The Promenade Gallery of the Memorial Union is happy to present the paintings and sculpture of Mr. James E. Hagan of Manhattan, Kansas. His formal education includes a B. S. degree in Radio and Journalism (1950) as well as a B. A. degree (1966) and a M. A. degree (1968) in Art from Kansas State University. For a number of years he served on the teaching faculty of that institution. However, last year he established his private studio-art gallery in a one-room white-limestone school-house located halfway between Manhattan and Tuttle Creek Lake where he devotes all of his time to art professionally. Since 1961 Mr. Hagan has exhibited extensively winning many prizes and purchase awards. He is represented in many private collections. The current one-man exhibition includes recent work in painting and sculpture and these are available for purchase.
