Academic Advising Webinar on Title IX

Thursday, March 9, 1:00pm to 2:00pm

Memorial Union Black and Gold Room

The Academic Advising and Career Exploration Center will be hosting It's On Us Too: Understanding & Navigating Title IX as an Academic Advisor.

RSVP: Please let us know if you are planning to attend by replying to advising@fhsu.edu. We will send you a calendar entry that you will need to Accept and Send the Response Now. We look forward to seeing you at our sessions.

Webinar Overview:

Many institutions are grappling with new Title IX requirements and the issues surrounding the reporting and investigation of relationship violence and sexual misconduct. Many academic advisors are now mandated reporters, yet have little knowledge of the policies, procedures, and support services available to both complainants and respondents. As advising may be the only area where students have sustained contact with a representative of the institution, academic advisors may find themselves on the forefront of these difficult conversations. In this webinar, advisors will receive a primer on Title IX legislation, student rights and responsibilities in the investigation process, and the resources available to support all parties involved, as well as a review of what being a "mandated reporter" means and the implications for the advising relationship. Attendees will:

- Gain an understanding of the history and parameters of Title IX in relation to relationship violence and sexual misconduct;
- Learn basic reporting protocols on campus;
- Understand student rights and responsibilities surrounding the investigation process; and
- Discover resources both on and off campus to support all parties involved.

Presenters:

- Shannon Lynn Burton, Associate University Ombudsperson / Research Integrity Coordinator, Michigan State University

In her role as Michigan State University's Associate University Ombudsperson, Shannon Lynn Burton assists both complainants and respondents in better understanding their rights in the investigation process. She serves on the International Ombudsman Association's Title IX Response Committee and has taught courses that focus on critical issues, as well as legal and ethical issues in higher education. Additionally, she has research interests in ethics/integrity, restorative justice, and due process in higher education.

- Mark Duslak, Director of Student Development, Lake-Sumter State College.

Mark Duslak has served as a school counselor for six years, was an academic and career advisor for two years, and has recently assumed the position of Director of Student Development, overseeing Campus Life, the Office of Student Disabilities, and Academic Advising at Lake-Sumter State College. Mark has worked in rural and urban school settings serving populations from grade 6 through college. His preparation as a counselor provided opportunities to understand issues of confidentiality, mandated reporting, and the effects on the counselor-client relationship. As a counselor, he was a mandated reporter and worked with students on issues of threats of violence, abuse, and harassment.

Tuesday, March 28, 3:30pm to 4:30pm

Forsyth Library Room 45

The Honors College will be hosting its second of three Honors Pedagogical Roundtable for the Spring semester.

The focus of this roundtable discussion will be class tactics and grading mechanisms that consider our students' tendency to be grade perfectionists. This roundtable discussion is open to all FHSU faculty. This will be a true roundtable discussion where faculty can engage with questions and input. Faculty who have experience teaching honors courses will be present to share their observations and recommendations. We particularly encourage attendance by any faculty considering submitting an Honors Course Proposal in the future.
