Phi Kappa Phi Excellence in Innovation Award

Phi Kappa Phi- $100,000 Excellence in Innovation Award

The collegiate honor society, Phi Kappa Phi, is now accepting submissions for its 2020 Phi Kappa Phi Excellence in Innovation Award. The recipient institution will receive $100,000 in tangible recognition. The winner will be determined based on institutions' best practices in response to the changes facing higher education in the twenty-first century. This is a great opportunity to showcase Fort Hays State University's stand on- issues of affordability, access, diversity, retention, new technology, etc.

If you are interested please visit <https://www.phikappaphi.org/grants-awards/institutions/excellence-in-innovation#.XY0FBIVKiUk> to learn about the award criteria, eligibility and application timeline for the 2020 $100,000 Excellence in Innovation Award.

Academic Advising Certificates and Training

The Academic Advising and Career Exploration Center offers certificates for academic advisors each semester. The schedule for this fall is available below.

If you have attended sessions in the past and need to know which sessions you have left to receive your certificate, please email your name and department to advising@fhsu.edu for assistance.

NOTE: This is open to both faculty and staff. Please feel free to bring your lunch to the session.

RSVP: Please let us know if you are planning to attend by replying to advising@fhsu.edu. We will send you a calendar entry that you will need to "Accept and Send the Response Now". This will allow us to have the appropriate room size and number of handouts. We look forward to seeing you at our sessions.

ADVISING SPECIAL POPULATIONS CERTIFICATE

This certificate will provide information on working with the diverse needs of our students. Whether you are currently advising students in the population or not, you will gain information that can assist you. Participants must attend each session to receive the certificate. The following are the dates for the spring sessions.

Graduate Scholarly Experience Grant Applications

Now accepting applications for Graduate Scholarly Experience Grants! Deadline is November 1!

The Scholarship Environment Committee announces the call for proposals for the Graduate Scholarly Experience (GSE) grant program for the 2019-2020 fiscal year. The purpose of the Graduate Scholarly Experience Grant Program is to engage graduate students with meaningful scholarly/creative/research activities. $6,000 in grant funding is available in each semester (Fall and Spring).

All current Fort Hays State University graduate students are eligible to apply for grants up to $500. Approved projects may not receive the full amount of funding requested. All graduate students actively doing scholarly/creative/research activities are encouraged to apply. Grants may be used for either consumable supplies for proposed research/scholarly/creative work OR to help defray costs for travel to present the results of such work.

Fall semester applications must be submitted on or before 11:59 p.m. November 1, 2019.

Awards must be spent by June 10, 2020. Graduate students can apply for these funds for activities that occurred before the grant is awarded as long as the activity happened between July 1, 2019 and June 10, 2020.

For more information, and to apply, go to

<https://fhsu.infoready4.com/CompetitionSpace/#manageCompetitionsDetail/1798878>.

For questions, please contact Dr. Keith Bremer at Kabremer@fhsu.edu or (785) 628-4644.

Makerspace Materials Need

Makerspace is needing CLEAN empty gallon-sized plastic jugs! Please drop off at Forsyth Library downstairs in Makerspace 060 or email or call GG Launchbaugh for pick up: gglaunchbaugh@fhsu.edu 785-628-4538.

Socktober is Here!

Did you know that socks are one of the most needed donation items for homeless shelters, but often one of the least donated? Tigers in Service will be collecting donations of socks, gloves, and new undergarments for the rest of October. All donations will be taken to Chicago IL and donated to Pacific Garden Mission and The Boulevard homeless shelters during Tigers in Service's Alternative Winter Break. Donation bins are located in the Memorial Union by Starbucks and in the Leadership Studies office in Rarick Hall 235.

If you have any questions, please email Marisa Carman at service@fhsu.edu!

Faculty and Staff Exchange Opportunities in Xi'an and Lanzhou, China – Summer 2020

Northwest University of Political Science and Law (NWUPL), located in Xi'an, China, and Northwest Minzu University (NWMU), located in Lanzhou, China, have faculty and staff exchange partnerships with FHSU.

Both universities send faculty scholars to FHSU during the Spring semester and, in exchange, FHSU is invited to send 10 faculty or staff for about 2 weeks to each of the universities.

1. For NWUPL, FHSU has chosen the dates of May 18-31.

FHSU will provide for international airfare, single-occupancy hotel (Xi'an Ji Yuan International Hotel) immediately across the street from the NWUPL campus, and the cost of a China tourist visa. NWUPL will provide meals or stipends for meals, local transportation and entrance tickets for sightseeing. Terracotta Soldiers, Wild Goose Pagoda, and Shaanxi Museum are just a few of the cultural experiences faculty may enjoy. FHSU faculty and staff are responsible for delivering at least one presentation during the visit.

