Calendar: Upcoming Professional Development Opportunities

Check out upcoming professional development opportunities! The TILT TigerLearn event calendar is your go-to for professional development at FHSU! Check it out here: <http://tigerlearn.fhsu.edu/events/>.

To provide faculty and staff with one easy place to see all professional development at FHSU, we're happy to include your event on the TigerLearn calendar. We can include links to your registration site, contact persons for questions, etc. Just contact TILT-FacultyDev@fhsu.edu, and we'll add your event right away!

Academic Advising Certificates and Training

The Academic Advising and Career Exploration Center offers certificates for academic advisors each semester. The schedule for this fall is available below.

If you have attended sessions in the past and need to know which sessions you have left to receive your certificate, please email your name and department to advising@fhsu.edu for assistance.

NOTE: This is open to both faculty and staff. Please feel free to bring your lunch to the session.

RSVP: Please let us know if you are planning to attend by replying to advising@fhsu.edu. We will send you a calendar entry that you will need to “Accept and Send the Response Now”. This will allow us to have the appropriate room size and number of handouts. We look forward to seeing you at our sessions.

ADVISING SPECIAL POPULATIONS CERTIFICATE

This certificate will provide information on working with the diverse needs of our students. Whether you are currently advising students in the population or not, you will gain information that can assist you. Participants must attend each session to receive the certificate. The following are the dates for the spring sessions.

October 17, 2019, 12-1 PM Advising Special Populations-Student-Athletes

October 31, 2019, 12-1 PM Advising Special Populations-International Students

Homecoming Survey Now Available

Homecoming 2019 has officially come to a close, and we would love to hear your feedback! Please complete the following link and share with us what your Homecoming experience was like and provide us with feedback on how we can improve for next year. Thank you in advance for taking the time to complete this survey. Please click the link to complete this year's Homecoming survey: <https://baseline.campuslabs.com/fhsu/homecoming2019>.

Veteran's Day Ceremony

There will be a Veteran's Day ceremony on November 11th at 11:11am in the Sunset Atrium of the Memorial Union. All are encouraged to attend.

Novels For Hope

Novels for Hope is a diversity book club which provides an opportunity to read and discuss 2-3 books a semester. Each book and discussion is free-standing, meaning signing up for one book/discussion does not require participation in others.

We will offer a free copy of the book to the first 30 on-campus participants. We work on an honor system and ask that you only sign up to receive a book if you can attend the discussion. The book discussion will be available for the first time via Zoom if those who are not on campus would like to participate in the discussion of this book.

Our second Novels for Hope Book is Just Mercy by Bryan Stevenson. The discussion will take place on November 19 from @3pm in Forsyth Library. To sign up, please visit the following link:
<https://tigerlink.fhsu.edu/submitter/form/start/352253>.

Entrepreneur Direct: Speaker Series

Tuesday, November 19; 12:00-1:15pm

The Robbins Center, Eagle Communications Hall

Please join us for our FREE event open to faculty, staff, students, and the public. A reception with appetizers and refreshments is included in the last half of the event. Entrepreneur Direct is a speaker series featuring successful entrepreneurs in an informal setting. The program is intended to connect students with experienced professionals who have stories and advice to share.

Our speaker is Carolina Recchi. She is a tech entrepreneur, COO and co-founder of EdSights. EdSights uses artificial intelligence to help universities increase graduation rates. Edsights works with universities all over the nation and recently secured $1 million in funding from Techstars, Rondo Ventures, and the Kauffman Foundation.

Carolina, along with her sister and co-founder Claudia, immigrated to the US from Italy to attend college. Carolina graduated from Babson College with a degree in international business. She is a 2018 Techstars accelerator program graduate. To date, her company has saved colleges $1.8 million in tuition revenue. Carolina is 25 years old.

This event is organized by the FHSU Center for Entrepreneurship. For more information, please visit:

MDC Workshop – Customer Service in the Digital Age

Tuesday, November 19; 1:00-4:30pm

Sternberg Museum, Engel Ed. Classroom

Face-to-face conversations and phone calls have been replaced with Facebook posts, tweets, snaps, and texts. Living in an immediate, technological, and informational age has an impact on your customer service strategy – don't let communication misunderstanding determine your customer's experience! In "Customer Service in the Digital Age", you will learn the latest trends in email, instant messaging, customer-service oriented websites, and social media posting. We'll also cover what to do when an angry customer posts a negative review or comment. The workshop will cover online customer service tools and application strategies for your business to implement, as well as discuss what kind of future trends to expect.

Please register by November 12.

Register for both "First Impressions Matter" and "Customer Service in a Digital Age" on Nov. 19 for a discounted price of $200!*

As FHSU faculty and staff, your registration fee is complimentary, thanks to your FHSU Vice President. Limited funding is available annually per division.

30th Annual Fred P. Ruda Teaming Up for Tots

Saturday, December 7; 9:00am-1:00pm (come and go)
Center for Applied Technology

The Department of Applied Technology will host community volunteers to assemble approximately 200 wooden toys for children ages 2-6.

The program is designed to spread holiday cheer to local children who may not otherwise receive Christmas presents. All ages are welcome to volunteer for toy production, but children 12 and under must be accompanied by an adult. Jobs include sanding, running parts from station to station, putting on wheels, attaching parts, finishing and, for those who have experience, running some machine operations.

If you cannot volunteer the entire time – please come and go as it fits into your schedule. The event will be held in the Center for Applied Technology (wood shop).
No need to RSVP – just show up the day of the event.

Student-Senior Buddy Program

Tigers In Service would like to thank to everyone who let us know they were interested in the Senior Companion Program! We have been in contact with an administrator at Good Samaritan's Retirement Community and they would love to participate in this program with us. The first week of November we will have a Kick-off event where all participating students and residents will get together to meet for the first time. This will also be beneficial for students to get to know the facility and such. If you would like to participate in this program, please fill out the following form: https://docs.google.com/forms/d/e/1FAIpQLSeEA7L0pRzAq1FC83CvseXNmZC5iNWmIAQ0Tr7rSwrvwSmBQw/viewform?vc=0&c=0&w=1&usp=mail_form_link In this program, students will be matched with a resident of Good

Samaritan's and they will meet with the resident once every two weeks for an hour or two to provide company and do activities.

STUDENT ABSENCES

Student Absences: Livestock Genetics Field Trip

The following students will be absent from classes on Wednesday, November 6th for a field trip for their Livestock Genetics course. They will be going to Clay Center, Nebraska to hear educational presentations from leading animal geneticists in the U.S. at the Meat Animal Research Center, as well as tour their facilities. We will be leaving campus at 6:00 am and will return at approximately 7:00 pm. The students have been instructed to speak with each of their instructors about missed classes. I hope you will allow them to make up any coursework missed. Thank you.
