Interested in Crowdfunding? Have a Project or Idea that You'd Like to Bring to Life?

"I Fed The Tiger" provides an opportunity for students, faculty and/or staff to make a difference in the areas of Fort Hays State that they're most passionate about.

How does "I Fed The Tiger" work?

- If selected, the FHSU Foundation would help in establishing a fundraising page for your particular project with a specific funding goal and project completion timeline.
- You would be encouraged to share the project fundraising page with your own community and social media networks. Others who would be impacted by the project would be encouraged to do the same.

- The more you spread the word about your fundraising project, the more supporters are encouraged to contribute to the project financially.

If you have an idea for a fundraising page, please visit ifedthetiger.com and click “apply” in the upper right corner or contact Schuyler Coates at smcoates@fhsu.edu or 5692.
