Cade Suran Ends 31-Year Coaching Career

Fort Hays State's head basketball coach for the last 19 seasons winds up his coaching career tonight as the Tigers entertain Washburn University in the final game of the 1964-65 season.

Cade Suran, who came to FHS in 1946, ends 31 years of basketball coaching tonight. The genial Bengal mentor will devote full time to his new duties as athletic director at FHS, with Charles (Chuck) Brehm, now coaching at Dodge City Junior College, moving in as basketball coach next year.

Cade started his career at Harlan High School after graduating from Kansas Wesleyan University in 1934. He coached at Downs and Wellington before moving into college ranks at FHS in 1946.

In his 19 years of Tiger taming, his teams have won 263 games and lost only 151. Included among his numerous successes were CIC championships in 1950, 1959, 1962 and 1963. The 1959, 1962 and 1963 squads also won NAIA District 10 championships and competed in the NAIA Tournament of Champions at Kansas City, copping fourth place in the 32-team meet in 1959 and 1963.

One of the "winningest" coaches in small colleges circles, Suran has brought Fort Hays State to its perennial place as a basketball power in its area.

In his finale tonight, Cade sends his Tigers on the court to battle for a possible share of second place in this year's CIC standings. If FHS knocks off Washburn tonight and Emporia bumps Omaha at Emporia, also tonight, the Tigers, Washburn and Omaha will finish in a three-way tie for second place behind champion Pittsburg State.

The Bengals lost to Washburn, 95-75, at Topeka Feb. 1. FHS has lost its last three games, but by margins of four points, one point and seven points. The three setbacks give the Tigers a season record of 8-13 going into tonight's tussle.

Washburn brings a 12-9 record to Hays, and it's also the last game of the season for the Ichabods. A pre-season favorite for this year's championship, Washburn faltered late in the CIC race and lost crucial decisions to Pittsburg and Emporia State.

Coach Norm Short's Blues have been paced by Salina junior Ron Ford and senior guards Gordon Hibbard and Kenny Hendrix. In recent games, Larned junior Denny Douglas has become a WU scoring mainstay.

Three members of Fort Hays State's varsity will finish their college careers tonight. Seniors on the Bengal roster are forwards Richard Schur, Jude Gerstner and Bill Royer. Schur and Gerstner rank third and fourth on the squad in scoring this season, while Royer, a two-year letterman, has seen action as a reserve. Gerstner is completing his fourth year on the Tiger varsity.

GUARD DARRELL EHRLICH, a 5-9 sophomore from Jetmore, played the entire second half when FHS lost to Omaha Saturday. It was the most action he has seen this year, and he responded with six points and a pair of timely steals. For the season, the left-handed shooter has been in 10 games and scored 26 points. A former all-area selection at Jetmore High, he led the FHS junior varsity in scoring in 1962-63 and then stayed out of college last year. Darrell is majoring in business.

FORWARD FRED ANDREGG is the only frosh on the Tiger varsity this season. Regarded as one of the finest freshmen to join the Tiger basketball squad in recent years, Andregg has been in 10 games for FHS, scoring 40 points and grabbing 20 rebounds. He leads the team in field goal percentage, hitting 15 of 27 for 55.6 per cent. Fred was an all-state choice at Hoxie High School last year. He plans to pursue a pre-dental course at Fort Hays State.
