Using Technology in Advising

We are providing Advising Technology Sessions for a department and are opening this up to campus as space is available. This is the final chance for any of these sessions this fall. All the sessions will be offered in the morning on December 14, 2018.

8:30 AM – 9:30 AM Using Technology in Advising-TigerTracks
9:40 AM – 10:40 AM Using Technology in Advising-TigerEnroll
10:50 AM – 11:50 AM Using Technology in Advising - Advising Notes

All sessions will be in the Stuffer Lounge.

Participants need to bring their laptop with them for each session.

If you have attended sessions in the past and need to know which sessions you have left to receive your Advising Technology Certificate, please email advising@fhsu.edu for assistance with your name and department.

NOTE: These are open to both faculty and staff.

RSVP: Please RSVP to advising@fhsu.edu or 785-628-5577 to let us know which session(s) you will be attending. We will send you a calendar invite that you will need to Accept and Send the Response Now. This will allow us to have the appropriate number of handouts and seating or notify participants in case of changes.

Angel Tree

The members of Tigers4Ever wish to thank everyone who participated by picking up an angel for the Angel Tree project, benefitting children in need in Ellis County. Angels are no longer available on the tree in the Memorial Union. Any remaining angels can be found at Walmart until all are picked up. If you picked up an angel, please remember to turn your items in by Wednesday, December 12 in the CSI office of the Memorial Union or off campus at Walmart, First Kansas Bank, Maurices and Paisley Pear. Thanks to all who are participated in this project and to our friends in the Memorial Union for their help in coordinating this.

FHSU Hispanic College Institute

Fort Hays State University's Hispanic College Institute is a free, four-day, residential program that prepares high school Hispanic students to enter and succeed in higher education.

Where: Fort Hays State University

When: June 19-22, 2018

Who: Hispanic high school sophomores (Class of 2021) or juniors (Class of 2020)

The program is based on research and input from Hispanic educators and community leaders, and much of the content is delivered by Hispanics who can relate to the students' experiences and challenges.

How to Apply

Apply soon, as we still have a limited number of spots available. To be eligible, a student must:

- Have a 2.5 GPA or above;
- Be a current Hispanic high school sophomore (Class of 2021) or junior (Class of 2020).

There are a limited number of spaces available and acceptance to the program is based off of the application.

APPLY NOW! The deadline to apply is May 1, 2019.

If you have further questions, please feel free to contact Erica Meneses at 785-628-4503.

Alumni Association Award Nominations

Know a Tiger alumnus or friend worthy of an alumni award? Make a nomination today!

Each year, the Fort Hays State University Alumni Association presents accomplished alumni, friends, students and faculty with awards in honor of their achievements and/or service. At Homecoming, four categories of awards are given: Alumni Achievement, Distinguished Service, Nita M. Landrum, and the Young Alumni.

The Alumni Achievement Award, established in 1959, honors graduates of the university for outstanding achievement based upon meritorious service to society or the community. The award is based upon career and professional achievements, service involving community betterment and philanthropic activities, and educational achievements. It is the university's highest recognition of its graduates. View past recipients.

The Distinguished Service Award, established in 1974, recognizes individuals who have demonstrated a continuing concern for humanity on a universal, national, state or community level; who support spiritual, cultural and educational objectives; and who endorse and exemplify the highest standards of character and personal attributes. It is reserved for alumni or friends of the university. View past recipients.

The Nita M. Landrum Award, established in 1994, recognizes alumni or friends who have provided sustained volunteer service for the betterment of the Alumni Association and/or FHSU, especially in their home communities or at any local level. View past recipients.

The Young Alumni Award, established in 1977, is designed to recognize those early in their careers who have had outstanding achievements and recent accomplishments. The award is based upon professional and educational achievements, community activities, honors and awards received and other noteworthy items of merit since graduation. Candidates must hold a bachelor's degree from FHSU, be members of the 10-15 reunion classes, and be under age 40 as of Jan. 1 of the year the awards are presented. View past recipients.

To make a nomination for 2019, visit the online form or download a form and return it to the Alumni Association postmarked by Monday, Dec. 31, 2018.

-Questions, contact the FHSU Alumni Association at 785-628-4430 or alumni@fhsu.edu.

Memorial Union Ballroom

TO: FHSU Faculty and Staff
FROM: President Tisa Mason
DATE: November 19, 2018
RE: Holiday Party and Awards Ceremony
Friday, December 7, 2018

Please mark your calendar for the 31st annual Fort Hays State University Holiday Party and Awards Ceremony.

The festivities begin at 3:30 p.m. Friday, December 7, 2018, in the Fort Hays Ballroom of the Memorial Union. The President's Office will provide food and refreshments.

At 3:20 p.m., university departments will close for the express purpose of giving all employees the opportunity to attend the party. The awards ceremony will honor faculty and staff who have served 10, 20, 30, and 40 years. The Alumni Association will present awards to 25-year employees. The winners of the fall faculty awards will be recognized, and the 2018 Les and Elizabeth Griffin Outstanding Service Awards as well as the President's Distinguished Service Awards will also be presented.

