ANNOUNCEMENTS

Call for Nominations for the John Heinrichs Outstanding Undergraduate Research Mentor Award

The John Heinrichs Outstanding Undergraduate Research Mentor Award recognizes the commitment, time, and energy necessary to foster undergraduate research. Undergraduate research encompasses scholarly, creative, and research activities. All current Fort Hays State University faculty and unclassified staff members at levels comparable to academic faculty are eligible. All disciplines are eligible.

The successful candidate exhibits many, if not all, of the following attributes:

- Supervises successful discipline-appropriate research performed by undergraduate students
- Promotes student dissemination or publication of undergraduate research
- Is recognized by colleagues for engaging students in undergraduate research
- Devotes time outside of class to working with students on undergraduate research
- Promotes interest in undergraduate research among his or her peers
- Seeks professional development to expand and inspire his or her own undergraduate research activities

FHSU students, faculty and staff may submit nominations. Self nominations are also accepted. Please download and complete the nomination form located at

<https://fhsu.infoready4.com/#manageCompetitionsDetail/1787245>

Two - Step Nomination Procedure

Step One:

FHSU students, faculty, and staff may submit nominations. Self - nominations will also be accepted. All nominations must be emailed to URE@fhsu.edu using the nomination form. Completed nomination forms are to be emailed to URE@fhsu.edu no later than MAY 1, 2019.

Step Two:

Nominees will be contacted May 2019 with a request to submit the following additional information if they wish to be considered for this award:

- A current curriculum vita
- A personal statement on undergraduate research reflecting the criteria cited above

Optional items include

- Letters of support from colleagues
- Letters of support from students
- Documentation of student research completed under the nominee's supervision (news clippings, conference programs, photos, etc.)

The deadline for submitting this information is June 1, 2019

Selection Procedure

The URE Steering committee will review the slate of nominations and forward one recommended winner to the Provost.

$500 of OOE funding will be provided to the winner's home department by the Provost.

The Heinrichs Outstanding Undergraduate Research Mentor Award will be presented at the Fall 2019 Convocation.

Biology Club Plants for Sale

I just wanted to send everyone a note that the Biology Club 2.0 has lots of plants leftover from the Earth Day Plant sale/fundraiser. We are looking to get rid of the rest of our inventory to make room for upcoming research in the greenhouse. So we have cut back on our prices and will be making deals for bulk purchases. If you are interested Mike Messick will be in the greenhouse from 12:30-1:30 the rest of the week if you wish to stop by or you can email him to setup an appointment (mrmesseck@fhsu.edu). You may also contact me if needed. A list of the plants is below:

Bell peppers 40-50
Cherry tomatos 40-50
Dwarf sunflowers 10-20
Cucumbers 8
Basil alot
Marigolds alot

Sessions and Roundtable Discussions for Fall Professional Development Day; August 13

The Call for Proposals for Fall Professional Development Day is now open. Willing to share your expertise? Submit your session proposal today!

This year, we will be adding Roundtable Discussions to our Fall PDD format! Roundtable discussions are a great, casual format involving tables with assigned topics, a moderator with expertise, some guiding questions, and free time to learn from your peers via informal discussion. Help us plan our roundtable discussions by answering two quick questions about which topics you would like to see, and which topics you would be interested in moderating, here: Fall PDD Roundtable Discussions.

All PDD Requests and proposals are due April 30, 2019. We will notify presenters of acceptance status by May 15, 2019.

Questions? Requests? Contact the TILT Faculty Development team at TILT-FacultyDev@fhsu.edu.

Forsyth Library Presents "Paeans to Opportunity, Diatribes on Opportunism: Contrasting Representations in Gilded Age Literature"

The Gilded Age Literature collection is now on display in the Special Exhibits Gallery on the main floor of Forsyth Library. The foundations of modern America took root during the period known as "The Gilded Age." To highlight this period, the works of Mark Twain and Horatio Alger are featured in the exhibit as influencers of succeeding generations' understanding of the Gilded Age. The narrative fictions established in the featured texts, as well as their readers' interpretations, convey competing depictions of the period, revealing the complexities of the nineteenth century.

Visit this exciting new exhibit for a limited time during regular building hours. After viewing the display, give us your feedback and checkout a book to learn more about the Gilded Age.

For hours or contact information, visit the Forsyth Library homepage at <https://fhsu.edu/library/>.

- Have a 2.5 GPA or above;
- Be a current Hispanic high school sophomore (Class of 2021) or junior (Class of 2020).

