GLORIA STEINEM

Ms. Gloria Steinem, a noted feminist and writer, will be speaking in Hays, Kansas on April 14, 1977 at the Sheridan Coliseum on the Fort Hays Kansas State College campus at 8:00 p.m.

Since her first article was published in Esquire ten years ago, Ms. Steinem's work has appeared in many magazines and newspapers in the United States, England and Europe. She has written for film, television and several campaigns; most notably those of Robert Kennedy, George Mc Govern, Cesar Chavez' United Farm Workers, and Shirley Chisholm. Ms. Steinem has served as editorial consultant to Show Magazine, Curtis publications, Conde Nast Publishing and the McCall Publishing Company. She was contributing editor and political columnist for New York Magazine, currently an editor for MS Magazine.

After graduation, Phi Beta Kappa and magna cum laude, from Smith College, Ms. Steinem studied in India for a year on a Chester Bowles Asian Fellowship, and spent an additional year there writing for Indian publications. In 1970 she received the Penney-Missouri Journalism Award and was named McCall's Woman of the Year in 1971. Ms. Steinem was the first recipient of Simmons College's Doctor of Human Justice degree in 1973. Ms. Steinem's most frequent writing subjects are politics, current sociology, profiles with special emphasis on political movements among women and minority groups.

She serves on the Advisory Board of the National Organization for Women, was one of the conveners of the National Women's Political Caucus in 1971, and serves on its Advisory Committee.

Ms. Steinem's topic will be "Politics, Women and Minority Groups." Students with a FHKSC activity ticket will be admitted free, others $2.00. If you have any questions feel free to call or write:
