IN THE HEART OF THE OLD WEST

Fort Hays Kansas State College

IN THE HEART OF THE NEW WEST

The pioneer spirit that shaped the New West will again prevail . . . youth will be served . . .

● Out on the plains this is a year of many "firsts." This year, Kansas celebrates its first 100 years of life. And 52-year-old Fort Hays State embarks on a major fund raising program, which is not only its first but the only one contemplated for years to come.

We Must Look To Ourselves

The College's present facilities for youth activities are overcrowded and inadequate. Moreover, it is legally impossible for the State to supply funds to construct and equip a Student Union Building.

Many Reasons For Lending A Hand

There are many reasons for helping Fort Hays State College build and equip a Student Union Building:

Youth must be served. That's one good reason.

We adults, many of whom could have profited in our youth by improved activity facilities, will desire to give the next generation a better chance.

If you are a former student . . . you will find great satisfaction in helping the College that provided you with many happy days . . .

If you are a resident of Kansas . . . you need only to be reminded that the College is indeed a cultural center and a boon to the area . . . If you are a businessman . . . you will be aware that some of the world's finest, best trained people have learned their skills in this great "bread basket and consumer market" area.

A college, like a business, must improve its facilities from time to time. We now bring our plea to you, the generous public.

Architect's perspective

Your contribution will be tax deductible to the full extent of the law.

Memorials That Will Endure

Many memorial opportunities and several kinds of inscriptions are available for individuals, families, and firms.

a message from
PRESIDENT CUNNINGHAM

Dear Friends of Our College:

With a feeling of optimism and pride
I lay this program before you.

The optimism springs from the belief that you will aid our College in this very special hour.

The pride is in the thousands of young men and women who have received training on this campus.

That which we now ask of you is for the benefit of more generations of fine young people.

Very sincerely,
