TIGER TEAMS ON THE CHAMPIONSHIP TRAIL

Coach Barry Allen and six of his wrestlers are traveling to Wheeling, West Virginia for the 22nd NAIA Wrestling Championships on March 1-3.

Tiger gymnasts head for Menomonie, Wisconsin for the NAIA Championships. Last year Ed McNeil's team placed fourth when the national championships were held in Hays. Action opens on March 2.

Kathy Brym's Tigerette gymnasts hope to win the KAIWA State Tournament this Saturday, March 3. The Tigerettes have qualified for the AIAW regional Championships in St. Peter, Minnesota on March 16-17.

A win in tonight's game with Kearney State would send the Tigers into a play-off game with the Pittsburg State Gorillas. The site and time will be determined after a Tiger victory.

All-America candidate Mark Wilson drives to the hoop. Wilson has shattered the old single season scoring record this season. The old standard was set by Barton Snow at 615 points. Wilson has scored 677 points this season.
