NUMBER TWENTY-TWO

Court Bill Is Accepted By 13-3 Count

Ken Brown

Voters Will Go To Polls Twice Under New Spring Election Bill

Spring elections and a revised Student Court emerged from the All-Student Council meeting Tuesday.

Controversial Section C of the court bill stops the court from sitting in judgment of "any cases in which judgment has been passed by a criminal or civil court of any other elective government."

According to Dwight High, graduate student representative from Elkhart, "In writing the bill, we were well aware of the fact that the court does not violate the technical double jeopardy. But we believe it is ethical double jeopardy and do not believe a student court should be concerned with this."

Ernest Miller, Liberal graduate, said, "We are aware of the disciplinary problems on a college campus. We are not saying that the court should be abolished, but believe it should be concerned with on-campus disputes."

Chief Justice of the Court, Ken Brown, Kinsley graduate, argued against passage of the bill by saying, "The court isn't really a court of law because we don't bring charges. Besides, if the student goes before one of the deans, there is still ethical double jeopardy."

High countered with, "The court is a court. It is referred to as such all through the bill. Besides, charges are brought and a punishment is meted out."

Section III, paragraph B states that "All sessions of the Student Court shall be printed in the official college newspaper prior to that session," and that "All decisions shall also be printed in the paper."

High said, "If the court is to be a public court as called for in this section, the students must know about it and we believe that putting it in the paper would be the best means." We suggest a number system be set up and used instead of publishing the names of the defendants in the Leader."

Section IV, A, provides for court-appointed counsel for all defendants with their consent.

A motion was made to strike the section but failed 7 to 4 and the final vote to accept the bill as law was 13 to 3 with one abstention. The bill was officially named "Bill on Student Court 1966-2."

The new bill on elections calling for spring elections also passed the council by a 12 to 7 vote.

It had been in committee for two weeks and the one passed Tuesday was unanimously adopted by the committee members. It does not do away with fall elections completely, but splits the elections to the spring and fall.

Freshman class officers, graduate representatives, and men and women's residence hall representatives will be elected on the fourth Wednesday after classes begin in the fall.

Requirements Revised In English Composition

Fort Hays State's Faculty Senate has approved a change in the basic studies requirement in English, which will go into effect at the beginning of the fall semester.

In the past, all FHS students have been required to take English Composition 1 and 2 in their freshman year. Under the new system, Composition 2 will no longer be offered. Instead, students will take Composition 1 in their freshman year and Expository Writing 51 in their junior year.

Expository Writing will be changed from a two-credit to a three-credit course.

Students may take Composition 1 either semester of their freshman year — half of the freshmen taking it the first semester and the other the second semester. Introduction to Literature 26 will still be required in the sophomore year.

Dr. William R. Thompson, chairman of the division of language, literature and speech, proposed the change and said, "English 1 under the new program will be compact, tough and challenging. Much that is done now in two semesters can be consolidated into a one-semester course."

Speaking of the expository writing requirement, he said, "Our teaching experience has taught us that the third year student is a much better motivated person than the freshman."

In the past, students were required to take the English Proficiency Test in their junior or senior year, unless they received a B or better in English I and 2. Under the new system, a grade of C in expository writing will exempt the student from the test.

Opera First

A&L Series to Draw 3 Events In 8 Days

Three Artists and Lectures Series programs within eight days will bring a variety of events to FHS, beginning with the Goldovsky Opera's presentation of "La Boheme" at 8 p.m. Friday in Sheridan Coliseum.

"La Boheme," which will be the seventh program in the current A&L series, will be followed by four lectures featuring Dr. Jotham Johnson next Thursday and Friday and the Kansas City Philharmonic at 8 p.m., March 11, in Sheridan Coliseum.

A tragic opera by Puccini, "La Boheme" will be staged in a special English version by the 50-member Goldovsky Opera Company. The group is on its 13th national tour.

Admission for students and faculty with activity tickets is free. Tickets for others are $1.50, $2 and $2.50.

Dr. Johnson, a classical archaeologist and visiting Danforth Lecturer, will begin with a lecture to the art and history classes at 2:30 p.m. Thursday in the Memorial Union Gold Room.

Johnson's second lecture is slated for 8 p.m. Thursday in the Union. The public is invited to attend his talk on "Re-uses of the Past." There will be no admission charge.

