MDC Workshop: Managing Conflict in the Workplace

Monday, May 6; 1:00pm to 4:30pm
Hansen Hall

This three and a half hour training will discuss the common roots of workplace conflict and management strategies. In this workshop participants will understand common causes of workplace conflict, assess personal conflict styles, learn best practices for offering critical feedback, and more. Start harnessing the power that conflict has to contribute to organizational innovation and stronger relationships!

Managing Conflict in the Workplace will be held on May 6 from 1:00 – 4:30 PM in Hansen Hall.

As FHSU faculty and staff, your registration fee is complimentary, thanks to your FHSU Vice President. Limited funding is available annually per division.

Due to overwhelming response from the Academic Affairs division, the funds for those faculty & staff members have been used through July 31, 2019. For those in this division, workshop registration should be paid for by department or personally.

If you are an Academic Affairs member & are interested in attending this workshop, contact Hannah Hilker at 785-628-4121 or hehilker@fhsu.edu

Otherwise, Registration can be completed online at <https://webapps.fhsu.edu/MDC2.0/Default.aspx> or by calling Hannah Hilker at (785) 628-4121.

MDC Workshop: Design for Non-Designers

Thursday, May 9; 9:00am to 4:00pmm
Memorial Union, Stouffer Lounge

Great design is a critically important component of your marketing efforts – it creates meaningful first impressions, differentiates your organization from competitors, boosts awareness, and is a great way to connect with customers. The MDC's brand-new workshop Design for Non-Designers will explore the elements and principles of design and how you can use it to make your company more appealing to potential customers.

In Design for Non-Designers, participants will learn why design is important for effective marketing, review great (and bad) logos, and much more. A few of the topics covered include using color effectively, communicating with type, tips on designing common marketing pieces, and when to hire a professional or design on your own.

You don't have to be wildly creative to make effective designs!

CSD Summer Workshop

Monday, June 4; 9:00am to 3:30pm

Albertson Hall, Room 169

On Monday, June 4th, 2019 from 9:00 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. in Alberston Hall Room 169, join us for “Powerful Tools to Grow Language and Adapt Curriculum.” This workshop will introduce ideas, curricula and materials that will not only meet the needs of each student but will also make your life easier. We will explore the four implementation pillars for supporting individuals with complex communication and learning needs: education, communication, access, and social/emotional learning. Participants will learn to use Snap + Core First, Boardmaker, and other resources to develop specific strategies for supporting success within each of the pillars, both for the therapy room and the classroom. After the workshop you will walk away with practical resources to use immediately.

Anyone attending this event must pre-register online using this registration link:

Enhanced & Experiential Learning Trip: Washington, D.C.

Are you interested in American history, civic engagement, politics, Black history, music, arts, culture, and public service?

With the support of the Center for Civic Leadership I am planning a trip to Washington, D.C. from July 31-Aug 3, 2019.

Visiting sites such as the African American History Museum as well as other destinations such as the Lincoln Monument, Washington Monument, MLK Memorial, Capitol Hill, the White, the Arts District, National Gallery, Smithsonian, and so on we can dive into some of Americas oldest history and culture. We will also participate in a public service project to leave a positive impression on the nation's capital.

Please see the download the application as a PDF for more information. This will be a highly competitive trip as we are taking 8-10 students so do not procrastinate on applying.

Piece-of-the-Pie Scholarship

Please share with students and student employees, or consider gifting this opportunity to your student workers:

Students can win the Piece-of-the-Pie scholarship for the 2019 – 20 academic year by purchasing tickets. Criminal Justice Club members are selling tickets for the half-and-half scholarship until May 13, and all FHSU students can win. The more tickets sold, the more the scholarship is worth. Tickets can be purchased for 1/$1.00, 6/$5.00, or 13/$10.00. There are several ways to purchase tickets, including: 1) stop by the Department of Criminal Justice in Rarick 233; 2) email tjlynn@fhsu.edu to request tickets; 3) visit the Criminal Justice Club's booth at the UAB carnival on April 27, where each game played equals one entry for the scholarship; or 4) look for members outside of Starbucks in the Union on May 1 and 2.

If every on-campus student bought just one ticket, one lucky student would win a scholarship of more than $2000. Online students are also eligible to win. The winner will be notified Monday, May 13. The scholarship will be received through FHSU Foundation, as with any other scholarship.

Do not delay; get your tickets today!
