C. E. RARICK, President
HAYS, KANSAS

March 30, 1937

Dr. C. E. Rarick:

According to the memoranda sent from your office on December 3, 1936, we are to charge Mr. Rouse 25¢ per month for the two ponies and an additional charge for any supplemental feed fed in addition to the pasture.

This would be $3.00 per pony for the year of 12 months for pasture. Mr Rouse's pasture year will end April 30, 1937 at which time we will send him a statement covering the above amount.

I think that we should reserve this right, that in case any of the horses taken into the pasture should develop a habit of fighting or chasing the cattle, we will demand their removable at once.