On Friday, he will give a general convocation address, "Marble City of Aphrodite," at 9:45 a.m. in the Coliseum. Classes will be dismissed for the assembly.

Johnson's last lecture will be at 1:30 p.m. Friday in the Union Gold Room. His subject will be "The Changing English Language."

As an archaeologist, Johnson has excavated in Greece, Syria, Italy and Turkey. He received his Ph.D. in Greek from the University of Pennsylvania.

Dr. Johnson was president of the Archaeological Institute of America from 1961 to 1964. In addition he is a former Fellow of the Proposed Turnpike Offers Students Benefits?

By Connie Parish
News Editor

Would FHS students be willing to use the proposed turnpike from Wichita to Hays, and would it offer any advantages over the present road systems?

These were some of the questions posed to students from the Great Bend, Hutchinson and Wichita areas who might use the link in driving from FHS to their home communities.

The Kansas Turnpike Authority recently gave the go-ahead to a comprehensive feasibility study of the three proposed turnpikes, including those from Wichita to Galena and Baxter Springs to Kansas City.

A preliminary feasibility study had revealed the Wichita-to-Hays link could not support itself on toll fares alone, at least for the first 11 years.

Stephen Jenkins, Wichita freshman, felt he would "be willing to pay tolls to drive on it. It would be much shorter and faster and save a lot of time."

Arlen Davidson, Great Bend freshman, would be willing to use the turnpike if "the toll was within reason. For the 60-mile drive, I think it should be no more than 50 to 75 cents. As for the turnpike, it's a great idea, and would likely increase the state's economy."

"I'd be willing to pay toll if it was based on a scale similar to the Kansas Turnpike," James Rusco, Great Bend graduate stated. "However, I have some reservations about it because it might go through my father's farm."

Lonnie Kent, Hutchinson sophomore, faced the same problem—since it possibly would cut through his father's farm near Hutchinson. He wasn't enthusiastic about the proposed road. "I wouldn't pay toll to use it. Besides, Highway 96 is a good enough road."

Roger Gregg, Great Bend junior, felt something like 30 cents toll for 60 miles would be more reasonable. "But after the first two or three years, or when it was paid for, I don't think they should charge. Actually transportation on the routes we have isn't much of a problem."

Unqualified in his enthusiasm for the link, Joe Schardeln, Nickerson graduate, has been driving the roads from home to campus for eight years. "Every time I have to go 20 miles out of my way. Money spent on toll would be next to nothing compared to the amount of time I could save."

Marilynn Wilson, Great Bend junior, calculated that "if the road went straight cross-country, it would probably shorten the 60-mile drive to 45 to 50 miles. Since it would surely be a better road and would save quite a bit of time, I think I would probably be willing to pay toll to drive on it."

Wichita sophomore Jack Partridge stated that he "sure would use it, as the proposed route would be quite an advantage." But he didn't see that it was likely funds would be appropriated for such a link for nearly 10 years.

Marvin G. Lewis, Highway Patrol Captain, felt that "There is no doubt but such a four-lane road would make for safer driving. Turnpikes and interstates have all shown a marked fatality reduction."

This is reasonable," Lewis continued, "since it eliminates meeting all opposing traffic."

Changing Role of Laity Cited by Catholic Bishop

"The end of Vatican II began a new era which ushered the Church into the world and the world into the Church," said Bishop Cyril J. Vogel, D.D., in the first of three lectures to be held at FHS concerning the Vatican II Council.

Bishop Vogel, who was the guest speaker at the Feb. 23 meeting of the FHS Newman Club, lectured on "The Decree on the Laity and the Apostolate." Installed in June as bishop of the Salina Diocese, Bishop Vogel attended the last session of the Council which adjourned Dec. 8 in Rome.

According to Bishop Vogel, "Whereas formerly the laity prayed, payed, obeyed and were silent, the lay apostolate has now taken on new meaning, light and hope for the Church. The laity has shifted from a passive to an active role in the Church, and thus has come about the Age of the Laity."

By participation of the laity in the Mass, "the thing that matters in our religion, worship is given by the whole people of God in a community," said Bishop Vogel.

These people are also "involved in the reading, teaching and words of Scripture," he said, however, private devotions such as the rosary should be retained and practiced.

Bishop Vogel told the 250 present that the changes brought about by Vatican

Bishop Vogel

II will require study, work and a reformation of attitudes by all members of the Church.