2. For NWMU, FHSU has chosen the dates of May 18-31 for Group 1 and May 23-June 7 for Group 2.

NWMU will provide for international airfare, lodging, meals, and local transportation. FHSU will provide for the cost of a China tourist visa. FHSU faculty and staff are responsible for delivering at least one presentation during the visit.

If you are possibly interested in applying for any of these 2-week educational and cultural experiences in Xi'an or Lanzhou, and would like more information please email hrwilliams@fhsu.edu or visit <https://www.fhsu.edu/globalpartnerships/resources>. The deadline for applications is October 31. Both NWUPL and NWMU will select 10 participants for each university. Once announced, FHSU's Office of Global Partnerships will hold additional meetings to assist with your preparation and travel.

Homecoming Survey Now Available

Veteran's Day Ceremony

There will be a Veteran's Day ceremony on November 11th at 11:11am in the Sunset Atrium of the Memorial Union. All are encouraged to attend.

Safe Trick or Treat

Hello everyone!

The Residence Hall Association (RHA)'s annual Safe Trick or Treat event is coming up on Tuesday, October 29, from 6-8pm in McMIndes Hall. We are currently seeking volunteers to be tour guides, who will lead groups of children (about 10 at a time) through McMIndes. This is an excellent opportunity to give back to your community and to have fun doing it!

If you have children please feel free to bring them to our annual event!!

What is Safe Trick or Treat?

Safe Trick or Treat is a night where elementary-aged children in the Hays area come to McMIndes to go trick-or-treating! Children will be led in groups up and down the halls to get candy from marked dorm rooms, and each floor's lounge will have an activity for the kids to participate in.

How do I get involved?

If you live on campus, you can sign up at the front desk of any Residence Hall! If not, please feel free to email RJ Schnack @ rschnack@fhsu.edu

Updated Campus Advertising Information

The Fort Hays Memorial Union is excited to announce the transition of Union and campus advertising from the office of Student Engagement to the Memorial Union administrative office UN 208. Per the campus posting policy, advertising is a free service available to registered student organizations and campus departments. Banners, t-stand posters, exterior signs, table tents and poster route posters may be dropped off and approved in UN 208. Quad chalking and yard signs may be reserved and approved at this location as well, though it is the group's responsibility to chalk or post the yard signs. Digital signage requests for the union monitors will continue to be handled through this office.

Please see the following links for additional information and campus posting policies.

Novels For Hope

Novels for Hope is a diversity book club which provides an opportunity to read and discuss 2-3 books a semester. Each book and discussion is free-standing, meaning signing up for one book/discussion does not require participation in others.

We will offer a free copy of the book to the first 30 on-campus participants. We work on an honor system and ask that you only sign up to receive a book if you can attend the discussion. The book discussion will be available for the first time via Zoom if those who are not on campus would like to participate in the discussion of this book.

Our second Novels for Hope Book is Just Mercy by Bryan Stevenson. The discussion will take place on November 19 from @3pm in Forsyth Library. To sign up, please visit the following link:

<https://tigerlink.fhsu.edu/submitter/form/start/352253>.

For questions please contact diversity@fhsu.edu

Open Textbook Grant Program (OTGP) Rolling Applications

Open Textbook Grant Program \(OTGP\) Rolling Applications

Through the Open Textbook Grant Program (OTGP), Forsyth Library and the Open Education Resources Committee offer grants of $500-$3,000 for faculty who want to create, adapt, or add supplementary materials to openly licensed textbooks. Applications are accepted on a rolling basis.

The OTGP provides an opportunity to reduce the cost of textbooks for students, to customize open textbooks to a course, and to apply an open pedagogy of teaching. All grant-funded materials will be made available through FHSU Scholars Repository, which helps increase the visibility of the adaptor or author and provides metrics for the work. Learn more about the grant program at <https://www.fhsu.edu/oer/otgp/index>

If you are interested in applying, please contact Claire Nickerson, Learning Initiatives & OER Librarian, at x4543 or cenickerson@fhsu.edu?subject=OTGP.

Save the Date: University Holiday Party and Service Awards Ceremony

University Holiday Party and Service Awards Ceremony

Friday, December 6, 2019; 3:30 p.m.

Fort Hays Ballroom, Memorial Union

Details regarding the event will follow.

12th Annual “Let Your Voice Be Heard!” Poster Competition and Exhibition

12th Annual “Let Your Voice Be Heard!” Poster Competition and Exhibition
Held in the Memorial Union on the Feature Wall
Voting is Monday, Oct. 28–Friday, Nov. 1.
Winners and all of the designers’ names will be revealed on Monday, Nov.4.

