MDC Spring SHRM Online Course

Online Course: SHRM Certification Online Prep Course

Course Dates: Feb. 8 – May 2, 2021

Price: $1200 (discounts available for FHSU Alumn, early registrations and students)

Instructor: Mr. Tom Zerfas

Do you know a student, acquaintance or co-worker who could benefit from a professional HR certification? If so, feel free to share this course with them!

The SHRM-CP & SCP certifications will allow you to be recognized as a qualified and valuable HR professional. The MDC's SHRM Certification Prep Course is designed to set up individuals in the HR field for future success by greatly increasing their chances of passing the SHRM-CP and SHRM-SCP exam to obtain these certifications. Participants will benefit from expert instruction, the SHRM Learning System—the official certification prep tool, and supplemental materials on FHSU's Learning Management System, Blackboard. The course concludes right before the next SHRM certification exam testing window, so you don't have to worry about forgetting what you just learned.

This course is structured as an asynchronous, independent study. Expert instruction and support will be available to all participants throughout the course by SHRM-certified instructor Mr. Tom Zervas. Students are eligible to receive 3 credit hours for this course, making it a great addition to their spring course schedule.

Register by January 29. Early registration ends January 18.

For more information on this course, visit the MDC's website or email us!

Directory Information Update

As promised, our Directory workgroup would like to provide the most up-to date information for the Spring 2021 semester.

Action items: Review all 3 areas of the paper directory – 1) Office Listings 2) Faculty & Staff Listings 3) Departmental Listings

If you have ANY updates or changes to these sections, please email the information to directory@fhsu.edu. DEADLINE is Friday January 15, 2021. We will create a NEW PDF that users may download and print for their use until the publication of our Fall 2021 paper directory (to be compiled August 2021.)

More user-friendly updates have been made to our online directory; this university webpage is now maintained by TigerTech. Please view the additional tabs of information and email all corrections to directory@fhsu.edu.

A reminder that the student, faculty, and staff online directory is available in TigerTracks and Tiger Central under password protection. This means anyone with a TigerNetID account can access the directory but it is no longer publicly available under the “Directory” tab on the University’s initial webpage. You can access the TigerNetID login by the “People” tab that has been added for your convenience.

MDC Workshop – Applying COVID-19 Science to Your Workplace & Lifestyle
Tuesday, January 12, February 16, March 16, and April 13; 3:00-5:00pm
Workshop held via Zoom

The MDC and the Center for Entrepreneurship are continuing to offer short virtual sessions about the critical knowledge of COVID-19 throughout the spring 2021!

These sessions cover the science COVID-19 including its origins, clinical signs and symptoms, risk factors, diagnosis, transmission, and the infectious period. The goal is for you leave informed, confident, and safer. During the 2-hour session, participants will complete the first 50 minutes of a 7-hour course on Covid-19 Contact Tracing offered by Johns Hopkins University, which can be completed to earn a certificate at no charge after the virtual session.

Both during the course between the video modules and after the course, the facilitators will lead a robust discussion driven by participant questions. One popular topic discussed is the risk-benefit mindset unique to each individual. Also covered are the public health impacts and the broader social and mental health implications of COVID-19 from the perspective of an Ellis County Health Department official.

Social Media Marketing

Thursday, January 28; 1:00-4:00pm

Location: FHSU Memorial Union - Black & Gold Room
Price: $119 (Hays Chamber & FHSU Alumni discount available)

Two of the biggest social media platforms today are Facebook and Instagram, and both are powerful marketing tools for organizations. And, yes, Facebook owns Instagram and it is easy to post on both platforms virtually at the same time. But, from a marketing standpoint, there's a lot more to it. The platforms have different audiences who expect different kinds of content at different times. And the ways to build your following and get engagement from your audiences vary across the platforms. In this interactive workshop, we will discuss some of the latest features each platform has to offer organizations, as well as how to develop and curate content, when to post, and how to get engagement on both Facebook and Instagram.