There have been no changes in dogma by the work of the Council, according to Bishop Vogel, "but the nature and ideas of the Church have been reformulated into the language of today's world."

In a brief description of the Council he stated four prevalent attitudes of the fathers of the Church: love, a seeking for unity, a cry for change and a picture of the Church as a servant.

"The Council is over," he concluded, "but the work has just begun. The real success depends on all the members of the Church."

Bishop Marion F. Forst, D.D., Bishop of Dodge City, who was scheduled to speak March 30 on "The Decree on Religious Freedom," will speak at a later date because of spring break.

Bishop Firmin M. Schmidt, D.D., Bishop of Mendi, New Guinea, will speak April 6 on "The Decree on the Missionary Apostolate."

Both lectures will be held in conjunction with Newman Club meetings at 7 p.m. in the Memorial Union Gold Room. The public and all FHS students and faculty members are invited to attend.

Matching Funds $5,800 Short

FHS's Endowment Assn. must raise about $5,800 by March 15.

Kent Collier, executive secretary of the fund-raising organization, announced this week that the college's matching funds for National Defense Student Loans this spring will be $8,888.89.

The Endowment Assn. currently has over $3000 toward this amount, but must collect the remainder in the next three weeks.

Under the National Defense Student Loan program, the federal government provides $9 for each dollar of matching funds provided by the participating college.

If the college raises the necessary funds by mid-March, more than $88,000 in the NDSL program will be available at FHS.

Students themselves contributed $650 this semester in the "buck-passing" program during enrollment. That contribution will make $6,500 available in loan funds. The Endowment Assn. has received over $7,500 from the buck-passing program since it began in September, 1963.

Endowment Assn. Growth Reflects 16-Year History

For 16 years, the Endowment Assn. at FHS was literally a file cabinet, which stood in a corner of the business office from 1945 until 1961.

The association's major project, prior to reorganization in 1961, was raising $40,000 during the 1950's, to help build the Memorial Union.

It remained stagnant from then until January, 1962, when Kent Collier was hired as executive secretary of Endowment and a separate office was opened.

Within the next three years, the association raised $186,000. Between 1963 and 1965 loan funds available to students jumped from 56 to 71.

Since Endowment's activation, student aid operates basically as a triangle.

Endowment promotes fund raising from private sources. The Student Aids Office accepts and processes all applications for scholarships, loans and part-time employment.

After scholarship recipients are selected and loans are approved by the Student Aids Committee of 12 faculty members, the Business Office writes the checks to the students.

Endowment's present aim is mainly to assist with student aids. The 1965-66 fund-raising goal is $90,000 for this purpose.

Collier said he expects the association to expand into other areas within a few years.

FLOWERS FOR FHS'S BEST-DRESSED COED — Nancy Ann Ward, Pratt freshman, receives a bouquet from John Duff, Beloit senior, for being selected the best-dressed coed on the Fort Hays State campus.

Nancy Ward Named Best Dressed Coed

By Pam Alspaw
Society Editor

Nancy Ann Ward, Pratt freshman, won a vote of confidence from five judges Sunday when she was named the "Best Dressed Coed" on the FHS campus.

Miss Ward not only had the honor of being chosen "Best Dressed Coed" but also was first to win the title on campus.

The contest, nationally sponsored by Glamour Magazine, was organized by the Memorial Union program committee.

Three pictures of Miss Ward, a member of Sigma Kappa sorority, will be sent to Glamour and will compete with photographs of winners from 307 colleges and universities. From the pictures 10 women will be selected as the Best Dressed Coeds.

For one week they will stay in New York, all expenses paid by Glamour.

Competition for the FHS title featured 11 women sponsored by college living units. Agnew Hall sponsored Miss Ward.

First runner-up, Sharon Loomis, Mankato sophomore, was sponsored by Sigma Sigma Sigma sorority. Judyanne Mustoe, Norton junior, sponsored by McMinder Hall was named second runner-up.

Each candidate visited for five minutes with a five-judge panel: Mrs. Alison Moss, instructor in music; Mrs. Eleanor Heil, instructor in education; Mrs. Maxine Hoffman, associate professor of home economics; John Thorns, associate professor of art; Charles Brehm, instructor in physical education.