You are encouraged to join the holiday celebration and to honor these employees on the length of their service to the university and the state of Kansas.

FHSU Wind Ensemble and Symphonic Winds in Concert

Friday, December 7; 7:30pm

Beach/Schmidt Performing Arts Center

The Fort Hays State University Wind Ensemble and Symphonic Winds will perform their second concert of the year, entitled “Dancing with the Heart” on Friday, December 7th at 7:30 in the Beach/Schmidt Performing Arts Center.

The Fort Hays Symphonic Winds, under the direction of Dr. Peter Lillpopp, will open the concert with Jan Van der Roost’s Mercury March followed by American composer Carolyn Bremer’s baseball homage Tinker to Evers to Chance. British composer Ralph Vaughan Williams’ engaging Folk Song Suite provides an exciting conclusion to the program

The FHSU Wind Ensemble will open the second half of the concert under the baton of Dr. Jeff Jordan. This portion of the concert will feature Jordan’s original work, Tharsos, composed in honor of the late John Pozdro, long time music faculty member at the University of Kansas. Other highlights of the program will include Eric Whitacre’s Sleep and Brian Balmages’ exciting dance overture, Fiesta de los Toros.

The concert is free and open to the public. Further information may be obtained by calling 785-628-5364

VoiceThread Workshop

Tuesday, December 11; 6:00pm to 7:00pm

Have you already missed class time because of the weather? There will always be weather events and snow days that cause closures, but you don't have to lose a full day of instruction any longer. VoiceThread lets you be there even when you're not. In this workshop, participants will learn how to create asynchronous conversations around course content so students can continue to learn and grow even when schools are closed.

CliftonStrengths Essentials

Friday, January 11; 9:00am to 4:00pm
Memorial Union Stouffer Lounge

Is it best to spend time utilizing your strengths or is it more productive to work on your weaknesses? Gallup's Strengths theory argues people should spend the majority of their time doing what they do best; using their already existing natural talents to become more productive and profitable in the workplace.

Join the Management Development Center for CliftonStrengths Essentials to learn how to leverage your top five talents by turning them into strengths! This workshop is facilitated by Sabrina William & Hannah Hilker.

Remember, as FHSU faculty or staff, your registration fee is complimentary, thanks to your FHSU Vice President! Limited funding is available annually per division.

Spring Creative Nonfiction Course

I shall be offering ENG 602: Creative Nonfiction (Personal Essay, Travel Writing, Memoir, etc.) in spring 2019. The course is capped at 15, open to Undergraduate and Graduate students and meets on Wednesday Night 6:30-9:20 p.m.

Many thanks.

-Dr. Brett Weaver

POLS 675 VB: Latino Politics

In spring 2019, the Department of Political Science will offer a new online seminar, POLS 675 VB: Latino Politics. The course will explore how Latinos consider politics based upon immigration policy, other ethnic/racial groups, and gender. To learn more about the course or to get more information, please contact Dr. Christopher Olds at cpolds@fhsu.edu.

THM 628: Wellness Tourism

Please share the following course, being offered Spring 2019, with your students. It can cross a variety of majors interested in the wellness industry of which it could be a great elective option.

THM 628: Wellness Tourism
M/W/F 1:30 PM to 2:20 PM

This course is a fascinating exploration of alternative health and holistic wellness practices both ancient and new, and how these are delivered to the contemporary wellness seeker. The course offers students a comprehensive introduction to the growing wellness tourism sector. Wellness tourism reflects global megatrends centered upon optimal functioning and enhanced physical, spiritual, and mental well-being. Along with conceptual models and defining characteristics, the course covers the history and development of wellness tourism and its sub-sectors, taking into account cultural and indigenous influences. An overview of socio-economic trends, global demand and the management and marketing of wellness tourism is also considered.

To learn more about the course, please contact Dr. Karen Thal at kithal@fhsu.edu or 628-4760

BCOM 201: Introduction to Corporate Communication

In Spring 2019, the Department of Applied Business Studies will offer BCOM 201: Introduction to Corporate Communication. This course examines the field of integrated corporate communication and includes a study of the mechanics and basic principles of business writing. Students will apply technical writing skills to create professional and creative strategic communication messages and plans. There is not a pre-requisite for the course.

Please contact Ms. Rachel Dolechek at rdolechek@fhsu.edu to learn more about the course.

NEW! Certificate in Writing

This certificate program will help students develop the written communication proficiency so valued across the professions and will complement any major. Students will develop their creative and analytic skills in a variety of genres beyond those covered in first-year composition—while also becoming more attentive editors of their own and others' work.

Required:

- ENG 446 Advanced Composition

Electives (choose 3):

ENG 121	Language Skills in the Profession
ENG 146	Introduction to Creative Writing
ENG 346	Advanced Creative Writing
ENG 385	Professional Editing
ENG 448	Writing Internship
ENG 449	Writing for Publication
ENG 602	Topics in Writing (may be taken multiple times)
ENG 603	Technical and Professional Writing
ENG 630	Nature Writing
ENG 675	Playwriting/Screenwriting

Contact Dr. Cheryl Duffy (cduffy@fhsu.edu), certificate coordinator, for more information.
