NUMBER OF STUDENTS ADVISED BY ADVISERS: The chairman announced that a survey had been made of the number of enrollments for students which each adviser had approved for this semester. The total number of advisers was 119, and the total students advised was 3020--this report included only some of the Saturday class enrollments. The report was discussed briefly by the Senate members.

NCA QUARTERLY ARTICLES: The chairman called attention to two articles in the current issue of the NCA Quarterly. The one article is regarding testing and the two tests designed for college freshmen, the two considered to be among the best for admission counseling were the College Board and the ACT tests. The other article is regarding the orientation of new college faculty members and practices which are helpful.