The judges based their selection on five qualities: appearance, good grooming, wardrobe, charm and general knowledge. The winners were announced during a style show Sunday evening in the Memorial Union Gold Room.

Rid Weaknesses In Requirements

Students preparing for teaching must satisfy certification requirements before they can become teachers.

The present requirement, which is listed in the catalog, states that any persons recommended for a teaching certificate must present an overall grade average of 1.25 and a grade point in the major field of 1.5.

As it now operates, students majoring in elementary education, have an advantage over those preparing for secondary teachers in that the grade received in directed teaching is included in computing the major grade point average.

The Council on the Preparation of Teachers at a recent February 7 meeting rectified this by including directed teaching for secondary teachers in the major in computing the grade point average.

All students must be recommended for a teacher certificate before it will be issued by the State Department of Instruction.

Good Work, ASC

All-Student Council deserves some commendation for its work in last Tuesday's meeting.

Passing the Student Court bill and the Bill on Elections, both of which the Leader has fully supported, shows that those on this year's council have finally decided to correct some major deficiencies in FHS student government. This is not a sit-around, complain-about, do-nothing council; it is getting things done.

Thanks to its diligent effort, double jeopardy in the Student Court has been done away with. The Court has been relegated to its proper place: that of interpreting ASC legislation brought before it; being an appellate body for all official or semi-official student or student/faculty tribunals or regulations established by the college; and sitting in judgment of only those cases that haven't gone to trial elsewhere. In other words, limited strictly to campus activities.

But the Leader strongly disagrees with the interpretation of Section III B, which calls for the court to be public, by the council members who passed it. If the court is to be public and the proceedings are to be a matter of public record, then all details, including the names of those involved, can, and will be, published in our columns.

Free access to public records is a fundamental part of the freedom of the press and we will defend our right to be included. A public court is just that and it will be reported as any other campus event which has been publicized beforehand.

The Election Bill

The election bill hammered out by the council committee is another piece of far-reaching legislation. Its big advantage is that it does away with the "lame-duck" session that has plagued ASC every fall.

Too many times the council has had too few members to take care of two important campus functions: Homecoming and student elections. This places a burden on those members who haven't graduated or left school during the summer.

By having elections in the spring and in the fall, the new bill insures a continuous, functioning council that will not only have enough members, but will be able to rely on the expertise afforded it by the older members.

Keep up the good work, ASC.

March is 'Culture' Month

Culture. It is deplored by some as high-falutin' and by others who contend "we" don't get enough of it.

Both sides will have an opportunity this month to either ignore or attend as they desire. Because, among other happenings, there is an opera, symphony music, drama and lectures enough to keep anyone busy attending them.

Kicking off the windy month, the opera "La Boheme" will be presented Friday night. Authored by Puccini, who also wrote "Madame Butterfly," it is set in the Latin Quarter of Paris and traces the everyday joys and sorrows of several Bohemian artists.

March 10 and 11 will enable budding archaeologists to hear an authority on the subject when Dr. Jotham Johnson, a classical archaeologist, will be on campus. He will lecture on the "Re-uses of the Past," describing what happens to temples, tombs, and other structures of an ancient city when they are no longer wanted.

Lapping Dr. Johnson some, the Kansas City Philharmonic will perform March 11.

On March 17 to 19, "New Drama '65-'66" will stage "Death of a Salesman," a Pulitzer Prize-winning play written by Arthur Miller. It is the story of Willie Loman, an unsuccessful man both with his family and in business, who cannot understand his son Biff or himself or the tragedy behind his inevitable death.

Also keeping the speech and drama area busy will be the high school speech and drama festival the 19th.

M. Victor Gares, consul-general of France, is coming from Denver to speak March 21.

If Oriental tragedy is your dish, then attend the English area lecture by Mrs. Barbara Mulch, assistant professor of history, March 23.

So there you have it—culture unlimited.

Reader's View

Stakes High in Viet Nam War

Dear Editor:

I would like to comment briefly on Mr. Midgorden's reply to Blaine Roberts.

It is my steadfast belief that much more is at stake in our war with North Viet Nam than prestige and trust. Much more is at stake than the rights of the Vietnamese people and South Viet Nam.

The future of the entire Pacific is resting upon the outcome of the war and more important, the security of the United States.