There are a limited number of spaces available and acceptance to the program is based off of the application.

APPLY NOW! The deadline to apply is May 1, 2019.

If you have further questions, please feel free to contact Erica Meneses at 785-628-4503.

EVENTS

Significant Other by Joshua Harmon

Friday, April 26 & Saturday, April 27; 7:30pm
Curtain in Felten-Start Theatre in Malloy Hall

All Tickets $5 at Door – Unreserved Seating

Please be advised- This play contains Adult Language and Subject matter that some may find offensive.

Significant Other is an American play written by Joshua Harmon, which premiered Off-Broadway in 2015, followed by a Broadway production at the Booth Theatre in Spring 2017. Jordan Berman would love to be in love, but that's easier said than done. So until he meets Mr. Right, he wards off lonely nights with his trio of close girlfriends. But as singles' nights turn into bachelorette parties, Jordan discovers that the only thing harder than finding love is supporting the loved ones around you when they do. Chicago Tribune critic Chris Jones wrote, "Significant Other is both a good night out — a show ideal for a Friday night with pals after a few drinks — and a quite sophisticated exploration of the complex and changing dynamic between gay men and the women who love them. A black comedy about a painful transition that hits many of us urbanites in our late 20s or early 30s and goes a long way toward explaining why weddings can be such fraught affairs for anyone stuck in a tux or matching crinoline."¹

MDC Workshop: Managing Conflict in the Workplace

Monday, May 6; 1:00pm to 4:30pm

Hansen Hall

This three and a half hour training will discuss the common roots of workplace conflict and management strategies. In this workshop participants will understand common causes of workplace conflict, assess personal conflict styles, learn best practices for offering critical feedback, and more. Start harnessing the power that conflict has to contribute to organizational innovation and stronger relationships!

Managing Conflict in the Workplace will be held on May 6 from 1:00 – 4:30 PM in Hansen Hall.

As FHSU faculty and staff, your registration fee is complimentary, thanks to your FHSU Vice President. Limited funding is available annually per division.

Due to overwhelming response from the Academic Affairs division, the funds for those faculty & staff members have been used through July 31, 2019. For those in this division, workshop registration should be paid for by department or personally.

If you are an Academic Affairs member & are interested in attending this workshop, contact Hannah Hilker at 785-628-4121 or hehilker@fhsu.edu

Otherwise, Registration can be completed online at <https://webapps.fhsu.edu/MDC2.0/Default.aspx> or by calling Hannah Hilker at (785) 628-4121.

MDC Workshop: Design for Non-Designers

Thursday, May 9; 9:00am to 4:00pm

Memorial Union, Stouffer Lounge

Great design is a critically important component of your marketing efforts – it creates meaningful first impressions, differentiates your organization from competitors, boosts awareness, and is a great way to connect with customers. The MDC's brand-new workshop Design for Non-Designers will explore the elements and principles of design and how you can use it to make your company more appealing to potential customers.

In Design for Non-Designers, participants will learn why design is important for effective marketing, review great (and bad) logos, and much more. A few of the topics covered include using color effectively, communicating with type, tips on designing common marketing pieces, and when to hire a professional or design on your own.

You don't have to be wildly creative to make effective designs!

As FHSU faculty and staff, your registration fee is complimentary, thanks to your FHSU Vice President. Limited funding is available annually per division.

Piece-of-the-Pie Scholarship

Please share with students and student employees, or consider gifting this opportunity to your student workers:

Students can win the Piece-of-the-Pie scholarship for the 2019 – 20 academic year by purchasing tickets. Criminal Justice Club members are selling tickets for the half-and-half scholarship until May 13, and all FHSU students can win. The more tickets sold, the more the scholarship is worth. Tickets can be purchased for 1/$1.00, 6/$5.00, or 13/$10.00. There are several ways to purchase tickets, including: 1) stop by the Department of Criminal Justice in Rarick 233; 2) email tjlynn@fhsu.edu to request tickets; 3) visit the Criminal Justice Club's booth at the UAB carnival on April 27, where each game played equals one entry for the scholarship; or 4) look for members outside of Starbucks in the Union on May 1 and 2.

If every on-campus student bought just one ticket, one lucky student would win a scholarship of more than $2000. Online students are also eligible to win. The winner will be notified Monday, May 13. The scholarship will be received through FHSU Foundation, as with any other scholarship.

Do not delay; get your tickets today!
