Applications Open for Mortar Board Selection

The FHSU Mortar Board Gold Cord chapter is currently accepting applications for the 2019-2020 cohort. Applicants should have a 3.0 cumulative GPA, and be of Junior or Senior standing and have at least one semester left in their college career. Professors and staff may also nominate students they think would be a good fit!

Applications will remain open until Monday, March 4th. Students will hear response regarding acceptance by Friday, March 29th. We are looking for students who live our ideals of scholarship, leadership, and service.

Link to application form:

https://docs.google.com/forms/d/e/1FAIpQLSfjvw0jTfq2w0NVeHIQ-4coDOus7C8XokluXecLv-_esyYHnA/viewform?usp=sf_link

Benefits of this organization include: nationwide connections among one of the largest and most prestigious honor societies that has been around for over 100 years, campus networking, plenty of leadership opportunities, and a group of like-minded junior and senior students from various backgrounds.

If you have any questions or concerns please contact Mortar Board President Samantha Rohleder at skrohleder2@mail.fhsu.edu.

The Chinese Memorabilia Collection: Celebrating 20 Years of Partnership

The Chinese Memorabilia Collection is now on display in the Special Exhibits Gallery on the main floor of Forsyth Library. Featured in the exhibit are objects given to Fort Hays State University Presidents to commemorate our relationship with Chinese universities including Sias International University, Northwest University of Politics, and Shenyang Normal University.

Visit this exciting new exhibit for a limited time during regular building hours. After you view the display, give us your feedback and checkout a book to learn more about the Chinese culture.

For hours or contact information, visit the Forsyth Library homepage at <https://fhsu.edu/library/>.

Nominate a Student for the VALUE Program

The application for the 2019-20 VALUE cohort is now open! If you advise or mentor a student you think you would be a good candidate for the program, please nominate them! We welcome nominations from all faculty and staff at the institution.

The Voss Advanced Leadership Undergraduate Experience is open to on-campus AND virtual students who are interested in developing their leadership competencies in a challenging environment. Students will select a track of exploration and complete a project tied to their personal and/or professional interests. Tracks of exploration include: corporate leadership, civic leadership, and research.

Students must have completed the Leadership Studies Certificate and be in good academic standing to apply; we also recommend students be of junior or senior status during their time in the program. Those accepted to the program will receive a $1,000 scholarship for the 2019-20 academic year, and the opportunity to attend the Kansas Leadership Center's Your Leadership Edge Conference.

If you know of a student who may be a good fit for our program, please nominate them at <https://www.fhsu.edu/leadership/value/Eligibility-and-Application/index>. Our team will contact the student with additional information. Student applications are due March 10th, so please nominate any students by Sunday, February 24th.

If you have questions about VALUE, please contact Kaley Klaus, director, at krklaus@fhsu.edu or 785-628-4384.

Applications Now Open for the $500 Lynn Haggard Undergraduate Library Research Award

Forsyth Library has officially opened the application process for the Lynn Haggard Undergraduate Library Research Award. This new $500 cash award recognizes undergraduate research conducted in the fall 2018 or spring 2019 semester that incorporates the use of Forsyth Library resources and demonstrates exemplary information literacy and research skills.

On-campus, virtual, and international students are eligible and may apply by submitting projects such as undergraduate research papers, digital projects, videos, posters, compositions, and/or design portfolios and writing a short reflective essay describing their use of library tools and resources in their project. A letter of support from a faculty mentor will also be required for the application, confirming the project was completed in conjunction with an FHSU class or scholarly activity, and that it meets discipline standards. Applications are now open and will be accepted until March 31, 2019. The winner of this inaugural award will be announced in May 2019.

The student award winner will receive a cash prize of $500 and will have their work featured in the FHSU Scholars Repository. Please watch for student work that exemplifies successful library research and encourage them to apply. Application details and additional information about the award can be found at: <https://fhsuguides.fhsu.edu/lhulra>.

If you have questions about the award or the application process, please email lhulra@fhsu.edu.

Black History Month: NAACP

The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) is a Civil Rights organization that was established in 1909 in New York City. Founding members included activists such as Mary White Ovington, Henry Moskowitz, William English Walling and Oswald Garrison Villard, along with such Black Americans such as W.E.B. Du Bois, Ida Wells-Barnett, Archibald Grimke and Mary Church Terrell. In its charter, the NAACP set forth to champion equal rights and eliminate racial prejudice, and to “advance the interest of colored citizens” in regard to voting rights, legal justice and educational and employment opportunities. One of the organizations earliest platforms revolves around anti-lynching campagin. Recently the NAACP focuses on issues such as inequality in jobs, education, health care and the criminal justice system, as well as protecting voting rights as well as for the removal of Confederate insignia and symbols from public and state property.

