Final Examinations Schedule

The Faculty Senate has worked out the Schedule of Final Examinations which is attached.

Last year the faculty voted to retain a final examination period. Therefore, it is expected that each class shall meet for at least one hour for a final exam or discussion, and leave the instructor and the class decide. It is expected that all classes will meet according to the attached schedule. Any deviation from it brings a hardship upon others who are unable to make any adjustments. It puts the faculty member in a bad light in the mind of the students.

Unless there is an emergency you will meet your class for a least one hour according to the schedule. Please note:

1. Classes which meet with five days of the week as a given hour, for example 9:00, will meet for their final in the period for all classes meeting Tuesday at 1:00.
2. All 75 minute classes on Tuesday and Thursday will meet at the time of the full 50 minute period, for example, the 7:55 to 8:45 class will meet for the final at the time of the Tuesday at 1:00 period.
