for the championship or for a chance to represent the CIC in the District 10 playoffs and a possible trip to the NAIA Tourney at Kansas City are still mathematically possible.

With each team in the CIC capable of defeating each other the chances of winning a spot in the playoffs depends not only on whether the Tigers win their three remaining conference ball games, but that Emporia is beaten by some other team.

Since Omaha is in District 11, and if they do win the CIC, the runnerup, a Kansas team, would represent the CIC in the playoffs against the Kansas Conference champ.

The CIC standings show Emporia State and Omaha University in the first two places, but if either Fort Hays State or Pittsburg wins its remaining three games and an upset occurs between Emporia and Omaha, either Kansas teams would have a shot toward the playoffs or even the championship.

Monday, the Tigers will open the doors of Sheridan Coliseum, welcoming the St. Michael's College Knight from Santa Fe, N. M.

This will be the second meeting between the two clubs, the first occurred in the 1961-62 season when St. Michael's defeated the Tigers, 87-83, in the Top of the Nation tourney at Alamosa, Colo. The Knights went on to take third in the tournament, the Tigers, fifth.

St. Michael's is a Catholic-affiliated college of liberal arts with an enrollment of 890.

The Knights are led by 6-7 junior center, Greg Hutter; 6-3 junior forward, Julian Fabry; 6-4 freshman forward, Rich Creighton, and Gene Smiley, 6-2 freshman guard.

Last year the Knights, coached by Robert Sweeney, a Colorado University graduate, won 11 and lost 11. No record is available for this season.