CliftonStrengths Essentials (Virtual)

Tuesday, February 2 and 3; 1:00-4:00pm (both days)

Location: Virtual

Price: $219 (Hays Chamber & FHSU Alumni discount available)

Is it best to spend time utilizing your strengths or is it more productive to work on your weaknesses? Gallup's Strengths theory claims people should spend the majority of their time doing what they do best; using their already existing natural talents to become more productive and profitable in the workplace and at home. In this workshop, we will explore your natural talents and how to turn those talents into strengths, while also learning how to recognize talents in others and utilize them for the success of the team. This workshop requires some pre-work. This workshop will be held via Zoom video conferencing

*A link to join the virtual Zoom sessions will be sent to you prior to the workshop

Applying COVID-19 Science to Your Workplace & Lifestyle

Tuesday, February 16, March 16, April 13; 3:00-5:00pm (all sessions)

Location: Virtual

Price: $35

Invest a mere 2 hours to become an informed leader in the community conversation about public health! This course kicks off with a 2-hour virtual learning and discussion session that guides you through the first 50 minutes of a 400-minute course offered by Johns Hopkins University. Topics covered include the most critical knowledge of Covid-19: its origins, clinical signs and symptoms, risk factors, diagnosis, transmission, and the infectious period. The 2-hour FHSU course is led by three local professionals and their combined knowledge on COVID-19 related topics. You will gain insights on COVID-19 best practices and get to participate in a Q & A session to leave informed, confident, and safer.

The FHSU introductory course serves as your primer to the full Johns Hopkins University course, and afterwards you will be able to finish that course on your own time for no additional cost. The comprehensive 400-minute course will teach you about mechanics, logistics, and challenges of contact tracing. Upon completion of the Johns Hopkins course, you will receive a document that you are a certified contact tracer which qualifies you for employment as a contact tracer with an official public health agency. Whether you complete the full Johns Hopkins University course or stop after the FHSU 2-hour course, you will be more equipped to make informed decisions to keep yourself, your coworkers, and your customers safer when doing business!

*A link to join the virtual Zoom sessions will be sent to you prior to the workshop.

CliftonStrengths Engaged (Virtual)

Wednesday, March 10 and 11; 9:00am-12:00pm

Location: Virtual

Price: $219 (Hays Chamber & FHSU Alumni discount available)

Do you want to take your understanding of your unique CliftonStrengths to the next level? CliftonStrengths Engaged takes participants' previous knowledge of their Top 5 to a deeper, more challenging, and more significant place. In this training, participants will gain access to their Full 34 report, which will enable us to continue to hone your Top 5 as well as exploring your Top 10 and working through the 'bottom 5'; the themes that we often misconceive as weaknesses. Armed with the Top 10 themes & awareness of the bottom 5, participants will spend the afternoon discovering how each person's unique strengths can be used to find partnerships that could benefit them at work and view co-workers in new and different ways through engaging team activities.

There is a pre-requisite to take this training. Please complete the MDC workshop, "CliftonStrengths Essentials" before signing up to take "CliftonStrengths Engaged."

Register/Learn more: <https://www.fhsu.edu/cob/mdc/CliftonStrengths%20Engaged/index>

Online training sessions are held via Zoom, a link to join will be sent to registrants prior to the event. If you have any questions or concerns about any of these events, contact the MDC at mdc@fhsu.edu or (785) 628-4124.

2021 Kansas Undergraduate Research Day- Abstract Submission Open

We are now accepting 250-word abstracts for the 2021 Kansas Undergraduate Research Day at the Capitol. This event is an opportunity for undergraduate students to present their research experiences with state lawmakers in Topeka scheduled for Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday, March 2, 3 & 4, 2020. Due to COVID restrictions, this event will be virtual this year.

DEADLINE FOR ABSTRACTS: Monday, January 25, 2021

This event will showcase the work of up to 40 Kansas undergraduate students representing each of the state's eight public 4-year institutions. The purpose of this event is to demonstrate the unique opportunities undergraduate students have to participate with faculty members in research at all state institutions. This event will also emphasize higher education's role in developing educated citizens and preparing a workforce with the necessary skills to further the economic growth of the state.

Undergraduate students who have been significantly involved in the research enterprise of the university either with their own project or through meaningful involvement with a faculty project are desired as participants. To qualify for this event, participants must:

- be undergraduates during the 2020-2021 academic year;
- have completed research under the guidance of a Kansas 4-year public institution faculty mentor;
- follow the methodology of the appropriate academic discipline;
- be of sufficient quality to be presented at a professional academic meeting;
- have the skills, resources, and capacity to produce a professional academic poster;
- agree to undergo presentation training and rehearse their presentations prior to the Capitol event.

Participants should be able to convey their experience and enthusiasm to state representatives, senators, and other state officials in a poster session. Projects from a broad range of disciplines are encouraged - especially posters that relate to the state of Kansas and issues important to the state legislature (e.g. education, health, agriculture, aviation, biotechnology, energy, transportation, manufacturing, environment, and social services). Up to 5 projects will be selected from each institution.