We are excited to showcase the 2019 posters from the 12th Annual "Let Your Voice Be Heard" History of Graphic Design and American Democracy Project Poster Competition, created by junior and senior graphic design students in Karrie Simpson Voth’s “History of Graphic Design” class. These posters are part of a project that is done each year to shed light on political and social issues that are happening in our state, country, and world. Its purpose is to create a component of civic engagement in our curriculum, as well as to use the students' design talents to express their own opinions. Please come out and vote for your favorite posters!

STEPS for Success Wellness Program

Did you know that water helps to maximize physical performance, prevents headaches, relieves constipation, improves brain function, prevents kidney stones, treats hangovers, and helps with weight loss?
<https://www.healthline.com/nutrition/7-health-benefits-of-water>. This week you are encouraged to track your water intake this week and see if you are meeting your personal goals. - Select Hays from the list of cities
- Select the Location/Date you want to attend

- A list of times will appear. Select the time that works best for your schedule.
- Answer a few simple questions and click Create Appointment

What is a Biometric Screening?

Knowing cholesterol or blood glucose values can help you identify serious risks and manage or prevent health problems before they occur. HealthQuest sponsors free biometric screenings at worksites statewide. Testing is conducted in 30 minutes or less using a simple finger stick. Results you will receive include:

- Total Cholesterol, HDL, LDL and total Cholesterol to HDL ratio
- Triglycerides and Glucose
- Systolic and Diastolic Blood Pressure
- Height, Weight, and Body Mass Index (BMI)
- Waist Circumference

Remember for best results to fast for a minimum of 9 hours prior to your appointment. Water, tea and black coffee (no cream or sugar) are okay. Take medications as usual also.

Who is Eligible to Participate?

- Benefits eligible State and Non-State employees who are enrolled in the state employee health plan or who have waived coverage in the plan
- Spouses who are enrolled in the medical portion State Employee Health Plan

MDC Workshop – First Impressions Matter: A Customer Service Workshop

Tuesday, November 19; 8:30am-12:00pm

Sternberg Museum, Engel Ed. Classroom

Customer service is an important part of your business strategy, no matter what industry you are in. This training will assist participants in implementing a service culture within their organization. The workshop will also help develop individual professional and personal aptitudes in the areas of customer service, telephone etiquette, communication/listening, written and email communication. Stick around after lunch to learn how to optimize your strategy in a world booming with technology in “Customer Service in the Digital Age” from 1 – 4:30 p.m.!

Please register by November 12.

Register for both “First Impressions Matter” and “Customer Service in a Digital Age” on Nov. 19 for a discounted price of $200!*

As FHSU faculty and staff, your registration fee is complimentary, thanks to your FHSU Vice President. Limited funding is available annually per division.

Entrepreneur Direct: Speaker Series

Tuesday, November 19; 12:00-1:15pm

The Robbins Center, Eagle Communications Hall

Please join us for our FREE event open to faculty, staff, students, and the public. A reception with appetizers and refreshments is included in the last half of the event. Entrepreneur Direct is a speaker series featuring successful entrepreneurs in an informal setting. The program is intended to connect students with experienced professionals who have stories and advice to share.

Our speaker is Carolina Recchi. She is a tech entrepreneur, COO and co-founder of EdSights. EdSights uses artificial intelligence to help universities increase graduation rates. Edsights works with universities all over the nation and recently secured $1 million in funding from Techstars, Rondo Ventures, and the Kauffman Foundation.

Carolina, along with her sister and co-founder Claudia, immigrated to the US from Italy to attend college. Carolina graduated from Babson College with a degree in international business. She is a 2018 Techstars accelerator program graduate. To date, her company has saved colleges $1.8 million in tuition revenue. Carolina is 25 years old.

This event is organized by the FHSU Center for Entrepreneurship. For more information, please visit:

MDC Workshop – Customer Service in the Digital Age

Tuesday, November 19; 1:00-4:30pm
Sternberg Museum, Engel Ed. Classroom

Face-to-face conversations and phone calls have been replaced with Facebook posts, tweets, snaps, and texts. Living in an immediate, technological, and informational age has an impact on your customer service strategy – don't let communication misunderstanding determine your customer's experience! In "Customer Service in the Digital Age", you will learn the latest trends in email, instant messaging, customer-service oriented websites, and social media posting. We'll also cover what to do when an angry customer posts a negative review or comment. The workshop will cover online customer service tools and application strategies for your business to implement, as well as discuss what kind of future trends to expect.

Please register by November 12.

Register for both "First Impressions Matter" and "Customer Service in a Digital Age" on Nov. 19 for a discounted price of $200!*

As FHSU faculty and staff, your registration fee is complimentary, thanks to your FHSU Vice President. Limited funding is available annually per division.
