FACULTY MEETING

Tuesday, January 20th, 1935

Members absent: Miss Barbour, Mr. Gross,
Miss Heidman, Miss Millett, Mr. Riley.

Dr. Rarick made some general announcements regarding the close of the fall semester and the opening of the spring semester and some general problems of the campus. He asked that faculty members whose program for the summer school exceeded 10 hours see him immediately regarding same.

Dean Lee made announcements concerning enrollment for the spring semester.

Dr. Rarick then discussed the attitude of the Federal Government toward the program of State Education and the work being done by the Federal Government in Conservation Camps.

He stated that it was his plan to hold regular faculty meetings to discuss and become familiar with the new trends in education.

Meeting adjourned.
