Abstract

Miss Ernestine Fields was born in Hays, Kansas and lived in Hays until she was five. She was born on December 14 [1989?]. She was the cousin of Clara Malloy and attended Fort Hays Kansas Normal School. Miss Fields graduated from Fort Hays Kansas Normal School in 1917 with a certificate in piano and organ theory. In 1918 she graduated from the American Conservatory of Music in Chicago after studying piano with Allen Spencer and orchestration with Arthur Olaf Anderson. Miss Fields taught music at several different schools including Synodical College in Fulton, Missouri where she taught in the piano and organ department and at Winthrop College in Rock Hill, South Carolina. She also did many recitals around Hays at the local churches and at the college.

Scope and Content

This collection contains newspaper articles about Ernestine Fields, Clara Malloy, and Henry Edward Malloy. Also contains old recital programs and programs of Ernestine's graduation from Fort Hays State Normal School and the American Conservatory of Music in Chicago. There are folders of some of Miss Fields' classwork from Fort Hays State Normal School, as well. In addition, there are correspondence of Ernestine Fields regarding Clara Malloy's will. Lastly, there are old photographs of Ernestine, photographs around Hays of flooding and the old buildings, and photos of Clara Malloy.
