Dear Vic and Loretta,

What a great feeling to finally realize the reconstruction of the Plymouth School is underway. Thanks very much for your physical help on Saturday, as well as your great spirit. Any ideas on future work days would be appreciated. You know better than I what needs to be done, when, how, etc. I may locate some pallets to bring out, although so far I've not had much luck. I'll be in touch with you very soon, I hope.

Sincerely yours,

Allan
