ANNOUNCEMENTS

COVID-19 Updates

The Office of Strategic Communications has developed a website with information regarding FHSU's response to the coronavirus pandemic. This includes FAQ's for faculty, staff, students and university stakeholders, a record of university updates, as well as recommendations and resources for health and wellness. Please see the website: <https://www.fhsu.edu/covid-19-response>

TILT Resources, Tips, and Support

As we discover new ways to connect and communicate with our students, hackers are looking for new ways to disrupt the process. Zoom-bombing, definitely something new in my vocabulary, refers to hackers 'breaking into' online meetings and streaming inappropriate content. The following link shows you how to set up a Zoom meeting with privacy settings to avoid this problem.

<https://youtu.be/XhZW3iyXV9U>

Here is a link to an article on Zoom-bombing: https://www.zdnet.com/article/how-to-prevent-your-zoom-meetings-being-zoom-bombed-gate-crashed-by-trolls/?fbclid=IwAR1AjQYExPMqHO768tYCg9AFUPy6SqHHao2ugicPehpXUOmz6Jz4t\_FMLlw

TILT continues to develop and share resources in support of remote course development and delivery. Please visit our webpage on teaching remotely <https://www.fhsu.edu/learningtechnologies/facilitating-class-remotely/>.

On that webpage we have provided links to all TILT member calendars so you can make appointments with each of us as necessary.

Earlier this week we introduced our short course on Remote Teaching and Learning. The focus of this short course is on providing you with tools and strategies for moving your courses online.

Thank you to everyone who has been sending questions and requests. Thank you also to faculty who are reaching out and volunteering to support those less comfortable with remote teaching.

More to come.

Assistant Provost

ADOBE Access

As a result of higher education campus closures, Adobe has provided TEMPORARY at-home access for all FHSU faculty/staff and students, so that they can continue their work remotely. However, employees and student employees are ALWAYS able to request a free PERMANENT license that can be used on personal devices as well through their duration of employment at FHSU. Instructions for Adobe are found here: www.fhsu.edu/technology/documents/accessing-adobe-creative-cloud.pdf

John Heinrichs Scholarly and Creative Activities Day UPDATE

In light of recent events, the SACAD committee would like to offer a simplified virtual platform for students, faculty, and staff to display and share their research and scholarly activity. We will continue accepting poster submissions and have extended the deadline to April 10th. Unfortunately, we have decided to suspend the oral presentations and art and creative works portions of the event. Below is a list of changes that are associated with the poster submissions:

- Posters will not be judged and therefore prizes will not be awarded.
- Posters will be available for viewing via a Google slide show on April 22nd. More details will follow.
- Door prizes will not be given out this year.

While we are saddened that the 15th annual SACAD event cannot happen in its full capacity, we are grateful that we can still offer an opportunity for you to share your hard work with the FHSU community. Those who have or were planning to submit an oral presentation are alternatively encouraged to submit a poster. Please let me know if you have any questions!

Poster submissions are still accepted at <https://fhsu.infoready4.com/#competitionDetail/1806323>. This announcement supersedes all details listed in the submission portal.

Student Employee Appreciation

To All Supervisors of Student Employees:

It's time to start planning . . . April 12-18 is National Student Employment Week, and the Student Employment Office encourages everyone to show their appreciation for all of the wonderful student employees we have here at Fort Hays State University. They are a very vital part of our organization and make many important contributions to our operation.

Please take some time during the week of April 12-18 to express your appreciation for our student employees' hard work and dedication. In light of our current working environment, we encourage you to show your appreciation to your students electronically. A few ideas: send them an email, e-card, or even a "Praise" in Microsoft Teams!

Please share this information with other supervisors in your area.

TILT Tip: Avoid Getting Hacked in Zoom Meetings

As Zoom usage has exploded with the COVID-19 virus, so too has hacking. A number of colleagues at other institutions have reported issues with their Zoom meetings with students. Check out this link, for some help in avoiding these issues: <https://zd.net/2JfEpk9>

As we move to remote teaching certain systems will, inevitably, start to be overwhelmed. Many of you are having Zoom meetings with your students and recording those videos. The recorded videos are automatically transferred to VidGrid where you can upload them to Blackboard. Unfortunately, Zoom's systems are running slowly and the recordings aren't being transferred in a timely way.

Here is a work around:

1. Change your Zoom meeting settings from 'Save to Cloud' to 'Save to Computer'
2. Drag and Drop the video to your VidGrid account
3. Use Mashups in Blackboard to give students access to your video

TILT continues to develop and share resources in support of remote course development and delivery. Please visit our webpage on teaching remotely <https://www.fhsu.edu/learningtechnologies/facilitating-class-remotely/>.

Academic Advising Training CANCELLED; Webinars Will Continue As Scheduled

The Academic Advising and Career Exploration Center offers certificates for academic advisors each semester.

In response to FHSU's COVID-19 response, the AACE Center has decided to cancel the Career Advising Certificate training sessions for the spring semester. The AACE Center believes that advisors play a significant role in the support of our students while they are transitioning during these unprecedented times.

The AACE Center remains committed to providing professional development to advisors. This summer trainings will resume with priority being the Advising Technology Certificate.

NACADA Webinars (delivery mode change)

The Academic Advising and Career Exploration Center and Office of Student Affairs will be providing access to the following webinars from NACADA: The Global Community for Academic Advising thanks to the generosity of the Office of Student Affairs.
