Black History Month: An Introduction

Black History is not just a month of acknowledgment and celebration for the achievements of Black people but a constant reminder of the benefits of remaining resilient in the face of adversity. Black History is not in February because it's the shortest month of the year but was devised by Carter G. Woodson who picked February because it's also the birth month of Abraham Lincoln and Fredrick Douglas. It originally derived from Negro History Week into a month long celebration. It is a focused time to acknowledge and celebrate the history and accomplishments of Black people but not the only time we should educate ourselves or recognize those things. #BHM #BlackHistoryMonth #BlackHistory365

Applications Now Open for the $500 Lynn Haggard Undergraduate Library Research Award

Forsyth Library has officially opened the application process for the Lynn Haggard Undergraduate Library Research Award. This new $500 cash award recognizes undergraduate research conducted in the fall 2018 or spring 2019 semester that incorporates the use of Forsyth Library resources and demonstrates exemplary information literacy and research skills.

On-campus, virtual, and international students are eligible and may apply by submitting projects such as undergraduate research papers, digital projects, videos, posters, compositions, and/or design portfolios and writing a short reflective essay describing their use of library tools and resources in their project. A letter of support from a faculty mentor will also be required for the application, confirming the project was completed in conjunction with an FHSU class or scholarly activity, and that it meets discipline standards. Applications are now open and will be accepted until March 31, 2019. The winner of this inaugural award will be announced in May 2019.

The student award winner will receive a cash prize of $500 and will have their work featured in the FHSU Scholars Repository. Please watch for student work that exemplifies successful library research and encourage them to apply. Application details and additional information about the award can be found at: <https://fhsuguides.fhsu.edu/lhulra>.

If you have questions about the award or the application process, please email lhulra@fhsu.edu.

Coming Soon! 25Live, FHSU's New Room Reservation System

We will soon be launching our new campus-wide room reservation system, 25Live. 25Live will replace our current EMS room reservation system. Read on for more information regarding this transition.

Will I need to resubmit reservations that were made in EMS?

No. All future events that were booked using EMS will be imported into 25Live. You will not need to resubmit any events that were previously made in EMS.

University Calendar

The University calendar is also being replaced with the 25Live calendar. This switch will take place when the new website launches on February 5th. The Memorial Union is already using 25Live in place of EMS, so all events taking place in the Memorial Union will be available on the new 25Live calendar.

When will 25Live be available to campus, and when will EMS be discontinued?

Online reservations through EMS will be discontinued approximately one week prior to the 25Live campus launch. During that week, we will import any remaining EMS events into 25Live. The 25Live launch date is not yet determined, but we are shooting for March 2019. Watch TigerDaily for more information about the launch date.

Will training be available for 25Live?

Yes. Once 25Live launches, we are planning to schedule training sessions and open lab work sessions. User guides will be available on the website.

FHSU and K-State Juvenile Justice Initiative Seeks Locals

A team from Fort Hays State University is partnering with the K-State Juvenile Justice Collaborative on a project awarded funding by the Kansas Department of Corrections and the Kansas Advisory Group. The project, titled “Our Town, Our Kids,” aims to work with local communities in developing support systems for youth and families in order to prevent youth from entering the juvenile justice system and to provide services that maximize their chances of leading productive, successful lives. Michael Walker, director of the Docking Institute, and Dr. April Terry, assistant professor in the Department of Criminal Justice, are providing content expertise in the areas of data management and juvenile justice. They are joined by Luis Montelongo and Dr. Jian Sun as data analysts. The K-State JJC is comprised of Dr. L. Susan Williams, professor of sociology and criminology; Dr. Greg Paul, associate professor and interim department head of communication studies; Dr. Elaine Johannes, associate professor of family studies and human services and Extension specialist; and Bruce Chladny, K-State Research and Extension specialist.

Over the next two years, the group will work with stakeholders in 23 pre-selected Kansas counties (please see the website for a full list). They will build community capacity in data collection and analysis and foster community collaboration in support of youth and families. Professionals from K-State Research and Extension will facilitate local conversations that identify areas of concern and develop knowledge bases that will prepare communities to deliver best-practice programs in their respective areas. As part of the effort to engage positive community support, the group will develop a comprehensive toolkit for all Kansas communities that will facilitate local, sustainable systems that serve unique needs of youth.

If you have knowledge of any of the 23 pre-selected counties, and are interested in having your voice heard on issues related to youth in Kansas, please contact a team member below.

Student Recognition Programs

Greetings, friends! We are very excited to invite you in advance to this spring's upcoming annual Student Recognition Programs. As you may know from past years, SRPs are reception-style events held on-location throughout our Kansas, Nebraska, and Colorado recruiting territories. We will be travelling to Future Tigers' hometowns in an attempt to bring Fort Hays to them, for them.

Your enthusiastic participation is crucial to the success of these events! These programs are essential during the recruitment process in solidifying our prospective students' decision to become Tigers. For example, following last year's Topeka SRP, 45 out of the 47 students in attendance ultimately chose Fort Hays! Overall, 82% of the 2018 SRP attendees became Tigers. Way to go, team! Without your participation, this great return would not have become a reality.

As a reminder, alumni members and non-academic groups (clubs, organizations, etc.) are also welcome to join us on the road. The Office of Admissions will be providing transportation again this year for those who wish to travel with us. Please contact Jon Armstrong at (785) 628-4091 or jdarmstrong@fhsu.edu with any questions or interest in SRP participation.

To view the schedule of events, please visit <https://www.fhsu.edu/admissions/srp>.

- Which considerations can consistently predict whether individuals are comfortable identifying as being a member of a pan-ethnic group?
- Why do major Latino ethnic groups display differences in ideological views and voting participation levels?
- Under what circumstances do Latinos form political alliances with other prominent racial/ethnic groups (e.g. African Americans, Asian Americans, etc.)?

The seminar will be offered in the second half of the Spring 2019 semester (03/18/19 - 05/17/19). For additional information about the course, please contact Dr. Christopher Olds at cpolds@fhsu.edu.
