ANNOUNCEMENTS

Award for Outstanding Undergraduate Scholar

The Undergraduate Research Experience (URE) Steering Committee is seeking nominations from faculty and staff for the annual FHSU Award for Outstanding Undergraduate Scholars.

The URE Steering Committee offers this prestigious award to recognize undergraduate students who exemplify scholarly activity. Qualities that make a student successful in scholarly activities characterize those same qualities FHSU seeks to develop in students: original thought, creative ideas, communicating with professional colleagues, critical reasoning, analysis of research, translation of evidence into practice, and first-hand knowledge of how work is performed within a professional discipline.

The URE Steering Committee will provide five awards, one for an outstanding undergraduate student from each college. Nomination letters can come from FHSU faculty or staff, and should be submitted through this website no later than March 3, 2019. Any FHSU undergraduate student--including KAMS and Virtual College students--is eligible. The research project may be from the award year or past years; however, the student must have been an undergraduate student for a minimum of one semester during the award year. The nomination should describe the scholarly qualifications and products of the student--for example, published papers, professional presentations, on-campus research activities, musical/artistic performance, or other novel scholarly activity. The nomination should clarify the role of the undergraduate student in the scholarly activity. The nominator should also include the nominee's CV or resume.

Nominations will be evaluated by a subcommittee of the URE Steering Committee, who will make a recommendation to the full URE Steering Committee. Winners will be recognized during Undergraduate Research Week in April 2019.

FHSU Cyber Security

Jessica States, FHSU Information Security Officer, presented Cyber Security tips at the American Democracy Project lecture on Wednesday, Feb. 20, 2019. Please read about her tips in the Hays Post article at:

<https://www.hayspost.com/2019/02/22/fhsu-students-urged-to-be-wary-when-it-comes-to-cyber-security/>

Email Policy

In December, 2018, FHSU Cabinet approved an updated email policy. The updated policy can be viewed at <https://www.fhsu.edu/policies/info-access/index>

The main purpose behind this change was to clarify the language about forwarding email. The policy now reads: “Faculty and staff are not to automatically forward their official @fhsu.edu e-mail to another vendor for themselves including their @mail.fhsu.edu Google account. Unauthorized automatic forwards will be removed by Technology Services.” We will start enforcing this portion of the policy on Friday, March 8, 2019. Tech Services will remove the “forwarding” setting on any account forwarded to another email system. We will also remove any mail rules that redirect email to another email system.

Security and legal requirements are the primary reasons for keeping all FHSU email within one mail system. We can’t ensure that data are being protected in accordance with FERPA, HIPAA, and other regulations when internal communications are being forwarded outside of FHSU’s control. We’re also required to report privacy breaches to our students, which is impossible to do when our internal communications are funneled to outside platforms. We’ve invested in additional security features and protection for our Outlook email system, which is why we aren’t allowing Outlook email to be forwarded to FHSU Gmail. Additionally, keeping all FHSU email within Outlook also gives us the ability to respond to litigation holds and Kansas Open Records Act requests.

Please email magriffin2@fhsu.edu if you have any questions about the email policy. TigerTech can assist you if you have any trouble accessing or using your FHSU Outlook email account.

VIP Ambassador Program Seeking Candidates – Deadline to Apply is March 7

Do you know any students that are looking for a meaningful way to get involved at FHSU? Through the VIP Ambassador program, they’ll have opportunities to represent the university while building leadership, communication and networking skills that will help them succeed now and in the future.

Black History Month: Shirley Chisholm: Unbought and Unbossed

Shirley Chisholm was an American politician, author and educator. The first Black woman elected to Congress representing New York's 12th congressional district from 1969 to 1983 she became a political powerhouse. In 1972, Chisholm was the first Black major-party (Democratic) presidential candidate. Understood to be "unbought and unbossed" she ran under the campaign slogan, Bring U.S. (us) Together. Unbothered by racial and sexual discrimination, threats against her life and assassination attempts Chisholm was a catalyst for change. Although Chisholm did not win the Presidential election she made major impacts during her seven terms in office such as co-founding the Congressional Black Caucus, advocated for the Equal Rights Amendment, and supported Title IX in 1972, of Education Amendments meant to end discrimination against women in federally funded education and sports programs. Chisholm, a member of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc. was awarded the Presidential Medal of Freedom posthumously in 2015 by Barack Obama.
