Teaching Field Attracts Many Fort Hays Staters

Mid-year teaching vacancies in Western and Central Kansas schools are attracting many January graduates of Fort Hays State College.

Of 21 seniors who have reported their plans to the college placement office, 15 are embarking on teaching careers, four others are entering non-teaching positions and two have plans for graduate work.

The new teachers, their hometowns, subject field and community in which they will teach include: Earl Blauer Jr., Phillipsburg, music, Palco; Phillip Curtis, St. John, speech correction, Larned; Isabel Edwards Goodland, elementary education, Ruleton; Carla Rodeman, Ness City, speech correction, Leoti; Reva Rodeman, Ness City, vocal music, Hill City; Roger Steinert, Russell, fifth grade, Colby; Mrs. Marclyn Stephenson Bangle, Clayton, third grade, St. George; Joyce Philip, Brownell, first grade, Ness City; Rebecca Steckman, Macksville, elementary education, California; Derryl Franz, Rozel, English and speech, Smith Center; Sharon Williams, Plainville, kindergarten, Stockton; Norma Eldridge, Lenora, sixth grade, Goodland; Carlyle Sivesind, Hays, industrial arts Milwaukee, Wis.; Shirley Churchill, Goodland, kindergarten, Hays; and Gary Kraisinger, Great Bend, mathematics and social sciences, Dighton.

Those entering non-teaching fields include: Myron Hermes, Hutchinson, chief medical technician, Grace Hospital in Hutchinson; John M. Stull, Brownell, chemist, Dowell, Inc., of Tulsa; Virginia Mathews Tribune, reporter, Goodland Daily News and Sherman County Herald; and Hugo Huslig, Great Bend, Internal Revenue Service agent, Des Moines.

Two other mid-year graduates, Michael Bula of Hays and Jay D. Forsyth of Liberal, will attend graduate schools. Bula will work on a master's degree in physical education at the University of Kansas and Forsyth will take advanced study in economics at Oklahoma State University, Stillwater.

64 Public School Teachers Leaving

Sixty-four Salina public school teachers have resigned or will resign effective at the end of school this spring.

W. M. Ostberg, superintendent of schools, said the number is about 16 percent of the total public school faculty.

He said it is probably the largest number to leave at one time in the Salina school system's history.

"We would expect a larger number, however," he said, "because we have a larger total number employed than ever before. This year we had 410 teachers, counselors and administrators."

"Also," he said, "the large number seems to be due in part to considerable movement at Schilling Air Force base. We employ many wives of airmen."

Of the total, three teachers are retiring, and 21 secondary school teachers and 40 elementary school teachers are resigning.

Accepted Monday

The resignations and retirements were accepted by the Salina Board of Education at its meeting Monday afternoon. Also, the board approved the hiring for next year of 17 new secondary school teachers and 37 new elementary school teachers.

Dr. M. Scott Norton, assistant principal, said the hiring process will be continued.

Retiring are Mrs. Gladys Neuberger, Sunset sixth-grade teacher; Elaine E. Sites, Salina senior high school science teacher, and Ralph Reed, Salina senior high school auto mechanics teacher.

Retires 2nd Year

Ralph Reed, it was noted by the board, is retiring for the second year in a row. He had retired last year but the board had difficulty getting another auto mechanics teacher and he was asked to return for a year.

Wedding Bells Breaking Up That Old Tiger Gang

Those wedding bells are breaking up that old Tiger gang.

When Fort Hays State's basketball team finished fourth in the NAIA national championships in March, only two of the 10 Tigers on the squad were married—senior starters Herb Stange and Jim Bodge.

Now, just over three months later, seven of the 10 have made that matrimonial fast break down the aisle.

The other three seniors on the 1962-63 squad, John Channell, Tom McKain and Dave Hurt, were married in June, as was Sam McDowell, who will be a senior next year. Bill Royer, who will be a junior, was married in April.

Here's how the marital roster grew since season's end:

Bill Royer, Lawrence junior, married Leta Kraus, Pretty Prairie junior, in April. Royer will return for his second season this winter.

Sam McDowell, Smith Center senior, married Gaylene Howard, Smith Center senior, June 1. Mrs. McDowell is in nurse education. McDowell will seek his fourth Tiger letter next season.

Dave Hurt, Ellis graduate, married Joyce Philip, 1962 FHS graduate from Brownell, June 1. Both will teach in WaKeeney.

John Channell, Goodland graduate, married Tanya Buss, Great Bend sophomore, June 9. Channell will teach and coach at Garfield.

Tom McKain, Minneapolis graduate, married Pat Edgerle, former Hutchinson Junior College student, June 31. McKain will teach and coach with Stange at Dorrance.