South Viet Nam is strategically located such that it can control the Strait of Malacca which is the shortest and safest route between the Pacific and Indian Oceans. If we allow communism to succeed in Viet Nam, neighboring Thailand and Malaysia would soon fall, putting the enemy within reach of Indonesia, Australia and Japan.

I do not need to elaborate on the importance of the two areas. It is apparent that to win our current war, it will cost us many valuable lives. It is my contention that the freedom and security of the 180 million American people is valuable enough to warrant the sacrifice of our gallant military.

Scholarships Available For Future Teachers

The Student Aids Office has received information on nine scholarships ranging from $100 to $300 available to students who will be juniors or seniors next fall and who plan to teach.

A $200 scholarship is also being offered to any Kansas resident enrolled in a degree program with the intention of registering in medical technology.

For additional information, contact Miss Ethel Artman, executive secretary of Student Aids, Picken 200.

LITTLE MAN ON CAMPUS

"THEY SAY HE'S PRETTY TOUGH."

Right 'In' The Kisner

Once up a time in a kingdom of five franc follies and free wine there existed a French college governed by a peanut gallery student court, which refused to be cracked.

All the college's students lived in endless fear of the student court's illegally gained powers, including the wonders of double jeopardy.

One such student was Armon Dutois, who was compelled to face both the French tribunal and the peanut gallery, although his offense had been against the State and not the institution of lower learning he so infrequently attended.

What was Armon's crime? He was arrested for mule slaughter and speeding. Indeed, our hero had ridden his one-owner mule at an excessive speed across the nearby railroad track and had been hit by a train while gazing at the unique warning device.

Armon was immediately hauled away to jail and the mule was hauled away to the student union to be used as the week's special.

Armon was found guilty by the government, but the peanut gallery was not to be denied its opportunity. Student court held a trial and found our hero guilty of violating campus statutes opposing cruelty to animals.

In reality the mule was the campus mascot, although for a brief period it had been displaced by an eighteenth century French Fillie named Marie Antoinette. However, Marie's reign as mascot was short-lived because sweeping popularity allowed her to get carried away and she lost her head.

Thus, the students were forced to again select the mule as their mascot—a decision headlined by the Paris papers as "asinine."

Be Glib, Cool to Insure Success as Sophomore

(ACP) — After careful research, the Michigan State News collected this guide on how to become a "sophomore."

1. Complain consistently about the cafeteria food, rising grill prices, patrolling housemothers, standards chairmen, and liquor laws. Be sure to develop the proper glib tone for these issues; for instance, "Gad, but this jello looks like swampscum."

2. At the same time, be sure not to get involved in any organized action to change anything you've complained about or make any constructive suggestions.

3. Decide what's cool and what's not. Then gather a group of friends and cut down people who aren't "cool."

4. In debate or argument, grant the other side several points, but insist that everyone recognize your rights as well.

5. Develop an arsenal of gross jokes and remarks and laugh it up.

6. Decide (a) God is dead or (b) you can't prove anything. And be ready with proof of either view to last through an all-night bull session.

7. Adopt the theory of free love. Discuss with a member of the opposite sex the psychological crippling created by society's restrictions on sex. Convince her to join you in building a more honest society. Believe in Hugh Hefner as a prophet of our times.

These are the tenets of "sophomoreism." They foster a faith of noncommitment. Under them the "sophomore" whines about minor nuisances but does not act to correct them.

The "sophomore" does not know people, especially those who are different. He knows only the shell of the cool and the non-cool.

In sexual relations, he regards both himself and his partner merely as objects and so creates a new dishonesty.

He argues that one unprovable belief is as good as the next, but he lacks the true agnostic's constant study to belief.

His pseudo-philosophizing can keep him from commitment to any faith that demands action.

Sophomoreism is a faith without works, and both the faith and its followers are dead.

Mulch Will Advise Young GOPs; Democrats Begin Reorganizing

Campus politics picked up this week as Collegiate Young Republicans chose a new adviser and Collegiate Young Democrats began reorganization activities.

Merrill F. Mulch, assistant professor of history, accepted duties as adviser of Collegiate Young Republicans at a recent meeting.

Dr. W. D. Moreland, who has resigned as adviser, said, "I'm getting out on my own because I have been adviser as far back as I can remember, and someone new would do the club good. Another reason is that with all my duties as division chairman, I really don't have time to do an adequate job for the club."