Jim Brull is the Co-founder and Managing Partner of Centroid. Centroid is a cloud services company providing applications and technology infrastructure to help clients modernize and grow their business. He has over 20 years of professional consulting and management expertise in system design and development, infrastructure, data architecture, and global system deployments. His experience prior to Centroid includes professional management consulting at Ernst and Young, and EDS. Jim earned a Bachelor of Business Administration in Marketing from Fort Hays State University in 1989 and received a Master's in Business Administration in Information Systems and Entrepreneurship from Baylor University.

Entrepreneur Direct is a FREE speaker series conducted by Fort Hays State University's Robbins College of Business and Entrepreneurship that features successful entrepreneurs in an informal setting accessible to students, faculty and the public. The program is intended to connect students with successful entrepreneurs who have stories and advice to share. A panel asks questions about entrepreneurship and encourages questions and interaction with the audience.

MDC Workshop – CliftonStrengths Essentials

Friday, March 29; 9:00am to 4:00pm

Memorial Union, Pioneer Room

CliftonStrengths Essentials has quickly become one of the MDC's most popular and widely requested workshops ever! In this workshop you will discover your pre-existing natural talents and learn how to turn them into strengths you can use to be more productive in the workplace and at home. Participants will also learn how to leverage their strengths with other members in a team for maximum efficiency. Several FHSU faculty and staff are already using their strengths at work, and you can too!

CliftonStrengths Essentials will be on Mar. 29 from 9:00 – 4:00 in the Pioneer Room.

As FHSU faculty and staff, your registration fee is complimentary, thanks to your FHSU Vice President. Limited funding is available annually per division.

Registration can be completed online at <https://webapps.fhsu.edu/MDC2.0/Default.aspx> or by calling Hannah Hilker at (785) 628-4121.

The Faulkner Challenge: $10,000 in Cash Awards

Saturday, March 30; 9:00am to 1:30pm

McCartney Hall, The W.R. and Yvonne Robbins College of Business & Entrepreneurship

The Center for Entrepreneurship at Fort Hays State University will host the Faulkner Challenge on March 30 at the W.R. and Yvonne Robbins College of Business and Entrepreneurship. Fort Hays State students and residents of a 26-county area of Northwest Kansas are eligible to compete for $10,000 in cash awards.

Admission is free for participants and the public. Entries will be accepted until the March 20 deadline. The Faulkner Challenge is made possible by the generosity of alumnus, Kevin Faulkner. It is a business plan competition for new, independent proposed ventures in the conceptual, seed or startup stages.

Applications for the VALUE 2019-20 Cohort are Now Open!

The Voss Advanced Leadership Undergraduate Experience is open to on-campus AND virtual students who are interested in developing their leadership competencies in a challenging environment. Students will select a track of exploration and complete a project tied to their personal and/or professional interests. Tracks of exploration include: corporate leadership, civic leadership, and research.

Students must have completed the Leadership Studies Certificate and be in good academic standing to apply; we also recommend students be of junior or senior status during their time in the program. Those accepted to the program will receive a $1,000 scholarship for the 2019-20 academic year, and the opportunity to attend the Kansas Leadership Center's Your Leadership Edge Conference.

If students are interested in learning more about the VALUE program, an info meeting will be held on Monday, February 25 from 1:30-2:30 pm in the Smoky Hill Room of the Memorial Union. If virtual students would like to join the meeting, they can contact Kaley Klaus at krklaus@fhsu.edu or 785-628-4384 for a meeting link.

Students can complete the online application at <https://www.fhsu.edu/leadership/value/Eligibility-and-Application/index>. Applications should be submitted by Sunday, March 10th.

POLS 675 VB: Latino Politics – An 8-Week Course Beginning March 18

For the first time in university history, a seminar course focused on Latino political opinion formation and socio-political behavior is being offered by the Political Science department. The online seminar will explore a wide array of topics, such as the following:

- What are the social and political factors that led to the development of the pan-ethnic labels of Hispanic and Latino to describe diverse ethnic groups?
- Which considerations can consistently predict whether individuals are comfortable identifying as being a member of a pan-ethnic group?
- Why do major Latino ethnic groups display differences in ideological views and voting participation levels?
- Under what circumstances do Latinos form political alliances with other prominent racial/ethnic groups (e.g. African Americans, Asian Americans, etc.)?
- How might recent controversies regarding immigration policy shape Latino political attitudes or beliefs about the American political system?

The seminar will be offered in the second half of the Spring 2019 semester (03/18/19 - 05/17/19). For additional information about the course, please contact Dr. Christopher Olds at cpolds@fhsu.edu.
