THE SECRETARY OF THE INTERIOR

Washington

May 5, 1933.

Memorandum for:

Director, National Park Service.

There are transmitted herewith for your information and guidance copies of correspondence with Mr. Fechner, Director of Emergency Conservation Work.

The President's instructions that the work be accomplished at the minimum of expense consistent with efficient operation should be impressed upon everyone in your organization.

It is my desire that this Department make a record for economical and efficient accomplishment of emergency conservation work and that the workers under our supervision attain both physical and mental betterment.

HAROLD L. ICKES,

Secretary of the Interior.