At the same meeting, a new executive board for the CYR was elected. The new officers are: Kirk Musselman, Ransom junior, chairman; Gary Hicks, Plainville junior, first vice-chairman; Ken Havner, Spearville sophomore, second vice-chairman; Davida Peterson, Hays junior, third vice-chairman; Marie Woods, Lebanon freshman, secretary; Barry Walker, Sharon Springs sophomore, treasurer; and Robert Wherry, Dorrance freshman, member-at-large.

Collegiate Young Democrats are reorganizing and making plans for the future after being dormant since last spring.

Charles Cummings, president of the CYD, said, "The group wasn't active last semester mostly because of a lack of interest. We are reorganizing now, and plan to host a number of well-known speakers and some of the candidates for state and national offices."

"If we can get our membership up to about 125 from our present 25, we should have little difficulty in getting the speakers here," he added.

The next meeting of the Young Democrats will be Tuesday.

Establish Date for Furlough; Committee Wants Volunteers

The date of the third annual Fort Hays Furlough has been set for April 29-30. This "weekend of fun" raises money for work-scholarships to undergraduate students at Fort Hays State.

The program will be similar to last spring's, beginning with an intrasquad football game on Friday, April 29. In addition, the Furlough will include the crowning of "Miss Furlough 1966," competitive bicycle races, and a baseball game with Kansas Wesleyan University.

"Students determine the success of this venture through their support," a spokesman for the Furlough planning committee said.

Anyone interested in working on the Furlough is requested by the Furlough planning committee to leave their name and address at the Leader office in Martin Allen Hall.

Help is needed for publicity, posters, track preparations, ticket selling, program sales and refreshment sales.

Drama Special Slated On KFHS Wednesday

A special "Evening of Drama" featuring a variety of programming will be presented on KFHS Wednesday from 4:30 to 10 p.m.

On the program will be three drama shows. "The Lone Ranger" and "The War of the Worlds." The third drama is undecided.

"The War of the Worlds" created a furor when released in the 1930's. Many believed the "War of the Worlds" was actually taking place and in the panic that followed it's broadcast several people were killed.

New musical shows from Broadway will also be heard along with live interviews with some of the stars. Several introductions and closings of famous radio shows will round out the "Evening of Drama."

Suran To Coach Tiger Golf Squad

Fort Hays State's athletic director, Cade Suran, will serve as head golf coach this spring due to resignation of former coach Joel Moss.

Dr. Moss, head of the FHS art department, said the growth of his department the past few years is the primary reason he is relinquishing the head coaching position.

Moss, head coach for the past seven years, compiled a dual record of 53-23-1. His Tiger squads won the conference championship in 1960, 1961 and 1965, the only three CIC golf titles in FHS history.

Those same three teams finished among the top 11 teams in the NAIA national tournament.

The 1966 golf schedule has not been completed.

Tiger Grapplers Will Face Huskers; Matmen Hope for Winning Season

Seeking a winning season, FHS's wrestling squad will close out its regular season Friday, in a dual contest with the University of Nebraska at Lincoln.

After Friday's meet, the Tigers will be idle until March 17, when they jaunt to St. Cloud, Minn., for the NAIA Championships.

Coach Dave Winter's charges, 8-8 in dual competition, split a pair last week, losing to Colorado State University and defeating Kearney State College.

Thursday, the Bengals lost to Colorado State, 21-16, at Hays. FHS won four of the nine matches, gaining only one fall. Don Keller, St. Francis senior, pinned CSU's Ted Levine in 3:56 to win the 130-pound class.

Friday, in the last home meet of the season, the Bengals evened their record at 8-8, downing the Kearney State Antelopes, 21-13. The Tigers won six of the nine matches, two by falls.

Keller again won his division by a fall, and Roy Graves, Great Bend sophomore, captured the 167-pound class by a fall.

Other Bengals winning in Friday's contest were Jim Applegate in the 137-pound class, Stormy Johnson in the 145-pound division, Bob Ruda in the 160-pound class, and Emery Hart in the 177-pound class.

The Bengals have been weakened considerably by injury. Tiger regulars out of action include Jerry Cunningham, Tom Perkins, Bill Ramsey, and Mark Watts. Results — FHS vs. Colorado State Univ. 123 — Tom Graves, CSU, pinned Ken Coover, 3:32

New Coach's Problem

Success To So-So Year

By Scott Spreier

Assistant Sports Editor

What's it like going from a successful reign as basketball coach at a junior college to a so-so first-year season as head mentor of a four-year institution?

