Tonight's Game

The 1972-73 edition of the Fort Hays State Tigers opens up their season tonight against the Raiders from Fort Lewis College.

Fort Lewis brings in a squad that returns four lettermen from last season's 13-13 squad. The Raiders finished in a tie for the sixth spot in the Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference last year. In the coaches' pre-season poll, the Raiders were put in the seventh slot.

First year coach Dr. Charles Walker will build his team around veterans Benji Gadson, Rick Clark and transfer Greg Allen. The Raiders lack height and Dr. Walker plans to use an aggressive game. Major losses for the Raiders last year were the graduation of all-league Gerald Carter and regulars Paul Soto and Gene Bundy.

This will be the first meeting between the two schools.

Fort Lewis comes into tonight's game with one game under their belts as they visited Cameron, Okla. Saturday for an opening season tournament. In four years of competition in the RMAC, the Raiders have compiled a 21-35 mark.

A Look Ahead

Following tonight's game, the Tiger cagers journey to Kearney State College before returning home on Dec. 2 to face Sacred Heart College.

The Antelopes return 12 lettermen from last year's team that was 19-6 and took a trip to the NAIA Championships in Kansas City. Last season, the Antelopes dropped an 84-83 decision to the Bengals in Sheridan Coliseum before defeating FHS on their home court 84-72.

According to Sports Information Director Don Briggs, the outlook for KSC is bright but cloudy. Twelve lettermen return, but gone are 6-11 Roger Ahearns, all-conference choice and leading scorer John Kropp, and Mike Rol, Alan Lee and Bob Jones.

Returning are starters Tom Kropp, Jerry Willis, and Mark Christensen, plus teammates who saw much action last fall. Five freshmen and two transfers make the outlook pleasant. The Antelopes will be exciting and should be a high scoring outfit.

Sacred Heart returns to FHS after dropping two decisions to the Tigers last season. The Jets lost in Hays 93-59 and in Wichita 66-65. Last year, Sacred Heart had a mark of 9-15.

Mike Bayer returns to lead the Jet attack. Last season Bayer was an NAIA All-America Honorable Mention.

Sacred Heart's team strength lies in their shooting, while their weakness is lack of size and experience.

Confusion and Chaos

Tom Bradrick

Jim Birnbaum

Confusion, chaos, and complete frustration could be the words used to describe the last cross country meet of the season for the Fort Hays State harriers this year.

Led by the running efforts of Jim Birnbaum and Tom Bradrick, the Bengals were relegated to a 10th-place finish at the line instead of the second or third that they had earned.

After starting the season with a loss to Marymount College in a dual meet, the Tigers finished behind the Spartans five more times during the course of the year. At the nationals, the Bengals and Spartans received the brunt of the human error as the Tigers were dropped in the standings and the Spartans were given a 12th place.

Head Coach Alex Francis remarked after the meet, "In my 38 years of coaching, this meet at William Jewell was the biggest nightmare I have ever had."

Birnbaum, who finished fourth, and Bradrick, the 14th finisher were both recognized as All-America for the season.

Record setting receiver John Woodworth and junior tailback Steve Crosby were the only Tigers to be named to the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics District 10 team last week. Kansas State Teachers College dominated the team by placing seven players and their coach on the honor squad.

For Woodworth, it marked the third consecutive year for his selection to the team. The Halstead senior finished his career at Fort Hays State holding every pass catching record except one. In his three years, Woodworth hauled in 162 passes for 2,326 yards and 18 touchdowns.

Crosby receives the nod to the team for the first time. Crosby carried the ball 212 times for 867 yards this season. He also scored nine touchdowns.

Both Crosby and Woodworth led the Great Plains Athletic Conference in their respective categories going into the final week of action in the conference.
