Dear Faculty & Staff:

Another beginning of a new year brings a flood of mail to faculty and staff suggesting opportunities that exist around the campus. This particular letter is in that same theme but please don't put it down just yet---hear me out first!

The Encore Series is beginning its fifth year and we feel it has a lot to offer each one of you from the jazz sounds of Doc Severinsen and Xebron, to the classics performed by the Nebraska Sinfonia, and on to the Missouri Repertory production of "Come Back Little Sheba," the play that propelled William Inge into the role of a major Broadway dramatist. Add to this the exciting Kansas City Ballet and the individual performers in the Young Concert Artists Series and we end up with a series that has both variety and quality.

As our audience grows in size so will our series. We cannot promise there will be individual tickets available for each show so the best way to guarantee a seat is to buy a season ticket. Remember, if you hold a Faculty/Staff Activities Card*, bring it with you to the Student Service Center when you come to purchase your tickets and a season ticket will cost $20 instead of the usual $40 for a single and $65 for a couple.

Please join with us to make this year our very best. Stop by the Memorial Union Student Service Center and obtain your season tickets before the Glenn Miller Orchestra Concert & Dance on September 22, 1984.

Sincerely,

I. B. Dent