Coach Chuck Brehm
... "there are problems."

Tiger Coach Chuck Brehm answered the question in three words, "There are problems."

In his first year at the Tiger helm, Brehm directed his charges to a 11-10 record and a third-place CIC finish.

Previously, while coaching Dodge City Junior College's basketball team, Brehm racked up an impressive five-year record of 113 wins and 29 losses. Brehm led the Dodge City Conquistadors to the national junior college title in 1964 and a fifth-place national finish last season.

One of the biggest problems cited by the Bengal coach in switching schools is recruiting.

"In a two-year college a coach looks for players who are ready to play their first year. However, in a four-year school a coach must seek players who can be developed over a period of time. Coaching at a four-year college means more building and planning," Brehm says.

"Another problem confronting any coach who moves from a junior college to a four-year institution," Brehm says, "is developing new offenses and defenses, plus a new game philosophy toward the team."

Brehm said "such a transition cannot be accomplished over night."

He said, "No matter where you're coaching or what your problems are, the goal must stay the same: to develop a strong basketball team."

Cagers End Season With 11-10 Mark

By Lee Mai
Sports Editor

Fort Hays State's Tiger cage squad suffered an 80-75 setback at the hands of CIC cellar-dwelling Washburn University in the Tigers' final contest of the 1965-66 season last Thursday night in Topeka.

In losing their final game, the Tigers' season record fell to 11-10 and the CIC loss dropped the Tigers into a third-place tie with Omaha University at 3-5.

Although the Tigers swept both conference contests with the Indians, Omaha defeated both Pittsburg State and Emporia State at Omaha while the Tigers dropped both the home and away contests with the two CIC leaders.

Pittsburg won the conference crown with a 7-1 mark, Emporia finished second at 5-3 and Washburn netted the conference cellar at 2-6.

FHS rolled to an impressive early-season mark of 6-1 before erratic play and cold shooting hampered the Tigers.

In their first seven games the Tigers averaged 88 points a game and held their opponents to 76 points a contest.

With guards Jerry Mask and Al Billinger scoring a total of 41 points, the Tigers rolled to a 91-73 opening season win over Southwestern.

Within a week, the Tigers ran their record to 4-0, dumping Southern Colorado State 86-76, Lincoln University 89-78 and bombing Kearney State 103-78, all three home contests.

After suffering their first loss of the season, an 89-85 setback against Southern Colorado State College at Pueblo, the Tigers bounced back for an 84-82 win over Colorado State College before entering the first annual Midwest Intercollegiate Invitational Basketball Tournament at Emporia.

In their first contest of the tourney, the Tigers rolled to a 78-62 win over Omaha University, moving their season record to 6-1. The Tigers managed only five wins in the next 14 contests.

The first of two three-game losing streaks dropped the Tiger mark to 6-4 as the Bengals lost to Illinois State College 84-82, Rockhurst College 74-73 and Pittsburg State 71-65. The Tigers then won three of their next four contests, edging Omaha 69-67, losing to St. Benedict's 53-69, squeaking out a 69-68 win over Bethany College and dumping Hastings College 76-64.

However, once again, FHS went into a tailspin, this time losing four of five. The Bengals lost a 92-80 decision to Emporia State, stopped Washburn 75-68, then lost to Emporia 72-60, Pittsburg 94-82 and to St. Benedict's 76-68.

The Tigers closed out their home season with an 86-68 romp over Omaha University before losing their final contest to Washburn 80-75 at Topeka.

Cleat Doyel led the FHS scoring chart for the season, averaging over 17 points a game while Gene Rider was next on the list with a 12-point average. Doyel also led in rebounds with 12 a game while Bill Strait contributed 10 per contest.

TOP SCORER — Eddie Johnson, Hugoton senior, was the leading scorer on the Tiger gymnastics squad this winter. The muscular senior paced the Tigers to an 8-4 dual mark, scoring 168.5 points while Mark Giese, Bismark, N. D., sophomore, finished second on the individual scoring list with 147.5.

Bengal Gymnasts End Season With 8-4 Slate

FHS's gymnasts ended their regular season with an 8-4 record, Saturday, when they split a double-dual meet with Colorado State University and Fort Lewis College, at Fort Collins.

