ANNOUNCEMENTS

IMPORTANT: FY 2017 Deposit Deadline Reminder

Cash Sales need to be submitted in Workday and hand-delivered to the Student Fiscal Service Office (Picken Hall 317) by 12:00 p.m., on Tuesday, June 20, 2017, in order to be processed and deposited in Fiscal Year 2017.

Continue submitting Cash Sales in Workday after June 20; however, they may not be processed by our office until after July 3, 2017, and will be posted in Fiscal Year 2018.

If you have any questions, feel free to contact the Student Fiscal Service Office at x5251.

Strategic Plan Town Hall Meeting

Thanks to everyone who has participated in a Town Hall Meeting thus far.

To date we have heard from over 100 faculty and staff who have given us feedback on the plan. All staff, faculty, and students are invited to our final summer Strategic Planning Town Hall Meeting to review and discuss the draft University Strategic Plan, Journey to Distinction. Please join us!

3:00pm – 4:00pm    Monday, June 19    Memorial Union, Stouffer Lounge (Rm 222)

A copy of the draft plan, feedback form, and additional information is available at:

Fresh Produce in the Tiger Food Exchange

Food and Garden Club will be harvesting available produce from the Victor E Garden (located next to the Robbins Center) on Tuesday mornings during the summer and delivering the fresh veggies to the Tiger Food Exchange (located on the main floor of the Forsyth Library).

What is available will change as the season progresses. Be sure to check the main table inside the Exchange, as well as the fridge.

We would also like to remind everyone that the Tiger Food Exchange is available for the entire FHSU community: students, faculty, staff and alumni.

Contact Shane at sfkeller2@mail.fhsu.edu with any questions.

Volunteers Needed

Fort Hays State University is hosting the Hispanic College Institute, a free four-day program that prepares high school Hispanic students to enter and succeed in higher education. The Institute will occur from June 20–24 on the FHSU campus. This is the 2nd year of this program, and it would not be possible without the support of so many fantastic volunteers.

We have many opportunities for you to share your time and talents to help mentor the next generation of Hispanic college students.

Volunteers are needed for the following areas:

- Networking Reception: Tuesday June 20, 6:00 PM – 7:15 PM (approximately 30 volunteers needed)
  - This reception will allow current FHSU students who are serving as leaders for the Institute to network. Volunteers will visit with leaders and allow them to practice the social and networking skills they have learned.
- Hispanic Stars: Thursday June 22, 9:30 AM – 3:00 PM (approximately 15 volunteers needed)
  - Hispanic Stars is an opportunity for members of the Hispanic/Latino community to share personal stories about their education and professional lives. Volunteers will engage with students in small groups, sharing their stories. Volunteers will participate in both the morning and afternoon rotations with a break in the middle. Lunch will be provided.
- Issues to Action: Thursday June 22, 11:15 AM – 3:00 PM (6 volunteers needed)
  - Issues to Action invites teams of student participants to identify an issue and develop a plan of action to present to a panel of judges. Volunteers will serve as judges by listening to the presented plans and providing scores and feedback to the student teams. The top 5 teams will present during the finals on Friday. Volunteers will participate in both the morning and afternoon sessions with a break in the middle. Lunch will be provided.
- Issues to Action Finals: Friday 5:45 PM – 7:15 PM (3 volunteers needed)
  - The 5 finalists from Thursday's presentation will present their issue and their proposed plan of action to the panel of judges. Volunteers will serve as judges by listening to the presented plans and providing scores and feedback to the student teams.
- Lip Sync Battle: Friday 7:00 PM - 9:00 PM (5 volunteers needed)

- o Student groups will design and perform a lip sync routine and compete against each other for the best performance. Volunteers will serve as the judging panel, scoring each team and deciding the winner.

If you would like more information about the institute, please feel free to check out the website: <http://www.fhsu.edu/hci/>.

If you are ready to volunteer please submit your information through SignUp.com.

FHSU Pork – Half and Whole Hogs to Victoria

FHSU Swine Division has whole or half hogs available for purchase going in June 13th and July 11th.

Half for $115 or $200 for a whole pig. We deliver to Smoky Hill Meat processing in Victoria for you. All you have to do is pay for processing costs and pick up your frozen whole or half hog. Processing costs vary but usually ($100-120 for half and $200-240 for whole). The hog will be processed custom to your liking. For instance, sausage or pork burgers, bacon or fresh side, ham or pork cutlets, how thick, or how many are in a package.

Please email cjsatran@fhsu.edu, as Curtis is out of the office frequently. Please leave a name, best phone number, whole or half, and an address.

Antique Cast Iron Bell to be Dedicated at FHSU's Plymouth Schoolhouse

Wednesday, June 14; 10:00am

In front of FHSU's Plymouth Schoolhouse, Located just south of Sheridan Hall

Fort Hays State University will celebrate a unique addition to its Plymouth Schoolhouse – an iron bell that was cast more than 100 years ago – at a dedication. The dedication will take place in front of the Plymouth Schoolhouse, which is located just south of Sheridan Hall on the FHSU campus.

Benefactors who will be recognized at the dedication include:

- Jane Koetkemeyer Kohtz, Hays, a 1975 FHSU graduate, who donated the bell.
- The family of Elaine Driscoll, a 1970 FHSU graduate and a longtime Fort Hays State employee. She passed away in 2015, and donations from her memorial fund were used to build the base for the bell.
- Dr. Paul Adams, Anschutz Professor of Education and dean of the College of Education.
- Joe Chretien, associate professor of applied technology at FHSU, for refurbishing the bell and designing the base.
- FHSU's Physical Plant for building the base.
- DeLoyd Sander for his masonry work.

Boy Scouts Troop 101, Venture Crew 101 will raise the flag and our very own Tiger Tots will sing the national anthem.

The public is invited. Refreshments will be provided inside the Plymouth Schoolhouse following the dedication.

Project Management Essentials

Tuesday, June 21 & Wednesday, June 22; 9:00am to 4:00pm

Sternberg Museum

As a project manager you understand the need for tools to help coordinate, plan, execute and complete projects on-time and on-budget. This program will give you hands-on experience and real-life applications for many of the widely recognized project management methods in business, including: work breakdown structure, network diagramming, critical path technique and earned value management. Key process steps are practiced through team exercises, allowing participants to understand how, when and why they should be used. You are sure to come away from this seminar better prepared to confidently manage projects from small to large using the most effective techniques available.

This workshop is facilitated by DeAnn Sullivan. Please view the full details on our website:

<http://www.fhsu.edu/cob/mdc/Project-Management-Essentials/>.

Because we partner with the Wichita State University Center for Management Development, this workshop is not complimentary to FHSU employees. However, you or someone you know, can register online.

Contact Sabrina William at (785) 628-4124 or slwilliam@fhsu.edu if you need assistance with registration.