The Tigers will not see action again until March 18, when they travel to Macomb, Ill., for the NAIA championships.

In Saturday's contest, FHS lost to rugged Colorado State, 153.52-133.58, but squeaked by Fort Lewis College by .08 of a point, 133.58-133.50.

Coach Ed McNeil's charges failed to gain a first against the stubborn CSU Rams, but captured two firsts against the Fort Lewis team.

Mark Giese, Bismark, N.D., sophomore, captured first in the trampoline, and John Bartholomew, Medicine Lodge freshman, placed first in the side horse.

The Bengals, whose season record is the best since their 1962 mark of 6-2, won five of their last six meets.

Leading the Tiger cause was Ed Johnson, Hugoton senior. The three-year letterman scored 168.5 points for the season. Following Johnson was Mark Giese, who tallied 147.5 points, and Robert Fussell, Medicine Lodge freshman, with 100.

John Bartholomew was fourth in scoring with 82.5 tallies, and Joe Briggs, Beatrice, Neb., sophomore, was fifth with 70. Briggs and Johnson lead the Bengal squad as co-captains.

Coach McNeil's squad had a successful season on the road as well as at home, winning five of six away from home. Their only loss on the road came in the second meet of the season, when they were downed by Nebraska University at Lincoln.

"I was well pleased with our overall performance for the season," said McNeil. "With over half our squad freshmen, I thought we progressed very well."

FHS's Record-Breaking Thinclads In Action At Lawrence Saturday

Fort Hays State's record-breaking thinclad squad returns to action Saturday in the State Federation meet at Lawrence.

The Tigers, who have already bettered five school indoor marks this winter, have two indoor meets remaining on the schedule before moving outside.

Coach Alex Francis expresses some doubt as to what to expect from his squad this weekend as several key thinclads are out with injuries.

The Tigers will be competing with the University of Kansas, Kansas State University and several small colleges.

In two previous meets, the Tigers captured second in the NAIA National Indoor Track and Field Championships and rolled to an easy victory over Kearney (Neb.) State in a dual at Kearney.

In the NAIA meet, Don Lakin, Pawnee Rock senior, established a new FHS two-mile indoor record, churning the distance in 9:10.8. Lakin, who usually runs both the mile and two-mile, will concentrate on the longer distance at KU.

Four school marks fell in the Tigers' romp over Kearney State. Bob Schmidt, Ellis senior, tied his own indoor mark of 6-8 in the high jump. Rod Williams, Plainville senior, soared to a career best of 6-7, giving the Tigers a strong one-two punch in this event.

Yates Center junior Bernie Blevins, fired the shot-put 52-6, bettering the FHS record and winning first place in the Kearney dual.

John Mason, Phillipsburg sophomore, bettered his own indoor mark in the mile with a winning time of 4:15.0. Mason, who, like Lakin, usually competes in both the mile and two-mile, will concentrate on the mile in this weekend's meet.

The other school record to fall was the indoor mile relay mark as Jerry Katz, Ken Rhoden, Jack Harms and Lynn Havel turned the distance in 3:26.0.

Tiger entries in the Federation meet include: Jim Alexander, 60; Ken Allen, mile; Lonny Antrim, broad jump; Gary Arthaud, two-mile; Blevins, shot-put; John Duran, hurdles; Larry Flint, hurdles.

Harms, 1,000; Duane Harper, two-mile; Jerry Hertel, mile; Cecil Johnson, 880; Bob Johnson, pole vault; Katz, 880; Lakin, two-mile; Mason, mile; Ron Morel, 60 and hurdles.

Marlon Neely, 880; Maylon Neely, 880; Bob Newsom, 60; Riley Rankin, 600; Rhoden, 600; Schmidt, high jump; Terry Shane, 60 and hurdles; Lowell Smith, 1,000; Joe Twyman, two-mile; Williams, high jump; and Bruce Zamrzla, mile.

Tourney Ends IM Cage Year

P.A. Steelers opened the intramural basketball tournament by downing the Great Plains 75-68 Thursday. This victory moved them into the quarter-finals against the Shockers.

The Shockers got their win in an 83-28 romp over the Executors. The Delta Sigma Phi "A" squad triumphed over the Old Crows 51-32. The Delta Sigs faced the Cruisers in their second game.
